The big news from Circle 8 this week is that tickets are now on sale for the Big Jamboree. This is to be held on April 14, a Thursday, in the Vermilion Armories. Callers will include Harold Schacher and Henry Lien from Bawlf, Doug McColl from Alix and Gordon Moe from Ponoka. These four are among the best of the Central Alberta Callers Association.

Regular square dance admission will be charged. The club executive have decided that all net proceeds from sale of tickets will be divided between the Easter Seal fund and the local Company of the Loyal Edmonton Regiment.

So — get your tickets early, either from President Ted Koehli at the Nelson-Hill hardware or from the secretary Ken Greenwood at the Alberta Pacific elevator.

Quite a large number of Circle Eight members attended the regular club dance at Mannville last Friday when Henry Lien did the calling. Local club members always enjoy themselves at Mannville and in turn certainly enjoy having the Mannville dancers to the local dances so regularly. Everyone is looking forward to the next dance at Mannville when Harold Schacher will be calling in the grand new school auditorium.

Some of the Circle Eight members attended a dance at Irma last week. Sounds as if they had a good time, as most square dancers do wherever they go.

The next dance here will be in the Legion hall on Thursday, March 10th. SQUARE UP.

Real winter descended on this portion of Alberta on Tuesday following very mild days on Sunday and Monday. Tuesday was cold with a wind, Wednesday just plain cold and Thursday still cold. Wednesday morning's 32 below was the lowest temperature of the present winter.

Local Midgets Win From Mannville

Vermilion Midgets overcame a one-goal deficit in the third to go on and win a 6-4 decision from Mannville boys last Saturday night at the arena. The game was a good one with each team being out in front at various times during the three sessions. These games are well worth watching and a little publicity would go a long way towards attracting a crowd to the arena.

Coyote Hunting By Plane Great Fun

Monte Hunter enjoyed the thrill of hunting coyotes in an airplane recently. Pilot Christoffer from Swift Current, an experienced airplane coyote hunter stopped over here and took Monte up to do the shooting. They travelled over the Islay district and chased down the first coyotes, Monte making two quick kills. However the sudden banking and swerving of the plane as it follows the animals in their devious flight proved a little too much for the marksman's stomach but it's great fun if you can take it, says Monte.

The World of Wheat

By W. G. MALAHER, Director, Research Department, Searle Grain Co. Ltd.

WHITE FLOUR OR WHOLE WHEAT FLOUR?

The controversy in Britain regarding so-called "white flour" and "whole wheat flour" took a new turn recently with the appearance of a report issued by the British Medical Research Council. This report, which is regarded as of great importance, is concerned with special trials made on undernourished children in Germany after the war. The object of these experiments was to determine the relative nutritional values of different types of bread. It was shown that growth and development, over a period of a year, of children between 5 and 15 years of age, was the same whether the children received whole wheat flour, 85% extraction flour (the war time flour in Gt. Britain), 70% extraction flour (white flour) or the 'white' flour enriched by B vitamins and iron. Children in two groups were chosen for the test. In one, most of the food energy came from bread and vegetables, and in the other, bread supplied about a third of daily food energy intake, with fat and sugar supplying another third. The results were the same in each instance.

Whilst the authors of the report suggest that caution must be exercised in drawing conclusions, two important facts seem to have emerged, namely, that wheat, in any of the forms in which it is customarily consumed, by man, has a high nutritive value, and that undernourished children can, apparently, thrive fully as well on white bread as on wholemeal. These findings should be of particular interest to Canada, vitally concerned as this country is, with the export of wheat and wheat flour.

LOCAL NEWS

RETURNS TO ENGLAND

Miss Martha Rhodes who has spent the past eight months visiting at the home of her sister Mrs. J. V. Kneale, sailed from St. John on Wednesday en route to her home at Wakefield, Yorkshire England. While here Miss Rhodes also visited her brother Mr. Healy Rhodes in Edmonton. During her stay in Canada she travelled from coast to coast visiting in Vancouver. On her recent trip east she spent some time in Toronto and at Niagara.

Charles Earp of the Boiler Inspections Branch, Government of Alberta, left on Monday morning for Grande Prairie, to which point he has been transferred. Charlie lived here at one other time in his life, returned for a year or so again in his present capacity and his many friends hoped that he was here to stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Pilkie spent a short time here on Sunday, [illegible] for supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Manyluk. They had come from Edmonton to visit Mrs. Pilkie's mother Mrs. Fulton of Minburn who is a patient in Mannville hospital. Mrs. Fulton who is 74 years of age, while in Vermilion some four weeks ago, slipped on some ice while crossing the lane between the Boston and Craig's and suffered a broken hip. She is recovering well from the accident. Friends will be interested to hear that Bill and Bert have just returned from spending a month in Trinidad which is a small British possession off the north coast of South America. While there they visited the former Kathleen Pilkie now a doctor's wife whose home is in Trinidad. Kathleen lived in Vermilion when a small girl.

John Stewart was home from Varsity over the week end returning to the city Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pilkie.

APPRECIATION

Having been crowned Queen of the Islay school carnival, I wish to thank the many supporters at Kitscoty, Islay and Vermilion who voted for me. Thanks to each and everyone.

Charlotte Wilkinson, Islay.

After living here ever since the installation of the Dept. of Transport Radio Beam station, Mr and Mrs. Doug Matheson and the two children have been transferred to Ft St. John in northern B.C. They plan to motor north early in March. Apparently the Dept. of Transport now requires their engineers to put in a period of time at northern weather stations. Their many friends here sincerely regret their departure.

Mrs. Mac Simonson is visiting in Edmonton this week.

A note from Mr. Ray Hutchinson who now resides at 10312-78 St., Edmonton, informs the Standard that his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Steenson are in Vancouver at present and on March 1 leave for Japan as missionaries. Ray's many friends here will be glad to learn that his health is much improved following his operation of last summer, and he sends greetings to old acquaintances in town and district.

Ed Larson of Ponoka is visiting here this week and is curling with brother Gordon in the Vermilion spiel.

Mr and Mrs. Dennis Carson (nee Eleanor-Jean Goodwin) of Calgary, arrived last week end to visit the family here. Mr. Carson returned to Calgary on Sunday night with Eleanor-Jean remaining for a longer visit. Mr. and Mrs. Carson were accompanied by Mr. Bill Goodwin and little 3-year-old daughter Audrey from Bow Valley. Bill returned south but Audrey remained. Another visitor at the Goodwin home for the week end was son Jim.

The following spiritual offerings were omitted from the obituary of the late Mr John MacMillan: Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLaughlin; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Donaghy; Mr and Mrs. Eddie McLaughlin, Mannville.

WMS and CGIT Unite At Affiliation Service

The W.M.S. of the United church and the C.G.I.T. met in the church hall Monday Feb. 14 for their affiliation service. Activities started with a St. Valentine's party at 3:30 and the C.G.I.T. and their leaders given a hearty welcome by Mrs. Barr, President of the W.M.S.

Following the delicious meal the girls put on a short program of skits and songs. Each of the four C.G.I.T. groups gave items in turn. They then presented the W. M. S. with a parcel of baby clothes and two quilts with the request that they be sent to Korea.

All then went to the church where a regular service of hymns, prayers and scripture readings was held, conducted by the W.M.S. ladies. 62 in all were present.

The affiliation service was then conducted by Mrs. West and Mrs. Barr. Mrs. Barr presented the girls with their badges.

The speaker for the evening was Miss McDonald, a missionary recently returned from Korea. Her address was illustrated very interesting slides. The Korean people need all the help that we can give them in the way of clothes, food and money, but above all they need our continued prayers.

The regular W.M.S. meeting was then continued with reports from delegates to the Presbyterial at Lloydminster. Mrs. Carroll and Mrs. Barr. A hearty vote of thanks was passed to them and the meeting then closed with the Mispah.

Complete list of winners in the two events were as follows:

Babies Spell Buying

According to its most recent count, the Bureau of Statistics finds that more and more Canadian families have children living at home. The number of families with children increased by $1,000 between June 1953 and June 1954 and it seems likely that the process is continuing, since the first estimate of the 1954 birth rate shows an increase to 28.8 per thousand from 28.3 the year before.

Any parent is aware, points out The Financial Post, that the advent of a new baby sets off a chain of unfilled wants that stretches almost to infinity. Judging by current statistics, it looks as if Canadian sales managers will continue to have powerful allies in their struggle to sell more goods to Canadian consumers.

Kitscoty High School Notes

Well, folks, K. H. S. has been rather an uneventful place lately. Nothing except the weather chilled the marrow of our bones and even that let up. The Kitscoty men's team defeated the High school team by an unmentionable score of something around 10-0.

Because of the warm weather curling has taken a back seat lately. The ice is more slush than anything else.

Last week a scarlet fever case broke in the dorm and rumors of various quarantines appeared, but down All inmates were sent home finally the boys' dorm was shut for a week including the math and science teacher Mr. Horsley. To date one more case has appeared. Best wishes for a quick recovery to Myrtle Hunt and Nancy Jacobson.

This coming week end is being viewed as a last chance for ticket sellers on the Carnival Queen candidates since the carnival is next Friday. Here's hoping the best queen wins!

Retiring President Reviews Board Of Trade Activities For 1954

The Roads committee under the chairmanship of Mr. E. M. Stewart. In a very short time arranged a conference of representatives of the Boards of Trade of the towns on Highway 41, between Consort and Cold Lake, to promote the continuation of Highway 41 south to Medicine Hat. This conference was met at Wainwright, appointed a committee of all the bodies represented there, called the Highway 41 extension committee ,to continue with efforts to promote this extension. The Board appointed Mr. Stewart as its representative on this committee

On Jan. 18 a delegation, representing the Conference and numbering 20, attended the Hon. Mr. Gordon Taylor, Minister of Highways, in Edmonton, and presented a printed brief to the Minister urging the continuation of this Highway. The delegation was very favorably received and the Minister stated that the completion of highway 41 south was definitely in Government plans. The appointment with the Minister was arranged by Mr. Cornish and I wish to extend to Mr. Cornish the appreciation of the Board of Trade for his efforts in this behalf.

To further and help in the work of the Board the Town of Vermilion made a grant in 1954 to the Board of $800 I wish to take this opportunity to thank the Town Council on behalf of the Board for this grant.

One of the highlights of last year was the official opening of the Vermilion park on June 30. The Board appointed a special committee in charge of this opening, consisting of Dr. A. Ben King, chairman, Mr. Hing S. C. Heckbert, Mr Geo. Webb and Mr Ross Boake. This was a most successful event. The day was perfect and a large number of people, some from a considerable distance, attended the opening. The Board is most appreciative of the excellent program arranged by the committee and Cold Lake, to promote the continuation of Highway 41 south to Medicine Hat. This conference was met at Wainwright, appointed a committee of all the bodies represented there, called the Highway 41 extension committee ,to continue with efforts to promote this extension. ## F. U. A. DROPS MAJORITY

EDMONTON. — Realization of an 83-year-old objective to enroll a clear majority of working farm families in one provincial union, was announced from Farmers' Union of Alberta headquarters during the week end.

According to Waldo D. Summers, who promoted the one-day "Roundup" campaign, mopup operations have resulted in the F.U.A. achieving the long-sought-after goal. The objective was reached Feb. 15, he said. The figures, from which returns from the B.C. Block were excluded, showed there were 39,202 persons in membership as at Feb. 15. Of this total 38,202 were farm operators, a margin of over 1000 over the halfway mark.

Alberta now is said to have the distinction of having the first and only non-commercial farm body in Canada to surpass the 50% figure in annually paid memberships. In the States, only North Dakota has so far achieved a majority signup of resident farmers. Mr. Summers stated.

Many FUA locals are considering plans to make Farmers Holiday, held annually on the second Friday in June, a redletter occasion this year. Some members are thinking of celebrating both Alberta's Jubilee year and their own organizational success on the same day, it was said.

NURSES ASSOC. MEETING

The regular meeting of the Registered Nurses Assoc will be held on Monday Feb. 28 at the home of Mrs. S. Soldan at 8 p.m.

Assembling in Victoria Park, Calgary, on Aug 14, the Contingent will leave by special train for the Jamboree the following day, and will return home Aug. 31.

BIG TAXPAYERS

The Canadian auto industry in 1954 reports The Financial Post, paid $120 millions in excise and sales tax to the Federal Government. About 82% of this was in excise tax.

Increased Aid For Education, Health, Public Works Promised

EDMONTON. — There were no real surprises in the Speech from the Throne read by Hon. J. J. Bowlen, lieutenant-governor of Alberta last week at opening ceremonies of the third session of the 12th Alberta legislature.

From the time he entered the front door of the legislative buildings, inspected a Canadian navy guard of honor, walked with Premier Manning to the assembly chamber and read the speech, less than an hour elapsed.

An outline of some of the legislation the government proposes to introduce in coming weeks of the session, the throne speech contained plans to increase aid to education, public health and new homesteaders and pour more money into public health, highways and public works.

Absence of any mention of farm marketing legislation was conspicuous to those who fully expected it to be brought up at this session. However, it still may be introduced as it is understood considerable time is being devoted to it behind the closed doors of the Social Credit members' caucuses.

In connection with homesteading, the throne speech noted continued heavy demand for homestead lands and the government, to encourage further development, plans to provide loans to help pay costs of land clearing and breaking. The loans will be brought about by amendments to the Public Lands Act.

SCHOOL AID

Taxpayers should feel direct effects of proposed major increases to grants made to school boards for operations expenses. A major portion of the increase is to be earmarked for school tax reduction subsidies.

The government also plans to increase the capital grants made for new school construction and the indication is a fund, similar to the revolving funds now existing for municipal and rural electrification borrowings, will be established for school board borrowings.

This apparently is the government's answer this year to the municipalities' requests for more financial aid. They had requested the doubling of unconditional grants under the Municipal Assistance Act but no mention is made of increases to the grants.

DISTRICT HIGHWAYS AND LOCAL ROADS

As suggested earlier by Highways Minister Gordon E. Taylor, money will be made available to municipalities and local improvement districts on the basis of need for financing district highways and local roads.

The government's official announcement of plans to enter a voluntary prepaid medical services insurance scheme is contained in a three-line paragraph, and expansion and explanation of how this will take place probably will be given later by Health Minister Dr. W. W. Cross.

Unofficial reports indicate the government will enter an agreement with Medical Services (Alberta) Incorporated under which provincial funds will be used to subsidize premiums issued to Albertans by the private, non-profit organization.

It had been expected the government would bring in legislation to correct difficulties in the registering of land titles, particularly with reference to mineral rights. The throne speech says the matter still is being studied and interim legislation, "to protect the equities of interested parties," will be introduced.

After the opening-day formalities the legislature moved into consideration of the throne speech. The second day saw J. E. Clark, SC-Stettler, move the reply to the speech, and Lee Leavitt, SC-Banff-Cochrane, second it, in speeches supporting government's planned program of legislation.

Opposition members were to begin summing up their feelings this week, with J. H. Prowse, Liberal, Edmonton, leader of the opposition, leading off the first of the week.

As in the past few years, it appears the major items of the session will involve the spending of revenues the government is reaping from natural resources.

PARADISE VALLEY NEWS

The Kitscoty Entertainers under the leadership of Mrs. Elsie Batty presented a musical concert "Sailing, Sailing" in the P. V. Memorial hall on Friday evening Feb. 18. This evening was sponsored by the P.V.W.A. of the United church. They were greeted by a good house and the concert was much enjoyed by all.

We regret to hear that Mr. R. Smith has had to go back to the Lloydminster hospital for further treatment. Mr Charles Bennett and Mrs. O. Fulgham are still patients in the hospital.

The annual meeting of the Paradise Valley School District was held on Thursday afternoon. A new system was started re the election of trustees. The new regulations call for a trustee from each school district within the P.V.S.D. As a result of this the following were elected: Messrs. Paul Owen, Lawrence Teasdale, Francis Wiley, Chris Oester, F. S. Flint Jr., Edward Sunderland and W. P. Davidson. Mr. Davidson is chairman and E. Sunderland, secretary. Mr. Allan Weeks of McLaughlin is the new trustee for this Division.

Congratulations to the students of the P V school on their recent edition of the P V.H.S. 'Pacemaker'. The work entailed must have meant a lot of hard work and co-operative effort. A six-page copy with a lot of very interesting news and well supported by advertising from Paradise and McLaughlin all goes to make a copy of which they may be justly proud.

The weather? Well, we had it cold, windy and lovely and mild, all in the course of a few days. At the moment it can't be beat. It is hard though to keep up with changes as they come so suddenly.

UNDERWEIGHT AND ITS DANGERS

Anyone 20 per cent or more below his ideal weight is considered underweight. Definite underweight is not desirable in young people who are still growing. It may be a symptom of disease. The glandular disorders so often erroneously blamed [illegible] overweight are much more likely to show themselves in loss of weight or inability to gain. Even when there is nothing wrong, people whose weight is too far below normal are more likely to suffer from fatigue and [illegible] physical endurance. Resistance to infection is often [illegible]. Tuberculosis strikes more often among adolescents and young people who are underweight than it does among those whose weight is closer to what it should be.

WHAT CAUSES UNDERWEIGHT?

Certain diseases and glandular disorders can cause underweight. In healthy people, however, underweight comes from eating too little, from poor eating habits, from overactivity or too little rest and from worry or prolonged tension.

Many people eat too little for much the same reasons which make others eat too much. Habit frequently plays a part. Meals are irregular in some families, sometimes poorly prepared, and eating is considered the last important of the day's activities. It is not surprising if the children from such families grow up with an indifferent attitude toward food.

Emotions may also play a part. The feeling of being unloved, dissatisfaction with personal relationships, discontent over job, money or social restrictions, and other reasons of this kind cause some people to react with indifference to eating just as they cause others to overeat. Keen rivalry, a wish to take part in everything, or too great an absorption in school or social activities sometimes cause overactivity and underweight among adolescents.

HOW TO GAIN WEIGHT

As in overweight, the fist step is to see a physician and have a thorough physical examination. It is important to find and correct anything which may be wrong. Efforts to gain may be useless unless this is done.

The same principles apply to gaining weight as to losing it, but in reverse. Underweight people must take in more calories than they use, so that there will be some left over to store fat.

Will power can be as great a factor in gaining weight successfully as it is in losing, particularly for people who do not like many of the essential foods. They must learn to say 'yes' to enough of the right foods, regardless of their wishes, just as firmly as their fat friends need to say 'no' to forbidden extras.

As in overweight, it is important first to include the essential foods in the day's meals. These foods are necessary for maximum health, whether a person's weight is too high, too low, or just right. Some underweight individuals whose food choices have been poor may find that they are able to gain merely by making sure that they include these foods in their diet. Others need to study ways to add extra calories.

SAVING ENERGY

The body uses fewer calories at rest than when active, and least of all during sleep. Therefore, any extra sleep or rest which an underweight persons gets will help him to gain. Whatever energy can be saved during waking hours by riding instead of walking, sitting instead of standing, and relaxing as often as possible will add to the calories saved.

A healthy person who decides to gain weight and who sticks to his program of taking in more calories than he needs, and of spending as few as possible in needless physical activity, can be sure that sooner or later his efforts will meet with success.

HELPFUL HINTS

1. Eat regular meals at regular times. Omitting a meal, particularly breakfast, is a strain on the body and a major cause of fatigue.
2. Never eat when emotionally upset or overtired. Relax or rest first.
3. Highly seasoned foods stimulate the appetite.
4. Clear tea, coffee or bouillon have no caloric values and may be freely used when reducing. Take thick soups to gain weight.

WOODVALE NOTES

We forgot to mention in our last report that it was decided at the general meeting of the Woodvale Mutual Telephone Co. to have one very long ring as a general alarm.

The Valentine school party was just held for the children in school with no invitations as was first planned, due to sickness of almost half the pupils. They are returning to classes now after bouts with flu, measles and chicken pox.

Mrs. Grace Young and small son were taken to the Islay hospital this week with a severe case of flu and found on arrival there Mrs. R. Hind of Kitscoty, a former neighbor.

Freddy McGrath spent a few days in the hospital there too, receiving treatments for a near case of pneumonia. We hope everyone will soon be well again and able to enjoy the lovely (at time of writing) weather.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. G. Martin on the birth of a son. This is Mrs. Watson's 5th grandchild and a real big boy too, 9 pounds.

Ernie Isley is home this week; the Kitscoty dormitory is closed because of a few cases of scarlet fever.

Some of the Tolland F.U.A. members are going ahead with plans for putting on a play, they hope to get their parts soon and start rehearsals.

The road to the Woodvale Community centre is still open and the Monday card parties are being held regularly with very good attendance.

Mr. Hohol was kind enough to clean the ice for the children over the week end. Now they can enjoy some more skating during recess.

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

UNEMPLOYED?

I started out in life about the time of the big depression, so I know how sensitive a man can be about unemployment. The fellow out of a job or afraid of losing one isn't receptive to glib advice.

But I do want to pass along some words that stuck with me when the going was tough. I heard the words as a youngster but I've never forgotten them.

I was in my father's shop one summer afternoon when Art Blakely came in looking pretty blue. "Bill", he said to my father, "what in blazes am I going to do? I'm a good worker -- but nobody can afford to hire me."

My father wasn't a man to give off-hand advice. "Are you willing, Art, to turn your hand to anything? Or does it have to be a job in your own line?"

Art thought that over. "I've been a mechanic all my life, Billy. It's what I know best."

"That makes it hard," my father said. "Folks hate to offer a mechanic a job at anything else afraid they'll insult him."

"If it was you, Billy - what would you do?"

"Well first I'd put in a ten-hour day hunting for a job in my own line. Like you, I'd not want to change my line if I could help it. But I wouldn't sit around sucking my thumb and worrying either, if I could help it. I'd work as hard at finding a job as I do when I have one."

"I'm not much good at job hunting," Art said. "Hate having people tell me they don't want me."

"That isn't common sense, Art, and you know it. It isn't that they don't want you — they just don't have a job there. You keep asking until you find a place where there is a job — work a 10-hour day at hunting."

"I'll do that, Billy. I'll start doing that all right."

"Then", said my father, shaking his head, "though it might hurt — you better make up your mind to tell folks you will work at any decent job, if you can get something in your own line soon. You've always been a good worker, Art, and that's on your side. John Davidson needs a hand these days, but he couldn't pay you mechanic's wages. He'd hate offering you ordinary pay — but if you told him your situation, he'd grab you pretty quick."

Art Blakely left my father's shop with his chin up. He was working within two weeks — at a mechanic's job, too. The man who is willing to put in a 10-hour day job-hunting is very likely to find a job, either in his own line or one related to it. Remembering those words has always given me a feeling of security. Hope it helps you, too.

200 Farmers and Wives In Attendance

Alberta's Minister Of Agriculture Addresses Farmers' Course

The Agricultural Short Course sponsored by the Vermilion Agricultural Society and the Provincial Department of Agriculture got off to a good start on Tuesday afternoon with some 200 farmers and their wives in attendance.

The program opened with President E. M. Stewart of the Agricultural Society as chairman. Greetings and welcoming remarks were addressed to the gathering by Deputy Mayor G. W. Sutherland, speaking for the Town of Vermilion and Principal N. N. Bentley for the school of agriculture where the meeting was held.

Tuesday's program featured Field Crops with Dr. R. F. Peterson of the Dominion Rust Research Laboratory in Winnipeg discussing cereal crop diseases with special reference to the 1954 rust epidemic and Dr. C. F. Bentley from the University of Alberta advising on the use of fertilizers in this area of the province.

Dr. Peterson provided information about the nature of rust as a crop disease and quoted specific weather data to explain the abnormal features of the 1954 season which favored the spread of rust to north-western Saskatchewan and north-eastern Alberta. He expressed the opinion of scientists who have studied this problem most intensively that there is only a remote possibility of a similarly damaging epidemic again this year.

Dr. Bentley described the extensive field testing studies conducted by the University and the experimental stations which indicate very clearly that commercial fertilizers offer excellent possibilities for farmers to obtain considerable profits by following recommendations published by the Alberta Fertilizer Advisory committee in the bulletin entitled "The Use of Fertilizers in Alberta". This publication is available from the office of the District Agriculturist.

During the intermission between Dr. Peterson's and Dr. Bentley's addresses the gathering was addressed by the Hon. L. C. Halmrast, Minister of Agriculture, who was introduced by the Minister of Education, the Hon. A. O. Aalborg. Both ministers brought greetings from the government and congratulated the Agricultural Society for having arranged the short course, which was obviously proving popular and instructive. Mr. Halmrast urged farmers to lose no opportunity to keep up to date and to progress with developments that have featured the agricultural growth of the province.

The ladies' program which was held concurrently with the men's included several topics each of which proved interesting and instructive. Mrs. E. M. Stewart was chairman for the Tuesday sessions when Mr. L. H. Arnold spoke on the subject of "Freezing Fruits and Vegetables". His topics and answers given during the extensive question and answer period provided a wealth of practical information for everyone interested in home and locker plant freezers. Miss June Kirk, District Home Economist for this area, discussed the challenging subject of Efficient Homemaking.

The short course program extended over Wednesday and Thursday as well and more detailed reports of the later sessions will appear in next week's Standard.

Third Period Splurge Spells Defeat for Tigers

Gas Kings Win 8 to 4

Viking Gas Kings won the third game of the best of five semi-final play-offs here on Wednesday evening and this put them two games in front of the Tigers in the series. The final score of what was a very good game was 8-4 but the third period started with the count tied at 4-all and it was only in the last period that the powerful Kings were able to open any gap over the hard working Tigers.

The first game was a 4-all overtime tie, the second and third were Viking victories 6-4, and 8-4. The fourth game will be played here on Saturday night commencing at 8:30.

Bill Williams started the Tigers off on the right foot by opening the scoring with a ricochetted shot at 7:39 of the first. Before the period ended Strate converted a pass from Bjork at 16:04 and Rurka scored from Strate at 17:34.

Early in the second the whole Vermilion line figured in a goal which tied the score at 2-all, Chryzanowksi from Sherban and Footz. Viking scored two fast ones, Lefarud from Rurka, Strate from Bjork. Cooper converted Bill Novak's pass to put the Tigers back in the game, and then to tie it all up again Les Williams banged in Stew Cooper's pass to make it 4-4 at the end of the second.

Tom Dunnigan ran wild in a scoring way in the third notching three goals, all of them unassisted while Bjork made a break-away while his team was short-handed and scored, making the final count 8-4.

It was for the most part a clean, fast game. Bill Schmidt however caught a high elbow on his mouth in a corner tussle in the third and Elmer Kreller was the victim of a nasty trip in the second which the referees ignored completely. Tigers were penalized once, the Gas Kings five times. Messmer, the big bad boy of the league, having spent nearly an hour in all in the penalty box during the course of league play, got the nod three times and John Dunnigan twice. Bill Novak received the Tiger penalty for interference.

Harrison and Haxby refereed.

Town Organizations To Compete At Inter-Club 'Spiel

The Knights of Columbus are sponsoring a Good-Will inter-club bonspiel on Sunday, March 6. Two rinks are entering from each of the following clubs or lodges, the Kinsmen, Elks, Masons, Legion, the Knights of Columbus and the Reserve Army.

Draws will be at 12 noon, 2 and 4 o'clock. Following the final draw a banquet will be held in the Holy Name parish hall at which time the trophy will be presented to the winning rink.

Anyone wishing to attend the banquet may obtain tickets from members of the Knights of Columbus at $1.25 each.

Many High Schools To Compete In 'Spiel Saturday

Vermilion high school students are enthusiastic about the bonspiel which they plan to hold on Saturday March 5th. 29 rinks will compete for prizes donated by local merchants. Entries have been received from high schools at Islay, St. Paul, Marwayne, Kitscoty, Paradise Valley, Dewberry and possibly Clandonald. This is the first bonspiel of this type to be sponsored by the V.H.S.

All plans have been made for the bonspiel under the supervision of Mr. L. Dowling. The students greatly appreciate the support they are receiving from members of the community for this project.

Free lunch will be served at the rink at 5:30 p.m. to all the curlers.

Parents are invited to attend some time during the day long event.

Enjoyable Event Is Held Here On Sunday

Elks Inaugurate Annual Bonspiel

As a step towards promoting still more good fellowship and inter-lodge visitations, Vermilion Lodge B.P.O.E. have instituted an annual one-day bonspiel, open to all Elk Lodges in this district No. 10. Furthermore the Vermilion Lodge have donated a very fine trophy for competition each year.

The first annual Elks bonspiel was played here on Sunday with representatives from lodges at Irma, Marwayne, Viking, Lloydminster, Wainwright, Myrnam and Vermilion. Only two lodges were unable to send representative rinks, Vegreville and Two Hills.

For the actual curling the 16 rinks competing were drawn in four squares and each square played a round robin meaning that each played three games. The winner was the rink with three victories at the same time compiling the lowest total score. At the end of the day's play it was found that two rinks of local Elks had won all three of their games, the one skipped by Gordon Ross had 22 points while second in the running was Skip Mac Simonsen with 24 points. The Gordon Ross rink with Vic Tillett, Jack Hessam and Lou Geigle thus hold the handsome trophy until the Elks bonspiel at this time next year.

Following the conclusion of the last draw all the participants in the spiel moved on to the Elks hall where a sumptuous banquet was awaiting them, cooked and served by the ladies of the Royal Purple. It was a delicious and bountiful meal, well served and really appreciated by some 70 hungry men.

Aldous Kent, Exalted Ruler of the Vermilion Lodge, as toastmaster, extended a very warm welcome to all the visitors. He then explained the plan behind the one-day bonspiel, an idea to promote more visiting and sociability between Elk Lodges. The plan was thought of and carried out here chiefly through the initiative of Marshall Jackson and Tom Smith. Mr. Kent commended these two brother Elks highly for their work and the culmination of the project which was more successful than they ever dreamed it would be. It had definitely proved another effective means of extending Elkdom.

Mr. Kent then presented the cup to the winning rink which was accepted by third man Vic Tillett.

Guests at the banquet were introduced by the toastmaster including Mr A. M. West, Mr A. E. Locke who had made and managed the draws for the day, and Mr. Ashley H. Cooper of the Standard.

The whole enjoyable day long affair might be nicely summed up by the words spoken by a young member of the Marwayne Elks lodge who stated that although he had not won the fine trophy he and his fellow lodge members had enjoyed just as great a prize, the prize of good fellowship and sociability which had abounded among the Elks present all day long.

SCHOOLS GO FORWARD

While they do not command the publicity which is afforded industrial growth and the forward march of national progress, Canadian schools are staging a march of their own and it is more important and more far-reaching than any of the many manifestations of progress in our country today. In 1946 Canada had about 2,100,000 children from 5 to 14 and about 1,000,000 teen agers from 15-19 years of age. It is estimated that by 1961 these figures will rise to 3,200,000 and 1,440,000, not just because of increasing births and new Canadians but because more children stay at school longer.

Municipalities are inclined to shake their heads and worry about the expense. Provincial governments are urged to face the problem and take up their share of the financial arrangements. Building trades and construction firms look kindly on this avenue of more work for their men and suppliers. And in the midst of the arguments everyone forgets all too often to remember that this largess of children in our national life really constitutes riches for which the controlled states of Europe have been ready and willing to pay a high price throughout the last half century.

A nation rises over the graves of its great men and on the hope of more to come. Canada's teachers and Canada's pupils will tell the story of tomorrow for the pupils of the day after tomorrow. So we must look this problem squarely in the face and this week, Education Week, is a good time to start.

In the next few years we will need more schools. They will be a capital investment not a current cost. We will need more teachers and there will need to be more incentive and more opportunity for men and women who are willing to make this their life's work. Teachers' salaries have come into line throughout the past few years but there is still a great shortage of adequately trained teachers for both the public and high schools. The National Committee sponsoring this 'Week' says: "The qualifications for teaching must be raised. Much evidence points to the fact that more persons will be attracted to teaching as a career if the qualifications are raised — not lowered." This is one fact to face today.

Food, one of our basic necessities, comes directly from the soil, or from animals that consume plants such as grass, clover and grain. Life depends upon the soil and the uses to which it is put. Agriculture is the most general occupation of man. It remains Alberta's most important industry.

Alberta's Department of Agriculture makes every effort to help farmers with their problems, to promote interest in agriculture and to encourage the best use of our soil resources. The potential of Alberta agriculture keeps the department's eye on the future. Its more immediate task is to create an environment that will enable farm families to maintain a high standard of living and preserve the qualities of their lands. As agriculture in Alberta expands, this will remain the basic responsibility of the department.

Hockey Chit-Chat

by GERRY MARSHALL

Bruised and battered but still in the thick of the play-off race the Tigers have returned home for the third and fourth games of their best of five game series with the Viking Gas Kings.

Viking has moved into the lead in the series on the strength of their win last Thursday night. They may have a commanding lead before this is read or the series may be all tied up.

Thursday's game was a carbon copy of Tuesday's 4-4 deadlock until the third period when Vermilion showed the effects of the fast pace as they had only 12 players dressed. Bill Novak was sadly missed in that last period for he is a good checker, a strong skater and has the size to handle all the Viking team has. Elmer Kreller put on a sterling performance Thursday night. The "Shadow" was anything but what that nickname infers as he stickhandled and dipsy-doodled all night. Kreller opened the scoring with a sensational solo rush. He picked up the puck on his own blueline, went around [illegible] and then stickhandled his way to the defense, faked them out of position and moved in to beat Warner the Viking custodian quite handily with a beautiful backhand drive.

Rookie Ted Sherban also played a good game and scored a nice goal on a break-away. Sherban checked T. Dunnigan on the Tiger blueline and then skated in alone to beat Warner easily.

The Bengals were 30 seconds from coming home with a win the first game of the play-offs but T. Dunnigan the league's leading scorer worked his way through the Tiger defense to score with only 30 seconds left in the game. This was the best the Tigers have played for quite some time. Trailing at one time 3-0 the Tigers outhustled the Kings all the way and were leading 4-3 in overtime before Dunnigan scored his heartbreaker.

The player who stole the limelight in the series opener was diminutive Frankie Ewing. Frank played terrific two way hockey and scored two of the Tiger goals.

Bill Williams also collected some 'star dust' as he scored the tying goal in the third period on a nice solo effort which was reminiscent of his brother Les.

The Tigers always play great hockey ahead or behind and will be a real threat until the final toot of the whistle.

HOCKEY GLANCES

The Vermilion Kinsmen Midgets playing in the Lloydminster tourney lost a heartbreaker to Neilburg 3-2 after over 60 minutes of overtime. The Vermilion Juveniles rammed four goals into the net in the last period to coast to an easy win over Mannville. The 'Juves' have now lost only one game in five starts and seem to have lots of know-how but need some finish that a good coach could supply.

Stu Barr Loses Four Teeth

Playing in the semi-final game at Viking last week Stu Barr was hit in the mouth with a puck which glanced off another stick and hit him on his lower jaw. The blow broke two teeth off and damaged two others to such an extent that all four had to be extracted the next day.

Mannville Wins Midget Tourney At Lloydminster

MANNVILLE. — The Mannville Rockets journeyed to Lloydminster on Saturday Feb. 26 to take part in the 16 and under tournament. With the hockey boys and fans there was a busload of some forty young people. Mr. C. Sowden was the driver of the bus and says that he saw eight games of hockey, four of which were played and won by the local team.

Mannville met Clandonald in the first game, winning 5 to 0. Goal getters were Schreyer, Bolding, Kurylo, Smolak and Shologan.

The next game was against North Bend and resulted in a score of 4-2 for Mannville. Cholod with three and Croft with one were the scorers in this game.

Schreyer, Cholod and Smolak were responsible for the score of 3 to 1 in the third game which was a little stiffer battle. This was against Spruce Lake.

The last and final game was played against Lloydminster at 1:30 in the morning. The first period ended scoreless with both teams having excellent chances. Sengins of Mannville pulled off several spectacular saves. After about 5 minutes of the final period Bolding poked the puck in from about eight feet out. This was the only goal scored with the game ending 1 to 0 for the Rockets. The cup was presented to the team captain, Buck Schreyer.

These boys have proved themselves worthy of the support of the town and should be shown that Mannville is proud of them by a large attendance at their games.

This rink of curlers took home the Grand Challenge to Dewberry winning a thrilling extra end final from Currah of Vermilion. Pictured from left to right they are Harold McKnight, lead, Frank Mead, 2nd, Frank Bowman, 3rd, Ralph Lunden, skip. It looks as if Dewberry might become the permanent home for the Grand Challenge cup as Fred Braithwaite took it to the same town one year ago.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane

Women's Travel Authority

Take another look at that abandoned old suitcase stuck away in the attic or closet — the chances are it has a lot of mileage left under its battered exterior.

The next dull winter evening is a perfect time to work on it with a little ammonia, saddle soap, some leather finisher, metal polisher and elbow grease. The result may surprise you.

If it is a canvas or rawhide piece of luggage, wash it thoroughly with a mild ammonia solution made of two tablespoons of ammonia to a quart of water. Then finish with a gentle soap washing.

If the luggage is leather, use saddle soap and after the bag dries thoroughly top it off with a good liquid leather finisher. If you've worked at it, the leather will take on a beautiful, well-travelled look.

Get inside the case with a stiff whisk broom and brush out the inevitable collection of dust and lint. Replacing the elastic in the pockets is a fairly simple job and a can of spot remover will remove most of the fabric stains.

Go over the hardware with metal polish and remember that a little household oil will help prevent the metal locks from rusting.

You can try your luck on minor sewing jobs, but if the handle is nearly off and a seam wide open you'd be wise to let the leather [illegible] part.

The money you save on new luggage may buy your family an extra treat on your next vacation.

Large Display of Handicrafts In Alberta, March 28 – April 3

The largest exhibition of handicrafts ever held in Alberta will be displayed to the public during the Alberta Handicraft Exhibition at the Edmonton Museum of Arts, March 28 to April 3.

Displays of ceramics, leatherwork, woodwork and other craft articles produced by Alberta artisans will occupy three floors of the museum, while special displays will feature the work of outstanding Canadian and American crafts workers.

Among the exhibits will be a selection of the unique Eskimo and Indian crafts practised by patients at the Charles Camsell hospital at Edmonton. This section will be sponsored by the Edmonton Rehabilitation Society, which is organizing an active handicraft program to aid the rehabilitation of physically disabled citizens and help them become financially self-supporting.

Among the special craft exhibits will be the samples of weaving that won first prize for the London District Weavers' of London, Ont., at the recent Canadian Hand Weaving Exhibition, and pottery turned by the Canadian Guild of Potters' of Toronto.

Prize winning craft articles from the spring competition of the Visual Arts Board will be shown in a separate display together with all other entries in the competition. This competition offers three craft scholarships of $200 for the best entries in weaving, leatherwork and [illegible].

Throughout the week of the Alberta Handicraft Exhibition, crafts workers will demonstrate a loom, spinning wheel, potters' wheel, and possibly a woodworker's lathe. There also will be short lectures by authorities in the various craft fields and films on craft work. Tea will be served each afternoon by the Women's Society of the Museum of Arts.

The exhibition is being sponsored by the Cultural Activities Branch, Department of Economic Affairs in co-operation with the Edmonton Potters' Guild and the Edmonton Weavers' Guild.

SEEDTIME and HARVEST

FERTILIZER MEANS DOLLARS

The use of commercial fertilizers has increased steadily in Western Canada during the past 25 years. This is due, of course, to the fact that for each dollar a grain grower spends on fertilizer he receives anywhere from two to five dollars in return. During the past several years money has been relatively plentiful. Undoubtedly, dollars will be harder to "come by" in 1955, and many farmers may hesitate before parting with hard cash for something they feel they can "get along without".

Study the Problem. Farmers are well advised to study their fertilizer problems and the first question may well be—is there information available? The Provincial Departments of Agriculture all supply information on the use of fertilizer and a great deal of field testing and research work lies behind their recommendations.

Facts Favor Fertilizer. As every farmer knows, a certain yield per acre is necessary to pay for the cost of seeding, harvesting, etc. Any yield above this constitutes roughly the profit obtained per acre. Higher yields than mean greater profits. Faster early growth means a better chance to avoid early frost and, in the rust areas, may hasten maturity sufficiently to enable a grain crop to escape serious damage from rust. Furthermore, vigorous early growth does much to choke out weeds. This is particularly important, of course, in the case of wild oats which are not controlled by 2,4-D.

Money may be "tighter" this Spring, but all the evidence available indicates that farmers of Western Canada will [illegible] dividend on every dollar they spend on fertilizer in 1955.

DEWBERRY SENIORS WIN

Dewberry Seniors won the hockey tourney at Lashburn recently and received a very fine trophy.

LOSE AT LLOYDMINSTER

Playing in the Lloyd tourney the local Seniors ran out of time and ended up losing the final game once more. Several times now including last year, Dewberry players have won their way out to the finals only to lose that game, and they have yet to win the old mug. The game last Saturday consisted of only two 15-minute periods and the local lads were behind 3-0 at the end of the first 15 minutes but dominated the play in the second to nearly tie the score. The game was played at 1 a.m. Sunday morning and the boys were a little while getting warmed up with the result that Neilburg whipped in three quick goals. It looked as if with another period the Dewberry team would have won handily.

Still on the subject of the Lloydminster tourney one might well question the ages of a good many of the 'midgets' competing. Perhaps though some were just freshly shaved! However, such good, fast hockey with 27 teams competing won't be seen again for a long time as the ice was very fast.

The Dewberry boys stuck strictly to the midget age limit and as a result looked very small in comparison to some of the others.

The Dewberry high school team recently defeated Vermilion Midgets 10-4 and Lloydminster high 3-2, but lost a close game to the Clandonald high.

ALL ABOUT CURLING!

What are the girls made of? Sugar and spice and all things nice, but for the winning combination who took the Vermilion Grand Challenge there were two grandads, one a farmer, another farmer slightly crippled and one elevator agent who at this time of the year are supposed to be softer than fresh cooked macaroni. Nice going fellows and for the second year in a row the Grand Challenge trophy from Vermilion comes to Dewberry.

Incidentally playing with a different rink entirely Skip Ralph Lunden also won the G.C. at Clandonald.

Fred Braithwaite recently won the 5th event at the Lloydminster spiel and then won first in the 5th [illegible].

A Farmers' bonspiel will be held in Dewberry March 11.

Father and Daughter Banquet at Mannville

MANNVILLE. — Once again the C. G. I. T. Father and Daughter banquet and social evening was a real success. Nearly all the fathers were able to be present, plus Mr. and Mrs. Holter and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gamble as special guests.

Mr. Gamble showed some very interesting and entertaining films during the evening and everyone went home feeling they had a very nice time.

Turkey Banquet For Altar Boys

February 18th had a very satisfying ending for ten young lads when Father Landrigan treated the Holy Name Altar boys to a 'scrumptuous' turkey banquet. This was catered to by the C.W.L. When the appetites of the boys were well satisfied, Father Landrigan gave a short talk and each boy then received a bag of treats. They all declared it a happy way to end a day.

Perfect . . . But In Miniature

The Withington brothers of the Island Hill district picked their orange crop this week. This crop consisted of six oranges grown on an orange plant in their home. The six were well shaped, of good color and about the size of a small Jap orange. The skin was very thin and the taste of the fruit was bitter. Apparenty they need that much vaunted California sunshine to sweeten them up.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Daley announce the engagement of their younger daughter Donalda, to Mr. Glen Edward Beckman, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Beckman of Vermilion. The marriage will take place in March.

Postmarked at Streatham, London, England, on Monday, Feb. 21 an air mail letter was received in Vermilion Thursday morning Feb. 24th. Leaving London sometime on Monday it was in Edmonton Wednesday, a shorter time than it takes a letter to reach some post offices right here in Alberta. This letter which is just a sample of the excellent air mail service now available, was written by Mrs. Sidney Colls in London, England, to her parents Mr. and Mrs. S. R. P. Cooper.

BORN — To Dr. and Mrs. Don Clarke, Toronto, Ont., on February 24th, a son Hugh James, weight 9 lbs., 5 ozs.

Al Baker, who took a very prominent part in the activities of the Vermilion baseball team last summer, has recently left Vermilion for a position at Stettler. Al will really be missed when it comes to organizing the old ball club this spring.

WOODVALE NOTES

Show our last news a week has gone by in which three people passed away who lived in our community and were very well known.

Last Wednesday, Guy Whitlock, who grew up in the Woodvale district, married a Blindville girl and later moved to the Whitecourt district passed away. Though everyone knew that he was a serious illness his sudden death moved all his friends and neighbors deeply and the most sincere sympathy was extended to his wife and daughters, father, brother and sister.

Then on Saturday Mr. Harry Sweeney died in Vermilion after a lengthy illness. Mr. Sweeney came to the Woodvale district in 1920 with his wife, three sons and five daughters. Of them John who is employed on Dave and his family live in our district, but all except one daughter have made their homes in the Vermilion district and to all of them and their families our condolences are extended.

Very unexpected was the death of Signal Sabourin of, of Tribune who was found dead in his bed by his young son Leroy Johnson on Monday. It was known that he had the flu but got over that and nobody had any idea that he was not better at time of writing. Signal was well known and liked and will be missed by his many friends and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott and baby Nancy of Blindff spent the week end with the latter.

It was kind of nice to go into town to do business after the big snowfall. It was the first time we could happen to Gladstonians if

Vermilion Calf Club Members Hear Talks

On Feb. 20 the calf club held the third meeting with 15 members and seven visitors in attendance. The meeting was highlighted with talks by Betty Robinson and Steve Dray both. The assembly and club rules were handed in by the members.

It was decided that the calf club have a "Domestic Display" at the Vermilion and Lloydminster fairs.

During the roll call each member asked one question about keeping feeding or records of his calf. Other club members or Mr. Bosch then provided the answer.

Unfortunately 13 of the following names of members were omitted from last week's calf club report: Robert Wenzel, Dale Brett, Wayne Hilton, Tony Dixon and Don Dixon.

Retires after 40 Years In Dray Business

Walter J. Fish has retired after forty years dray ing in the town of Vermilion. Walter started his dray-ing here back in 1913 in partnership with Wes Waldenberger. This partnership enlisted until Mr. Waldenberger sold out the dray-ing business in 1929 after which time Walter carried on dray-ing business alone. He stuck to his horses to the last. Loving fine horse flesh he gave plenty of care and attention to them they rendered him yeo-man service. He sold all his draying equipment and his team. Walter and his two big horses will be missed on the streets of Vermilion.

The question uppermost in everyone's mind now will be, "Who is going to plow and harrow my garden in the spring?" As one lady, man left in town operates with a team of reliable horses. Mr. Fish was ill for a time which hastened his decision to retire upon doctor's advice. He said he was glad of the time to make their home in Vermilion.

Silver Wedding Celebration At Myrtle Hill

Sunday afternoon, February 20, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swyripa of Myrtle Hill entertained at a party in honor of Mrs. Swyripa's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hill, on the day they celebrated their silver wedding anniversary. On entering the school the guests were greeted with the strains of the wedding march played by the organist, Mrs. Swyripa. The bride and groom were then presented with a corsage of white flowers by Mrs. P. Healey, Mrs. A. Swyripa and Mrs. Ben Hall. Anderson, Carmie Ferris and Eunice Swyripa who also presented a bouquet. A toast was given to the bride and groom by Mr. R. Jory to which the groom suitably responded. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Anderson upon an anniversary cake were Jeanette Swyripa and Lorraine Healey, both dressed in lovely gifts. Then came the lunch and buffet and dancing and a very enjoyable evening for the many members of the Birthday Club ended after congratulations had and presented Mr and Mrs. Anderson with a gift of flowers were.

Unusual Patient Causes Excitement At Hospital

A great deal of excitement resulted when an unusual patient arrived in the Vermilion hospital early Saturday morning, travelling by air. A Hungarian partridge, crashed landing through the large double doors of the ma ternal ward windows, and flopped to the far side of an empty hospital bed — there it gave a few flaps with its wings and lay still.

The sudden appearance of giant brought the nurses scurrying. They discovered the room, both doctors and even a patient in an adjoining bed literally showered with three-inch pieces of shattered glass particles. The alarm air poured through the jagged holes in the panes.

Immediately Miss Welch dispatched the bird to the kitchen, announced Mr. Yarwood arrived quickly repaired the double window. For outside storm windows was a temporary undertaking, however and will have to be left for warmer weather. Mr. Yarwood also replaced the panes in cleaning up glass and splinters.

No one knows what caused the bird to plummet through the hospital windows. Perhaps it was from dogs in nearby trees. At any rate the bird is now enjoying comfortable quarters in the hospital kitchen.

Alta. Traffic Deaths Double In January

Alberta had 17 traffic deaths in January, almost double the number for the first month of last year, according to a summary compiled by the Alberta Safety Council. In the first month of 1954, there were nine fatalities.

The summary of reports received from the R.C.M.P. and from the various cities, towns and villages, indicates that while traffic deaths rose, there was a decrease in the number of motor accidents and personal injuries in consequence of these accidents.

Of the death total, 13 were reported by the R.C.M.P. at rural points, 3 in Edmonton and 1 in Calgary. While it was not listed as a traffic fatality, Edmonton also reported the death of a small girl who was run over by a truck operating in a negligent manner on private property.

At rural points there were 736 accidents reported, compared with 638 in January of last year. Edmonton led the cities with 630, a drop of 146 from a year ago; Calgary had 330, a decrease of 69; Medicine Hat was down 10 to 23. Lethbridge is a drop of 30 to 19; Peace 14, 11 less than a year ago. Other towns and villages reported only 8, compared with 30 a year ago.

For the entire province the January total of motor accidents was 1,589 which is the same month of 1954 the aggregate was 1,838.

The provincial total of persons injured in motor accidents was 332 in January, down 8 from the opening month of last year.

For Men's Wear

Union F.U.A. Notes

A very cold night was hit for the last card party and the attendance was just four tables less one person, so one dummy hand was played and scarcely noticed as someone was cracked, sqaung the rest of the dummies!

The writer must admit that Stan Rose has some very good ideas on some subjects. He gave a very good talk the other day on "Why farmers are entitled to a fixed price". He mentioned protective tariffs for industry but he stressed the fact that farmers are still the backbone of Canada's economy. Farmers are heavy purchasers when they have the money. To obtain a net income of $3000 per year a farmer must spend at least that much on the numerous expenses of running a farm. Many people forget this fact. Every man in every town and village in Canada should be backing the farmer in his fight for a fair deal because they would be helping themselves and all Canada at the same time.

Last year we had a membership of only 126 members. So far this year we have more than figure and hope to be able to report in at Red Deer next year with a membership of 500. Junior memberships cost only 50 cents, from the ages of 10 to 15. Then we would like to see all the juniors out for the meetings. We have some very educational and enjoyable films and visitors coming here. The meetings are being arranged so that all who wish may leave before 10 o'clock. These meetings are being held every 3rd Monday of each month.

VISITORS FOR NEXT MEETING

Our guest speaker for the next meeting will be our friend Mr. Ken Wells who is the chairman for the Migratory Birds Association for the Province of Alberta. Some time ago we had this gentleman here and he gave a very interesting talk on this subject.

GREY CUP FILM

The Grey Cup film will be shown on the night of the 28th of March and everybody is welcome. We hope to be able to report in at Red Deer next year with a membership of 500. Junior memberships cost

DON'T FORGET THE CROW AND MAGPIE COMPETITION

This competition starts on the first of March and ends July 30th. This year the Fish and Game Association will present the boy or girl who collects the most pairs of feet three prizes, which will be announced later, as well as the fabulous bounty that has been given in the past years. Last year we had 2,214 pairs of feet, our goal this year is 10,000 pairs of feet. So come on youngsters and get as many of these feet as possible. There is also a competition for the Senior members of the Fish & Game Association. The prize will be a trophy presented by the Vermilion Food Lockers and will be given to the member who brings in the most pairs of feet. Let's get busy with the .22s and win that trophy.

CIVIL DEFENCE NOTES . . . .

The services given in a Welfare Centre, especially on the part of the reception staff, are very important. The workers on the reception staff should possess the following characteristics:

Good judgment and ability to make decisions of the people as quickly as possible, ability to have a calm, tactful, patient approach to the problems during stress; ability to be sympathetic and understanding in regard to the whole matter of disaster victims; ability to take charge and issue instruction and have the respect of the community.

A friendly welcome and a hot drink when the disaster victim arrive at a welfare centre does much to comfort and reassure people who are physically and emotionally upset. These people, in the circumstances need, quietly, regain their sense of security. When a large number of victims arrive at a welfare centre they should be met by friendly people from the reception and information staff. These victims should be briefly interviewed and sent to the place where they can best be helped. It would be ideal if a large building could be utilized as a welfare centre where under the same roof several different services could be established. However one must remember that there may be no large building, or building left, following a disaster so welfare workers must be prepared to work under difficulties. When large groups of victims descend on a welfare centre there will, no doubt, be confusion and it would not be advisable to have registration forms at this time. After their immediate needs have been met the need for their being registered in regard to possible needs will be forgotten. The care of children, pregnancies, injured, chronically ill and cases of communicable disease will all be big problems for the welfare centre to deal with. If there should be a major disaster doctors and nurses would all be needed to attend the seriously injured and the care of the first mentioned cases would be the responsibility of first aiders and home nurses.

BASIC PRINCIPLES OF WELFARE SERVICES

Aid is given to any person needing it as a result of enemy attack or natural disaster. Mass care is provided immediately following an attack. Victims are cared for, if possible, in their own community where they can re-establish their homes and also help in essential war work. This is done promptly, freely, and with no obligation of repayment. If at all possible families are kept together. This is of great importance to children. If children lose their parents with them their fears do not loom so large as otherwise. Re-establishment is of the greatest importance and help will be given to every capable person who desires to return to normal living. Welfare Centre activities should be closely knit with other Civil Defence services.

The first objective to serve victims of a disaster, should be carried out. They should also be prepared to help the badly clvil defence workers of all services. Efforts should be put forth to help the victims to leave the welfare centre as soon as possible. If you are interested in preparedness against any disaster and wish to help in Civil Defence work contact Geo H. Martin, Director Vermilion or Jos Batty, Secretary Kitscoty

NEWS from ISLAY

Billie Potvin reports having one big time last week end visiting weather Garfield during the Quad Week at the University of Alberta. Billi travelled by bus going up on Friday morning and returned Sunday night. He attended the play "The Play Boy of the Western World" in which his cousin Miss Mary Boyle played one of the 3 leading parts as the Irish Colleen. Well, Bill liked the play, but he really went for the basketball game between University of Manitoba and U. of A.

On Friday, March 11 the Variety show will visit Islay. This is sponsored by Islay curlers. It is a good show and well worth attending, we are told

Mrs. Robinson of Tulliby Lake school (Granny, as she is affectionately known) don't you feel more at home now that your school is in our Division?

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Young, Donna and Jack were dinner guests at the Anderson home on Sunday evening. Miss Donna returned to Vermilion by bus the same night.

The Saturday Journal carried the pictures of three young ladies whose family names are old timers of Islay, i.e. Miss Grace Merryman who teaches Dramatics at Westglen High school (Grace was born and grew up here); Miss Alfreda Bonser whose father grew up here and is now on staff of the University; Jeanine Gagne, whose mother was born and grew up here as Irene Birkans.

The school carnival this year was a fine success. There were many prizes presented but the best prize that is what makes the carnival interesting, The Queen was Charlotte Wildmoon and her attendants were Yvonne Hannon and Sharon Redmond. Dorothy Adley crowned the Queen. Some pre-school children took part, the Clark twins as Katzenjammer Kids and the Mc-Lean two weeks an old fashioned couple

The school's bonspiel wound up last Saturday. We will give the winners of the various events next week.

Alberta's 1955 Car License Plates

New 1955 license plates are displayed above by Florey Perkins, of the Motor Vehicle branch. Letters on the plates have been enlarged to the same size as the numbers to assist police in identifying moving vehicles more easily. In 1954 the letters were smaller than the numbers. This often caused difficulty in obtaining the full licence number of a moving vehicle. As displayed above, the province will return to the two-plate system in 1955 — one on the rear bumper and one on the front. The one-plate system in 1954 was found to be unsatisfactory and, upon suggestions made at Premier Manning's Highway Safety conference, the two-plate system was re-established. Colors for the 1955 plates are yellow-gold on black in commemoration of the Province's golden jubilee. A total of 220,000 automobile and 120,000 truck licenses has been ordered to go on sale this spring.

NEWS from CLANDONALD

There is no doubt whatever now in our minds that the weatherman was only fooling during the past few months and is at present getting down to business. It is to be sincerely hoped that the snow fall which has been so light so far does not get the same notion.

MUCH SICKNESS

As usually seems to be the case during a long mild spell the flu and other similar diseases have been causing a lot of trouble since the new year. Several residents have required hospital treatment. Mrs. Ewan Lawrence has been a patient in Vermilion for several weeks while Walter Trout and Bill Specht also spent several days there.

After having spent a week in Elk Point hospital the Rev. R. Cleenet suffered a relapse and has been a patient in Vermilion for some time. It will be probably several weeks before he will once again be able to resume his work in the parish. Sorry to hear Orley Ossness has been a victim of the sickness going the rounds. I hope he is fully recovered by now.

Despite a very cold night quite a fair sized crowd was on hand for the bingo party sponsored by the Anglican W.A. in the Orange hall on Shrove Tuesday. Owing to the fact that there were numerous prizes nearly every family represented took home one or more.

PICTURE ATTRACTS CROWD

Record crowds attended the showing in the Orange hall of "The Quiet Man". It is hoped that Mr. Goddard may be able to secure a return booking of this very popular picture at some future date when the weather is more favorable.

CURLING NEWS

In the curling world the battle of the giants, the spiel to end all spiels is underway this week end. Despite the 20 below weather the ladies' event got started Saturday morning and will continue for several days. Saturday night players were treated to a banquet in the Columbus hall catering being done by the ladies of the Ukrainian Catholic church.

CARS COLLIDE

What might have been quite a serious accident occurred at the convent corner Saturday night not long ago. A car driven by Joe Proschyn proceeding north and one driven west by Donny Good arrived simultaneously with disastrous results to both vehicles. To make matters worse the Proschyn car jumped into the ditch and there landed on a rock. Damage was heavy to both cars.

Recently through the kindness of our old friend Tom Souder we had the pleasure of reading Jim MacGregor's latest book "Behold the Shining Mountains". This is an account of one Anthony Henday who in the year 1754 travelled through this country a few miles north of Wainwright spending the winter in the foothills and returning to York Factory via the North Saskatchewan River. Mr. MacGregor has again done a fine job of describing the country as he pictures it in those far gone days as well as giving the reader quite a great deal of information regarding historical and beauty spots which many no doubt, do not realize exist.

Health Unit Notes

THE NECESSITY FOR PASTEURISATION

The pasteurisation of milk has been practised for many years and there is little doubt that this method of processing is likely to become more widely demanded. As with all scientific discoveries its advantages and disadvantages have been debated on innumerable occasions.

Pasteurisation is not and never can be a process that will render dirty milk clean, or sour milk sweet and it is essential that the process should only be employed for the treatment of raw milk possessing a low bacterial content. It cannot be too often emphasized that pasteurisation is not a substitute for cleanliness, neither is cleanliness a guaranteed substitute for pasteurisation.

From the public health point of view, the desired objects are twofold. The destruction of all organisms likely to affect the health of the consumer and those likely to affect the keeping quality of the milk. Maintenance of the nutritive value of the milk is also equally important.

The following are some of the diseases which have in the past been transmitted to man through the use of raw milk supplies: Tuberculosis, undulant fever, scarlet fever, septic sore throat, typhoid, paratyphoid and food poisoning.

PASTEURISATION AT HOME

Mothers of small young children living in towns, villages, hamlets or on farms where a pasteurised supply can not normally be obtained, can pasteurise their raw milk supply in their own kitchen.

A double saucepan can be used and the raw milk can be heated to a temperature of 143 to 145 degrees Fahrenheit for a period of 30 minutes. The milk should then be cooled rapidly and stored in a cool place.

PASTEURISATION CONTROL

Is there any control of pasteurisation of milk? Yes, this is carried out by your local board of health and the provincial Department of Agriculture. The whole process from the milk leaving the cow to reaching the consumer is under supervision.

PASTEURISATION BY-LAW

Where a community of any town or village are of the opinion that pasteurised milk only should be sold within the town or village they may pass a by-law restricting the sale of milk in the town or village to pasteurised milk only.

CANADA 4th IN TRADE

Canada ranks fourth among the nations in value of trade in 1954, reports "Foreign Trade", fortnightly magazine of the Department of Trade and Commerce. The United States and the United Kingdom remained principal nations in world trade and the Federal Republic of Germany, whose trade has been recovering rapidly since 1950, ranked third. Canada last ranked fourth in world trade in 1951, when her trade showed a more moderate increase than that of most other countries. In that year France's trade exceeded that of Canada, but in 1954 the trade of France appears to have remained considerably below its earlier peak.

In 1954 Canadian Red Cross nurses from Outpost Hospitals and Nursing Stations attended more than 2,000 births in remote areas of Canada.

The World of Wheat

By W. G. MALAHER,
Director, Research Department,
Searle Grain Co. Ltd.

SELF-SUFFICIENCY IN WHEAT

During recent years there has been a definite move on the part of a number of countries, particularly in Europe, to become more self-sufficient in the matter of wheat supplies. This trend has been much more noticeable in some countries than in others, and it ranges all the way from a slight increase in the home production of wheat to the situation where a country which formerly had to import part of its needs, has now actually become a wheat exporter.

Figures published by the Food and Agriculture organization suggest that between the periods of 1925-29 and 1952-53, the percentage of all wheat consumed that was produced at home increased, in the case of Great Britain, from 25% to 34%; in Sweden from 89% to 93%, in Finland from 15% to 42%; in Denmark from 52% to 74% and in Switzerland from 17% to 43%. Increases were also shown for Belgium, the Netherlands, Italy and Greece. Countries in which there was relatively little change included Norway, Austria, Portugal and Spain, and countries which had actually become exporters in recent years were France and Turkey, which in the 1952-53 period raised 102% and 108% respectively of their wheat requirements, thus having a surplus. Latterly, too, Sweden has been able to export some wheat.

Canada, as one of the major wheat exporting nations is, of course vitally interested in the quantity of wheat and wheat flour that her traditional customers may have to purchase in the years ahead.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

ALBERTA'S JAIL SITUATION IS GIVEN A THOROUGH AIRING

(Special to the Standard)

EDMONTON. — If any one topic is to be chosen as occupying the most time of the Alberta legislature members last week, it must be the province's jail situation.

At the beginning of the week, before any of the opposition members had brought up the topic, Attorney-General Lucien Maynard made a full report on the January prisoner disturbance in the Fort Saskatchewan jail and outlined some of the plans for the new jail just northwest of Calgary.

Before the week was out, the Progressive Conservatives had introduced a motion asking for a judicial inquiry into the government's land transactions in connection with the Calgary jail.

But the members got closer to the subject than talking about it in the legislative chamber. They made a trip to Fort Saskatchewan, 20 miles northeast of Edmonton, and spent about three hours touring the provincial jail from the death and solitary confinement cells to the kitchens and storage facilities.

In connection with the "junior riot", the attorney-general said it was the brain-child of about 15 prisoners, all of whom had been charged with wilful damage, and one with arson who pleaded guilty to starting a fire in the jail storeroom which caused most of the $3000 worth of damage, and was sentenced to two years in penitentiary.

Toward the end of the week most of the others appeared in court in Fort Saskatchewan and the magistrate gave them an opportunity to make their complaints, most of which concerned food and general conditions. After hearing the prisoners and pointing out that the best thing would be to stay out of jail, the magistrate added: "I accept the fact you undoubtedly had provocation, especially concerning the food."

The legislative members had eaten at the jail — but they had roast beef and gravy in the women's quarters and noted when passing through the men's kitchen that the main course meat was hamburger.

Mr. Maynard has told the legislature he is awaiting a report on food conditions to be made by the chef employed at the Belmont rehabilitation centre for alcoholics.

In connection with the Calgary jail, which Mr. Maynard reported would be a modern institution with more facilities for proper recreation and a special section for trouble-makers, the Conservatives are querying the land juggling which has taken place.

Last summer, the government announced it had purchased land in the Chestermere Lake district, just east of Calgary, for the jail. Shortly after, the residents of the district protested against the proposed location and charged the $144 per acre price paid by the government was too much. They also said a middle party had paid considerably less for the same property only a short time before.

Late this fall, the government announced it had changed its mind and was buying some land northwest of Calgary for the jail. The man who owned this land is taking the Chestermere property off the government's hands.

Now, the Conservatives want to know more about the Chestermere transaction and are suggesting the government, which has stated there was nothing wrong with the deal, should welcome impartial judicial inquiry.

W. J. C. Kirby, Conservative member for Red Deer, said answers should be given to such questions as how the middle party knew the land was "ideal" for a jail site; how and when the land was offered to the government for sale and why the price paid was so much more than the price paid for other land in the same district.

The legislature did consider other matters and a Liberal request for a commission to set hospital rates and recommend government grants was defeated after Health Minister Dr. W. W. Cross said the province pays 65 to 70 per cent of all hospital costs.

Calgary Social Crediter Mrs. Rose Wilkinson summed it all up by suggesting the continuing growth of hospitals and jails was a sign of decline of civilization rather than progress.

New Headlamps Reduce Glare

New headlamps, designed for new traffic conditions, will soon make night driving safer and easier reports J. H. Bailey, Vice Consul for Canada and Assistant Trade Commissioner at Detroit, in "Foreign Trade", magazine of the Dept. of Trade and Commerce. The new lamps are the result of four years of co-operation between motor vehicle and lamp manufacturers and Canadian and U.S. public officials. The program was similar to the one which preceded the introduction of the first seal-beam headlamps in 1939.

The improvements are expected to be available on 1955 cars and trucks about midway in the 1955 model year and will include the following: Better light distribution, especially on the lower beam, which will give as much as 80 feet more visibility along the right side of the road; a sharp reduction of stray light radiating upward from the lower beam filament, which will greatly improve visibility in fog, dust and similar hazards; more light throughout the upper and lower beam patterns.

Mannville Old-Timer Dies

He is survived by his widow, four daughters Mrs. Dorothy Dzieskiwitz of Toronto, Mrs. Nancy Patterson of Nanaimo, B.C.; Mrs. Jean Eschak, Mannville, and Mrs. Margaret Gordeyko, of Ardil, Alberta; four sons, George of New Westminster, Mike of Cold Lake, Fred at Drayton Valley and Bill of Mannville; one brother Wm. Romanick of Vancouver, B.C.; 11 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

When you want to Go -You're gonna Go!

No ifs, ands or buts about it.

When you give the gas to a 1955 Buick with Dynaflow Drive*, you move.

In the instant you push down the pedal, you get the action you've called for—immediate getaway from a standing start, or immediate safety-surge out of a tight spot on the highway.

It's not magic, this thrilling and pulse-quickening response—though it feels like the closest thing to it.

It's a principle of the modern airplane, brought for the first time to an automotive transmission.

Twenty "variable pitch propellers" inside the Dynaflow unit itself can change their angle—like the propeller of the airliner can change its pitch from take-off position to cruising position.

And what this brings to you—at the wheel of a '55 Buick—is the nearest thing to flight on wheels. Far better gas mileage in your normal driving and cruising. Spectacular response when you want it for quick getaway or emergency acceleration.

But all this, mind you, with the absolute smoothness that is constant in Dynaflow Drive.

Surely, a demonstration of Variable Pitch Dynaflow is a Buick "must" this year. We'll be happy to do the honors—and show you, in the doing, what a whale of a buy you make here. Drop in this week, won't you?

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Letters to the Editor

This paper does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents

Editor, Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion.
Dear Sir:

My text for this letter is: "By their fruits ye shall know them."

Upholders of the Capitalist or Free Enterprise systems deem as indispensable to these systems, that the spirit of [illegible] exist which develops [illegible] cunning and trickery as its natural characteristics, which is the antithesis of the Christian spirit.

Take for instance, the big stock exchange or bargain day at a department store. Are these scenes not more like savagery than a Christian institution? Capitalism exalts the lower, while it tends to crush the nobler human impulses.

But the bitterest and worst fruits of Capitalism are in evidence on the battle fields of the world; where fear, maiming and torture are the results of Capitalism. Can any conceivable savage performance be more diabolically inhuman or unchristian than a modern war, where all the mechanical genius and scientific skill are used to the limit resulting in men, women and children and property being sacrificed with the utmost abandon so that one side or the other may gain markets or territory?

Christian churches of all lands have pleaded to men in the name of God to enlist in an army to kill their fellows. What damnable sacrilege to claim that Christ can be served by butchering our fellow Christians as was done under capitalistic management in the World Wars. Mind you, I am not criticizing the action the Allies took, but comparing the Capitalist system of today with the teachings of the Founder of Christianity.

At the United Church Conference held in Toronto some years ago, it was emphatically declared that the Capitalist system was unchristian. Catholic church encyclicals as well as other branches of the church are just as outspoken regarding this subject.

If the people really believe in this Capitalist system, it follows they can no longer support their churches which have declared so definitely against it; so the clergy may find themselves among the unemployed where they could possibly be happier and nobler men serving their Master than they would be were they to refrain from denouncing an unchristian system and collect their salaries for so refraining.

The Founder of the Christian ethics said that the object of His mission was that "We might have life and have it more abundantly". Christian ethics thus imply that it is "wrong" to perform any act or condone any practice which does violence to others, and it is "right" to support any policy which makes for freer and more abundant life.

As an alternative to the Capitalist system we have the Co-operative or Socialist system represented by the C.C.F. whose avowed objective is: "To establish an economic system, by democratic means, wherein the well-being of humanity shall take precedence over the making of profits." This system is founded on the true Christian principles and will eventually supersede the Capitalist system. When this happens we have a "government of the people, by the people and for the people," instead of government for and by monopolies, the mission of the Carpenter of Nazareth will be a good deal nearer fulfillment.

To quote Abraham Lincoln: "You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

G. T. Skinner.

Irma, Alberta,
Feb. 27, 1955.

The Editor, Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion, Alberta.
Dear Sir:

I was pleased to note that someone had read the opinions I expressed concerning our parliamentary system.

However, I was sorry to hear that your correspondent from Dewberry (Standard, Feb. 17) appears to have become cynical about its operation, and shocked to observe that he so thoroughly misunderstands the principles underlying it.

How he can, for example, mention the Russian and American systems in the same sentence, as though each had equal justification for existence, is difficult to understand.

The Russian system is based on force alone, as it dates from 1917 when the Bolshevists took over the reins of government by force. The Russian people have never had an opportunity to change their government peacefully, and could not change it today without bloodshed. The reason is clear. No opposition party is allowed to exist, let alone express dissatisfaction or advocate an alternative policy.

Your correspondent seems to think that there is only one policy to follow, and that running a country is as simple as pouring gasoline into the tank of a tractor.

Actually there are, at any time, a number of policies to choose from. The government chooses one which it thinks is likely to receive majority support in Parliament. However there are always many people who, being human, will disagree with the policy or with its application. In a country where only one party is allowed to exist these people must remain silent or run the risk of being imprisoned or killed when they express their opinions. Over a period of years such a system must lead to corruption, violence and bloodshed.

Our system allows for differences of opinion and makes certain that at any time there is an alternative government with an alternative policy and that it may look forward to assuming power without violence or bloodshed when the government loses the people's confidence.

Yet your correspondent says that in destroying this parliamentary system we would be on the right track'

I believe in the parliamentary system and would like to see it work better in Canada. I believe in it because I believe in freedom of thought and action. I believe that these are in danger when one party has held office for twenty years and no other party has sufficient [illegible] to form a government.

I also believe in the federal principle, and would like to see it working better as well. We cannot say it is working well when provinces do not have equal representation in the Senate and when Senators are appointed by the government in power. In my opinion the Senate must be reformed by making it elective and by basing it on the principle of the equality of provinces.

Before we can undertake such a reform as that we must have more representatives in a responsible position — that is, either in the government party or in the alternative government.

It is not enough to complain, protest or make people "sit up and take notice" as we have done these last twenty years.

We must [illegible] forward to helping to make policy.

Viewed in this light a vote for either the Social Credit or C.C.F. party is an irresponsible vote. We should remember this when we go to the polls.

Here's to the health of the two-party system and of Battle River-Camrose constituency!

Sincerely,
Allen Ronaghan.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR ACTION

During our cold winter months, Norway rats are almost entirely dependent on food and shelter provided by man. We should capitalize on this one weakness advises Jos. B. Gurba, Assistant Supervisor of Pest Control, Alberta Department of Agriculture, since these cunning pests are remarkably well adapted to varied living conditions and leave few loop holes for eradication.

With the advent of cold weather, rats converge on farmyards and other premises for winter room and board. People who provide these basic necessities are actually raising rats; removal of these commodities threatens their very existence. Effective rat control is part of good farm management and sensible housekeeping. Permanent buildings should be constructed and maintained with the view of preventing rat entry. Portable buildings such as granaries and material used for building, fencing, etc. should be blocked up at least one foot off the ground. Rats prefer to live in dark harborages next to or just below ground level; cementing in or raising buildings and material to admit daylight discourages rat establishment and natural increase.

Proper sanitation is also all important. This includes removal of spilled and left-over feeds, proper gathering and disposal of garbage, etc. Once a premise is cleaned up, an effective eradication program can be organized. Rats can be killed by the proper use of traps, carbon monoxide gassing, anticoagulant and other poisons. However, unless a place is cleaned up, rats can multiply faster than they are poisoned off. Now is the time to act.

Rats have spread farther north along the Saskatchewan border but they have not progressed westward into Alberta because a continual battle is on to depopulate them as fast as they invade. During 1954, enough Warfarin poison was issued to kill 25,000 rats. At $20 estimated annual damage per rat, this would indicate a saving of $500,000 for the residents of this province. The additional nuisance and disease carrying aspect also eliminated cannot be evaluated in dollars and cents.

There are 8 full time pest control officers serving in the rat infested area along the 4th Meridian. These men make farm to farm checks, recommending and assisting residents in effective control and eradication measures. Poisons are distributed free of charge. With the continued wide-awake interest and co-operation of the residents of this province, there is every reason to believe that this obnoxious pest can be kept from spreading throughout Alberta.

For further information, contact your local Pest Control Officer, District Agriculturist or Field Crops Branch, Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

ALBERTA APPRENTICES INCREASE

In 1952 there were 1083 apprentices in eight building trades; in 1953, 1297; which was an increase of about 20%, and last year in the eight trades there were 1585, according to 'Western Business and Industry'. The committee there points out that since 1941 when apprenticeship started in Alberta, they have issued 1983 graduation certificates. This is indeed a splendid record for any province.

In Alberta there are many other trades, besides construction trades, registered in apprenticeship work. In September last they had registered in all trades 3191; up to date graduations in all trades 2929. During the 1953-54 school term they had attending full time classes 1118 apprentices.

J. R. McTavish, member of the Committee for Alberta, says in his report: "I am still of the opinion that we should be training more mechanics in all trades".

WILDMERE WINKS

A deep pall of sadness was cast over the district last Wednesday when word came that our good neighbor Guy Whitlock had passed away in Edmonton. Guy's cheery smile and pleasant word will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He came with his wife and family to make his home in Wildmere about ten years ago. From the first they were good neighbors willing to help if help was needed. Guy was a great friend of the young people who will truly miss him at church and at their social doings. He leaves to mourn his passing his loving wife and two daughters Margaret and Hazel, his father and one sister Mrs. John Wilhite of Vermilion and a brother William of Triangle district. The large attendance at his funeral on Saturday showed the high esteem the family holds in the district and surrounding comunities. It was a very comforting sermon Rev. MacKay gave to the sorrowing family and congregation. Pall bearers were J. Wilson, J. Baike, R. Smith, R. Martin, Cliff Cruthers and J. Wallington, al neighbors of the deceased. After the funeral mourners and friends were invited to the friendly home of Mr. and Mrs. Hildreth Sr. for a cup of tea and a delicious lunch. Everyone joins with the writer in heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing family in their hour of sudden bereavement.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the Sweeney family on the loss of their father. Mr. Sweeney farmed for many years in Woodvale and Thorncliffe district after coming from Ireland. He leaves five daughters Margaret, Mrs. Wilhelm; Frances, Mrs. Harold Isley; Betty, Mrs. R. Osterberg; Martha, Mrs. J. Schaumleffel; Mary Jane, Mrs. F. Swan, and three sons, Harry and Charlie of Thorncliffe and Dave of Woodvale.

One rink from our way curling in the Vermilion bonspiel was fortunate in winning bad throws, 3rd prize in the 4th event. Skip was Bob Martin, with Cliff Cruthers, Frank Gibson and Howard Coburn.

This week Bob Martin, Cliff and Gary Cruthers and Frank Gibson are curling in the Buffalo Coulee bonspiel.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith and family were supper guests at the Cruthers' home on Friday evening Feb. 18.

On Friday of this week the local bonspiel starts at our rink. Several beginners are to be included in the spiel. Some good prizes will be at stake for the lucky winners.

Mrs. David Hughes of Rosewood returned home from the hospital on Monday. She is feeling very well again.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Haite and Baillie were guests at the John Wilson home on Sunday.

Margaret Fadden who has worked for nearly two years at the hospital in Vermilion is home for a few days before leaving for Calgary to start training for a Nurses' Aide. Miss Phyllis Webb of Mannville is going with her to train too.

We wish to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Eyben who celebrate their golden wedding on March 6. May you enjoy many more years of happiness.

Members of the W.W.I. take note our meeting is on March 9 at Mrs. Noel Garnett's.

Spans Canada In Three Nights

This diagram illustrates the schedule which the Canadian Pacific Railway's new dome streamliner "The Canadian" will follow to cross Canada in three nights travelling time when the stainless steel train goes into service on April 24. Under the new schedule, Sudbury will be a mere six hours and 15 minutes out of Toronto, there will be only one night on the train between Montreal or Toronto and Winnipeg. Calgary will be little more than an overnight hop from Winnipeg, and Vancouver will be reached early in the morning of the fourth day. "The Canadian," powered by diesel locomotives, will feature: Skyline coaches with reclining chairs equipped with head rests and full length leg rests, which are reserved without extra charge, scenic dome-coach-coffee shops in which meals or snacks can be obtained at popular prices, luxurious dining room cars; "Manor" and "Chateau" sleeping cars with a wide variety of accommodations; and the fascinating new scenic dome lounge cars.

We Can Reduce Accidents

We have little excuse for wringing our hands and wondering what can be done about the growing number of traffic accidents, declares The Financial Post. There is plenty of expert advice. But we can take some of the fools off the highways and keep them off. We can also ditch some of our fool laws which we don't pretend to enforce anyway, and replace them with laws that will be respected and will be enforced. We can build safer cars and safer highways. And above all we can hope, and pray and strive to cultivate decent and civilized driving manners.

Highway driving is not just a matter for a special committee, or the police, or the car and road builders. IT IS A JOB FOR ALL OF US.

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

HOW TO BE HAPPY

A distinguished British philosopher once said that the reason it takes more skill to be happy now is that there is so much change. Once, the world in which a man grew old was not very different from that in which he had been young. But this is no longer the case.

While I am by no means ready to curl up my toes, I have seen a great number of changes — the automobile, radio, television, the A-bomb and the H-bomb all arrived during my lifetime. I can remember the day when a lamplighter went around my small town putting his torch to the gas lights. I can remember when gas was taken from my own house, when I was a very small child, and electric wiring installed to replace it.

The philosopher is quite right in stating that this is a time of great changes — but I think he is all wrong in attributing unhappiness to this change.

I rate myself as a happy man. I think I am happy because I welcome change. This column is dictated onto a fancy new type of dictaphone — and I'm getting as much kick out of using it as a child with a new toy.

The same philosopher blamed a good deal of unhappiness on the spirit of competition that exists in the world. Again, I think he is all wet. A great deal of my own happiness comes from competing. Maybe I don't compete with Hemingway — but I do compete with myself, by trying to improve my work little by little. Competition may be a terrible thing if you fear it; but it is a delightful thing if you accept it and enter into it.

I have noticed that those who disdain to compete are the gloomy and dissatisfied ones. The fellow who rolls up his sleeves and gets into the game wholeheartedly, win or lose, gets quite a bit of fun out of it.

Maybe I should leave the problem of how to be happy to the philosophers. I don't know I [illegible] it. I've seen a lot of pictures of philosophers and they were a sad and sorry lot. I think my advice ought to be just as good as theirs. To be happy, dig in and do your best, win or lose, for all you are worth. Work all you can, gain all you can, give all you can. Stop worrying and start working!

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

FOR YOUR HOME

Homemakers, we have wonderful plans here in the office for several good energy savers. Each will cost a little in time and money now, but will more than pay for themselves in your energy and temper saved in the years to come.

You have, of course, seen Lazy Susan cupboards in the best-planned kitchens in magazines. They aren't too difficult to build, and they are so handy. Once you have yours, you will never live without it. It can be made with several shelves to hold baking equipment and supplies, or with just two shelves to hold the large pots and pans that usually require a head-long dive into the back corner to find.

Then there is a host of labor-savers in another leaflet — a combined kitchen stool and chair (terrific for both sit down jobs and reaching that top shelf), a fold-up laundry cart, two types of ironing boards (a clamp on and a collapsible one), and a movable wood box planned for keeping kindling and fire wood separated.

Next we have plans for several versions of a dumb waiter for the having of needless jaunts up and down the basement stairs.

Also, for the home without a freezer or refrigerator, here is a money saver . . . There are plans for an iceless refrigerator which works on the principle of evaporation, a boon for keeping perishables cool. Now is the time to make it too, so it will be ready for use when winter leaves us.

So, in review, these are the free plans offered by the Dept. of Agriculture, Wainwright: Lazy Susan Cupboard; Labour Savers; Build a Dumb Waiter; The Iceless Refrigerator.

For you in the Vermilion area, all the women's bulletins will soon be available at the Dept. of Agriculture office there too. In the meantime, just write Wainwright.

CREDIT FOR YOUR "PIGGY BANK"

Here's an idea a Wainwright homemaker would like to pass along to those who ponder over that stack of cuttings and filling left after making fancy sandwiches.

Her suggestion is to use them in place of the six ½-inch slices of white bread and the filling normally used in her Cheese Fondue recipe. The cuttings should be no larger than about one inch.

In a casserole, alternate layers of the cuttings with two cups of lightly packed shredded cheese. Then pour in the following mixture:

3 eggs, beaten slightly
½ tsp. salt
Pinch of pepper
Pinch of cayenne
2 tbsp. chopped onion
1½ scalded milk

Bake for about 45 minutes — serves 4. Delicious and no food wasted! Whole left-over sandwiches can be used too, if they are cut into one inch cubes first.

CREDIT FOR YOUR "TIME BANK"

To save time, let both hands work at once. When ironing with one hand, smooth with the other; dust with both hands.

CREDIT FOR YOUR "ENERGY BANK"

To eliminate unnecessary motions use a tray or basket to carry things from one place to another within the kitchen, or from the basement to the kitchen.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Don't neglect your windshield wipers until an emergency. Then it might be too late.

Being stuck in a storm with an ailing wiper is both dangerous and temper-trying. Fortunately you need not suffer this inconvenience since most service stations will check a windshield wiper system free of charge.

They will tell you if the little motor that drives the blades is [illegible] and in need of adjustment, or if the wiper and arms are worn and need replacement.

A clear day is actually the time to test your wiper system motor. Just clean the windshield and allow the blade to function on the dry glass. If the motor has the proper strength the blades will tick tock with a reassuring even beat.

Be sure to clean the blade with a wet rag when the windshield is washed. The blade picks up oily vapors and dust which cause windshield smear — a condition that reduces driving vision by more than one-third.

One driver I rode with recently used his 'retired' windshield wiper blade cleverly. He kept it beside him to wipe his windows from the inside as they fogged up on cold, damp days. "It's too old for outside work", he explained, "but it's fine for the inside job — and a lot neater than a rag."

COMPETITION PROVES KEEN FOR COUNCILLOR OFFICES

Town election on Monday brought forth keen competition for the four vacancies on the council, for which there were seven candidates. Five hundred and eleven electors cast their ballots and when the votes were all counted, C. W. Sutherland was found at the top of the poll, closely followed by Ed Chalmers. E. A. Locke was in third position, and Charlie Thompson filled the fourth seat.

The two candidates polling the highest number of votes serve for three year terms, with the third and fourth being elected for one year each, to complete the unexpired terms of resigning councillors Mack Hill and K. G. Urquhart.

The complete count was:

| | |
|---|---|
| C. W. Sutherland | 395 |
| E. K. Chalmers | 392 |
| E. A. Locke | 390 |
| C. E. Thompson | 383 |
| Albert Harvether | 299 |
| George Marvin | 294 |
| K. L. Isley | 73 |

The large number of candidates and the fact that 511 citizens turned out to vote, indicated an upswing of interest in municipal affairs, that despite the fact that there were no definite or controversial issues facing the electorate.

The council for the Town of Vermilion for 1955 will be composed of Melvin Hill, Mayor; Councillors R. J. Payne, D. R. Mitchell, C. W. Sutherland, K. K. Chalmers, E. A. Locke and C. E. Thompson.

Inter Club Bonspiel A Huge Success

"To know your neighbor better is to like him better," was the theme the Knights of Columbus sponsored an inter-club bonspiel which was held on Sunday, Legion- aire's Kinsmen, Legion, Loyal Edmonton Regiment and the Knights competed. Each rink played three games and at the conclusion of the day's play it was found that only one had a perfect record of three victories and this decided.

The winner was one of the Legion rinks, skipped by Pte. Stephens, with Neil McLean 3rd, Vic Tillett 2nd and Stan Mamyluk lead. The final game brought two undefeated rinks together, the Stephens Legion rink and the Gordon Larson skipped Masonic Lodge team. The Legion boys, down three coming home, scored a four-end to win. To the victors went a very fine trophy donated by the Knights of Columbus.

The curling itself was just half the fine program arranged. At 6:30 p.m. the curlers, their wives and many others interested gathered at the Holy Name parish hall where a very beautiful and tasty dinner was served by the C.W.I.

Grand Knight Angus MacMillan, Master of ceremonies explained that the idea of the inter-club bonspiel was to promote good fellowship between the various men's organizations in Vermilion. He felt that the curling rinks and bowling were a definite means of achieving this objective. The cup donated by the K. of C. was for annual competition as it was fully intended that the event held today would become an annual affair.

Mr. MacMillan then asked the Dr. Stephens rink to step forward to receive this trophy. Deputy Mayor Cote made the actual presentation to third man Neil McLean. In accepting the trophy Neil expressed the thanks of all taking part and voiced the opinion that such a pretty enjoyed event, combining recreation and sociability, should by all means be continued.

A short program of entertainment followed, with Mrs. Chas. Upshall playing the piano completed a very pleasant event.

This epic battle for the ancient Isa-Can trophy is open to the general public and a collection will be taken, the proceeds to go to the Midget Hockey Club.

Watch for further announcement regarding the exact date.

V. H. S. Holds Open Bonspiel

HIGH SCHOOLS COMPETE

On Saturday, March 5, Vermilion High School held its biggest event of the year — the first annual V. H. S. Open Bonspiel. A total of 20 rinks from Vilna and surrounding towns participated in the event. The victors included 4 rinks from St. Paul, 4 from Paradise Valley, 2 from Kitscoty, 2 from Islay, 2 from Dewberry, 1 from Chauvindell and 1 from Marwayne. Throughout the day curling took the form of good sheet, bad sheet and fair sheet, but mostly lots of sweeping. By evening, the only two unbeaten rinks remaining in the Grand Challenge were the Bill McGuigan rink from Kitscoty and Howard Barnsley's foursome, of Paradise Valley. After a hard fought game the McGuigan rink came out on top with a close 8-7 victory, and carried home the individual trophies donated by Long's Drug Store. The results of the 'spiel were:

Grand Challenge—Bill McGuigan, Kitscoty. Individual Trophies: Howard Barnsley, Paradise Valley; Broome & Groves 3, Duncan Locke, Vermilion, Scarves & Belts: 4, Chase Bush, Paradise Valley, Tie Clips and Necktaes.

Consolation — 1, Gerry Marshall, Vermilion, Carl Tubbs; 2, Brewer, Laird, Clandonald, Socks & Nylons: 3, Gerry Garnier, Dewberry, Flashlights; 4, Ed Frizzell, Vermilion, Memo Pads and Pens.

Special Prizes

Highest Score — Fred Weeks, of Paradise Valley, Wallets.

Highest End — McLennan, Islay, Cuff Links.

"Got Skunked" — Bill Stewart, Chocolates.

Altogether it was a very successful bonspiel but without the cooperation of the parents, donations by merchants of the town, and the supervision of Mr. L. Dowling, it could not have been on.

The contributing merchants were Long's Drug Store, Vermilion Co-op; Craig Bros.; Stephens Ltd.; Macleod's Ltd.; Chandonnais Family Store; The Northern Hardware; Bolduc's Drug Store; The Nelson-Hill Hardware; McLaughlin's Ford dever. Vermilion Feed Locker Ltd.

Win Saturday Night By 8 to 5 Score

TIGERS GIVE GREAT DISPLAY TO TURN BACK GAS KINGS

Vermilion Tigers gave a great display on Saturday night to fight their way back into the running for a chance at the Craig cup, whipping the husky Viking Gas Kings by a score of 8 goals to 5. The Tigers were never behind although for a short time in the second period the score was tied up at three-all. This rash customers were on hand and saw one of the top games of the season.

The game was handled by Ray Gordine who didn't impress the fans any too much 'cy his officiating, although it wasn't any worse than the usual run. Only five penalties were handed out, three to Tigers and two to the Kings.

Tigers started off in a determined fashion, carried the puck into the Viking end and at 2:08 a power attack paid off when Bill Novak scored with assists going to Lee Williams and Bill Schmidt. The Tigers kept up the pressure and at 2:25 Frankie Ewing notched a counter with the assists to Pat Scherban and Lee Williams. The Gas Kings began to find their feet and the game evened up territorially, a penalty to Mary Little re-acted to the benefit of the Vigers at this stage. Mary was tripped from behind by a Dunnigan and immediately retaliated. Gordine spotted Little's retaliatory measures while failing to note the Dunnigan misdemeanor, so Marvin was benched and the Gas Kings threw up a power attack. Stew Cooper grabbed the puck at his own blue line, outskated his pursuers, rounded the one lone Viking defence man, drew Warner out of the net and slid the puck neatly into the lower left corner giving Tigers a two minute lead. This put the locals three up but the Kings got back into the thick of the battle when Bjork scored from Rurka at 12:03. The period ended 3-1.

The Gas Kings started off fast in the second and Messmer carried the puck down their fair interference while Proctor netted a screened shot which goalie Laporte had no chance to see. Tiger's Novak was sent off for a trip and before he got back on to the ice Bill Williams was benched for the same offence and Tigers played 5's a power play. Short-handed and for a half minute two men short it was too much of a handicap for each Strate tied up the score at 3-all with one minute left to go Kreller carried the puck well in and combined with Ewing and Chryzanow ski to again put the Tigers in front Chryzanowski bulging the net behind Warner, making it Tigers 4, Kings 3 at the end of the period.

Bill Schmidt made the Tiger fans breathe easier in the third when he put the locals two up on an unassisted effort. Not to be denied however, Viking's Tom Dunnigan combined with Messmer put his team again within striking distance but Messmer, who is quite used to the role of the penalty box, (Sit. Sin. In his stocking feet) was sent off and the Tigers power attack paid off with two goals in the two minutes they had the man advantage. Ted Scherban scored on Frank Ewing's pass. Lee Williams made a combination with Novak and Schmidt notched the second, and the count read a comfortable 7-4. The Tiger second string of Chryzanowski, Scherban and Frank Ewing were handed out their paces exceptionally well all night, widened the gap even further with Chryzanowski notching his second goal of the game.

In the dying moments of the game Bernard scored on Doc Klein's pass for the visitors and an exciting, last game ended at 8-5 for Vermilion.

BRIEFS ON COLLAR BONE

Lee Leahy, centre ice man for the Tigers was a casualty of the game when he suffered a broken collar bone when jammed into the boards in the second period.

Playing coach Elmer Kreller shuffled his lines and the changes paid off. Bill Novak, moved from defence to team up on the first string with Stew Cooper at centre ice and Frankie Ewing went to centre on the second string with Chryzanowski and Scherban on the wings and this string showed to the best advantage of the season.

Footz added the needed weight and experience to the third string with Leo Leahy and Stu Barr. This still left Les and Bill Williams. Mary Little and Coach Kreller had specific duties in front of Johnny Laporte.

It appears that Coach Kreller has now found the right spot for Frankie Ewing as his playing and potential scoring punch in all three departments of the game was put on display in his stocking feet. Ewing will eliminate the United Gas Kings and win their way into the league finals against Vegreville Rangers.

VIKING: Warner, Strate, Messmer, Thunell, Klein, Hall, T. and J. Dunnigan, Bjorkie, Rurka.

TIGERS — Laporte, Kreller, L. Williams, Little, B. Williams, Cooper, Schmidt, Novak, Ewing, Chryzanowski, Scherban, Leahy, Footz, Barr.

SUMMARY

1st — Novak (1, Williams) and Schmidt; Ewing (Scherban L. Williams) Cooper Bjork (Rurka) Pen. Little.

Make Up Your Rinks For Mixed Bonspiel

Make up your rinks of two ladies and two gents for the mixed bonspiel. Curling will start again now that the weather has cooled off. Please turn in names of your rink to L. H. Pochert or E. A. Locke.

Kitscoty High School Carnival March 11

The suspense is over! We at last know who is Carnival Queen even though she is, as yet, uncrowned. Miss Phyllis Davies was won, by virtue of a donation of weather from Jack of the Polar, carnival and dance will be held this Friday, March 11. Instead of last week as planned.

Two curling teams from the high school went to Vermilion last Saturday to compete in a high school bonspiel there and one of the rinks Bill McGuigan, Ernest Isley, Sylvia Sheppard and Janet Bell won the Grand Challenge. Good going kids!

The cold weather, however, gave the high school rinks a chance to get out and hurl some rocks, so there must be some good ones in those rinks temperatures

We're glad to see Nancy Jacob back again and hope she is feeling much better. Due to flu and colds there have been a number of empty desks around here lately.

That's all for now from K.H.S.!

Play-Off Hockey

Viking Gas Kings vs. Vermilion Tigers
Sixth Game of Semi-final . 8:30 p.m.

Sat., Mar. 12

Tigers Even Series — Great Win at Viking

Indicating that they have what it takes when the chips are stacked against them, Vermilion Tigers have come back from the brink of humiliation to overcome a two-game deficit in the semi-final hockey series with Viking Carnwright and out-experienced the Tigers turned on a great third period offensive on Tuesday night at Viking, scored 3 goals and kicked the Kings on their way to the quarter finals by a 5 to 2 win each with one tie

Scoring for the Tigers was done as follows: Kreller from Cooper and Ewing, Novak from Schmidt; Chryzanowski unassisted, Scherban from Ewing, Schmidt from Cooper.

Every man played scientiflating hockey and the same as they did here last Saturday when they turned back the Gas Kings 8-5. Johnny Laporte in goal was positively brilliant.

Next game will be played at Vermilion arena Saturday, March 12th at 8:30 p.m., and with the town behind them, taking a decided drop in the hockey palace should be at its best

The Alberta Historical Society

How many people in this district know that there is, in this province, an association dedicated to the preservation of the History of Alberta? It is almost certain that there are many who have never heard of it. Judging from the interest of many it is high time that it was brought to the attention of the general public.

This association has as its primary objective, the recording of our history before all the pioneers have passed on, secondly, the marking of historical sites with suitable plaques and the restoration of some of the more important landmarks such as Fort Edmonton. The membership in this organization is $2 a year and includes a quarterly publication which is full of interesting and educational articles by various pioneers, historians, teachers, etc. An article in the last issue on the establishment of Fort Calgary was written by Mr. Lawrence Bussard, a former Vermilion high school teacher. Another article in an earlier issue gives an eye witness account of the great "Edmonton Buffalo Hunt" and was written by Mrs. Calihoo, one of the few remaining persons who remember the great herds of buffalo which lived on our prairies.

There is, in this area, a wealth of history which will soon be lost to us. For example how many know the routes through this district of the old Battleford-Edmonton trail? Who was the first white settler in this area and where? Where is the site of a jumping pound on the Buffalo Coulee? These are but a few of the many interesting phases of our history which should be preserved.

This year, the 50th anniversary of our province, is a fitting time to take steps to have our local history recorded. With this in mind a meeting of all interested persons will be held on Monday, March 21 at 8 p.m. in the Junior high school for the purpose of discussing ways and means of doing this. If you are interested won't you please make a special effort to be present?

Not A Joke

Up to now it's been difficult to get Canadians to take civil defense seriously says The Financial Post, chiefly because of the wildly impractical mass evacuation schemes proposed for the big cities. It has seemed to most that civil defense against atomic war would be so formidable as to be almost impossible. But increasing information now suggests this view is inadequate. The best thing said on this subject so far comes from Canada's top scientific scientist, O. M. Solandt of the Defense Research Board. Here's what he said:

"It is quite obvious that a large proportion of the people who are likely to be injured by fall-out after the bomb explosion can be saved, from death or injury by suitable guidance and instruction. I will not go into the details of such measures, but merely wish to assure you that from the point of view of the scientist the advent of the thermo-nuclear bomb has made civil defense more rather than less important."

Coming from Solandt, says The Post, that is important advice.

"GREEN ACRES"

TWO [illegible] COURSES

The Lloydminster Chamber of Commerce and the Vermilion Agricultural Society put on two splendid Agricultural short courses last week. The [illegible] were good and the [illegible] good. When I looked around I missed quite a few of my farmer friends, however, I fully expect they will be out next year after they hear of the speakers and the speeches.

MOULDY SWEET CLOVER

It was reported to me recently that a farmer in the [illegible] district lost 10 head of cattle from eating mouldy baled sweet clover. It is always dangerous to feed mouldy sweet clover, hay or silage. Other hay or even grain which is musty or mouldy can be fed to livestock with care and discretion but not mouldy sweet clover.

[illegible]

At the short course Mr. Painter said that a lot of the [illegible] in pigs was very likely mange. Whenever pigs do a lot of scratching it is wise to give them a dose of Lindane said Mr Painter. Lindane of course is dusted onto pigs. It is a poison and care must be taken.

WIRE WORM CONTROL

Wire worms infest nearly every acre of land in this district. They cause more loss to crops than farmers think. Seed can be treated to kill wire worms. The chemicals for treating are available from every [illegible] store or hardware. I would like to put out a few tests to compare the stand and yield where the treated and untreated seed is sown. If you are interested in one of these trials please let me know. We supply the chemicals.

FERTILIZER FOR THIS AREA

Dr. Fred Bentley said at the Vermilion and Lloydminster short courses that it pays well to use fertilizer on grain crops in this area. The average increase in yield of wheat has been [illegible] bushels per acre over a long period of time. He said also that it is best to get up pretty well to 40 pounds per acre of 11-48 and up to [illegible] pounds for late seeding.

LIQUID FERTILIZERS

I just received a letter from the Field Crops Commissioner saying that tests made last summer showed no advantage in using liquid fertilizers. This is where fertilizers in solution are sprayed on crops and the leaves are supposed to take in the fertilizer and use it for crop growth. Similar tests all over western Canada gave poor results for liquid fertilizers.

TURKEY CLUB

On Saturday, March 12 the Vermilion Turkey club will hold a reorganization meeting. The meeting will be held in the D.A.'s office at 3 p.m. Farm boys and girls between 12 and 20 will be welcome to join the club. Here is a chance for making some spending money on your own.

Check that date label on your Standard today!

There IS A Silver Lining

Public Health in Alberta

From 1905 to 19[illegible] Public Health was a branch of the Department of Agriculture. It was then transferred to the Department of the Provincial Secretary, and later that same year was again transferred to the Department of Municipal Affairs. Finally in 1919 the Department of Health was created and given responsibility for administering all legislation relating to health.

The Department of Public Health now consists of fifteen divisions, each responsible for its own special field. The divisions and chief functions of each are as follows:

1. Public Health Education. This division encourages better health practices among the people by means of literature, lectures, radio programs, motion pictures and film strips.

2. Communicable Diseases. The purpose of this division is to record the incidence of communicable diseases within the Province and to advise and assist local health authorities on the most effective methods of prevention and control.

3. Entomology. This division was established in 1944 for the control of insect-borne diseases. It makes surveys of spotted fever, plague, tularaemia and encephalomyelitis.

4. Hospital and Medical Services. Responsibilities of this branch include payments of hospital grants, supervision of hospitals, payment of maternity hospitalization, hospitalization of various pensioners, mothers' allowance recipients and the dependents in these groups. Training of nursing aides is also supervised by the division as well as the organization and general supervision of municipal hospitals. This division also supervises the hospital insurance program of the province which is sometimes called the "dollar a day" program.

5. Provincial Laboratories. Well equipped laboratories are maintained at Edmonton and Calgary. Services are available to all doctors, hospitals and Boards of Health in the Province. Serums and vaccines are distributed from these centres and various examinations and analyses are conducted for the detection and control of disease.

6. Mental Health. Mental hospitals under the direction of this division provide scientific medical and [illegible] care for the mentally ill. [illegible] clinics help to solve behaviour and emotional problems in both children and adults and thus prevent mental ill health.

Hockey Chit-Chat

by GERRY MARSHALL

Well, the Tigers have done it again! Just as they were on the brink of elimination they have bounced right back into contention and walloped Viking 8-5 to force the series into a fifth game.

The Bengals moved ahead 3-0 early in the first period and never looked back at the floundering Gas Kings. Every Viking threat was met by a Tiger goal and the "Gas Gang" were hardly in the picture at the end.

What made victory so sweet in this one was that the Tigers had just avenged an 8-4 lacing received at the hands of the Kings on the very same freeze Wednesday night. The latter game was a closely contested affair until Tom Dunnigan caught fire and pumped three goals into the rigging of the good ship 'Laporte' to break up the game. The Tiger defence was caught off balance by the speedy Dunnigan brothers and the result of four breakaways — three goals.

Some of the series outstanding players have been Tom Dunnigan who has scored the winning or the tieing goal in all of his team's victories; Frankie Ewing who has been full of hustle in notching four Tiger tallies; Ted Scherban who has scored three nice goals and of course coach Elmer Kreller who has been scoring and setting up goals throughout the series.

This Tiger team as a whole has been a surprise! After squeezing into the play-offs, the Bengals have been playing terrific hockey and would deserve a win in this series.

HOCKEY GLANCES

Siberian population rose approximately 16 young hockey players over the past week.

Vermilion Juveniles lost a close one to the undefeated V.S.A. team.

When Will The Ice Break In Vermilion Lake?

The Vermilion Fish and Game Association are in the midst of a guessing contest hoping to make improvements on their pheasant farm and building a boat loading and unloading dock at the lake with the proceeds. Buy a ticket from any member of the F & G and on the stub mark the time and day the ice will break in the Vermilion Lake. We are going to make this an annual event, and it should prove interesting to see how many make a guess in the project. We have now installed an electric clock with lines going under the ice and when the ice moves one foot the clock [illegible] giving us the [illegible] ice breaks. Buy your tickets now and make your guesses for every member of the family.

A lot of people ask, 'What is the Fish and Game Association?'

Fish and Game Associations are organizations that help to conserve wild life and fish for the younger generation, so that they may enjoy these thrills of hunting and fishing that we have enjoyed. Stocking of lakes with fish so that any working man or woman, or children may enjoy an afternoon of relaxation at their local lake fishing and generally having fun. To sum up the whole of the organizations throughout Canada and the U. S. in one word, 'Conservation'. Protecting birds and wild life that need protecting and getting rid of the predators that make such inroads into the population of these fine birds and animals. So far we have proven that the greatest predator to wild life is MAN himself, then comes the coyote or wolf and then the crow and magpie. If we could rid the country of all these predators then we would be in a position to enjoy the life left us by our forefathers.

MAN — First we have to educate the hunter and fisherman to take only what he requires and NO MORE; care in the use of firearms; asking permission to hunt or fish on other people's property. Last year we of the F & G had three complaints from farmers to the effect that some of the prominent people in Vermilion, had trespassed and broken fences, then asked the farmer if a very small sum of money would suffice, instead of fixing the fence. It is this type of person, not a sportsman, that ruins the privilege of hunting for others. This is also why the legislature passed a bill saying: "No man may enter another man's property carrying firearms'. Then they cry and beef because some action has been taken to help the farmer cope with situations as mentioned above. We as a whole are very happy to see this come into being, for then it gives the sportsman a chance to show what a sportsman is, and helps to eliminate the poacher and those who think that any place is a place to hunt regardless if they have permission or not. Next week I am going to write an article on the next predator — Coyote or Wolf.

Vermilion, Alberta

Dear Mr. Editor:

Thank you kindly for granting me space in your letter column. The reason for my letter is to ask a worthy question besides expressing a few thoughts common to so many in our community for a long, long time.

"WHY DO NOT THE VERMILION DOCTORS FORM A CLINIC?"

There is everything to support such an achievement, but such action solely belongs to the reasoning powers of our good doctors depending on their unanimous agreement to the proposal.

It has been widely discussed about the clinics formed and operating successfully at Elk Point, Lloydminster and Wainwright, and these have undoubtedly enticed a good percentage of Vermilion people to go where there are grouped together a body of medical men, giving this confidence that two or more medical heads are better than one.

There is also another point to be gained personally by the doctors, as interchange of thoughts and of opinions adds for further knowledge to person or persons concerned.

Anyone will agree it is getting to the stage when sole practising is much in the minority and in a few years, like the horse and buggy, will vanish.

Being that it is the wish of so many in our locality and if brought into execution, it would only in turn cause the Vermilion people to support their own clinic and be proud to do so instead of patronizing out [illegible].

In view of the fact that our hospital is being made larger and ultra modern, what would be a bigger asset to it and to our community than a clinic to stand by it?

It is my earnest desire that these thoughts will sow a ripening seed in the minds of our good doctors that they may clearly visualize the many benefits to be derived as a result of forming a clinic.

May I state again that this letter expresses the thoughts and the wishes of many.

Hoping to hear comment from those in question.

Sincerely
Ratepayer.

V.S.A. Operetta Saturday Night

One of Vermilion school of agriculture's most exciting literary activities will take place this Saturday, March 12, when the school's choral group presents the operetta "In Old Louisianna", a colorful, tuneful entertainment written by May Hewes Dodge and John Wilson Dodge. One more, they have been trained and directed by Mr. D. C. Folk, who has been assisted by Mrs. Folk as accompanist, and by Messrs. Alex Palin and Lloyd Seath as stage directors. Leading singers will include Docia Lynne, Laurent Levasseur and Martin Krupa, all of whom will be remembered for their sparkling performances in last year's operetta, as well as newcomers Betty Pearse, Helen Kozak, David Antoniuk, Harold Roebuck, Andre Rouault, Ronald Lindsay, Beverley Tower and Fernand Bilodeau. The entire company, which numbers about fifty voices, are all students at the college, and have all been working eagerly since early December to prepare for this occasion.

The story, as the title suggests, is laid in Louisianna, in the early part of the 19th century, and concerns the pilot of a sunken steamer and the child he rescued when the vessel sank, leaving only these two survivors. Rose, now grown to a lovely young woman, is loved by two sugar planters of the area, and their schemes and adventures in winning her hand form the main theme of the plot. Embroidered around this theme are many colorful scenes and lilting tunes, light and easily recalled, which are sure to provide an evening of unforgettable entertainment.

Many graduates, and regular visitors to the school make a point of attending this show, to which the public is invited, every year and never fail to feel that they have been well repaid. This year, many of the students' parents are expected to be guests of the school at the newly instituted "Parents' Week End" and will no doubt be staying to attend this musical high light. Curtain time is 8:15.

Fine Hockey Trophies Are On Display

That battered old mug which has been the prize after many a hectic series in this part of Alberta, the Craig Cup, is on display in the store window all refurbished and ready to be presented to the winning team of the current play-offs in the Eastern Alberta hockey league. The Craig Cup was presented for competition by Craig Brothers nearly 40 years ago now and has been the means of instigating and maintaining hockey interest at a high level in this part of Alberta.

Standing proudly by the side of the big mug is a smaller but beautiful hockey trophy. This trophy is awarded to the player adjudged the most valuable to the Tigers hockey team during the current season. It becomes the player's own personal keepsake.

CIVIL DEFENCE NOTES . . . .

WELFARE CENTRE ORGANIZATION

A welfare centre needs quite a large staff and should be composed of the following:

A welfare centre manager and assistants in both operations and administration. There should be supervisors in lodging, feeding, clothing, registration, social services, personnel, medical aid, religious activities and recreation, stores, transportation, communications and building services. Personnel for the various services should be very carefully chosen. They must be reliable and able to take part in the organizational plans and be ready to report for duty when called upon to do so. They should familiarize themselves with that part of the community which is included in the welfare centre's zone. They must be well trained and be capable of carrying out their particular phase of work. A sense of loyalty and team work among the staff members should be encouraged. Alternates should be chosen for each position, possibly more than one alternate as in a disaster the first one or even the second one, chosen might be injured or be unavailable at once and the work must be done immediately. Also, a worker can only work so long and the work should be divided into three eight hour shifts per day. After you have established a nucleus for personnel a number of recruits must be added who would be able to take over the supervisory duties if necessary. A good welfare centre manager will want to draw up plans while working together with the personnel section at his own headquarters as well as in conjunction with welfare services at local civil defence headquarters. It would be necessary to recruit large numbers of volunteers during an emergency and one could look to the existing welfare establishments in the community. Social service agencies in the locality should be encouraged to make a careful survey to find out how many workers they could spare in case of disaster. Public welfare departments, childrens aid and family welfare bureaus will find that they can carry on necessary services with a small staff thus releasing some trained workers to help in special civil defence work where most needed. Plans should be made to use to the fullest extent the staffs of all government departments whether they are municipal, provincial, or federal. Plan specially to use said personnel in the work that they have been trained to do. While it is very important that the skills and experience of these volunteers be utilized it must be all under one command. Volunteers should be aware of the fact that they will be under civil defence organization. An agreement has been made with the Red Cross whereby they, through their local branches, are prepared to work with civil defence. Nearly every community has its women's organizations. They have had a lot of experience in catering to groups of people. To mention only a few of such groups, there are church groups, Legion Auxiliary, Girl Guide organizations and many others. They could be of tremendous help in case of disaster. Then there are the housewives with their able hands and willing hearts. It is on these untrained workers that civil defence depends for success in their work. Also able to be of some help in civil defence agencies are some of the disaster victims. After basic needs have been met these people who are unhurt can help in the care of others less fortunate. All these able bodied refugees should be asked if they care to help. Usually one would rather work than remain idle. Care should be taken in selecting workers. Some who eagerly offer to work are still not fit for it while others may be a bit backward in offering assistance. Aim to give the people jobs for which they are suited. Housewives could help in the feeding and care of children. Office workers in registration and information etc. There are special channels of control laid out by civil defence. The welfare centre manager is in authority over his centre just as a captain is in complete charge of his ship. Civil Defence is organized preparedness. It helps to minimize the effects of a disaster, saves lives and property, maintains production and sustains our determination to pull through and fight back. If interested in training please contact Civil Defence Committee, M.D. of Vermilion River, Kitscoty, Alberta.

Union F.U.A. Notes

Well, we struck another bitterly cold night for the bingo but despite this there was a fair sized crowd on hand and much fun was enjoyed. Some of the prize winners were Mrs. Funnell, Bob Hobbis, Mrs. Markland, Lena Davis, Donna McLean, Bob Lampert, Mrs. T. Nelson and Mrs. K. Nelson. The Union F.U.A. members would like to thank our storekeepers, McLean Bros., for their kind cooperation in donating the prizes. It was decided to hold another bingo on April and hope for a better night.

This scribe for the F.U.A. has been endeavoring to tell some of the aims of the Farmers' Union, however this time I will try a little housecleaning at home. Since the Round-up day our local has had only one active meeting. It was unfortunate that our secretary was sick when the last meeting was called and before that no one bothered to call a meeting. We cannot expect our Union to do much for us this way. There was an F. U. A. workshop at Kitscoty the first week in March and our local should have been represented there. We hear that it was both interesting and educational. However most of us knew nothing about it until it was over. Let's try and do better in the future and start by 100% attendance at the next meeting on April 5th.

DATES TO REMEMBER

March 18 — Dance. Horpestad-Funnell orchestra.

March 21 — Free show by Agricultural Service Board. Ladies will please bring lunch.

March 29 — Free show by Alberta Wheat Pool. Ladies bring lunch.

April 1 — Bingo and dance. The Horpestad-Funnell orchestra in attendance. Good prizes. District ladies bring cake.

April 5 — F.U.A. meeting. Borradaile members please note.

April 13 — Whist drive. Ladies bring lunch.

DUTY ROSTER

March 21 — Fire, A. Ganton; Coffee, Luther Thompson.

March 29 — Fire, Wes Funnell; Coffee, Hugh Pierman.

April 1 — Fire, A. Ganton; Coffee, Robt. Galloway; Sandwiches, J. Ahlgren and K. Nelson; Cashiers, R. Wilson, H. Teasdale, Grant Roberts.

April 13 — Fire, Wes Funnell; Score cards, R. Hobbis; Coffee, Pringle Galloway.

If, due to unforeseen circumstances you cannot perform your duty, please phone the president Mr. H. Teasdale and he will appoint someone else. Please don't back out on these duties without good and sufficient reason. Many hands make light work. Get your shoulder to the wheel and push together.

Square Notes From Circle Eight

The Jamboree is still the big news this week. It is becoming more evident every day that local sales of tickets must be closed off March 15. Last Friday the usual large delegation of Circle Eight members visited Mannville club dance. The new school auditorium wasn't ready for last week's dance but all are looking forward to the time it will be ready.

Don't forget that Henry Lien is to be the caller at the Circle 8's next dance. Henry is a new voice to a lot of local members but those who have danced to his [illegible] will tell you he is one of the [illegible].

Incidentally Henry has a full hour of square dances and square dance news on his program from CFCW every Saturday evening from 7 to 8.

Doug McColl also does a full hour over CKRD at the same time every Saturday.

Don't forget that Jamboree ticket before it is too late!

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane — Women's Travel Authority

Should [illegible] and wives take separate vacations?

Mr. and Mrs. John Doe, happily married 12 years, say yes. They point out they are together all year long, sharing the same problems, pleasures, general experiences and the routine of day-to-day living. They are not bored with each other, it isn't that; but they like a break from normal once a year.

John is a winter sports enthusiast. He is no rugged, movie-type, out-door man; but he gets a big kick out of skiing, skating, tobogganing, and fishing through the ice. He laughs and jokes about his annual "Operation Iceberg", and the two-week-old beard he grows, but he loves it dearly.

Mary, his wife, knows it makes him happy — but she is a Westerner and, once a year, she likes to re-visit home and the places she knows so well. And, quite different from her husband's more active tastes, she enjoys the pleasures of a nostalgic homecoming.

John takes his vacation in the north, Mary in the west — and it's a perfect arrangement for this couple.

Next week, the case for vacations together.

Vegreville S. D. Adopts $208,000 Building Program For 1955

The February 24th meeting of the Board of Trustees of Vegreville School Division was the first since the recent nominations and election. The report of the Returning Officer, D. W. Kennedy, presented certificates of election of A. T. Mandruk, re-elected by acclamation, as Trustee for Subdiv. VI. and the election of M. S. Graschuk as Trustee for Subdiv. II. The vote in the election was: L. S. Cole 217, M. S. Graschuk 262. There were four spoiled ballots. The personnel of the Board for 1955 is: Subdiv. 1, W. G. Porayko, Royal Park; 2, M.S. Graschuk, Ranfurly; 3, M. T. Tym, Innisfree; 4, R. J. Whitson, Mannville; 5, S. Hinton, Mannville; 6, A. T. Mandruk, Vegreville.

The newly-elected trustees signed declarations of office and nominations were called for chairman and vice-chairman of the Board for 1955. Mr. S. Hinton was elected Chairman and Mr. W. G. Porayko vice-chairman. The Board passed a vote of appreciation to Mr. L. S. Cole who had served 11 years on the Board for Subdiv. 2.

The Board heard the report of Supt. F. B. Facey, and dealt with matters contained in the minutes, correspondence and accounts. The report of the auditors stated the accounts of the Division were well kept and the financial statement showed the Division to be in a sound financial position.

Reports were given showing the probable enrolment for next September and the Board discussed what additional accommodation would be necessary in 1955. The boundary changes under the new co-terminous area necessitated provision for added enrolment at several points. Some of the required centralizations may be postponed until 1956. After consideration of reports the Board fixed a minimum capital program for the year to include the following items:

Innisfree, a six-classroom unit; Lavoy, a two-classroom addition; Buffalo Coulee, a one-classroom addition plus a small gymnasium; Ranfurly, provision of a pressure water and sewer system. An added classroom and gymnasium at Ranfurly were set over until 1956. The estimated cost of this program is $208,000.

It is expected that the 1955 capital grants from the Government will bear a large share of the total cost. It is also expected that the necessary borrowings will be available on debenture with interest at not over 3½%. A debenture by-law will be advertised for the approval of the ratepayers after the amount of the grant is known.

The report on building showed that the Vegreville gymnasium was the only item of the 1954 program not yet complete.

The Board was unable to adopt a budget for 1955 and make necessary requisitions on the municipality. The Department of Education had notified that budgets should be delayed until after accurate figures were available for rural assessments and the amount of grants were fixed at the present session of the legislature.

The Board directed that schools resume the 9 a.m. opening hour as from Monday, March 14.

Alvin Myhre was granted one year leave of absence to resume his studies at the University. Bids were received from Thomas Garage and Milner Motors for a new vehicle to replace the present panel truck used on maintenance work. The Board authorized the purchase of a Chevrolet station wagon from Thomas Garage for $2065 less a trade-in allowance of the panel truck of $877.

A committee of the Board was appointed to purchase gymnasium equipment for Mannville and Vegreville. Another committee was appointed to negotiate for an extension of the school grounds at Innisfree. Tr. Whitson was appointed as representative to the Council of M.D. of Minburn. The Board then adjourned to meet again on March 21st.

F.U.A. Grassroots Workshops

EDMONTON. — Although cold weather caused cancellation of several meetings, the series of 'grassroots' workshops being held under the direction of the Farmers' Union of Alberta is otherwise proceeding according to schedule.

This was the statement made to the provincial press this week by Edmonton headquarters of the 63,000-membership farm group.

A total of 44 rallies, most of them taking the form of combined subdistrict conventions and workshops, have already taken place. An additional group of 27 workshops have been slated to convene between March 21 and April 9, it was learned today.

'Mop-up' proceedings are continuing to boost membership returns it was said. So far, figures show between 4000 and 5000 new memberships have been realized in the six weeks period since the start of the follow-up operations, W. D. Summers, Campaign Director, advised the Standard.

CANADA BUYS MORE SPORTS GOODS FROM BRITAIN

Health Unit Notes

THE IMPORTANCE OF SLEEP

The human body is an engine, it generates power using food as fuel. Like any other engine the body is constantly wearing out, but sleep replaces the worn parts night by night. An auto engine if supplied with fuel will run on until it is ruined beyond repair; the human body, however, has a warning device which prevents this tiredness and fatigue. It has been proved that the body can go on longer without food than without sleep.

There are four types of fatigue

1. Physical fatigue
2. Mental fatigue
3. Emotional fatigue
4. Fatigue due to disease

Growing children need ten hours sleep and teen-agers eight hours. During sleep all conscious activity ceases, subconscious functions slow down, the mind relaxes, muscles relax, the heart beats slower and breathing becomes slower. Insomnia is caused by overtiredness and emotional or mental disturbances late at night. For this reason children should relax and should have no food for at least one hour before going to bed. They should also not be allowed to read blood curdling detective stories before going to bed. Drinking stimulants such as tea or coffee late at night also causes insomnia. Drugs to induce sleep should never be needed when in good health and should only be taken on the advice of a doctor. Beds should be at least 39 inches wide and the mattress not too hard or too soft. The sheets and blankets should be wide enough to hang over the bed and should not be tucked in too tightly. Always have the bedroom as well ventilated as possible. The position in which a person sleeps is important — they should just be comfortable. Also people in the house should remember that a noise which may not be loud enough to waken a sleeper may make the sleep less [illegible].

Lack of sleep reduces speed, accuracy, alertness and hearing capacity and also increases the amount of energy used up in performing any simple act. If the lack of sleep goes on for a long time these changes may be permanent. It is quite wrong to think that anyone gets used to having a small amount of sleep, though some people do need more than others. Lack of sleep also impairs growth and reduces resistance to infections. This means that children suffering from lack of sleep are more likely to contract tuberculosis or poliomyelitis.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

(Held over from last week)

No comments on the weather, just that it is cold. The 20th was the coldest so far 38 below here and at some places colder.

Vernon Nelson spent the week with his aunt Lily at the Fort along with his mother and brother Leslie. Vernon returned to school last Monday. His arm is still in the cast.

The Wheat Pool show held at the school on Feb 15 by Mr. George Braithwaite was very enjoyable. Mr George Davis our Wheat Pool representative gave a very interesting talk on the work of the Pool. Mr Braithwaite also spoke. Mr. Peck, our Pool operator from Clandonald and Mr and Mrs. Tweedie, Pool agent from Borradaile, were present too. It was good to see the Feenstra family (Sr.) and the A. Dejong family from Clandonald. Perhaps another time more of our local farmers could be present. A lunch ended a very interesting evening.

It's nice to see Deer Lake news in the paper. May we have more. Deer Lake is the district east of Allandale and the names are all so familiar.

It's wonderful to have our District Home Economist with us again. We'll all be looking forward to meeting her. Your "Better Homemaking Hints" in the Standard are so good.

The Armstrong family motored to Lloydminster on the 20th to visit their daughter Myrtle and Norman and family. Norman had an operation and was coming along very well.

Mrs. Violet Dwyer and son Donald from the city were home at the Armstrong's recently for a week's visit.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Armstrong on the birth of a son, Bradford James, on Feb. 18 in the Vermilion hospital.

The Co-op show at the school on Feb 22 was enjoyed. We saw some very good films, some concerning the Co-op oil which was educational and gives one an idea of the wonderful work that is carried on in that field. The speech outlining the work was good. Mr. Ralph Wilson our U.F.A. Co-op agent, had his family along. Lunch was served by the ladies, a lovely angel food birthday cake baked by Mrs. Woody Wilson in honor of Mr. Wm. Armstrong's 73rd birthday was enjoyed by all and he has the best wishes of the district for many more happy birthdays.

Orley Omness spent 12 days in the Islay hospital, coming home on Feb 23rd, his son-in-law Don Wilson doing the good deed. In this cold he is confined indoors but is coming along well. Mr. Homer Easton certainly does his good deed for the day by visiting the patients. Every other day he bring along his electric arzor and smooths off the beards. All the kindly acts done by so many were surely appreciated by Orley and also the help on the farm. Billy Strang from Lloydminster is now helping with the chores.

A phone call was put through to Aylmer, Que., on the evening of Feb. 23 to Mrs. Paul Whelan from the Omness home 2812. The connections were splendid and what a thrill to talk to someone dear so far away. Orlene and daughter Paulette left the next day on their journey overseas to France.

Little Donna Wilson the youngest child of Mr and Mrs. Don Wilson spent a few days in the Vermilion hospital with a bad cold and asthma. She is home again and feeling very well now.

It must have been a thrilling experience for Don and his rink to make that eight ender during the Vermilion spiel.

Orley enjoyed hearing from you Tom (thanks so much for the kind invitation) and the news of the boys. Frankie Souder and Alvin Throndson are working together at Hinton west of Edson near Jasper in seismograph work for an oil firm.

Though it was very cold last Saturday our bake sale was really a success. To all those who helped in any way your kindness was appreciated very much. For the loyal support of the people we are truly grateful and for the kindness of the folks at the Food Locker we thank you all. Proceeds and donations will be over $30.

To the lady south of Borradaile, some of those health mines are near Butte, Montana, but there are different ones.

Mother of this young lady was a local girl. Miss Bridie O'Fee — taken from an Ottawa paper we quote: "A Westboro Valentine — Pretty Pat Porter, 16 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Porter of 211 Daniel Ave., last night outpaced her eight competitors to win the Miss Valentine title at the Westboro Community Centre Valentine dance."

Miss Joan Nelson has resigned her position in the city as stenographer and has a position at the Husky Oil in Lloydminster commencing duties the first of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson to the city on March 2. Dorothy Marlene and Donna visited at their Omness grandparents and Raymond spent the night with his school pal Dean at the McKeague home.

It was good to hear over the Pool news last evening March 1st, that Mr. Jack Cross won a reserve championship with one of his Herefords at the Lacombe Bull sale.

Closing Thought: "As we travel through life's shadowed valley, fresh springs of His love ever rise — and we learn that our sorrow and losses are blessings just sent in disguise."

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

ARE YOU INFERIOR?

Did you ever hear the story about the fellow who went to a psychiatrist? He told the psychiatrist that he had an inferiority complex. After a thorough examination the psychiatrist said, "No, Sir. You do not have a complex. You ARE inferior".

I think it is unfortunate that such a term as inferiority complex ever existed. There is only one circumstance in which a man can classify himself as inferior. Because Joe Smith plays a better ball game than I do does not make me inferior. Because Einstein understands the Theory of Relativity much better than I do does not make me inferior. Because my wife can fry a steak with mushrooms a whole lot better than I can does not make me inferior.

There is only one situation in which I can be classed as inferior. That situation arises when I do something that is not up to the standard of Ambrose Hills at his best. When I write a newspaper column that is not quite as interesting as I could make it if I tried harder, then I am inferior. When I am less charming and gracious than Ambrose Hills can be at his best, then I am inferior. When I fall short of doing, on all occasions, something less than my best, then I am decidedly inferior.

Men should not be forever comparing themselves with each other. This only leads to jealousy and scheming. It is this foolhardy jealousy that leads to crackpot notions about sharing wealth, and forcing equality on people by silly laws. Each man should set his own high standard and compete with himself to better his performance. That is true democracy. That is what freedom of enterprise really means and attempts to encourage.

Are you inferior? I don't mean are you inferior to Einstein but to yourself at your best. If so, then you needn't worry about a complex. You are just simply inferior! But if you are doing your best, under all circumstances, to the limit of your talent and energy — don't let anybody in the world tell you you are inferior.

GALLOWAY BULLS FOR CANADA

Six pedigree Galloway bulls were bought for export to Canada on the final day of the Centenary show and sale of Galloway cattle, held recently at Castle Douglas, Scotland. The bulls, which went for about $415 each were bought by Mr Arthur Duncan, the Chairman of the Galloway Breed Society Council.

FIRE CALL AT MANNVILLE

MANNVILLE. — The local fire brigade promptly answered a call to the house of Don Upton on Sunday afternoon and soon had the fire extinguished. It was confined to the one room but it was a flash fire caused by an explosion and burned the furnishings in the room as well as scorching the walls.

Luckily no one was injured. Mrs. Upton and the two boys were out visiting at the time. Mr and Mrs. Upton and family are at present renting part of Mrs. Ivy's house.

Younger Weddings

Canadians are marrying earlier, notes The Financial Post. According to DBS, 24.2% of all Canadians 15 to 24 years of age were married persons in 1953, compared to 21.9% of the population in this age group in 1951.

This is in part a reflection of prosperity; young people haven't had to postpone marriage as they did, for example, in the 30's. In part too, the early marriages may be a carry-over from the war years, when an early marriage was often the alternative to no marriage at all.

Whatever the cause, the new pattern of the forties and fifties has certainly contributed to the increase in demand for consumer goods. The demand for almost everything from toys to telephone lines has been stepped up a notch by the new fashion in youthful marriages.

Letters to the Editor

Winnipeg, Mar. 3, 1955.
Editor, Vermilion Standard.
Sir:

May I express my approval of your publishing the boxed article, titled "Of Many Things" by Ambrose Hills.

When an Editor is willing to publish all sides of a question, and leave it to his readers to judge of its merits or otherwise it can be said to be a really free press. What I have in mind at the moment is "Mill on Liberty".

My comment on the above article is that I have not seen so much foolishness expressed in so few words. I do not think for one moment that the writer was foolish, the subtleness of the article precludes that thought.

The astonishing thing is that he did not learn something of the causes of the great depression and unemployment.

It was announced on the air that Canada has 600,000 unemployed and here in Winnipeg 26,000. Can you imagine anything quite so foolish as suggesting that they should walk the streets for ten hours a day looking for jobs that do not exist.

There is a suggestion for the acceptance of less pay. We have had 12 page fliers delivered at the door urging us to buy! No down payment!

To reduce wages would simply mean more unsold goods, and further unemployment.

It appears to be a recognized principle of free enterprise that they discharge their workers when they have no further need of them. You cannot turn your dog or cat adrift when you have no further use for them or the S.P.C.A. would take action and rightly so.

I will just leave this thought with you. What social adjustments will be necessary when we get around to applying the S.P.C.A. Humanitarian principles to mankind in war and peace?

C. East,

Dear Sir:

As the 1955 Varsity Guest Weekend draws to a close, I should like to extend to you and your newspaper a very hearty 'thank you' from the University of Alberta. In spite of the very cold weather, we had a large group of interested guests.

Since the success of this venture depends entirely on its being brought to the attention of the people of Alberta, your co-operation has been invaluable.

Thank you again, and I hope that you will be able to support Varsity Guest Weekend 1956.

Yours truly,

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Greater Grants For Education

EDMONTON. — The first provincial deficit in several years in Alberta was announced in the legislature last Friday as Hon. C. E. Gerhart, the new provincial treasurer, brought in his budget calling for total spending of $222,963,072 in the fiscal year beginning April 1.

More than $18,000,000 more than the estimated spending for the current fiscal year, the expenditures include $34,400,000 for education, $56,511,875 for highways and $23,111,900 for public health.

The actual operating deficit expected is $2,500,000, but because of statutory appropriations of $43,000,000 for municipal, rural power, government telephones and homestead loans, the government says it will have to take $45,500,000 from surpluses built up in past years.

The budget has a strong theme of assistance to education as the government's 1955 answer to continued pleas of municipalities for greater outright assistance.

Total school grants are up $11,600,000 at $29,380,000 and include $18,160,000 to be distributed as operation grants on a special formula; $4,500,000 for capital construction grants and $6,600,000 for a new school tax reduction subsidy grant.

To qualify for the subsidy grant, school boards will have to ask the municipality or county for less money than they did in 1954, and will have to keep down their rate for operational purposes to not more than 25 mills. If a board has to increase its requisition this year, the government is prepared to pay up to 30% of any increase not exceeding five mills on current assessment.

A new policy, under which the provincial treasury will purchase school debentures and charge low interest rates, is expected to see the school boards receive $9,000,000 in loans this year and, the government hopes, no board will have to borrow on the open market.

While the expenditures for new highway construction are slightly lower than for the current fiscal year, grants for district highways and local roads are up $1,300,000 for a total of $7,925,000. The increase is all in a special contingency fund, presumably to be used to aid districts in special need.

In the field of health, major increases are $1,200,000 for government contributions to prepaid medical insurance; $1,436,000 in the per-patient-day grant to hospitals and increases in the government contribution to the provincial-municipal hospitalization scheme.

Revenues are up from $151,973,865 estimated for the current year to $171,875,115 for 1955-56 and more than one-third of it will come from the revenue sources of the mines and minerals department.

Included in the $68,000,000 this department expects to receive are these amounts: $26,000,000 from the sale of oil and gas leases and reservations on crown lands; $18,500,000 from oil and gas rentals and fees, and $17,500,000 from royalties.

The provincial government also expects to receive $33,100,000 from the rental of certain tax fields to the federal government, $19,500,000 from fuel oil tax and $15,500,000 from liquor.

As announced earlier by the government, homesteaders are to receive assistance in breaking and clearing new land. Mr. Gerhart said this will be done under a homestead lease revolving loan fund, which will begin at $1,000,000. Loans will be restricted to a maximum of $1000 each and applications will be considered by a board to be appointed by the cabinet.

The decrease in the spending of the highways department is the result of plans to do less new construction on main highways. The appropriation for bridge construction, however, is up $500,000 at a total of $5,000,000.

The total planned expenditures are $4,500,000 to $7,000,000 less than many were forecasting but it is understood considerable last minute paring took place.

In connection with the use of accumulated surpluses, Mr. Gerhart said it would leave a reserve which is no greater than is needed to insure financial stability in the immediate future.

PARADISE VALLEY NEWS

The Paradise Valley 4-H club held their February meeting in the school auditorium on the 22nd of February. The highlight of this meeting was an informative address by Dr Creech Veterinarian from Lloydminster, on animal diseases. Marion Holgate also gave an interesting report on the 4-H club meeting in [illegible] stressing the work of 4-H clubs in Alberta.

On Feb 22 the A T A met in Paradise Valley with 12 members present. The resolutions to be presented at the annual general meeting in April were read and discussed. Plans were made for the musical festival to be held in Paradise Valley on May 6th. It was decided that the program should take the same form as last year. Mrs. E. H. Walter served lunch after the meeting.

Curling is the order of the day. The Farmers' bonspiel is well advanced and will finish up on Saturday night. 22 rinks entered and everyone seems to be enjoying the spiel. Weather has been real cold and as a result good ice gave the curlers no alibi for missing the broom.

We regret to hear that Mr N. R. Johnson the newly appointed station agent at this point who was taken to the University hospital, Edmonton is seriously ill and has gone to his home at Conquest, Sask., accompanied by his family.

Mr Hugh McAmmond is a patient in the Col Mewburn hospital in Edmonton undergoing treatment. Mr. R Smith and C Bennett are still in the Lloydminster hospital.

The weather for the last week has been very cold and windy and as a result no news to report. We have a promise of a break during the week end. Let's hope it is correct.

A number of our junior curlers went to Vermilion Saturday to take part in a school bonspiel being held in that town.

SIMONET BROS.' HEREFORD BULL WINS TOP AWARD

Possibly the greatest livestock achievement ever won in northeastern Alberta, was that of the Simonet Bros., Tony and Mike, of Clandonald, at the Calgary Livestock show and sale this week, when their two-year-old Hereford bull Pelican Lake Del Zento 8th, was adjudged the Grand Champion Hereford bull of the show.

Some idea of the competition can be gleaned from the fact that there were 602 Hereford bulls entered for the sale.

Sire of the Grand Champion was Del Zento Junior, purchased from Homer Campbell by the Simonet Bros.

This extra fine animal comes back to this part of Alberta as he was purchased at the sale by Dick Hines & Son of Marwayne on Wednesday. The price paid was $6200.

Owners of the Grand Champion Hereford are presented with a special award by Mr. Leonard P. Lord of Herefordshire, England. This award consists of the Austin Trophy and an all expense paid trip and tour of England. The trip will be made this summer by Mr. and Mrs. Tony Simonet.

The Austin Trophy was instituted by Mr. Lord in 1952 and the winners have been:

1952 — Warren Smith, Olds;
1953 — W. J. Edgar, Innisfail;
1954 — McIntyre Ranching Co., Lethbridge;
1955 — Simonet Bros., Clandonald.

Stockmen particularly will be interested in the fact that the grandsire of the Simonet prize Hereford was imported from the U.S. by Geo. Rodantz of Stouffville, Ontario, who paid $51,000 for him.

KEITH BARR WINS AT CALGARY

Keith Barr, who scored notable wins at Edmonton last fall, is continuing his winning ways, and at the Calgary Spring Show and Sale this week won first in the Shorthorn division with a 12-months-old roan Shorthorn steer, which weighed 855 pounds. Keith also won the reserve junior champion and several special prizes. At the sale his steer sold for the second highest price, bringing 51c per pound.

Keith is the 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Manson Barr.

Attending the livestock show were Manson and Keith Barr, Clarence Barr and Cliff Porter.

Breeders showing bulls were Jack Cross, Mike Ilchuk, Homer Campbell, Louis Hendel and the Simonet Bros., all from this area.

Kaminsky Is Reeve Of Minburn M. D.

MANNVILLE. — In summing up the results of the poll held March 2, in the seven divisions of the M.D. of Minburn, Mr. R. Wagner found the following results and declared the following elected:

Division 1, Castle Scott; Div. 2, Art W. Roland; Div. 3, Paul Trynchuk; Div 4, Paul Kaminsky; Div. 5, Basil Samoil; Div. 6, John Orfino and Div. 7, Nick Petruk.

The first council meeting was held Tuesday, March 15. Mr. Paul Kaminsky was appointed reeve and the terms for the councillors are: Art Roland, John Orfino and Nick Petruk for three years; Paul Kaminsky and Paul Trynchuk for two years and Basil Samoil and Castle Scott for one year.

New Members On The School Board

The annual meeting of the Vermilion local school district was held Monday evening with only 12 interested persons in attendance.

Reports were given by the four principals, Miss Tyloski, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Novak and Mr. Bell. Among other things these reports indicate that there are now 737 attending the schools in town. Furthermore, every room and several temporary rooms are now filled, with the prospect that two more classrooms will be needed in September, 1955.

Elected to the Board were newcomers Ernest Schurman and Claude Brennan, while Mr. Don Taylor was re-elected for his 19th year. Continuing members of the Board are Ashley Cooper and W. L. Roebuck. The term of E. M. Stewart expired and he declined nomination for a further two years.

Esteemed Auburndale Couple Observe Golden Wedding Anniversary

On Sunday, March 6th, friends, neighbors and relatives from near and far called at the J. J. Eyben home to extend best wishes and congratulations on their 50th wedding anniversary.

The rooms were decorated in gold and white for this memorable occasion. Bouquets of roses, carnations, stock and gladioli scented the rooms. Stanley Allen was in charge of the guest book.

The tea table was laid with a beautiful white crochet table cloth centred with a three-tiered wedding cake. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Dora Eyben, sister of the bride, Mrs. S. Samuelson, Mrs. J. Christianson, and Mrs. I. Cleland.

A toast to the happy couple was proposed by Mr. H Wear.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Eyben were married in 1905 at Williams, a village in Iowa, U.S.A. They came to Canada in 1908 and settled in the Auburndale district where they have lived since. They have five children, Frank, Bill and Miss Lily Eyben at home, two daughters married and living in Vermilion, Ethel Miller and Alice Allen. There are two grandsons, Stanley Victor Allen, and Myles Gary Miller.

Beautiful gifts and cards were received from sons, daughters and relatives. Friends of the district presented them with a lovely chesterfield chair and gold tea pot.

Herman and Jenny Eyben of Cloverdale, B.C., phoned during the reception to extend congratulations.

Golden weddings have been quite frequent in the Eyben-Johnson families, there have been five of which four have been celebrated in the last two and a half years.

Annual Meeting Of Vermilion Golf Club

SPORTS CELEBRITIES GUESTS OF THE VERMILION TIGERS

One hundred and one men gathered together in the Legion hall on Tuesday evening in a joint tribute to six well known figures in the world of sport, guests of the Tigers Hockey club, and to the players of the Tigers, the Cinderella team of the Eastern Alberta Hockey league now playing in the finals for the championship and Craig cup.

The event ushered in Vermilion's first Sportsmen's banquet, which most assuredly should become an annual affair.

Headlining the guest list was none other than Tommy Ivan, general manager of the Chicago Blackhawks and for years previous coach of the Detroit Red Wings. Under Tommy's coaching the Red Wings won six national hockey league titles and three Stanley cups.

Jack Berry, well known Edmonton Boxing promoter; Bud Poile, coach of the Edmonton Flyers and former National hockey league star; Clarence Moher, scout for the Detroit Red Wings; Art Wiebe, for 11 years a Chicago Blackhawk defence star, a Vermilion product; Jim Brooke sports columnist of the Edmonton Journal.

Neil McLean, president of the Vermilion Hockey club, was toast master and introduced the local [illegible] at the head table. Albert M West, Vermilion's No. 1 hockey supporter, Elmer Kreiller coach of the Tigers, Tiger team manager Stan Manyluk; Mitchell Taylor, secretary of the club and His Worship Mayor Hill.

In welcoming the distinguished sportsmen on behalf of Vermilion, Mr Hill based his remarks on organized sport and its beneficial effect on the youth of our country.

The gathering was then turned over to Bud Poile coach of the Edmonton Flyers who introduced each of the visiting sports celebrities, at the same time calling for a brief address. Mr Poile himself told of the efforts of the Flyers organization in Edmonton to interest boys in hockey. They have now 800 boys of all ages playing organized hockey there. Organized sport is not a big job he said, if everyone [illegible] gets out and does a little to help. He thought from the large gathering present that Vermilion would have no difficulty in obtaining lots of aid in all their sports projects.

This thought was one for everyone present to carry home and ask himself "Just what am I doing to help things along in town?"

Mr Poile then introduced Tommy Ivan general manager of the Blackhawks. Mr Ivan had arrived in Edmonton just the day before and immediately consented to attend the dinner at Vermilion. He spoke briefly of experiences while coach of the Detroit Red Wings, and expressed the hope that Vermilion would soon produce more hockey players of the calibre of Art Wiebe.

Jack Berry of the Edmonton Optimist club, well known as Edmonton's fight promoter complimented Vermilion on the success of their Tiger hockey club and noted that it was quite evident from the evening's large gathering at $5 per plate that there was plenty of fan support. It was his opinion that sports were just as good as the fan support. His Optimist club supported the Mighty Mite hockey, the Golden Gloves boxing and Little League baseball. Sports said Mr. Berry, keeps the boys off the streets and promotes something for the future. He advocated a Golden Gloves boxing club in Vermilion and offered his personal help in its organization. Boxing teaches a boy to take a punch on the chin, and bounce back for more, it teaches him to control his temper, and in future the boy who has learned to take a punch on the chin in boxing can take a bad blow in business and come back fighting — that's what boxing does for you.

Vermilion's Art Wiebe received a thunderous ovation when he rose to speak. Art complimented Vermilion on using home town talent in its hockey teams claiming that over the years it pays off in interest of fans and development of local boys. In reading reports of Vermilion Tigers hockey games in the Standard he noted with interest the names of boys who got their start in the Pee-Wee league organized when he lived here.

Clarence Moher, a scout for the Red Wings, is specially interested in 'kid' hockey players and is ever on the alert for promising material. He has long supported junior hockey in Edmonton.

A sports writer whose name is well known hereabouts, Jim Brooke of "Brooke's Brook" stated that it was a lot of fun writing a sports column because of meeting men such as the guests present this evening. He found them co-operative, helpful and very, very interesting.

The program for the evening was completed by the showing of the Grey Cup film with the final touchdown by Jackie Parker played over three times.

Thus Vermilion's first sportsmen's banquet proved a very enjoyable event well supported by the business men of the town, and greatly enhanced by the sportsmen from Edmonton and Chicago who were so good as to take time away from their affairs to forward the interest of sport in other points. It was these men with each one building into his remarks, good earthy material for thought, that really put the big event over as a 100 per cent success.

Tigers Advance to League Finals; Oust First-Place Viking Gas Kings

Vermilion Tigers proved to be the Cinderella Team of the E.A.H.L. Saturday night when they eliminated the top-rung highly favored Viking Gas Kings from the league play-offs. They won the game 4 goals to 3 and in order to do this overcame a 3-1 deficit. They won the series 3 games to 2 with one tie, and this achievement was even sweeter as Viking at one stage of the semi-final had a 2-0 lead in games with one tie. Tigers had to win three straight games from a bigger more experienced team — but they did it, in a five game series that saw six games played, and when it was all over the Cinderella Tigers had scored 29 goals while the Gas Kings had notched 28. That's how close it was! The series will go down in the records as equal to the greatest semi-final or final ever played in the league.

The game was played before 1,176 cash customers, a league record for this season to date and just short 24 of the 1200 asked for by the Standard last week.

Bob Haxby and Gordon Harrison were here from Edmonton to officiate.

Viking started off in a business-like manner and Bjork slapped a shot through a sea of legs from a mix up to put the visitors one up. At 4:9 Stew Cooper scored on Bill Schmidt's relay. John Dunnigan was benched for tripping but the period ended 1-1.

In the middle frame the Kings took charge and scored twice and things began to look decidedly gloomy for the Tigers and their fans. Tom Dunnigan scored from Procktor, and Bill Masson from Lefarud. However Bill Williams carried the puck down and Ted Scherban gathered in a pass and nicked the old hemp behind Warner to put the fighting Tigers right back into the game. John Dunnigan was benched two minutes for charging with an added ten minute misconduct for calling ref Haxby some "names". Strate and Les Williams staged a wrestling match and were ruled off. Marv Little also spent two minutes in the jug.

The third started off 3-2 for Viking but a tripping penalty to Strate, an artist seldom penalized, paved the way for the equalizer as while he was off Cooper bore in, passed to Bill Novak and the score was 3-all and excitement terrific.

Strate, coach of the Kings, over-anxious, was again penalized for holding, then Les Williams for tripping, all these episodes adding to the tenseness of the tied-up game and series. Bill Masson body-checked referee Haxby away from the puck and caught himself a 10-minute personal misconduct but no team penalty. With four minutes left, Elmer Kreller outfoxed the Gas King team and made a wonderful opening passing to Bill Schmidt and what proved to be the series' winning goal was scored.

In the last minute or two of play Strate pulled his goalie and threw out his most powerful six men, but the Tigers hung grimly on and the series was won by a one-goal margin.

VIKING — Warner, Strate, Messmer, Klein, Hall, T and J. Dunnigan, Procktor, Lefarud, Rurka, Bjork, H. Whitten, Brissard, Masson, Gillespie.

VERMILION — Laporte, Kreller, L. Williams, B Williams, Cooper, Schmidt, Novak, Scherban, Chryzanowski, Ewing, Footz, Barr, Little.

Tigers Lose Opener In Final Series

The Tigers' winning streak was snapped here Wednesday night when the fast skating Vegreville Rangers won the opening game of the final series for the league championship and Craig cup by a score of 6 goals to 4. With three minutes left in the game and the score tied at 4-4 Tiger centreman Cooper was penalized for an accidental trip and the Rangers used their extra man power to advantage banging in two goals. The game was very even with the teams scoring two each in the first, the second ending, 3 to 2 and an outburst of goals in the 3rd making the final score 6-4.

Proximity of the game to press time prohibits a detailed report but Bill Schmidt, Tiger left winger scored three goals and receives a Stetson hat from Ernie Clendenning for his 'hat trick'.

VEGREVILLE — Lesnik, Buehrer, Bandura, Demchuk, B and Z Charuk, Elluk, Vegara, Uhryn, Makowichuk, Shandro, Malinski, Hrechuk, Horton.

VERMILION — Laporte, Kreller, L. Williams, B. Williams, Cooper, Schmidt, Novak, Scherban, Ewing, Chryzanowski, Footz, Barr, Little.

President — Jim Barnett
Vice-Pres — Gordon Gould
Sec Treas — Dave Martin
Executive — W. L. Brown, Ralph Anderson, Melvin Beck, Wellington Barnett, Paddy McGuigan.

Bill Schmidt Wins A New Stetson

Immediately following the game Wednesday night Manager Ernie Clendenning of Clendenning's Family Wear, presented Bill Schmidt with a brand new Stetson hat. This was in recognition of the hat trick marked up by Bill that game notching three of his team's counters. Clendenning's gives a hat to every Tiger player who scores a hat trick. This is the first hat to be won this year for scoring goals, but Johnny Laporte was presented with a hat for saving goals. He scored a shut out over these same Vegreville Rangers and Mr Clendenning marked the achievement with a new hat.

In normal years one out of four manufacturing companies in Canada operates at a loss.

Ted Scherban received a nasty gash in the cheek by a high stick in the third period which necessitated several stitches to close.

THE GREAT SAINT PATRICK—

This is the week when all those people who hailed from the little green island of Ireland will celebrate the day of their patron saint and shamrocks will dominate the decorations and cards sharing the honor with harps and green ribbons while a good many persons will think gratefully of a man who drove the snakes from his homeland. These are the traditions and the first thoughts to come to mind for Saint Patrick was not considered for them.

Mowed while he was in St. Martin's Abbey at Tours to undertake the conversion of the pagan Irish this monk who had been sold into slavery to an Ulster chieftain and subsequently escaped to France founded over 365 churches, ordained with his own hand more than 12,000 persons and ordained a great number of priests. He made his See at Armagh about the year 451. According to the encyclopedia there are preserved his "confessions and a letter addressed to a Welsh chief named Coroticus both written in barbarous Latin but of historical value.

But whether or not he as is claimed, drove out all the venomous creatures in the Island, his fame remains to this day when all those with Irish blood or Irish memories will look for a bit of shamrock and bid you "Top of the Morning" in memory of the talents the irrepressible Irish and the good saint himself whose good deeds are remembered after these 1500 years.

HOW GOOD ARE YOUR SCHOOLS?

Here is a test. Do they stress mastery of essential skills, mastery of essential knowledge, good health, good citizenship, character, good home life ability to think, ability to get along with others, personal adjustment and development of individual abilities and talents" If they do they are well nigh perfect but if they come near they are serving you well.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

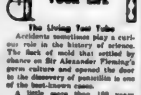
Mr and Mrs. John Doe, with different reactions to the prospect of vacation fun. In 1822, a young French-Canadian, Alexis St. Martin, was accidentally shot in the chest on Mackinac Island A U. S. Army physician named William Beaumont was called to treat the wound in the stomach, torn open by close-range firing Beaumont worked hard but failed to close the wound. Nevertheless, he was able to apply bandages in such a way that the stomach could still do its normal work

A year later the boy needed a catheter, and Beaumont gave it to him through the hole in the stomach. It worked so well as if it had been given by mouth.' With great daring Beaumont then decided to launch a series of experiments that won him honors as one of medicine's greatest researchers."

Out of St. Martin's open wound he made a living test tube. He dangled meat, bit, of food on string into the hole and hours later withdrew from the stomach what was left, carefully noting what he saw.

In seven years Beaumont executed 238 experiments on a often rebellious subject He proved man's digestive process was purely chemical and that emotional disturbances could affect digestion or even stop it.

St. Martin lived long after Beaumont died, earning his living from medical wonder.



Here's the problem. Even though they have different ideas of vacation fun they wouldn't dream of being separated during their two weeks' holiday.

Jack's chief enthusiasm is fishing. He likes nothing better than to spend every daylight hour hip deep in a trout stream. Jane's idea of a vacation is to get away from the cook stove, meet new people, play leisurely afternoon bridges and dress up for a dance now and then.

The Smith's neatly straddle the horns of their dilemma by striking a resort with social facilities that is close to good fishing. With a cast it is no problem for Jack to have his outdoor sport and still respect Jane at the lodge in the evening.

The result they swear is that Jane is beginning to take an interest in fishing and Jack doesn't even grumble about dressing for a dance

"No separate vacations for us!" say the Smiths "We've found that we can eat our cake and have it too!"

The Long Shadows

ALBERTA'S PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAM

The most precious possession of any individual is his health. Similarly the most valuable of all resources of any country is the health of its people. Alberta's Department of Public Health exists to safeguard this resource by seeking to prevent disease when it strikes, to assist in the recovery of the individual

The Province of Alberta has obtained a favorable financial position the advantages of which are being shared by all.

As a result, Government services are being offered on a scale that was financially impossible ten years ago. This is particularly true in regard to public health services.

Ten years ago the Government of Alberta spent $3,285,000 on public health During 1954-55 the overall expenditure increased to $24,482,000, of which $2,760,000 will be refunded from the federal treasury During the past ten years, public health services have cost the Government of Alberta more than $92,000,000.

What do we get for all this money?

The expenditures which have been made by the Department of Health have undoubtedly brought better health to the people They have also helped relieve the financial burden of those who have been victims of disease. Even in a health services is heavy. But the value of better health cannot be calculated in monetary terms.

The department provides the people of Alberta with a well-rounded health program. It begins with pre-natal and post-natal care, child-help clinics and school health supervision conducted by trained nurses in the health units and the municipal nursing districts. It stresses prevention through intensive immunization campaigns, and carries on with the most effective known measures for control of communicable diseases. It provides for the diagnosis and treatment services for the most serious causes of ill-health and continues through to hospital, medical, surgical and, dental care for persons who are no longer dependent. It is designed to give help where help is needed most and in short, to promote better health for the people

Public health services include a hospitalization program available to 95 per cent of Alberta's population with standard ward care (when it is needed) at a direct cost to the individual of $1 per day Hospital "extras" are available similarly for an additional dollar per day Mentally hospitalization up to 12 days of standard public ward care is provided at government expense to all mothers who are residents of Alberta Complete hospital and medical services are given those receiving various grants and allowances The province has assumed the cost of caring for those suffering from tuberculosis, cancer, except hospitalization, poliomyelitis, mental and teenspring chronic cases) rheumatoid arthritis

Out of the other health services provided by the Department of Public Health for the 1953-54 fiscal year in Alberta (exclusive of hospital construction grants) $1,258,893 Local Health Units $1,291,302, Public Health Nursing $1,030,000, Mental Health $1,570,000, Public Health Laboratories $241,115, Publicity $75,000, Division of Cancer (research) $19,000, Mental Health Clinics $24,000, Dental Health Services

Built By The School Division

New, Large Gymnasium Is Opened At Mannville

MANNVILLE — The official opening of the Mannville gymnasium, one of two built in the Vegreville School Division, was held on Friday, March 11 with about 700 people in attendance. This would not include the young people taking part in the program.

The program put on by the Junior high and High school students was splendid. A lot of work and coaching was shown in the two plays, "The Princess and the Woodcutter", by Mr Rostron's Grade 7 and 8 room and "Rumpelstiltskin" by Mrs. Ross' Grade 7 class. These fairy tales were brought to life and excellently portrayed by the young people in these grades. The scenery was painted by the pupils themselves.

The Grade 10 music class, directed very capably by Miss Nelson sang two numbers, 'The Loreley' and 'All Through the Night'. Later in the program Miss Nelson directed the Senior high school girls' chorus and their rendition of 'Happy Wanderer' was given in such a happy mood that it left the audience feeling the same.

About 110 pupils, trained by Mrs. Park, Mr Rostron and Mrs. Ross joined forces in a Junior high school chorus under the direction of Mr. Rostron. The three numbers — 'Waltzing Matilda', 'Stars of the Summer Night' and Vive L'Amour were in different tempos, the first quite sprightly, the second a softer and quieter selection with the last a short number with gusto. This chorus was full proof of the results of training young voices.

A square dance demonstration by Mrs. Park's grade 9 class added a bit of variety to an excellent program.

Individual numbers by pupils of Mr Misik's grade 8 and 9 room included a piano duet by Misses June Van Dusen and Donna Doherty; a recitation by Miss Joan Clennett and an accordian solo by Miss Lillian Zaharia. All in all, it was truly an excellent program and with the facilities of the new gym there will probably be more entertainment by the school pupils and various organizations.

Rev Mr Holter read the Invocation. There were visitors from the Dept. of Education, Vegreville S.D., Government of Alberta and Village of Mannville.

Mr Hinton, chairman of the Vegreville School Division board, has held that position for a number of years and was on the first board formed after the inauguration in the enlarged division. When the enlarged division was formed in 1936 there were 72 rural schools. Mannville joined three years later and Minburn, Innisfree, Ranfurly Vegreville and Lavoy in that order. Today there are four rural schools left and some of these may be brought in by bus this fall.

Mr R. W. Hay, Mayor of Mannville, brought hearty greetings and congratulations from the village on completion of such a fine building. The young people are the best natural resources of the province, he said and we are marching on to the days when the older ones will have to pass their duties on to the younger generation. There is no doubt of the outcome with the training the young people are now getting.

Mr. Oliver Willes on behalf of the Mannville and District Home and School Association brought greetings and remarked the Physical Education and social events essential to the pupils could be carried out to better advantage with the new gym as well as Home and School activities.

Mr W. R. Cornish, M.L.A., congratulated the Board for their foresight and courage in erecting such a building. The Government has seen fit to grant over 20 million dollars to the cost of education this year.

Mr. Facey, Superintendent of schools for Vegreville S.D. praised the fine program. He said this was the first full scale gymnasium built by the Vegreville S.D. This building will fill a definite need in the school and community.

Mr Russell Whitson was primarily concerned with the supervision of the building. He spoke on the cost of the building and the excellent work of the architect and contractors in its erection. There is not such a large rural centralization anywhere as in Mannville and Mr. Whitson is of the opinion that every youngster, regardless of where he or she live should have every opportunity to complete his or her education. Mr Whitson thanked the school teachers for the excellent program and the ladies of the Home and School for serving lunch at the completion of the evening's program.

Mr. Doherty was chairman for the evening and introduced the various speakers. When he introduced Mr. Frank Swan of the Department of Education he reminded him that once he, Mr. Doherty, was a grade 12 student in the school taught by Mr Swan, so this was a memorable occasion for them both.

Mr Swan brought best wishes from the Minister and Dept. of Education. He commented favorably on the program and stated that the evening's program was a full justication of the courage of the trustees of the Division in erecting the building. He mentioned specially the number of nationalities blending in dancing, music and drama in the school program and he was pleased to see it.

Mr. Swan spoke on the reorganizing of school division boundaries. This division here was not seriously affected, but the work involved in changing the boundaries was immense. He spoke to the boys and girls present congratulating them on the program and suggesting that if they co-operate with their teachers many school activities could be carried out in the gym.

Mr. Swan presented Mr. Doherty with a beautiful picture, depicting some of Canada's scenic beauty, on behalf of the Department of Education.

The serving of refreshments brought a historical and important event to a pleasant close.

WILDMERE WINKS

It seems we cannot write the Winks without the Grim Reaper breaking in. This time another grand neighbor who also was an old timer and saw many changes in our country, Mr. Bretcher, has passed away. He lived and farmed in the Battleview district for many years before moving to make his home in Vermilion where he could take things easier. He resided in town until his death. He had no relatives in this country but we believe a sister lives in Buffalo. There was a large attendance of old friends and neighbors at his funeral held last Saturday afternoon, among them being close neighbors who lived near him on the farm but who have since moved away Mr. and Mrs. P. Ammeter of Red Deer, Dorothy and Ernie Walters also of Red Deer and Mrs. W. Alexander of Rimbey. Rev. MacKay gave a very comforting sermon and familiar hymns, favorites of the deceased, were sung. Pallbearers were Lindy Fadden, Albert Holte, Peter Jensen, George Symes, George Harrison and Mr. Banks. Mr. Bretcher's smile and cheery greeting will be greatly missed.

We are sorry to hear Mr Joe Winters is very ill in hospital. His brother Peter who resides in the States came to visit him last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sweeney and family visited on Sunday March 6 at the Wallington home.

In the bonspiel at our local rink the winners were: Grand Challenge — Skip Art Lysons, Ray Preston, Ray McQuid and Adam Duzseck; 2nd, (Corn Poppers donated by Geo. Symes) won by skip George Harrison, Elmer Wolters, Roy Dibben and Bryon Fraser; 3, Skip Billie McGrath, Frank Watson, Bobby Graham and George Symes, prize, tea pots; 4, Clocks, went to Skip Billie Veitch, Jimmie Clark, Mrs. Bathe and Jack Veitch. Winners in the second event were: Lamp, won by Skip Frank Gibson and rink: 2nd, nut cracker sets, Harry Symes. Third event — 1, Forest Seale, casseroles; 2, Skip Cliff Cruthers, trouble lamps. The hard luck prize went to Ray Osterberg's rink, wallets. For the biggest and scared, salt and pepper sets Kaare Bekke. Good crowds were on hand to watch the games during the spiel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Cruthers were visitors to the Wallington home lately.

Last but not least — This Saturday March 19 is election day for the election of a councillor and hospital representative for Div. 3. Plan to come out and vote for your choice in these offices. The main thing folks is to vote!

The lyrics of the patriotic song 'O Canada' were written by the son of a Quebec blacksmith who ran away from home to live in the United States.

ALLANDALE NEWS

The Allandale W.A. met at the Armstrong home on the afternoon of March 10. The members were all present, one visitor Mrs. Woody Wilson and family. It's pleasing to have the men folk come out too. Some discussion took place re our spring supper and bazaar. Recently Gus Throndson, Herb McPhee and Orley Ommes worked a day at the church. Our May meeting will be at the Idmore Nelson home. Lunch, Mrs. McPhee and Mrs. Wilson.

On the morning of March 11 Jack Cross took a number of his purebred Herefords to the Calgary Bull sale. He was accompanied by Louie Baldock. We all wish him best of luck.

Billy Strang went home for the week end by bus to Lloydminster last Saturday evening. He is helping on the Ommes farm.

A [illegible] birthday supper for Orley Ommes at his daughter's home Mr and Mrs Don [illegible] and family on March 11. The day it was planned Orley was taken to the hospital so it was postponed for a month. Don was scheduled for a curling game at 7:30 p.m. at Dewberry. Orley and Mr Joe Killion did some reminiscing. In part, hunting some 12 years ago up north of Wolfe Lake, were very successful too. Joe was then 70, now 82 years young, and may he enjoy many more years with us. Joe by the way, still enjoys a good game of curling.

Mr and Mrs. W. Hogeboom of Derwent were visitors at their nieces Mrs. Baldock's last Sunday. Aunt Mary stayed and will keep Mildred company while Louie is in Calgary at the bull sale.

Closing Thought: "Truly to love all means that we would do no wrong to anyone. The next step, which is harder, is to practice Christ-like love to all, to serve anywhere we are, to help anyone we can, and to love all with a deep, true love."

Great Variety of Activity At Islay

Keep in mind the whist drive in the hall, March 25th, sponsored by the Home and School Association. Come for a pleasant social evening. This is one of the gatherings of the school district.

Aren't we glad to see two more houses occupied, with gleaming lights from the windows these nights. Mr. and Mrs. Jack McNeely are home after being at The Pas for a month or so. And the manse is occupied by a family, Mr. and Mrs Nelson and three children. Mr. Nelson is agent for Rawleigh products. We welcome you to our midst.

Mr and Mrs. John Marie had visitors over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Marie from Edmonton, also Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stollery, Jean and the twins who came to visit son David at the Agricultural College, and hear the operetta.

School received three pupils this week, making our attendance 94 again. On Monday the photographer visited the school so the students will see themselves as others see them. Also a Public Health nurse showed a film on "Nurse In Training." We believe it stirred up some enthusiasm for the profession.

Not many times do we see a team of horses come into town. Occasionally Emerson Ternoster is seen with his spanking team with sleigh and hayrack. Today we saw Hazel McFadyen with a lively team on the sleigh. We noticed Ronnie at the dance Friday, his arm still in a sling.

On Monday night's ten o'clock news we heard birthday congratulations to Mr Dan Gilchrist, 85 years young, who is a patient in the Col. Mewburn hospital. Dan came to Islay in 1904 from Islay, Ontario and homesteaded here, along with five brothers. Dan went overseas with the 49th Battalion in the First World War and saw much action.

Mrs. Violet Scheffer was home for one day, Sunday, from hospital, returning that evening. She is much improved. Our hospital is still filled with patients. We are fortunate in having a hospital in our midst; maybe we take it too much for granted — let it disappear and we will know then that we had a great blessing. Doctors don't drive out to their patients these days—they are an exception if they do — but we have one in Dr. Swert, as many of you well know.

St. Saviour's Junior Auxiliary is holding a bake sale on Saturday March 26 in the Co-op store starting at 2:30 p.m. 37-8

GOOD NEWS FOR Homemakers

FEED YOUR FLOCK A FONDUE

Eggs are in the limelight! They're plentiful, and they're less expensive than they've been for a long time. And, of course, eggs rate "excellent" as a protein food; fine for the time you want a meatless meal. From most any standpoint, there couldn't be a better choice than eggs for main dishes this season.

Golden fluffy fondue is an egg favorite from way back. And it's a dream to fix. Take a few eggs, some grated cheese, a can of condensed soup, and a couple of cups of bread cubes. All foods you're likely to have on hand. Once they're combined, the oven does the work. And you get the credit!

A salad of apples, walnuts, and pineapple chunks can be tossed on a bed of crisp lettuce just before the fondue comes out of the oven. Dessert could be rhubarb pie baked with the [illegible]. And there's a meal to please your flock and keep the budget balanced!

[illegible]

- 4 eggs, separated
- 1 cup (4-ounces) grated sharp cheese
- ½ teaspoon dry mustard
- 1 can (1¼ cups) condensed cream of mushroom or celery soup
- 2 cups small bread cubes

Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. [illegible] beat egg yolks until thick. Combine egg yolks, cheese, mustard, soup, and bread cubes. Gently fold in egg whites. Bake in a greased 1½-quart casserole for 1 hour in a slow oven (325°F.). 6 servings.

Carry the fondue quickly to the table to serve while at its peak of perfection. Note: If desired, you may bake it in individual casseroles; these are pretty enough to serve at a luncheon. Then baking time will be shortened.

Mrs. Harvey Anderson was hostess to her friends and neighbors Tuesday evening March 8 to honor Miss Donalda Daley, a bride-elect. Several contests were played.

The gifts were presented in a beautifully decorated basket, in a most pleasing manner by former school pals of the bride-to-be. She was the recipient of many lovely and useful presents. Donalda responded with words of [illegible] appreciation and invited her friends to visit her in her new home near the Battle River.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by her neighbors, brought a very pleasant evening to a close.

"Thinking Day" For Guides, Brownies

The 22nd of February was Thinking Day for Girl Guides and Brownies all over the world. Vermilion's Brownies also held their Thinking Day ceremony in remembrance of their founder, Lord Baden Powell.

The following Sunday Feb. 27 there was a church parade at the Alliance chapel. Despite the cold weather there was a fair attendance.

The mothers of the Brownie's are to be thanked for the baking and lunch donated for the tea and bake sale recently.

Remember the biscuit sale coming up in the early part of May.

David MacKay Gets Odd Parcel

David MacKay son of the Rev. and Mrs. C. W. MacKay, received a very odd parcel through the mail last week. It came in its own wrappings, a coconut, all the way from Florida. The address label, customs declaration and stamps were all right on the shell. It was of a variety seldom seen here, larger and more oblong in shape, but it was still a coconut and the milk could be heard rolling around inside.

SCROLLS FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

ALBERTA TO HONOR HER PIONEERS

For their contribution to Alberta's Fifty Golden Years, all pioneers who were in the province at the time of its establishment in 1905 or before, will be presented with Senior Citizen Scrolls upon application.

In order to apply, forms should be filled out, and these forms are available at the Town office, Vermilion, The Standard Office, The Canadian Bank of Commerce, and the Alberta Treasury Branch.

Home & School Hear Address By Health Nurse

The Vermilion Home and School Association held the regular meeting on February 22nd in the junior high school. Due to rather frosty weather conditions fewer members were present than usual.

Those who were in attendance heard a very interesting talk by Mrs. W Boulton, nurse in charge of the Minburn-Vermilion Health Clinic. Her subject was the duties and aims of the Health Clinic.

One point that may be of interest to many members was a rather short discussion on the town by-law concerning dogs. The president made it quite clear that the subject had not been discussed by the Home and School association previously. The stand of the association was neither for nor against the by-law.

The next meeting will be held in the Junior High School on March 29th, 1955.

Mr and Mrs Hitchcock and two children have arrived from Fort St. John to take up residence in town. Mr Hitchcock has exchanged stations with Doug Mathison of the Dept. of Transport Radio Beam station. Mr and Mrs Doug Mathison and their two children are now at Ft. St. John.

Square Notes From Circle Eight

At the club dance last Thursday there was the usual good crowd augmented as always by visitors from several clubs in surrounding towns. It is always nice to welcome these visitors and the hope is expressed that they will continue to find Circle Eight dances enjoyable. The ladies served coffee and sandwiches after the dance. This is to be a regular feature of the C8 and the dance committee for the next dance is Coulter and Hicks.

The response to the deadline for ticket sales has been wonderful. Up to the moment of writing Vermilion has filled 19 squares so that just about takes care of everyone. Now if the rest can be spread over the many outside requests without missing anyone!

Don't forget that Henry Lien is the guest caller for the next dance. That's Thursday, March 24, the last one before the Jamboree. Come on all you Circle Eight dancers, and see how you like Henry. He will prove to us all that square dancing is fun!

SQUARE UP

Canadian National Steamships operate 14 ships, six car barges and 8 car ferries.

Union F.U.A. Notes

Six tables were played at the card party last Wednesday. What is wrong with the members over town — it surely wasn't too cold that evening. The writer thinks that what was said last week about everyone getting their shoulders to the wheel applies here. The support of all is needed. These get-togethers are a lot of fun as well as being money-makers for current expenses. Come out and see your neighbors.

Most of you who take the F.U.A. paper noticed that the F.U.A. now has an income tax service. This is just one of the things that your $3.50 membership buys for you. For information contact Mr. B.C. Oliver, Room 614, the Northern Hardware Building, Edmonton.

The writer noticed when out on Round-up day that many members did not take the paper and feels that this is a mistake. You cannot know what your Union is doing or trying to do without it. At the next Union F.U.A. meeting on April 5th a money-raising event should be discussed in order to contribute to the F.U.A. building fund. If our Union is going to command respect we must have an up-to-date modern office where we can meet the public without any apologies.

The next social events are: March 21 — free show; March 30 — card party.

The dance which was to have been held on March 18 has been cancelled.

Governments obtain an average of $481 a year from each Canadian, or an average of $1,724 from a family of four.

F.U.A. Workshop At Dewberry

DEWBERRY. — "Grassroots Workshops" are being held throughout the province to stimulate interest in the FUA and to further raise the record membership now including over 51% of farm family heads. One of the first to be held in District 7 took place at Dewberry recently, representing sub-district 2.

J. Anderson, District 7 President, acted as chairman for the meeting and E. Stockwell as secretary. Press committee, Mrs. J. Magill and E. Stockwell. Resolutions committee, D. Mathison and W. Parker.

Mrs. Mildred Redman, Provincial Director for District 7 welcomed those attending the Workshop, and Mrs. D. Mathison, Provincial vice-president conducted the Workshop. In explaining the value of these gatherings, she outlined the need for stimulating discussion of farm problems with a continual flow of information going from the Locals to central office and from central office back to the local level. A demonstration of a canvasser approaching a farmer to join the FUA was given with H. Craige acting as the canvasser and C. Hamilton portraying the argumentative farmer.

Buzz sessions followed with such subjects as "Making local meetings more interesting"; "The Formation of a National Farm Union"; and "Whether Finances were the main farm problem at the present time and whether Parity Prices offered a solution".

Sub-district 2 convention with the election of the sub-district director was on the afternoon agenda. Tom Foy was re-elected to this position after a brief report of his activities during the past year.

Resolutions passed included the following: That P.F.A.A. payments include a detailed statement as to locality of crop and rate of payment; Revisions of the Income Tax Act to include deductions for all medical expenses; an increase of dependant exemptions from $150 to $300, and reduction of 17% of the first taxable income to 10%.

Mrs. Redman reporting as director, emphasized the importance of the new status achieved by the FUA through its majority membership. We are now in a position, she said, to make strong demands for legislation we consider essential to the farming industry, and if such demands were not met by either provincial or national legislation we still had the use of our most powerful weapon, the ballot to register a protest vote. She spoke of the resolutions that have been presented year after year to both governments including those asking for tax revisions, for provincial car insurance, hospitalization and public ownership of rural electrification. A lively discussion followed as to the best method of registering a vigorous protest vote, with some favoring the formation of a farm bloc and others feeling that more farmers should be elected to both legislative bodies.

Fertilizers Conserve Soil Fertility

Conservation of soil fertility is one of the great roles of fertilizers on farms of the Canadian prairies, according to T. C. McBeath, Prairie manager, Chemical and Fertilizer Sales Division, the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co. of Canada, Ltd., Calgary.

Increased yields, earlier maturity and better grades from the use of fertilizer means reduced cost of unit production and greater profit to the farmers.

In terms of years to come, only with proper and ample fertilization along with good farming practices can soil fertility be maintained assuring farmers of a high standard of living. Without fertilizers soils will become depleted, yields will decrease, the margin of profit will disappear, and farmers will no longer enjoy a satisfactory standard of living.

To earn the price of one track tie, the Canadian National Railways has to haul one ton of grain a distance equal to that from Edmonton to Vancouver.

What Is A Credit Union?

What is a Credit Union?

A Credit Union is a co-operative society, the members of which have a common bond, such as employment by the same company, or a fairly close association together in a group as the members of the same church or community.

A Credit Union is designed to promote thrift, encourage mutual self-help. Demonstrate the practical benefits of co-operation. Give a practical business education to the members. Increase consumer purchasing power. It also presents an easy method of systematic savings and it provides its members with credit for home needs and improvement, clearing off old debts, sickness and emergency expense and provident expenditures including elimination and maintenance of instalment purchasing.

The Credit Union was first established in Germany about 1848 and brought to this country in 1900 at Levis, P. Q. by Alphonse Desjardins, among the poor workers. It is now prosperous and powerful. Credit Unions are today operating in every Canadian province.

Loans are permitted to members only, and must be for provident or productive purposes. Loans are for short terms usually never longer than one year. Regular repayments are required as arranged at the time the loan is granted.

HOW YOU MAY JOIN

Each new member is required to pay an entrance fee not to exceed 25 cents and in addition to purchase one or more shares at $5 per share. These shares can be paid for in cash for the full amount or by weekly instalments or payroll deductions of 25 cents a week. You are credited with a full share of stock as soon as a total of $5 has been paid and each share is entitled to dividend if and when declared from the first of the month following payment.

News from Wildwood

A very successful bingo and dance was held in the hall in aid of the Red Cross drive.

Mr. Ted Wheadon visited with his family here for a week then they accompanied him as far as Onoway for a few days holiday.

Mrs. C. N. Jeffery has her mother Mrs. Hagar and uncle Bill Stone of Vancouver visiting with her.

Miss Edith Shattuck has returned home after a short time in hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fry and family have moved to Vermilion. We regret recent depletions of population in this neighborhood.

Miss Eileen Jack had the pleasure of spending the week under the parental roof.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Harvard visited Irene's mother Mrs. Shattuck last week.

Miss Helen Drysdale has been on the sick list. We wish her and other sick folks a speedy recovery.

Mr. David Jack brought two chums home with him from the V.S.A. for the week end.

Mrs. Ernest Jack entertained the ladies for the regular monthly meeting.

The following resolution passed at the annual meeting of the ratepayers of this M.D. has been a subject of discussion at a number of meetings held recently in this neighborhood. "Moved by Mr. R. R. Galloway seconded by Mr. Roger Watt that the Council be requested to ask the Islay Hospital Board to call a meeting of the ratepayers of the Islay Hospital District for the purpose of discussing the whole hospital situation." Moved by Mr. Skinner seconded by Mr. R. Dudlyke that the motion be amended to read for the purpose of discussing the closing of the Islay hospital and the utilizing of the buildings as an old age persons home." Motion as amended carried.

A few of the comments heard on the above resolution are as follows: Islay would not be a suitable place for such a home as ageing persons require hospitalization and the services of a doctor more often than some younger. A doctor would not be likely to live in Islay if his patients were in hospitals in other places; Some ratepayers (living on ungravelled roads) would have to travel 30 to 40 miles to get the services of a doctor or hospitalization. Elderly people have 'time to kill' and should have easy access to a variety of entertainment. A home for the aged should be centrally located in the M.D. or a number of smaller homes situated in various parts of the municipality as such persons enjoy contact with their respective relatives and old acquaintances. Why close Islay hospital while other hospitals are overcrowded? How many of those supporting this resolution would consider spending their declining years in such a location?

SAVE YOUR EYES

There is a direct relationship between general health and eye [illegible]. Eat three well-[illegible] meals daily, sleep an adequate amount for your individual needs and have a sufficient amount of exercise daily. Eye conditions may be caused by diabetes, high blood pressure, kidney trouble, etc., so it may be necessary to obtain medical care [illegible] these conditions to maintain healthy eyes and maintain sight.

A regular eye examination once a year is recommended, especially if the individual is doing a considerable amount of close work. It is obvious that competent eye examinations can be done only by a qualified eye specialist and that the cause and treatment of eye conditions calls for a high degree of knowledge and skill. As the term 'eye specialist' may refer to any one who specializes in any aspect of eye care it is well to define the terms used to describe the major groups of workers in this field:

Ophthalmologist — A physician or surgeon who specializes in the treatment of eye diseases and optical defects. He may also practice medicine and surgery in all its forms.

Optometrist — A non-medical practitioner who can treat optical and muscle defects of the eyes without the use of drugs or surgery. He may prescribe glasses and give muscle exercises.

Optician — A person who grinds, fits and supplies glasses according to prescription.

To prevent damage to sight from eye disease requires a correct diagnosis followed by adequate medical treatment. Symptoms for which ophthalmological care should be sought include: swollen inflamed lids especially if the eyes are bloodshot and there is a purulent discharge; severe ocular pain; any change in vision such as double vision or dimming sight, crossed or divergent eyes; lid irritation such as styes; sign of fatigue from eye work such as discomfort, dizziness, headaches, rubbing eyes or inability [illegible] close work for a reasonable period; undue sensitivity to light, inability to see distant objects; holding reading material unusually close to or far from the eyes to see it clearly.

Not everyone who needs glasses suffers from eye disease. Eye strain may be the result of a refractive error — one may be near-sighted, far-sighted or have astigmatism. Refractive errors mean that the surface of the cornea (part of the eye through which rays of light pass) or the shape of the eyeball is irregular. These are corrected by glasses ground to meet the individual [illegible].

Eye exercises are helpful for certain eye conditions but are not the cure-all that one is sometimes led to believe. Sun glasses often give one a false sense of security, they do not prevent the rays of the sun from penetrating the eyes.

Reading habits affect one's eyes. Continued reading of poor print or improper lighting are the common causes of eye strain. Good lighting means the even distribution of a soft light; there should be no harmful glare or deep shadows.

The World of Wheat

By W. G. MALAHER, Director, Research Department, Searle Grain Co. Ltd.

GRADE LOSSES TO AVOID

The approach of spring brings with it several dangers about which those concerned with the handling of farmers grain are already issuing a warning. In the first place, at this time of year there is always the danger that because of leaky roofs or faulty walls, some of the farm-stored grain may become wet and develop heated spots. It takes only a few kernels of heated or bin-burnt grain to cause a loss in grades and this situation may arise quite easily if a core of heated grain becomes mixed with good dry grain as it is loaded out.

Another danger to which we drew attention at this time last year is that of grain treated for seed with mercurial or other fungicides. This practise brings with it dangers that have to be watched closely particularly by those who are charged with the responsibility of handling grain for human consumption and export.

Every year a certain number of cars of grain are condemned by the Grain Inspection Department as unfit for human consumption because of the presence of mercurial treated grain. Here again, in many cases it may be just a few bags of treated seed left over from seeding that find their way into grain that is delivered into the elevator. Every precaution should be taken therefore to see that this does not happen and that wagons and other receptacles used in the handling of treated seed grain are thoroughly cleaned.

NEWS from CLANDONALD

Several business changes have, or will, very shortly, take place in Clandonald. Dick Goad who has operated a garage and service station for the last 15 years or so is having a sale of his equipment around the end of the month. He has already disposed of the building to Tom Stockwell who plans to continue with a gas, oil and emergency repair service. Mr. and Mrs. Goad's plans for the future are not definite at present.

Tony Charchun who has operated the Clandonald Hardware for the past few years is [illegible] his entire stock at greatly reduced prices. Mr. and Mrs. Charchun and family plan to leave Clandonald later on.

Alex Grant who has operated a trucking business for many years here, recently secured employment in Edmonton at the Glengarry Club and left to take up his duties there a few days ago.

During the last few weeks with the advent of more seasonable weather, the flu epidemic, which has been plaguing district residents since the new year, seems to have run its course.

Two very topical questions nowadays when neighbors meet are — have you filled out your income tax form and, did you keep your bingo card?

We are pleased to report that Rev. K. Clennett, who spent several weeks in Vermilion hospital was recently allowed to return to his home. Although much improved he is still under doctor's care and under strict orders to take a month's holiday he and Mrs. Clennett recently left on a trip which will eventually take them as far as Calgary where Mr. Clennett's parents reside.

The aerial display which residents of a large section of this district were treated to recently was most spectacular to say the least. Which reminds us of a statement often made in recent years that, there is no longer any place to hide.

P.F.A. payments are still very much of a controversial issue. There are at present two classes of farmers as regards the cheques, 'the have' and the 'have nots'.

Attention is directed to the list of unclaimed Wheat Pool reserves which is found elsewhere in this issue of the Standard. Names of several former district residents are included and perhaps someone may be able to forward the required information to the Pool office so that the money can be sent to those who are entitled to it.

"Behold the Shining Mountains"

—A Book Review By ALLEN RONAGHAN

1955 is Jubilee Year in Alberta and Saskatchewan, and celebrations of many kinds will mark the event. The people of the two provinces are finding themselves examining their provinces' early days with renewed interest.

Mr. J. G. MacGregor, in his latest book, "Behold the Shining Mountains", has performed a signal service in bringing to our attention the work of such an interesting but little-known man as Anthony Henday.

How many of us ever dreamed that Alberta's recorded history reached back 200 years to the winter of 1754-5? Many a schoolboy can recite the lines from The Deacon's Masterpiece which tell about the time when "Braddock's army was done so brown" in the wilds of Pennsylvania. Longfellow's narrative poem, Evangeline, telling of the expulsion of the Acadians from Nova Scotia, has appeared in countless school readers. How many know that before either of these events occurred in 1755 Anthony Henday, a Hudson's Bay Co. employee had entered what is now Alberta? He had crossed the Battle River not far from the site of the present highway bridge, and had taken part, near Irma, in what is likely the first horse trade in Alberta involving a white man. He had met the Blackfeet somewhere east of Innisfail, and had seen what the Indians called the Shining Mountains, our own Rockies.

These are a notable set of 'firsts'.

Henday spent the winter south of Edmonton and went down the Saskatchewan River after break-up in the spring without having convinced the Blackfeet that they ought to trap for a living. The Blackfeet had horses, lived in good buffalo country, and generally felt that trapping was not suited to their way of life.

Mr MacGregor has read Henday's journals and plotted his travels on a series of maps reproduced in the book. He also took the trouble to visit areas touched by Henday. We cannot now see Alberta as Henday saw it, but Mr MacGregor helps us to imagine how the countryside must have appeared when elk, buffalo and grizzly bear roamed east-central Alberta. He also reminds us of many other features of the central Alberta landscape and includes a number of references to Indian legends, Indian names, Metis settlements and events which early white settlers will remember. Many reader will conclude that the book is superior to "Blankets and Beads" or "Land of Twelve-Foot Davis", composed as it is around a single central narrative.

"Behold the Shining Mountains" is published by Applied Art Products in Edmonton, and is sold at a price of $3.25.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

— By June E Kirk —

While looking through a "Hoover" cleaning manual the other day, I came across these recipes for cleaning materials — just thought they would be most appreciated with the spring cleaning just ahead of us.

For a really dust-absorbing duster, soak 6 or 8 cloths in a mixture of 1 pint boiling water and ¼ cup of lemon oil. Squeeze the cloths as dry as possible, and dry thoroughly before using them. When they become soiled just wash and treat again.

Also recommended was a furniture polish made of 1 cup turpentine 1 cup boiled linseed oil and 1 tsp vinegar. Apply with a soft cloth rubbing first against the grain of the wood and then with the grain. After the wood has absorbed the oil, rub until there's a satiny gloss. But beware — turpentine is highly inflammable, so don't work near an open flame!

And a solution for varnished wood is made of 3 tbsp lemon oil (or boiled linseed oil), 1 tbsp. turpentine and 1 quart boiling water.

If you're cleaning upholstered furniture, prepare the shampoo by dissolving one-third cup mild soap flakes in 1 quart boiling water, and let it cool until it forms a jelly. Put 1 cup of jelly in a bowl and beat until a stiff froth is made, and no water remains.

Now, let's suppose the cleaning is all done and suddenly you realize that something more is needed — that's right, it's time to paint again!

Gloss and semi-gloss paints are recommended for kitchens and bathrooms because steam will not harm the finish, and because they wash so successfully.

Latex paints, by the way, are not recommended for those two rooms. They require 30 days to cure and become waterproof. And during that time, the atmosphere should be relatively dry, which is impossible in a bathroom or kitchen.

About using a brush — don't dip it too deeply, wipe off excess paint on the side of the can, and reverse the brush frequently so it will wear evenly. Most important, choose the right brush for the right job.

If you wish to do a little research on this business of interior decorating, we have the following set of six pamphlets that will be no end of help to you.

They are: Curtains Going Up; Putting Furniture in its Place; Furniture Refinishing; Color in Your Home; Flatter Your Floors; Walls and Ceilings — the Stage Setting of Your Home.

'Til next week then — Happy House Cleaning!

WILDMERE WINKS

(Held over from last week)

Everyone was deeply shocked when word was received that Sigurd Salvesen of Triangle had passed away suddenly. Sigurd came to our midst when a young man and has made his home here ever since. His cheery disposition and friendly word will be missed by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn his passing his aunt Mrs. M. Rund and five cousins, Mrs. Buster Newman, Peter, Ernest, Arnold and Johnny Rund. The large attendance at his funeral bespoke the high esteem the family held in the surrounding districts.

Little Elaine Osterberg who has been ill the past while was X-rayed at the local hospital on Monday and nothing could be found wrong. We all wish her a speedy recovery in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. John (Bud) Bathe and family of Lloydminster and Mr and Mrs. W. Westman and family of Vermilion were visitors at the Bathe home in Beaswood on Sunday Feb. 27 and while here they got in some curling at our local rink.

Peggy Graham of the Royal Alex hospital spent the week end at her home in Wildmere. Doreen and Louise Stone were also home in Buffalo Coulee over the week end. All returned to Edmonton on Sunday by bus.

The farm of the late George Wilson has been sold to a man from Lloydminster who will be moving on to it shortly. He is a married man with a family and we will welcome them to our neighborhood.

Ian Clarke of Triangle was taken to the hospital on Monday suffering from pneumonia. Speedy recovery is wished you Ian by your many Wildmere friends.

Marjorie Watt of Viking is visiting a few days with Mrs. J. King of Thorncliffe district, also with her sister Mrs. J. Millar of Borradaile who has a new baby son, a brother for three other little brothers and sister.

Mr and Mrs. Chas. Sweeney and family were Saturday visitors to the Wallington home.

Several of the W.W.I. attended the short course at the college last week and truly enjoyed it. Several men of the district took in the men's short course. Everyone enjoyed the addresses of welcome by Mr. Sutherland and Mr Bentley and the talks on Wednesday by Mr Aalborg and Mr. Haimrast as well as the picture show "Autumn in Alberta" by Mr Braithwaite. It was nice seeing the ducks and geese again even in only in a picture. The talks given to the ladies by Mr Arnold and Miss Kirk were very good and on Wednesday Mrs. Boulton gave a very interesting talk on Home Nursing. Mr Painter spoke on "Bugs in the Home" in a humorous, entertaining way. It was greatly enjoyed as well as being very enlightening as to dangers of some of the powders etc now on the market. We all hope the Agricultural Society and others concerned can see their way clear to put one on again next year. Mrs. E. M. Stewart and Mrs. Lyle Robinson presided at the ladies' meetings. The men spoke highly of the course, and they like the ladies hope for one next year. A lunch was served each afternoon by the college. Many thanks as it was a nice break in the afternoon.

Curling is going full blast out our way at the local rink where 16 rinks are engaged in a bonspiel. Some are playing for the first time and quite a crowd is on hand to watch the games.

Laurence Graham is visiting at present at the Wallington home until work opens up in the spring.

F. U. A. PLANS NEW BUILDING

At a meeting of the F.U.A. Building committee, held in Edmonton March 10, plans for building the new F.U.A. headquarters were considered.

Tentative plans submitted by Mr. Ross Stanley, Edmonton Architect, were agreed upon. A further meeting to finalize them will be held soon.

The new Farm Union building will be located upon the F. U. A. property at 9934-106 street. It will contain space for all F.U.A. offices together with a library and board room.

Construction will start about May 1st and it is planned to have the new headquarters ready in October.

Since the end of World War 2 Canadians have built nearly 750,000 houses with a market value approaching eight billion dollars, sufficient residential building to accommodate about 3,000,000 persons.

Charges Fly In Alberta Legislature

EDMONTON — Activities in the Alberta legislature on the two private members' days last week had Social Crediters reminiscing about the hectic days during the first four or five years of the party's regime, when the charges flew back and forth across the floor and sometimes within the Social Credit ranks themselves. And, in the press gallery none of the writers was complaining of having to write dull copy.

It all stemmed from the request of the Progressive Conservatives for a judicial inquiry into the dealings surrounding the government purchase of lands for a jail at Chestermere Lake, just east of Calgary, and the charges of Paul Brecken, Calgary Conservative, that there were suspicions concerning why a middleman took an option on the land, then sold it to the government a few weeks later, making an 'exorbitant' profit.

The matter reached its climax when Attorney-General Lucien Maynard spoke last week, charging Mr. Brecken would have reservations about repeating some of his statements under oath. The Conservatives perhaps will have an opportunity to make them under oath in court, Mr Maynard said, because he (the attorney-general) served The Edmonton Journal notice of intention to take civil court action for libel under the Federal Defamation Act.

His solicitors, he told the legislature, checked an editorial, entitled "Mr. Maynard's Position," carried by The Journal on Saturday, March 5th, and advised him to take action.

In connection with a judicial inquiry, the attorney-general said he would oppose it on the grounds Mr. Brecken had over-elaborated the preamble of the resolution calling for the inquiry. The Conservative, he said, had made statements and charges in the legislature which rightly would have been the subject matter of the inquiry and, although his position probably would be misunderstood, he was opposing the proposal.

The legislature voted down the resolution by a vote of 49 to 9 with all the opposition members except R. Earl Ansley, Ind. Social Crediter for Leduc, supporting the resolution.

Earlier in the week, Premier Manning had accused Mr Brecken of getting into the political gutter by trying to impute dishonesty to one of the cabinet ministers in the land transaction. And although Mr Brecken did not name anyone, the premier said it was clear he meant Mr. Maynard.

Anyone who would employ such tactics, the premier said, brands himself a "would-be character assassin" and he said he had heard that political opponents, despairing of defeating his party any other way were resorting to character assassination in efforts to discredit the government party.

BUDGET DEBATE

On days of government business, the debate on the budget moved slowly forward, the members hearing from J. H. Prowse, Liberal leader of the opposition, Education Minister A. O. Aalborg and Economic Affairs and Public Works Minister A. J. Hooke.

From the budget total, $222,983,072, Mr Prowse came up with the phrase that it was a '222 budget' and said that a '222' is an aspirin fortified with codeine and caffeine, prescribed for temporary relief but never considered a cure for anything. He charged Treasurer C. E. Gerhart was budgeting for a deficit but also was underestimating potential revenues and could well reduce some of the provincial taxes, like the amusement tax, the fuel oil tax and the unearned increment tax.

The unearned increment tax, he said, hits most strongly at farmers who sell their land and they are the ones most in need at the present.

Mr Aalborg's task was to try and explain the plans for giving aid to school boards and the most difficult part was to outline the new tax reduction subsidy grant formula. Explanations of the formula are being mailed to all school boards.

Essentially, it assists the school boards which can hold the line on expenditures to the point where any extra spending over last year can be financed by revenues from increased assessment and increased government operational grants. If this happens, the school rate will be cut to 25 mills and the government will make up the difference between that and the 1954 mill rate.

NEWS from ISLAY

(Held over from last week)

On March 25 the Home & School Assoc. will hold a card party and dance in the hall, this is a social event for the whole S.D. Come and make this a pleasant evening.

Last week we had a visitor—Mr. Syd Gurney. We hadn't seen Syd for a long time. Hello the Huttons, we learn you are all fine. Before Syd had finished his tea Carl called for him and so also sat down for a cup too.

We do see some of our more distant neighbors when we make a visit to the hospital — whom did we see but Mrs. Elmer Wilcox, that was indeed a surprise, and then there was Granny Robinson too, and that I didn't know till we saw her name in the Standard. The hospital has been crowded nearly all winter, all wards full and the halls too, each with as many as three beds in them. What would the sick folk have done without the Islay hospital?

Last Thursday afternoon the W.A. of the United church met at the Stone's home with 17 present. Mrs. Roebuck was guest and gave a talk on Christian Citizenship. It was decided to have the annual spring tea on April 16th, also the apron sale and that our next meeting be held March 31 instead of April 7.

Two rinks from our school played in the high school spiel in Vermilion. Don Martin skip, Catherine Grant, Rod Carey and Betty Martin made up one rink and played two games while Jim McGuigan was skip of the other with Yvonne Hannon, Lyle Carey and Anne Carey. They also played two games.

The Islay school bonspiel was held in February and results were as follows: Grand Challenge — Jim McGuigan 1st, Lyle Carey 2nd, Henry Cohen 3rd, Betty Martin 4.

Merchants — Perry Linton 1st, Don Martin 2nd, Rod Carey 3rd and Bill Potivn 4th.

Citizens — Anne Carey 1st, Catherine Grant 2n. Prizes for this spiel were contributed by W. McCaughan, I. Inman, H. G. Young; teachers Bill Hannon, B. Teskey; Students' Union; Chas. Redmond and W.A. of United church.

Ah-ha — Grandma Barnett holding out on us? We just learned Monday there is a new granddaughter (Susan) at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hart (nee Barbara Barnett) born three weeks ago. Congratulations!

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Buchanan are spending a few days with Ken's parents.

Mr and Mrs. H. G. Young were in Edmonton Tuesday.

SPRING TEA & SALE

St. Saviour's W. A. will hold a spring tea and sale of work on Saturday, May 7. 36-7x

Plan Big

Plan for a big Canada, advises The Financial Post, because that is what we are going to have. A larger population is no longer just a political slogan. It's an event to which we are already committed. The parents of our larger population have already been born. More school and university facilities, as Dr. Sidney Smith has been pointing out, are not temporary needs; they are part of a new North American pattern. Higher productivity and greater business efficiency aren't just matters of choice. They are a question of the survival for our living standard. Twenty years is a short period in the life of a nation. If we're to meet the challenge and grasp the opportunity of the future the time to make ready for it is now.

The C.N.R. Keeps Pace With Growth Of Alberta

Throughout Alberta, the Canadian National Railways operates 2400 miles of railway line. This is enough track to stretch along the company's main line from the western boundary of the province to beyond [illegible].

What this network of railway lines mean to the economy of the province is beyond calculation. Like other sections of Western Canada, Alberta depends as much on mass transportation today as it did when the province was formed 50 years ago

However there is another, more direct contribution which the C.N.R. makes to the economic well-being of Alberta and this is measureable The company has 6,900 employees in the province, with an annual pay roll of about $23 million As the railway's operations are scattered throughout most of Alberta, this means that hundreds of cities, towns, villages and hamlets share in the prosperity created by this spending power

In addition to wages paid to employees, the Canadian National also contributes considerable sums to business concerns of all types through its purchase of supplies and material for train operation and for the maintenance of its facilities

A look at the amount of work done last year by one department engineering shows clearly what this has meant to Alberta During the past year, the C.N.R. spent some $800,000 for improvements to buildings alone This included bunk houses for sectionmen in more than a score of localities, diesel fueling facilities in Wainwright, Edmonton, Hanna Edson and Jasper; a new water tank; improvements to the Edmonton car shops and many other buildings in various parts of the province.

The most notable rebuilding job was the new 138-foot high steel bridge over the Red Deer River near Ardley, Alberta, to replace one destroyed by ice during the spring run-off in 1952. But though this was the largest single project, it was by no means the only one.

On the Calgary division, 5 timber bridges, totalling 684 feet in length, were rebuilt and 5 others, with a total length of 253 feet, were replaced by fill. Three timber bridges with a combined length of 273 feet were rebuilt on the Edmonton division.

Also on the Edmonton division, and about 7 miles east of the Capital, the C.N.R. built a steel bridge on concrete piers and abutments to provide grade separation between the railway and the new highway No. 16.

In actual track maintenance, railway forces relaid over 100 miles of track with new steel. Over 100,000 cubic yards of ballast was laid over 108 miles of track, and another 30,000 cubic yards were used to improve sub-grades.

Indicating the growth of the industrial importance of Alberta was the building of 32 industrial and trader spur tracks during the year, with a total length of almost 10 miles.

The amount of new construction and improvements to its facilities shows that the Canadian National Railways is conscious of the importance of maintaining good transport service for both passengers and freight, which will continue to increase as Alberta moves into its second half century as a province.

Paradise Valley

Mr. and Mrs. George Rehill, now of Calgary and formerly of Paradise Valley, will celebrate their Golden wedding on March 15. All members fo the family are expected to be home for the occasion. Two daughters Mrs. George Venner, Mrs. Lewis Vire and granddaughter Lynn Venner left on the train via Edgerton on Friday for Calgary We join with their many friends in extending congratulations and good wishes to Mr and Mrs Rehill for many more happy years together

Congratulations to Mr and Mrs. John McAmmond on the birth of a son.

Mr Alvin Lumley of the Vanesti district met with a fatal accident on Sunday March 6th in a logging camp 25 miles [illegible] of Marlboro The sympathy of the district goes to the bereaved wife and family

The Farmers' bonspiel is [illegible] but to date we have not a full report. The President vs. Vice-President curling competition is now in progress

The ladies curling club sponsored a very successful Amateur program in the P.V. hall on Friday, March 11 A large crowd turned out to hear the 26 contestants who took part in the program. A dance followed with the Earlie orchestra supplying the music

We are glad to report that Mr Hugh McAmmond who has been taking treatments at the Col. Mewburn hospital for some weeks has returned home much improved in health

Flu chicken pox and bad colds seem to be the order of the day

Many children are absent from school and others too numerous to mention are ill but we wish them all a speedy recovery.

Canadian National Railways has been named a winner of a United States National Safety award for its public safety activities. The C N R received its award for its system-wide safety activities which include public and family safety meetings the use of a safety instruction car and motion pictures and active membership in a number of Canadian safety organizations

A Day's Tour in England

By Afred J. Wayward Scott, Mannville, Alberta.

During the past summer my brother and I spent four months in England visiting our two sisters, whom we hadn't seen for 26 years. Also numerous other relatives and friends. One day we together with one of my sisters and nephew who was the driver of our car, decided to make a tour of some of the interesting spots of Eastern England. Leaving Castle Hedingham, Essex, on a lovely summer morning about 9 o'clock we passed the 'Eleven Elms' Public House (as reference to Public House signs will occur frequently, and we passed innumerable Queen's and King's Heads, also Rising Suns, I only propose to mention odd or quaint signs). Castle [illegible] old houses which anyone should look at, also a very lovely church both the exterior and interior, standing on rising ground in the center of the village. But the chief attraction here is the Norman Keep, one of the very few and best preserved in England. Visitors are allowed in certain days of the week. Passing on to Sible Headingham where there is a very flourishing wood factory we pass the Sugar Loaves. Turning right we soon go by the church standing high above the road well worth a visit. We come to Withersfield and are reminded of the defence of England, as we are held up, while a flight of jets take off Next Finchingfield, a most lovely place, said to be the most beautiful village in all England. Bardfield which vies with the previous place as a beauty spot. Shebbing Church End where we pass the Angel and Harp. Dunmow, famous for its Flitch Takely. There is a very well known grammar school here. Passing Easton Lodge on our right, once the home of Lord and Lady Brook, later the Earl and Countess of Warwhich The late King Edward 7th when Prince of Wales was a frequent visitor at this lovely mansion, now demolished, only the imposing lodge at the entrance to the park being left. We come to Hatfield Book Oak, once the family seal of Lord Rookwood, Hatfield Heath with its quaint church, down to Sawbridgeworth (known locally as Sapsic) passing Hyde Hall on our right. This hall was used as a school in the 1800's and I have been told that one of the Governor-Generals of Canada, the Earl of Athlone received some of his early education there. Later it was leased to Mr. Thos. Mann, head of the brewing [illegible] one of the very few Englishmen that indulged in the sport of falconry at the beginning of this century. It is now used as a ladies' college. We soon cross the railway line, in doing so we pass from Essex into Hertfordshire. Some very large Maltings at close to the station. A bridge crossing the River Short is quite close. It was in the early 90's a fisherman's paradise, I suppose it still is. I have been told that the town got its name from a former bridge here some hundreds of years ago. When the question arose to the disposal of the old bridge someone proposed that it be sawed up for its worth hence the name 'Sawbridgeworth'. The road rose steeply from the river to the town where we see some very ancient houses and a very beautiful church. There is a fine peal of bells in this church tower. The gate with the legend "This gate hangs well, it hinders none". Refresh, you pay and travel on. A water mill on the river still is in operation. We turn on to the London road coming to Pishobury Park, once the home of the Caldecottes now being built on as it adjoins the Sattelite Locum of Haralow The same is taking place on the opposite side of the road where once stood the mansion Faulkners. Leaving the main road we pass the 'Hand in Hand' and Rivers & Sons Nurseries, which was the largest nursery in England at the end of the last century. High Wych with another large mansion and private race course, Pye Corner, East Wick, Shanstead Abbotts with its mansion and church standing out very prominently. We pass very close to Rye House where the Guy Fawkes plot was hatched, and the Great Bed of Ware can be seen; St. Margarets, an old time village Ware; the town where John Gilpin ended his famous ride from London, a very fine church across the meadows, some very old houses and a lot of modern Maltings. Here we cross a railway line and close by the River Lea. Turning right we cross the new river with its lovely kept banks at Amwell. This river carries the water from the springs at Amwell to London. We follow the River Lea to Hertford, a very old and interesting town, 16th century antique shops, a fine church, winding streets. Through Hertingfordbury, Birchbury, Hatfield where we see Hatfield House one of the show places of England open to the public on certain days. We pass The Three Horse Shoes, Four Horse Shoes, the New Fiddle, Bunch of Cherries, The Raise Cave. Thence to the City of St. Albans with its fine cathedral, also its Queen Adelaide, The Mermaids, close by is the old Roman city of Verulamium, or I should rather say its ruins. This city was sacked and burned over 2000 years ago by Queen Boadicea whose statue may be seen driving a chariot at the foot of Westminster Bridge opposite Big Ben. A lot of excavation has been done and is still being done amongst these ruins. All kinds of coins, jewelry, urns, lamps, coffins, etc. have been dug up which can be seen in a museum [illegible] by. Crossing a large meadow now used as a playing field we get a splendid view of the Abbey through the Roman Wall. We come to the Hypocaust or sweat [illegible] with its marvellous Mosaic, one could spend hours [illegible]. We went into the [illegible] by, over 1[illegible] the only Roman Theatre in England.

It is estimated that every 25,000 immigrants to Canada mean new purchasers for 4,000,000 loaves of bread annually.

Claysmore W.I. Notes

The Claysmore W.I held their monthly meeting at Mrs. A. Olstad's on March 9 with the president, Mrs. J. Willes in the chair. There were ten members present and one visitor, Mrs. U. Bauer. We were glad to welcome Mrs. G. Watling, a new member, to our midst.

The meeting opened with the Creed. Happy Birthday was sung for Mrs. O. Willes and Mrs. Olstad having birthdays in March and for Mrs. J. Willes and Mrs. A. Van Nest having had birthdays the previous month. A. W. I. pins were [illegible]ed to them.

Roll call, 'Your earliest picture'

Owing to so much sickness in the community the February meeting was poorly attended so the business of compiling the Handicraft list from Mrs. Pidcock took some little time. Under the head of new business a discussion took place re the sending of old woollens to Fairfield — endeavor to send 100 pounds and be in line for premiums, the premiums to be sent to Korea. Mrs. O. Willes was appointed convener and everyone is to try and get their parcel to her before the end of March.

Plans were made to hold a Cotton ball in Claysmore school April 1st. Committees were appointed.

The fun period was conducted by Mrs. R. MacMillan, prize won by Mrs. R. Bauer.

Collection was taken and meeting adjourned. While partaking of a delicious lunch (not forgetting the birthday cake) a flash picture was taken of the group. Next meeting will be held at Mrs R. MacMillan's on April 12th.

There are about 5000 stations on the Canadian National Railways.

BOWTELL BULLETIN

(Held over from last week)

Church service was attended by fifteen on Sunday and was held at the home of Mr and Mrs Jones. Rev Mr Buchner gave a very interesting sermon. We were all pleased to have Mr Wm. Fooks with us also. Thanks are extended to the Salvation Army for kindly loaning their portable organ. The lunch following was very good too, Granny Jones.

The writer spent a very enjoyable morning on Monday at the Standard office browsing through the copies of the paper reviewing our Bulletins. The first column of the Bowtell Bulletin was published April 1st, 1937. Admission price of dances that year hereabouts was 35 cents per couple. Mr and Mrs F Deacon returned to England and Mrs. Tom Moore left to live in the East.

Visitors Sunday at the Sherwood home were Mr and Mrs. Fred Payne and Larry and Mr and Mrs. M Malek. Come again folks.

Granny Robinson is feeling much better and expects to leave the hospital this Tuesday. Mr H. Sherwood is at the time of writing a patient in the hospital for the first time in over three score years and ten.

There will be a card party in the hall on March 18. Everyone welcome.

The weather is spring-like. The men-folk are cleaning grain and Mrs. Moore and the writer have their baby chicks.

Painting and spring renovations are underway at the Standard office too — making a great change in the interior of that busy place.

Charlie Pearman was one of the several who went north Tuesday to fish through the ice.

Dr Stephens was out to see Wm. Walker on Monday. Mr Walker was confined to his bed all week.

Jim Repp is noticed busily building a new chimney on his house.

Robert W. Reid Married At Calgary

CALGARY — At a recent double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. H. E. A. Peach in St. Martin's church, Miss Betty Morton Lowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Lowe of Peterborough, Ont., became the bride of Mr. Robert William Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Reid of Big Valley.

Given in marriage by Mr. Reid, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of white silk bengaline. She carried a single pink gardenia.

As her sisters' only attendant, Mrs. J Primrose chose a gown of aqua silk complemented with a nosegay of Talisman roses.

Mr D Harrington was best man and ushers were Mr. K. J. Reid and Mr William W Cooke.

At a reception for 80 guests at the Royal Room, Mr D Smith proposed the toast to the bride. The bride and groom are spending their honeymoon at Sunshine Ski Lodge in Banff National Park.

The C.N.R.'s Macdonald hotel in Edmonton, was opened July 5, 1915.

Of Many Things . . .

By [illegible]

I was minding my own business, but I couldn't help overhearing the strange conversation going on between the two men in the train seat ahead of me.

"The most popular plot", one was saying, "is the old one — boy-loves-girl, boy-loses-girl, boy-gets-girl. Readers lap it up every time — even though it's as old as the hills"

"Yeah", the other fellow said, with a sigh, "it's old and corny — but if you want to make a living, you'd better stick with it."

Well, naturally I kept listening. Turned out these two fellows were fiction writers. Not very successful ones, I gathered. And I don't wonder.

You see, they don't know their history. Otherwise they'd have a fresher slant on that 'Boy-Gets-Girl' story.

Any historian could tell them that the plot isn't nearly as old as they think. The whole concept of boy-loves-girl, boy-fights-for-girl is realtively new. It is a product of our free society — something very few people realize.

Romantic love and marriage as we understand them in our free society are challenging things, new and wonderful things. Only a century ago marriage was a matter of arrangement. Parents got together and decided. Love could blossom later — or never.

Individual freedom in the choice of a marriage partner is new.

It is a part of the modern idea of free choice. It presents problems, leaves room for errors, punishes poor choice. But it also rewards right choice with the grandest kind of relationship in all the world.

I felt very much like interrupting those hack writers to tell them this. They'd write with more color and vigor if they knew.

But I didn't bother. It would have been too much like trying to tell [illegible] fellows about free enterprise [illegible] because youngsters don't know free enterprise is a new and challenging thing, they take it for granted. Some of them are so dumb they think free enterprise is old-fashioned. You'll find these dumb ones lining up with the 'new', old out-moded centrally-planned schemes such as Communism because some crackpot has whispered into their wet little ears that this is 'new'.

Well as near as I can figure out, the newest political idea in this world is freedom! Certainly it's the most challenging, adventurous and rewarding idea. But it takes courage and intelligence. I doubt that those hack writers had very much of either.

"LITTLE ROYAL" AT V.S.A. WEDNESDAY NEXT, MARCH 30th

All residents of the Vermilion area are familiar with the achievement display held annually at the Vermilion School of Agriculture at their "Little Royal." It was at V.S.A. that the custom of holding a "Little Royal"—now a feature of every agricultural school across Canada—was started in 1929. In the intervening quarter century, it has grown from a display of animal showmanship by the agriculture students to a display of student achievement in all the phases of their courses, both in Agriculture and Home Economics and is now known as the "Little Royal and Achievement Day." This year, the event will be held Wednesday, March 30th, when the School will be "on display" to interested visitors from all over the north-central area of the province.

Highlight of the day's activities is still the Animal Husbandry show, held in the big Mechanics building. There the graduating classes in Agriculture will show animals in the approved show-ring style, and compete for a prize given for the highest marks in preparation and showmanship. Many visitors, however, will find even more interesting displays in the classroom and labs, where the other subjects in Agriculture and Home Economics are taught. There, they may see Carpentry projects in the shop where it is taught. Botany experiments and Horticulture practices being carried out, outstanding examples in the Field Husbandry projects, and actual experiments in progress in the Science Lab. For those who are interested themselves, or who have daughters who are interested in the Home Economics course, a visit to those classrooms will be a revelation. They will see advanced cooking projects, as well as methods of food preparation and care, in the Cooking Lab., and in the Sewing Lab. they may see samples of all the garments made by the students during the year, from cotton dresses and children's clothing to tailored suits and formal gowns. They will be amazed by the skill evident in the many different handicrafts which are taught as a regular course, and reassured as they inspect the facilities for studying Home Nursing. In the main building they will find a display of the prizes to be won by the leading students in many different phases of the courses, and in that building too is the haven for tired visitors, the tea-room, where they may rest and compare notes and enjoy refreshments.

Every year this attraction draws crowds from all over the Province, and with the weather continuing clear and bright, it is expected that this year's crowd will be as large and as enthusiastic as ever. It is an opportunity open to anyone interested in seeing how and why these Provincial Schools of Agriculture are operated, to come and see for themselves.

Tigers Lead Series With Overtime Win – Rangers Here Saturday

Vermilion Tigers jumped into the lead for the league championship and Craig cup when they won a 7 to 5 game at Vegreville on Wednesday night. The series now stands at Tigers 2 wins, Vegreville 1 win, and one tie game. The Tigers now need a win or a tie game to give them the series. The fifth game will be played here Saturday night at 8:30. This has developed into another closely played and highly exciting series. Two of the four games played have been overtime battles.

On Wednesday night at Veg Bill Schmidt led the scoring parade with three goals and one assist. Stew Cooper had one goal and three assists, Frankie Ewing scored two goals, and Les Williams notched another priceless counter.

Regulation time ended at five goals each with the Tigers rapping in two overtime counters. Johnny Laporte gave another scintillating goal tending display in the nets for the Tigers.

Results of the games in the series so far have been:

Vegreville 6 — Vermilion 4.
Vegreville 5 — Vermilion 5 (O.T.)
Vegreville 2 — Vermilion 3.
Vegreville 5 — Vermilion 7 (O.T.).

NEXT GAME SATURDAY

The fifth game will be played here on Saturday night and a record-breaking crowd is in prospect to pay tribute to the "fighting-est team in the history of Vermilion". (Additional hockey news page 3 and 8, Section 1).

Ted Sherban Is Back In Line-up

Suffering a bad cut to his face by a skate in the first game of the Vegreville series, Ted Scherban, a very fast and a very handy man when it comes to scoring goals, returned to the line-up at Vegreville Wednesday evening and will be right in there come Saturday when the two teams meet here. Ted was out for two games.

Golfers Elect Roger Rowe President

At the annual meeting held last Friday night the Vermilion Golf Club members elected Roger Rowe as president for 1955. Some 26 attended the meeting. The officers elected were:

Hon. President — Mayor M. Hill
President — Roger Rowe
Vice-Pres. — Ken Greenwood
2nd Vice-Pres. — President-elect of the Ladies' Club
Sec.-Treas. — J. R. Robson.
Executive at large — Ted Edey, Dr. A. R. Anderson, Stan Waldenberger, one member from ladies club to be appointed; one member from Mannville, to be appointed.

Rev. A. E. Potter Ordained at Kitscoty

St. John's Anglican church in Kitscoty was the scene of the first ordination to the priesthood by the Bishop of Edmonton Rt. Rev. H. H. Clark. The solemn rite more often seen in large cathedrals than in parish churches, was performed on St. Patrick's Day. Rev. Andrew E. Potter B.Sc. L.Th., vicar of Marwayne, Kitscoty, Blackfoot, Golden Valley and Moyerton was ordained priest. Parishioners from each of these points were present at the service. Nine priests of the Diocese of Edmonton assisted in the laying on of hands. Archdeacon Clough of Edmonton presented the candidate. The Litany was led by Rev. Howard Buchner of Edson, the Epistle was read by Rev. Wesley Crowle of Vegreville and the Gospel by Rev. Canon Teape of Edmonton. Canon Wolff of Edmonton preached the sermon. Other clergymen present were Rev. J. Dicker, Ashmont; Rev. John Moorehouse, Wainwright; Rev. G. Robinson, Edson; and the Rev. Kels Minchin, soon to come to Vermilion. The server was Billy Mason of Kitscoty and the organist was Mrs. T. Mason.

Following the service a reception was held at the vicarage in Kitscoty.

Mr. Potter is well known in oil and natural gas circles, as he was formerly an engineer with Northwestern Utilities Ltd., of Edmonton. A native of Calgary, he studied engineering at the University of Alberta, graduating in 1946. In 1951 he entered Trinity College, Toronto, to study for holy orders, and graduated this year with the L.Th. degree. Mr. Potter was ordained deacon by Bishop Clarke in May, 1954, in Edmonton. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Heavy Fire Loss At Islay Farm

Fire on the farm of Albert Duputt of the Islay district late Wednesday evening, destroyed a large barn, 16 head of cattle, 9 pigs and two horses. A loft full of feed was also burned as well as a stack of hay at the rear of the barn.

Three members of the Vermilion fire brigade raced to the scene of the blaze with the new fire engine and were instrumental in preventing the spread of the fire to nearby granaries. Firemen making the trip were Chief Conboy, Albert Hareuther and Ward McDonald. It was 3 a.m. when they returned and 17 below zero.

More Honors For Vermilion Stockmen

Young Vermilion stockmen are in the limelight at the Edmonton Livestock show this week where Stewart Barr won the Grand Championship in the Junior competition and Reserve Championship in the Open classes with a fine Shorthorn steer. Stewart's picture appeared in the Edmonton Journal on Wednesday evening.

Keith Barr won Junior showmanship honors.

Quite a number of other prizes came to Vermilion stockmen but at Standard press time information as to these was incomplete so that a full report will appear next week.

It is quite amazing the number of times names of the Vermilion district breeders appear in the news reports.

Apparently at the Edmonton show are Jack Cross, W. L. Robinson and Billy, Manson Barr, Keith and Hazel, Clarence Barr and Stewart, Ray Williams, Mike Ilchuk.

Bethany Homes For Children

Last Sunday a large and appreciative audience heard the Rev. Harvey Jesperson, director of the Bethany Homes for Children.

Bethany Home, situated near Wetaskiwin, is the only one of its kind in the province, being a faith work; and it has cared for some 180 children over the past seven years.

At the present time Mr and Mrs. Jesperson are 'mother' and 'daddy' to some 49 children from broken homes. The pictures shown testified to the success of their loving and sacrificial ministry.

Bethany Homes for Children is non-sectarian in its affiliations; Evangelical in its emphasis; and operates with an unpaid staff. The aim of this 'miracle' home is to make Christian citizens of potential delinquents, who, in turn, constitute a mission field right here in Alberta.

Stores in Vermilion will continue 6:00 o'clock p.m. closing on Saturdays until April 30th. 38-9x

Board of Trade To Fete Simonet Bros.

Anthony and Michael Simonet, well known purebred livestock breeders from Clandonald, will be guests at the luncheon meeting of the Vermilion Board of Trade to be held on Wednesday next, April 30th at 12:10 noon. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

Vermilion Agricultural Society Plans Fiftieth Anniversary Celebrations

The Vermilion Agricultural Society will celebrate fifty years of community service on July 28, 29 and 30, when the 50th annual fair is held and steps are being taken to properly mark the event. The fair office has a copy of the first "Prize List", printed by the Vermilion Signal and it is interesting to note that the officers shown in the book are well known pioneers, many of whom have now passed to their final reward. Doubtless many residents will recall the forward looking group who initiated the work of the Society almost as soon as settlement was begun in this area. The officers listed are:

President — A. W. Roarborough
1st Vice-Pres. — D. B. Winters
2nd Vice-Pres. — H. N. Stephens
Sec.-Treas. — P. G. Pilkie
Directors — T. H. Brown, Geo. C. Powell, Geo Oliver, Jas. Cammon, W. E. Sutton, John Thomson, J. W. Graham, A. W. Reid.

The names of many of the above men are synonymous with progress in the Vermilion district.

SPECIAL PRIZES AT THE FIRST FAIR

A large number of special prizes were offered for competition at the first fair, a few of them being a pair of Scotch collar tops, a pair of oil covers, 2 whiffletrees, 1 keg of horse shoes. A few of the classes were: the best flock of Angora goats, best shod horse, best hand turned horse shoes, the biggest coyote caught or killed in Twp 51, R 6, squaw race, catching greasy pig and a bun eating contest.

The Vermilion fair has carried on each year, without cessation of activities even during the periods of two wars and the great depression of the 30's. The Society has gradually erected what is considered a fine exhibition plant and has built it's annual fair to a position of leadership in Western Canada.

1955 FAIR WILL BE LONG REMEMBERED

It is fitting that the Society should mark the achievement of 50 years of progress and service and, with this in view, steps have been taken which will make the 1955 exhibition something which will be long remembered. The grandstand attractions have been purchased from the well known Irving Grossman office of Des Moines Iowa, a firm which for many years provided outstanding entertainment to the patrons of Western Canada Fairs and the attractions this year will have a decided anniversary touch.

PIONEERS' CABIN

Among the plans the Society is completing is the erection of a Pioneer's cabin of the log variety. The spacious building will be located prominently in the exhibition grounds, and will, it is hoped house early day articles which would be of interest to the district of the future. Mr George Eldon Hayward, now of Edmonton but an original pioneer of the Vermilion district has kindly donated the log siding for the cabin and will be among those especially invited for its opening during the 1955 fair.

The Society, in conjunction, it is hoped, with the Amateur Athletic Association will also erect a Memorial entrance to the fine joint grounds on the outskirts of town.

Attractive invitations are to be distributed to old time Vermilion pioneers wherever they may be located and they will be the special guests of the Fair Board during the anniversary exhibition. The first day of the fair will be marked with a giant parade and already co-operation of business firms and others has been assured. Jimmy Sullivan, proprietor of the midway which served Vermilion fair so effectively in past years, except in 1954 when another midway was engaged, has promised the use of such facilities as may be desired and as he is bringing a full-fledged circus to Vermilion as part of the midway the parade should be something out of the ordinary for Western Canada.

SQUARE DANCE JAMBOREE

Plans have already been advanced for the holding of a mammoth square dance jamboree with adequate provision being made for 100 squares; a giant fireworks display will be [illegible] to three big days and will mark the closing of the 50th annual exhibition.

Special endeavor is to be made this year to beautify the exhibition grounds as a welcome to the pioneers and other guests and it is felt that the extra effort necessary for the unqualified success of the various undertakings marking the anniversary will further advance the claim of the Vermilion fair as one of the outstanding such events in all of Canada.

ESSAY COMPETITION

A special Essay competition is now underway among pupils of all schools of the Vermilion, Wainwright, Vegreville, Two Hills and St. Paul School Divisions the subject of the essay being "What I think Vermilion Fair could do to fittingly mark its Fifty Years of Service". All school pupils, including those of the school of agriculture are eligible to compete and it is hoped that new ideas will be advanced for inclusion in the 1955 program.

NAMES OF OLD TIMERS REQUESTED

Any person in the district who has in mind old timers whom they would like to see receive special complimentary invitation to Vermilion's 1955 fair are urged to hand their names and addresses to the Secretary Manager S. SUPPORT THE RED CROSS

Once again the Red Cross has launched its drive for financial support. Of all public service organizations seeking support of the [illegible] the Red Cross has probably the greatest appeal. Its work goes on from day to day, from week to week, throughout the year. A great deal of that work is contributed and thousands of women in every part of the province do their share gratuitously to aid this worthy movement.

The Red Cross movement has earned and deserves widespread financial support. — The Budget

PROGRESS THAT PAYS OFF

(Camrose Canadian)

It is easy to observe that the artificial ice in the Camrose curling rink is a touch of progress that pays off. Already two important curling functions have been held in Camrose that would have been impossible under ordinary ice condition — the Ladies' Eaton Trophy Playdowns and the Calgary Power Northern Alberta Bonspiel. These events brought people to Camrose who had money to spend. Business in general benefitted right across the board. The same principle will apply when the skating arena is equipped with artificial ice and the associated comforts that can accompany such a changeover.

"GREEN ACRES"

VITAMIN 'A' SHORTAGE

Several farmers have reported to this office that calves are coming very weak. In fact some cows have aborted at 6 to 7 months. It is very likely that the trouble is due to a shortage of Vitamin 'A' in the feed. This usually happens on a year when the crop was frozen, rusted or stood out in a lot of bad weather as it did last fall. The only answer is to feed good green alfalfa or feed a mineral-vitamin supplement to the cows for the last few months before calving.

WARBLE TIME IS HERE

If you look at your cattle now more than likely you will see or feel some good sized bumps on the back. These bumps contain the grub of the warble fly which is just about ready to pop out and fall to the ground. This is the time to use warble fly powder and kill the warbles before they drop. You can save at least $10 per animal by getting rid of the warbles.

CONGRATULATE THE WINNERS

[illegible] Bros. bull, Pelican Lake Del Zento [illegible] was Champion Hereford at the Calgary Bull sale. He sold him to Dick Hines of Marwayne for $[illegible]. Congratulations.

Another winner was Keith Barr who got Reserve Champion in the fat stock market classes at Calgary. Our congratulations go to Keith for this high placing in a big class where the animals are all excellent.

LAST CALL FOR TREES

A letter was received today saying that there are still some trees left. Only the following however, are now available: Manitoba Maple, Green Ash, Lodge Pole Pine and Caragana. Anyone who has summerfallowed land can get these trees for 1955 planting.

WIRE WORM CONTROL

At last we have a chemical which will kill wireworms. The grain is treated in the same way as for smut control. The cost is about $1 per acre but fields only need to be done once in five years. These chemicals by various names can be bought at drug stores and hardwares. Seed cleaning plants can treat grain for wire worms.

C. R. D. IN POULTRY

Last year there were several outbreaks of C.R.D. (Chronic Respiratory Disease) in this district. It is believed that the disease came in most cases from the hatcheries. C.R.D. can also be carried over in the flock and in the poultry equipment. So it is advised that brooders, floors, drinking fountains and feeding racks be thoroughly disinfected. Do it before the chicks arrive. We don't do enough disinfecting around the chicken house, the pig pen and the stables.

HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

IN ALBERTA

Alberta's first four-lane super highway is now under construction. Located between Crossfield and Bowden, this 29 mile stretch will consist of four 12-foot lanes, two asphalt-bound shoulders and a 20-foot centre strip dividing the two flows of traffic. The new highway will rank with the finest ever built in Canada.

All main highways in Alberta are being built on a four-year schedule. The first year solves the problems of location, purchase of right-of-way, design and the building of the sub-grade. Drainage is of major importance and this is given close attention when actual construction is begun.

Highways must be built from the bottom up and so clays going into the sub-grade must be carefully selected. Continual tests are run in the field laboratory to check the stability of this basic material.

As it takes shape, the sub-grade is wetted down and compacted with sheepsfoot packers and heavy rollers. Ditches, shoulders and grade are fine graded, and first course surface gravel, again carefully selected, is applied. The new highway is then put into use over the winter.

The second year of the schedule calls for repairing any failures that might have been caused by frost action or traffic. After this, a stabilized base course of screened gravel is spread to a depth of five or more inches. Two more layers of crushed gravel come next, each heavily compacted, the latter consisting of asphalt-bound crushed rock, bring the total thickness of the base course to nine inches or more.

At the beginning of the third year, any further weaknesses are corrected and a coat of asphalt is applied. After this comes the hot plant mix of asphalt and sand. A ribbon of the mix, three to four inches in thickness, hot to touch and smooth as a table, is rolled into place at the rate of one to two miles per day. A few hours after the new surface has been laid, it is ready for traffic.

The fourth year of the schedule followed in Alberta brings the application of the seal coat. This consists of a light layer of asphalt and rock layer of asphalt chips rolled into the surface to give it greater durability and traction. When lanes are marked and additional guide posts and markers erected, the new highway is completed.

Alberta now has more than 1,200 miles of hard-surfaced highways, approximately [illegible] miles of gravelled main and secondary highways and district roads and more than [illegible] 000 miles of graded roads which are still to be gravelled. Engineering skill and knowledge behind the construction and maintenance of this vast system are the most expert obtainable. Safety and endurance are built into every mile of road, and the search for better methods never ends.

No Respect

It's time we reviewed a couple of customs in this country which show little respect, says The Financial Post.

There is a time and a place for the National Anthem but surely not when a theatre audience is chiefly interested in finding hats and coats and shuffling toward the doors. Repetition and indiscriminate use [illegible] anything, even a national anthem.

"In a similar category is the custom of toasting the Queen at every public luncheon or dinner, large or small. In far too many cases the toast is used merely as a signal that diners have permission to smoke".

"Let's reserve these honored customs for the proper occasions", urges The Post "and then observe them with due respect."

Hockey Chit-Chat

by GERRY MARSHALL

Our Vermilion Tigers, fourth place finishers in the E.A.H.L. are practically making the play-offs look like a Hollywood production!

After coming from behind to beat out Viking, the league champions, the Tigers are threatening to do the same to the smooth-passing Vegreville Rangers.

The Vermilion boys went into Monday night's encounter one game behind with one tied, but when the smoke had cleared the Tigers had evened the series.

Playing before 825 cheering fans the Tigers scored a goal in each period to edge the Rangers 3-2. That old smoothie, Elmer Kreller, paced the Tigers with two assists and the winning goal which came less than five minutes to play in the third period.

The game was one of the fastest to be seen in the Vermilion arena this year as Rangers and Tigers really opened up and the 400 or so fans needed to fill the arena certainly missed a dandy.

The Tigers' Chryzanowski opened the scoring but had dropped behind 2-1 before speedy diminutive Frank Ewing teamed up with Kreller on a neat passing play with Ewing bulging the cords from close in. This set the stage for Kreller's winner. Elmer carried the puck to the defence then passed to Cooper who slid it right back to Kreller who had little trouble in beating Lesnik.

One of the unsung heroes of the whole tough play-off grind has been big Bill Williams who has been playing great defensive hockey as well as making the odd offensive jaunt for which Bill is noted.

The absence of Ted Scherban injured in the first game with Veg has really been felt as the Tiger line-up has slipped to a new low of ten players and it is hoped that Ted will be ready for Wednesday night's game.

HOCKEY GLANCES

George Washington, one - time Tiger goaltender now with Red Deer of the C.A.H.L., saw the game on Saturday night at Veg and was highly impressed wiht the goal-tending of Laporte and the play of Frankie Ewing.

'Poor' Viking hockey fans are still crying. The Viking populace just can't get over it . . . the old guy beat them! Tigers will win the Craig cup.

NEWS OF ISLAY AND DISTRICT

This Week's Nature Story

A huge surprise — Monday morning as Walter McCaughan, busy in his store, heard steps sounding like someone in high heeled shoes going up the stairs to their home and knowing Mrs. McCaughan had gone to school he hurried to the door at the front of stairs and lo and behold at the top of the stairs at the house door stood Mr. Billy Goat — and there are 20 or more steps. "Hi, come down you," sa.s Walter. Billy stamped and nodded his head up and down, his heavy beard making a breeze as he did so. Walter waved a broom and Billy began to descend, but got his horns caught in a ladder that is nailed to the wall, because he got curious and, was he ever furious! But he got free and came down. We expect he intended to give Walter a little caress with his horns but Walter stepped back in the doorway as Billy landed at the foot of the stairs and instead, Walter gave him a good kick in the pants and we do say pants because Mr. Goat has a nice fleece that would make a beautiful pair of schaps. Billy belongs to Mr. Ross Lamb who was out looking for him, when he saw him he (Mr. Lamb) called out, "Hey there Bingo, you get home" and Bingo really did make tracks for home.

At last the woollen blankets and cloth we have waited for so long finally arrived, and have gone out to the several people. The W. A. crib blankets and large blankets and socks are here and waiting to be sold. They are very lovely too. Now we will send off a box for Korea and the Red Cross.

Mrs. Jean Axley is preparing to make a shipment of old woollens and cottons. There is something new in her catalog so contact Jean if you have something in the rag line. She will ship as soon as she has enough.

HERE SINCE 1897

Mr. Alf Hollington is in process of gathering the names of those people who have been in Alberta since 1905 or previous. As you know this is Jubilee Year and a scroll will be given each one who can qualify. Mr. Dave Buchanan has been here since 1897 — wonder if there are any more in our area who have been here as long as that?

We see the driver of our snow plow, Bill Axley, is surely on the job — we heard him going out one night at 10:30 p.m. and again at 4 a.m. Residents do not wait long after a blow until they are able to travel. Bill keeps at it early and late. Thanks Bill. [illegible] certain young ladies don't need the snow plow, they just get on Dobbin and come into town. One day it was Doreen and next day it was Hazel McFadyen. Hazel's purse eluded her but thanks to Mr. Lamb it was found and returned. Thanks Mr. Lamb.

Our students who attend Kitscoty were home early Friday. Due to the drifting the school buses at Kitscoty left for home at noon, school closed and students got home to Islay and were waiting for the home folk to come and get them. Marian McFadyen, Isobel Kennedy, Bill McGuigan, Ken McLennan and Janet Bell.

Somebody was asking for Tom Stoddart, yes, he is about, noticed in town Saturday night; also Roger Watt in town taking Teddy Monger home. Noticed too Mrs. Wylie and Alvin, Charlie and Dave Hanna. Dave is doing quite well on his crutches.

Donnie Schaffer spent the week end at the home of Jimmie and Gerry Marie and had one good time.

Mrs Mary Ternoster was at home a few days, a tooth being the cause.

A box of quilt patches has arrived from Mrs. Dolly Maggs Urbshadt of Salmon Arm B.C. Does anyone like to put together some blocks for a quilt?

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD GOOD

Pioneer Couple Celebrate Golden Wedding

On the occasion of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Good, old-time residents of the Vermilion district, an open reception was held in their honor at the St. Saviour's parish hall on Saturday evening, March 19th.

The hall was decorated with bouquets of daffodils, iris, narcissus, tulips and carnations.

Receiving friends and relatives who gathered to wish them many more years together, the bride of fifty years ago wore a suit dress in two tones of blue, with white trim, and her corsage was of red roses, lily-of-the-valley, and fern.

A two-tiered wedding cake, beautifully decorated with yellow roses and gold leaves, and topped with Cupid figurine in white and gold, centred the table, which was laid with a white satin damask hand-painted cloth, and draped with tulle festooned with yellow tulips. Tall white and gold tapers flanked the cake and two bouquets of beautiful yellow roses completed the setting.

Following the serving of lunch, Rev. C. W. MacKay extended congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Good, to which Mr. Good replied. Mrs. Good added her thanks for the good wishes, and for the many cards and gifts received.

Mr. and Mrs. Good were married in Winnipeg in 1905, and came west in March of that year to homestead northwest of Vermilion, in which locality they made their home until 1949, at which time they retired to live in Vermilion where they keep in close touch with relatives and friends of the district.

There are five daughters and one son, nine granddaughters and nine grandsons, and one great-granddaughter, all being present for the occasion excepting two grandsons from Edson. Present were: Mrs. Ernest Fowler (Berta), of Edson; Mrs. Hans Henningsen (Evelyn); Mrs. Jim Thompson (Myrtle); Mrs. Jim Panter (May); Harry Good, all of the Chatsworth district, Vermilion; and Mrs. Maurice Smith (Margaret), of Mannville.

Out-of-town relatives were Mr. Albert Ebbitt, of Winnipeg, brother of Mrs. Good; June and George Honey of Edmonton; Jack and Diane Thompson and little daughter Debbie of Devon, Alta.; Kathleen Fowler of Dewberry; Irene Fowler of Edmonton; Mrs. A. B. Whitson, sister of Mr. Good, of Fort Saskatchewan; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Good, brother of Mr. Good, of St. Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. P. Whitson, of Fort Saskatchewan; Mr. and Mrs. W. Seiger and two children of Fort Saskatchewan; Mr. and Mrs. D. Clarke and little daughter Sheila of Mannville.

The guest book was signed by 124 friends and relatives.

During the evening a number of pictures of the entire family group, which numbered thirty-five, including sons-in-law and daughters-in-law and grandchildren, were taken.

THE STAGETTES

What's that? Did someone say the Stagette club had died away? Oh No! That's impossible. To tell you the truth, it's just the other extreme. We have been working so hard with all our activities that we haven't even had time to give our local friends a short report.

The last meeting of the Stagettes was a social evening at the home of Marie Miller. It was a card party and each group of girls really took their cards seriously. In fact if you had seen or heard them, you would have thought it was a matter of life or death. A very tasty lunch was served (thanks to the lunch committee).

There has been something strange about our meetings lately. There is always one empty chair. We have lost a very active member, Mildred Conboy; the girl who could look at everything with a smile. However, we are very happy for Mildred's sake, she is now working in the head office of the Treasury Branch in Edmonton.

Has everyone seen that lovely hand knit sweater in the window of Vivian's Style shop? That's right, the Stagettes are raffling it. Buy your ticket now and win this lovely sweater for only 25c. In doing so, you will be helping the Stagettes help others. Charity is our purpose and I'm sure we can depend on your support.

Everyone knows spring is coming (maybe it doesn't look that way just now — but still we know it's coming). They say that in the spring a young man's fancy turns to — well, anyway, it makes the heart feel gay. Listen closely now! I have some very important news for you, and you and you, in fact for everyone who would like to kick up their heels and have fun. Now look at your calendar, find April 26, draw a big circle around it and I'm sure you won't forget to treat yourself to a wonderful evening at the Stagette Cotton Ball. Remember — reserve April 26 for yourself and the Stagettes will help you to celebrate spring!

CARD OF THANKS

Rotary Club Organized in Vermilion

Steps for the organization of a Rotary Club were taken on March 17th by a group of thirty local business and professional men who are planning to establish a unit of Rotary International, world-wide service club organization, in Vermilion. Meeting with members of Lloydminster Rotary Club in the Rio Cafe the men voted to apply for a charter in Rotary International, thus adding Vermilion to the list of more than 8,400 cities in 89 countries and geographical regions of the world where Rotary plays a leading part in the progress of the community.

Those present at the Rotary organization meeting were:

D. R. Mitchell, Provisional President; N. N. Bentley, Prov. Vice-President; T. E. McPherson, Prov. Sec.-Treas.; J. R. Boake, Director; K. E. Rowe, Director; E. M. Stewart, Director; Aldous Kent, Israel Miller, Mitchell Taylor, J. V. Knoale, E. Corley, F. Zurch, C. J. McCormick; Dr. A. B. King; Rev. C. MacKay, Warren Rosequist, A. H. Cooper, G. W. Sutherland, S. Simonson, Dr. D. P. Hanlan, E. H. Buckingham, J. R. Robson, E. J. Herzog, G. F. Stephens, G. C. Rampling, C. L. Waldenberger, Geo. Senz, W. E. Cross, L. G. Wright.

The new club is sponsored by the Rotary Club of Lloydminster whose members have brought Rotary to Vermilion through their friendship with the business and professional men of this town. One of the distinctive features of Rotary is that Rotarians are welcome visitors at meetings of all Rotary Clubs throughout the world. There are Rotary Clubs in Lloydminster, Camrose, Vegreville, North Battleford and Edmonton, and elsewhere throughout this province, so it is expected that the new Rotary Club of Vermilion will have numerous visiting Rotarians at its meetings.

Rotary was defined by Ray Nelson of the Lloydminster club as "a fellowship of 391,000 business and professional executives throughout the world who are united in the 'Ideal of Service', which is thoughtfulness of and helpfulness to others."

"It is particularly interesting that the Rotary Club of Vermilion is being organized at this time," he added, "because Rotary clubs around the world this year are celebrating the Golden Anniversary of the founding of Rotary."

"Members of Rotary Clubs," he continued, "endeavor to exemplify their motto, 'Service above Self', in all of their daily business, social and civic contacts by placing the obligation to serve others before the desire for profit for themselves. A Rotary Club selects its membership on the basis of one active member from each recognized business and profession in the community."

The new Rotary Club of Vermilion has the same general objectives as all other Rotary Clubs in North and South America, in Europe, Asia, Africa and the Islands of the Pacific — to encourage and foster the "Ideal of Service" as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

The application of the "Ideal of Service" by every Rotarian to his personal, business and community life;

The advancement of international understanding, good will, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men united in the "Ideal of Service."

The Rotary Club of Vermilion will hold its regular weekly meetings in the Brunswick hotel at 12:10 Friday. As soon as it has been formally admitted to membership in Rotary International, its official Rotary charter will be presented by the District Governor at a special meeting which will be attended by Rotarians from many of the clubs in this Rotary district.

Whist drive will be held in the Holy Name parish hall on Sunday March 27 at 8 p.m. Everybody welcome. 38x

March has developed into a month of real winter. Low temperatures have been registered with considerable wind, making a very uncomfortable combination.

MORE SEED TREATMENT NEEDED

Owing to the poor conditions under which grain crops were grown and harvested in 1954, much of the grain western farmers will sow this Spring is likely to be of poor seed quality. Such seed will benefit greatly from seed treatment.

Important Benefits. There are five good reasons why it will pay to treat seed-grain this year. (1) To control smut and other seed-borne diseases. (2) To prevent seed decay. (3) To protect the seed against seedling blight and other organisms present in the soil. (4) To ensure better and more even stands. (5) To improve yield and quality.

Recommendations. This is one year when all wheat seed should be treated with an approved seed-treatment chemical. Unless your wheat seed is sound, high germinating, healthy and free of surface-borne smut — treat it. However, for best results wheat seed (and flax seed) should be treated at least 24 hours in advance of seeding. It is officially recommended that all seed of oats, barley and flax sown in Western Canada in 1955 be treated with a suitable fungicide. Treat all your oats and barley seed this year, but be sure and treat it at least one week before sowing.

The most effective seed-treatment chemicals for cereal seeds are the organic mercury compounds (Agrox C, Ceresan M, Leytosan, Lignasan, Panogen, and many others). To obtain the best results seed should first be thoroughly cleaned, and then treated according to the directions of the manufacturer. Make sure the chemical and seed are thoroughly mixed to ensure uniform coverage of all kernels, but don't overdose the seed. Chemicals containing mercury are poisonous and should be handled with care. Seed treated with such chemicals must not, of course, be sold for commercial purposes or fed to livestock.

Feed treatment is a sound investment in low-cost crop insurance. Plant only cleaned and treated seed in 1955.

Mr. George Coombe returned on Sunday night from the coast after a lengthy visit with Mr. Tom Gould at Victoria, his niece Mrs. Dorothy Ambrose also at Victoria and nephew Art at Vancouver. Due to their wonderful hospitality the visit was greatly enjoyed and many interesting spots visited. The spring flowers are beginning to bloom and digging of last year's potato crop, left in the ground all winter, has just been finished. George also enjoyed clam digging resulting in delicious clam chowder. Tom Gould sends greetings and best regards to all his old friends here.

VISITS OLD HOME AFTER 43 YEARS

Mr. Randolph Hutchinson has returned from New Brunswick where he visited his old home for the first time in 43 years. He also visited his brother in Houlton and sisters in Portland, Maine. Those 43 years have seen many changes in the country that was once so familiar. This winter 160 inches of snow have fallen in that part of New Brunswick.

George Washington of Edmonton spent last week end visiting his mother in town. George went to Vegreville on Saturday night and watched his old team mates play an overtime tie game with the Rangers there and was greatly impressed with the display given by Tiger goalie Johnny Laporte.

Jack Tucker and Cliff McCormick attended the Calgary Spring Livestock show and bull sale last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cameron and the boys spent the last four week ends at Vermilion and Mannville while Roy's mother, Mrs. A. Cameron was in hospital. Roy and the boys attended the last Vermilion-Viking hockey game and greatly enjoyed that exciting final.

Friends will be interested to learn that Jim Taylor former goalie for Vermilion Tigers and his brother-in-law Dick Pilgate have opened a garage at Galahad. Jim was previously at Provost and Dick at Camrose.

Tigers Are Back In The Series; Win 3-2 Here On Monday

Tigers jumped right back into contention for the championship on their home ice when they turned back a determined band of Vegreville Rangers 3 goals to 2. The first period ended 1-0 for Tigers. It was all tied up 2-all at the end of the second with the game winning counter being scored with but five minutes to go in the third.

The old master Elmer Kreller indisposed for two games was his old self again and played a scintillating game figuring in all three goals, scoring the last one. He also gave an exhibition of stick handling to kill off time during which Vermilion was playing two men short that had the fans gasping and the Rangers completely bamboozled. When the fans could catch their breath Elmer was given a thunderous ovation.

Chryzanowski opened the scoring at 8.34 assists going to Kreller and Ewing and this was all for the first period. Les Williams and Schmidt were off at the same time and late in the period Charuk was benched.

Early in the second Eddie Demchuk scored from Bandura and then Demchuk put the Rangers in front 2-1. Frankie Ewing and Kreller went through on a nice rush. Ewing scored and it was two all at the end of the second. Vermilion again played two men short with Kreller and Schmidt in the cooler but weathered the storm.

The teams battled on even terms until the 15 minute mark when Kreller and Cooper combined and Kreller notched the winning marker.

Bob Haxby and Gordon Harrison were the officials.

VEGREVILLE: Leonik, Bushrer, Shandro, Bandura, Horton, B. Charuk, Vegara, Hrechuk, Elliuk, Malowichuk, Z. Charuk, Uhryn, Malbold.

VERMILION: Laporte, Kreller, L. Williams, B. Williams, Schmidt, Cooper, Novak, Ewing, Chryzanowski, Little.

1st Period: Chryzanowski (Kreller, Ewing). Pen. L. Williams, Schmidt, Charuk.

2nd: Demchuk (Bandura), Demchuk, Ewing (Kreller). Pen. Bill Schmidt, Kreller.

3rd: Kreller (Cooper). Pen. Bandura, Novak, Bushrer, Novak.

Actual paid attendance was 555.

This brought the series all even, one win each and a tie.

Second Series Game Ends 5 Goals to 5

Vermilion Tigers went back to Vegreville on Saturday night after losing the series opener here on Wednesday and the result was a five all overtime tie.

Tigers started strongly and at one time enjoyed a 4-1 lead. The Rangers slowly gathered momentum and at the end of the second the score read Tigers 4, Rangers 3.

In the third Vegreville tied the count at 4-all and then Ranger defenceman Horton slipped in a cagy one from the blue line that never left the ice but was lost to the goalie as it went through a maze of legs and changed direction to end up in the net. The Tigers managed to score one before the end of the third to put the game into overtime which was scoreless.

It was a tough break for Johnny Laporte as three of the goals which beat him were of the ricochet variety while he stopped breakaways again and again with marvellous saves.

Scoring for Vermilion were Chryzanowski, Ewing from Kreller; Novak from Cooper and Schmidt; Cooper, Chryzanowski.

Lovely Wedding At The United Church

BECKMAN—DALEY

Midst a setting of red roses, a small but very pretty wedding took place in First United church on March 10th, at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon, when Donalda, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Daley, became the bride of Glenn Edward Beckman, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Archer Beckman, of Vermilion.

Rev. Mr. MacKay performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a pale blue suit, white hat and gloves. Her corsage was of pale pink roses and lily of the valley. She carried a white prayer book.

Miss Lorna Daley was her sister's only attendant. She wore a black and white flecked suit with pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

The groom was attended by Mr. John McGinley of Edmonton.

The bride's mother chose a navy sheer dress with navy and white accessories. The groom's mother chose a navy flowered dress with navy accessories. Each wore pink roses en corsage.

Mrs. A. M. West played the wedding music.

Following the ceremony a small reception was held at the bride's home. The bride's table was set with a white linen cloth and tapers. The wedding cake was imbedded in white tulle and rose buds. Mrs. Wm. Steele, grandmother of the bride, poured.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. John McGinley and aptly answered by the groom.

The happy young couple left for Edmonton for a short honeymoon. They will reside on the groom's farm on their return.

Wedding Bells

WINTERS—BEIGHTON

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Winters wish to announce the marriage of their only daughter, Mona Louise, formerly of Vermilion, to Mr. W. J. Beighton of Victoria, B.C. on March 19th, 1955. After a short honeymoon the newlyweds will be at home at R.R. 1, Cobble Hill. A cordial welcome is extended to friends.

Legion To Observe Vimy Day

As usual, Vermilion Branch of the Canadian Legion will celebrate Vimy day in a big way.

There will be a smoker (mixed affair) on Saturday April 9. A banquet on April 11 followed by the annual Vimy dance at the armories. This is just the announcement. There will be more particulars about these affairs next week.

The regular meeting held March 14 decided to change the meeting night to the second Friday of each month.

Applications for membership from John Thomas and Leck Martin were accepted and B. M. Callaghan was voted in as an honorary member.

Members ought to come around more regularly and see all the improvements being made in the club rooms.

Square Notes From Circle Eight

At time of writing, despite the return of January weather, the Circle Eight are looking forward to a full hall for Henry Lien's dance Thursday March 24th. Weather doesn't seem to make any difference, square dancing is so much fun everyone seems to turn out regardless of the weather.

For the members who like to travel around and visit other clubs, Harold is calling a dance at Minburn on Friday, and down at Wainwright Betty Coulter from Wetaskiwin is calling.

Some Circle Eight dancers went all the way to Lacombe Saturday to dance to Rickey Holden from California. General feeling seems to be that he is a good caller but doesn't call enough 'hash' to suit our OS.

A number of dancers travelled to Marwayne with Harold last Wednesday and report a good time with Harold in his usual fine form.

There is a chance that Arnie Kronenberger, the Golden Jubilee caller, will start his Alberta tour in Vermilion around the end of May. The Edmonton association have suggested Vermilion as the first club on Arnie's tour, and we have accepted. More about this in the future.

The jamboree is really shaping up. The tickets are all sold and right now all we wish is that the armories could be made about twice the size. April 14 is the date — it's not far off now.

Incidentally, believe that Harold will be calling in Mannville next Friday.

SQUARE UP.

Dance at Rosewell hall on Friday, March 25. Admission 50c. Lunch served.

Provincial Fiddlers' Contest Will Be Held Here

APRIL 1st — ELKS HALL

The contest to pick a provincial champion Old-Time Fiddler will be held in the Elks Hall, Vermilion, on Friday, April 1st. This will be a play-off between the three top contestants from the Ponoka fiddlers' contest and the three winners from Vermilion of last fall, namely, Mike Mulgrew of Clandonald, Tim Nelson and Mary Stewart of Vermilion. A cup will be presented to the winner along with cash prizes for the first, second and third.

The Kinsmen Clubs of Vermilion and Ponoka, who are sponsoring this event, plan to make it an annual affair with the site of the play-off alternating between the two towns.

The contest here on Friday, April 1st promises to be an evening of top notch entertainment and will be greatly added to by the presentation of several numbers from the Varieties show under the direction of Bob Carmichael. Further information will be given regarding this part of the program next week.

The six contestants will be judged by an independent panel of judges. Once again the show will be guided to run smoothly by the well known M. C., Don Taylor.

The admission to this event will be 75c per person. So remember, — Friday, April 1 at 8:00 p.m. in the Elks Hall.

Judges were Mr. A. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Dubyk.

The above were among the colorful entries in the costume contest with which the carnival began on a night which, for K.H.S carnivals, was really decent. The Queen, Cecile Davies, was crowned in blue and white splendor and presented with a lovely set of yellow rhinestones. She then presented the princesses, June Lang and Janet Christie with pearl necklaces; the standard bearers, Mona Manley and Kerry Peterson with silver and gold metal necklaces, and the crown bearer, Sandra MacKay with a box of nuts. She drew the lucky tickets of Lorne Venance and Bob Hiltz for the prizes, and, to the tune of K.H.S. songs, left the ice, escorted by Mr. A. Miller who had crowned her. A dance followed the program.

Fifteen rinks competed in the high school bonspiel on St. Patrick's day with Bill McGuigan's foursome beating Sylvia Sheppard's in the Grand Challenge and Ronnie Conarroe's winning over Ken Kay's in the Consolation. In spite of blisters, bruises and stiff muscles, everyone seemed to enjoy himself, not minding missing school in the least!

Mannville Rink Wins At A.T.A. Bonspiel

MANNVILLE. — The teachers of the Vegreville School Division plus husbands and wives, held a one-day bonspiel at the Vegreville curling rink on Saturday, March 19. Sixteen rinks were entered. Games were on a point basis, two points for a win and one for a tie, giving every rink four 8-end games. Top scorers were Nestor Bohaichuk's rink with Ron Gray, J. Misik and Mrs. Doherty, and A. Myhre's rink with D. Otto, Mary Morrison and Mrs. Ll. Smith. These two rinks played off the tie with two extra ends, with N. Bohaichuk's rink winning out to capture the trophy. Jack Park's rink with M. Morrison, L. Park and Ann McCauley brought home third prize.

Hot Car Race

Formidable reinforcements are pouring across the Atlantic to join the already furious fight for the Canadian automobile buyer's dollar, reports the Financial Post.

The current sales battle between Canada's "Big Three" hasn't awed U.K. and European car manufacturers. They are determined to not only hold on to the slice of this country's market they've managed to corner since the war, but are actually straining to double their total sales. Four of the major importers have assembly facilities standing by.

Safety Council Sponsors Farm Essay

Thousands of Alberta schoolchildren are taking part in the farm safety essay competition sponsored by the Alberta Safety Council. This was reported by Paul Lawrence, Safety Director, when a meeting of the provincial executive was held recently in Edmonton.

37 school divisions comprising hundreds of schools, have already entered the annual competition and have been furnished with materials concerning the competition. Last year more than 30,000 school children entered the competition and the number may be exceeded this year.

This competition is handled through the full co-operation of the Department of Education, school division superintendents, and the teachers.

Urban interest in safety also is being developed. In Edmonton the local Safety Council branch is sponsoring a home safety essay competition which is open to grade 6 pupils in all public and separate schools in the city. There will be pins for individual winners, plaques for winning rooms and $50 cash prize for the city winner.

Alberta is expected to be well represented at the national highway conference to open in Ottawa on May 24. This conference is sponsored by the Canadian Good Roads Assoc., of which Hon. Gordon Taylor, Minister of Highways for Alberta, is President.

Frigid Britain

Great Achievement By Simonet Bros. Landed At Clandonald

There is little doubt that the most outstanding event to happen in this district for many years was the winning of the Grand Championship at Calgary by the bull owned and raised by the Simonet Bros. It is with great pleasure that this column adds its heartiest congratulations for their splendid achievement and the publicity which this section of Alberta is receiving as a result. Even if we don't raise many select pigs we surely take a back seat to no one with our beef cattle!

DEWBERRY LADY SUCCESSFUL WRITER

Congratulations are also extended to a lady in the Dewberry district who is also, only in a different manner, giving our district considerable publicity. We are referring to Mrs. Jim Magill who has for several years been contributing successfully to the Family Herald as well as our own local paper. In last week's issue her article on the V.S.A. was given considerable prominence in the Herald, which it certainly deserved while another part of the same paper contained her report on the Feb. 28th Union rally at Dewberry. We hope that she will continue to meet with success in her field of endeavor.

F. U. A. TO MEET

Speaking of the Farmers' Union we would like to remind our members that the next regular meeting will be in the Orange hall Thursday April 14 commencing at 8 p.m. We are looking forward to quite a lively discussion on the plan to form a livestock marketing board since the enabling legislation was recently passed. Be sure and read your copy of the Organized Farmer which will contain up to date information on the plan as well as dealing with many other subjects of vital interest to all farm communities.

BRIDE-ELECT SHOWERED

Monday evening March 14 the home of Mr and Mrs. Hugh Hagen was the scene of a gathering of about 30 friends of June Johnson the occasion being a shower in her honor. Following a very pleasant evening spent playing games and just plain visiting, June was presented with a variety of handsome and useful articles for her new home. Mr Orley Omness made the presentation to which June responded with words of sincere appreciation. Following the lunch and the presentation of gifts all joined hands and sang 'For She's A Jolly Good Fellow'. The Russell-Johnson wedding took place in Vermilion on Wednesday March 16th at the United church. We join with a host of friends in wishing the newlyweds every happiness in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Rowntree have their younger son Arthur at home for a month. Arthur joined the air force last summer and spent the first few months at St. Johns, Que., but around Christmas time was moved to the Cold Lake air base.

Edwin Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lawrence has also joined the air force recently and we believe he is at present stationed at St. Johns.

ARRANGE FOR PURCHASE SEED GRAIN SUPPLIES

Friday afternoon a meeting of farmers was held in Clandonald for the purpose of arranging for the purchase of seed grain. Chairman of the meeting was our councillor John Anderson. Several other officials were on hand including Mr. E. H. Burkingham, D.A. It would appear that there are ample supplies of seed for sale in the M.D. for all local needs. Seed will in all probability be later shipped to the area north and west of Edmonton which is in a much more serious plight than is the case here.

Is it possible that spring is just around the corner? Time alone will tell. We do know for a fact that in 1930 a car got stuck in a snowdrift on its way to St. Paul sports on May 24th! All this talk about the Arctic getting warmer makes us wonder if it has any foundation with the weather we have been experiencing lately.

Headed For the Zoo?

For the first time in 70 years a big mail order house in the U.S. has omitted work horse harness in its annual catalogue. Very soon, says The Financial Post, we can expect the same thing in Canada.

Once every village had its harness maker. Now this business is nearly gone.

Will the horse vanish too? That would be a pity. The big Shires, Clydes and Percherons are magnificent animals. They have been with us a long time. They were bred originally to carry armored knights and then were converted to hauling heavy guns, plows and freight wagons.

The light horses we don't have to worry about. As long as people want to ride and race there will be a place for them. But who will raise 2,000 - 3,000 pound animals just for the pleasure of watching them eat?

Bowtell Bulletin

These notes will be started with a correction. Thanks are extended to Mr Wm. Mix for the use of the small portable organ at our services. The writer stated before that it came from the Salvation Army.

The Busy Bee meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Sherwood with 17 ladies present. The following were visitors, Mrs. Gillies, Mrs. Fenton, Mrs. C. Clarke. Thank you cards were read from Mrs. Plerman and Mrs. McAlmon. It was decided to purchase 12 stools for the community hall for use at card parties. The place of the next meeting will be Mrs Scott's with lunch to be served by Mrs. Burton, Mrs. O. Repp and Mrs Williams.

Recent visitors at the Jones' home were Mrs Fred Playne and Mr and Mrs Dodells.

Mrs Knutson is the first one in our district to purchase baby chicks.

Mr O Repp and Robert attended the bull sale in Calgary last week. During their absence from home Jim and Isabell stayed with Mrs. Repp.

Mr and Mrs Gow were visitors to Lashburn over the week end.

Little Sylvia Semeniuk was badly scalded recently and is a patient in the Vermilion hospital.

Mr and Mrs W Saunders and Dale of Edmonton visited at the Robinson home recently. The trip was made due to the illness of Mrs. Saunders' mother, Granny Robinson.

Granny is now better and has returned to her teaching duties at Tulliby Lake.

Miss Elaine Sheriff spent the week end with Frances Sherwood.

Despite heavy roads many voters polled their ballots on Saturday to elect a councillor for this division. Winner of the election was Jim Wellington, re-elected.

W. M. S.

The regular meeting of the W.M.S. of the United church was held on Thursday, March 10 at the home of Mrs. A. M. West. The meeting was called to order by the president Mrs. C. Barr at 8 p.m. with a verse of scripture being read. Mrs. Filgate. Mrs. West and Mrs. Madden were in charge of the devotional. Mrs. L. Robinson then gave a splendid review of the W.M.S. study book "The Church in India" which gave the members a wonderful insight of the work which is taking place in that country.

The minutes were read and approved and the roll call revealed that there were 21 members and one visitor Mrs. French present. Mrs. French will become a member. The monthly reports were then heard and business of the month completed.

A beautiful service in memory of Miss Florence Lously, a life member of the W.M.S. who recently passed away was conducted by the president Mrs. Barr. A favorite hymn of the deceased "Jesus Lover of My Soul" was sung.

A presentation was made to Mrs. Matheson who is leaving Vermilion soon with her husband as they have been transferred to Fort St. John, B.C. Everyone is sorry to see them go.

Plans were made for the St. Patrick tea. The meeting then closed with the repeating of the Mizpah.

The committee served a delicious lunch and a social half hour was enjoyed by all.

Speeding Recovery

The dramatic advances of recent years in medicine have not only saved many lives but have greatly shortened the duration of acute illness. Their effect on convalescence, however, has not been as great. Antibiotics end pneumonia in days, but weeks may pass before the patient is back at work.

Speed of recovery from illness or injury is related to nutrition. In the stress of illness the body demands extra nutrients. Studies show that recovery is speeded if that demand is met. The National Research Council, foremost nutritional authority in the U.S., has worked out a special vitamin supplement, called a "stress formula," which holds promise of aiding the repair of tissues and speeding recovery.

The vitamins needed most during convalescence are the B group and vitamins C and K, and according to the NRC, about 5 times the normal intake is required under stress.

Since no practicable diet can meet this standard, Chas. Pfizer & Co. has devised a convenient and economical solution to the problem. Two broad-range antibiotics, Terramycin and Tetracyn, have been combined for the first time with the stress formula vitamins into Terramycin-SF and Tetracyn-SF. The antibiotic's purpose is to terminate the illness quickly, while the vitamins will shorten convalescence.

The new development in stress-fortified antibiotics is expected to make it possible for the physician to treat the whole patient as well as the specific disease. To the patient, the prospect of a shorter recovery period holds promise of lightening his economic load, too.

Pays $1.50 Ticket With $1,000-Bill

VANCOUVER. — Some people are just naturally resourceful, as was proven by a woman traveller here recently.

Approaching Miss Louise Marcoux, ticket agent in the Canadian National Railways station in Vancouver, the woman asked for a ticket to a point in the Okanagan. Cost of the ticket was $12. The patron then remembered that she wanted to ship her dog too. Informed it would cost $1.50 for the dog she totalled up all her change but just couldn't make the $1.50. So she offered a $1000 bill in payment.

Miss Marcoux was satisfied the $1000 bill was a good one, but was stuck when it came to change. Yet, she had to make change or the dog and his mistress would be separated.

However, the resourceful lady traveller neatly solved the problem — she took the change in traveller's cheques.

Farm cash income was greater in 1954 than in 1953 in all provinces except Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

15 Rural Traffic Fatalities During Month of February

Alberta had 15 traffic fatalities during February, of which all but two were reported in rural parts of the province by the R.C.M.P., according to a summary of reports compiled by the Alberta Safety Council. There was one traffic death in Edmonton and one in Calgary. In Feb. 1954 there were 21 traffic deaths in the entire province.

For the first two months of this year, there have been 22 traffic deaths, which is one more than was recorded for the first two months of last year.

Motor accidents during February numbered 1419, as against 1303 a year ago. For the two-month period the total is 2904, compared with 3061 in the like period of 1954.

Edmonton led the cities in the month of February with 365 motor accidents, a drop from the 387 a year ago. Calgary increased from 213 to 320.

Volume of accidents rose in the rural districts from 519 to 585 for February, 1953 and 1954.

An increase in the number of persons injured in motor accidents also is revealed in the two-month period.

A Boy's Tour In England

By
ALFRED J. WAYWARD SCOTT
Mannville, Alberta

Leaving St. Albans we pass through Leverstock Green to Hemel Hempstead, new town and old town, the new town a satellite. After having seen two of them they appear to me very drab. The old town is lovely. Bourne End, then Berk Hemstead another lovely old town stopping there for lunch where the menu outside informed us we could have boiled beef and dumpling for luncheon. However, we must have been late as we were informed there were only two servings of beef and dumplings, two would have to be Dover sole and chips. Both were very good. Here we see the Crooked Billet (a bent stick of wood) in Suffolk called a cudgel, St. George and Dragon, the Old Grey Mare, the Cow Roast. Passing through Aldbury we get a splendid view of the Mendips then the old market town of Tring with its lovely church which we pass quite close. Tring Park owned by one of the Rothschilds in the 1880's was the family seat of Lord Braybook also its Brittinia The Robin Hood, the Surpise which is a rabbit peering over the edge of a pot, the Bull's Head, down the Vale of Alesbury through Ashtown Clinton to the town of Alesbury its wide market square with its imposing war memorial at one end and a statue of Lord Beaconsfield at the other a very interesting old town with so many winding streets, then through the village of Bierton with the Star, One Bell, Eagle. Next the town of Wing we see the Dove, Queen's Head, Linsbade with the ship, the Bedford Arms. We come next to a very old market town, Leighton Buzzard, the church standing very close to the road has a very low tower and a very high spire tapering very sharply. There is one of the finest decorated market crosses I have seen at the head of the market place. We note too the Dolphin, Heath and Venison. The next place of interest is Woburn Sands. The Duke of Bedford family seat is here Woburn Abbey. It couldn't be seen from our approach but it is quite possible it may be seen from some other angle. I presume it has four entrances. I saw three with very elaborate built lodges. We travelled between 5 and ten miles on a circular road about half way around the Abbey grounds. The whole place is enclosed by a very substantial brick wall about eight feet high, so if the Duke wants privacy for himself and friends he can close the gates and live in a small world all of his own. No one can look in or out. I don't know if the public are allowed in as visitors, if they are it would be most interesting as I believe this is one of the best preserved abbeys in England. Here we have the Magpie, then Millbrook with the George Crown and Sceptre. We next pass through Amphill and Houghton Conquest and in the distance we see what appears a cluster of tree trunks all shorn of their branches but on passing them they turn out to be smoke stacks at the London brick works. This is a huge plant covering thousands of acres. Next, Cardingham, Kempstone. This is a very flat country largely market gardens. We come then to the very old city of Bedford, of John Bunyan fame. There is a beautiful market square. We saw two lovely churches and John Bunyan's cottage. Here are also Barraks, a prison, should any be interested in prisons. We leave by a road bordering on the River Ouse. We follow it for about two miles, a most lovely drive. The old and the new, and they are crossed at intervals by rainbow bridges, the banks are kept like lawns and the river was full of pleasure boats and scores of swans. Next St. Neols with its very wide and clean market place. We stopped here for a lovely tea at a restaurant. St. Neols has become famous lately for its quadruplets (sisters). It is a very old town, has a lovely church, also it has a Bushel and Strike, Golden Ball, Magpie. On to Cambridge we pass through a village where a very old gibbet post stands. We stopped and looked it over. We passed along the lovely Cambridge Backs, a sight no one would ever forget. We cross the railway into Abingdon with its beautiful avenue of beaches, with the Gog Magog hills on our right. We follow the Newmarket London road for a little till we come to a very busy crossroad known as 'The Four Went Way' through Rampisford, Bartlow, to Haverhill, another very old town where some of the Hugenot weavers settled some hundreds of years ago. Some of their descendants still carry on the weaving industry there. We then pass through the village of Birdbrook where can be seen acres of sweet peas said to be the finest in the world. The growers sell seeds all over the world. Then on to Shurmer passing Toppesfield with a magnificent church standing on one of the highest points in Essex, Ridgwell with its airdrome then Great Yeldham where there is a very lovely church standing on high ground overlooking the village. Going down the hill at the foot of which we see standing on a small green 'The Yeldham' oak, where it has stood for hundreds of years looking now somewhat like an octopus upside down. The village is apparently very old but has new industry. As we pass along we see an up to date foundry and implement works and directly opposite is what we thought at first sight to be a small hut, turned out to be the branch office of a world-wide firm of bankers. We pass The Wagon and Horses. The White Hash, also very old. We see also a very delightful old mansion with lovely grounds built alongside the road. The owners evidently fearing that our modern traffic might sheer the side of the house off, have inserted a series of posts at the edge of the road to prevent it. We arrive at Draw Well Cottage standing in a very secluded corner almost hidden by a profusion of flowers and fruit trees my sister's home the point from where we started in the morning. The tour having taken us into seven counties and in time twelve hours.

Ode To Alberta

There's a land where the people are happy,
With wealth and abundance in [illegible]
Where sunshine and bountiful [illegible]
Fill hearts with contentment and more.
There's a land where mountainous grandeur
Sweeps down to the foothills and plain;
Where scenery from God's glorious salon
Portrays all that beauty can [illegible]
[illegible] that is rich beyond measure;
There's a land where the sky's ever blue
Where earth yields her limitless treasure;
Alberta, my thoughts are of you.
There's a land, — Oh, — how we love it!
Our hearts sing its praise ever [illegible]
For the Giver of life's dearest [illegible]
Poured plenty and peace at her door.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

EXPENDITURES ARE QUESTIONED IN ALBERTA LEGISLATURE

EDMONTON.—A man purchased a fairly large office building, known as the Alberta Block, on Edmonton's main street, for $175,000 on June 5, 1952. The following day, he sold a three-quarter interest in that building to a friend for $175,000.

The original purchaser retained a one-quarter interest, raising the value of the building up to $233,000, an increase in value in one day of $58,000.

Its sale to the provincial government in August, 1952, for $225,000, was one of three real estate deals questioned by Calgary Liberal Hugh John MacDonald in the Alberta legislature last week as he requested an investigation into the handling of provincial money. He charged there was waste and extravagance.

His request that the investigation be made prior to approving any estimated expenditures for the coming year was ruled out of order by the Speaker, Hon. Peter Dawson (SC-Little Bow).

Mr. MacDonald's contention was there had been a $50,000 profit on the building in three months. The details of the original purchase and sale of a three-quarter interest were given to the house by Hon. C. E. Gerhart, provincial treasurer, later in the week as he defended the record of the public works department in land dealings.

The treasurer said the Liberal member had neglected to mention the transaction which took place between the time of the original purchase and the sale to the government. He suggested the higher price resulted from the cost of breaking leases held by tenants, commissions on the sale, architects' fees, legal fees and the cost of financing, in the preparations of the two men to turn the building into a hotel. But Mr. MacDonald contended these costs have nothing to do with increasing the value of the building.

The reason the men sold the building, according to Mr. Gerhart, was due to pressure of business on one of the men to put money into improving a Calgary hotel, of which he is proprietor.

Mr. MacDonald also had questioned why there was a $12,000 profit in six days on land sold to the government for a Calgary liquor store. The treasurer reported the liquor control board had sought in vain for property in the selected area and finally decided to buy the land in question.

It was held by a used-car dealer under a lease-option calling for a selling price of $35,730, Mr. Gerhart said, and he was asking $54,000. The liquor board offered a cash price of $46,000 which the option-holder accepted. He exercised his option and the transfer went through the land titles office six days before the transfer to the government.

The third deal, brought up by the Liberal member involved the proposed expenditure of $28,440 ($16,180 increase over last year) for the maintenance of an Edmonton building no longer owned by the government. He had also noted the government bought the building in 1949 for $75,000 and last year sold it for $64,000.

The Government knew the building wasn't a good one when it was bought and it was expected to depreciate heavily, Mr. Gerhart said, but office space [illegible] demand. Last year when it was sold by tender to the highest bidder the government retained the right to rent the quarters for $26,586 a year he said.

Those were the explanations given by Mr. Gerhart as he ended the debate on the budget but it was not expected to be the end of questions about these transactions and the Calgary jail-land dealings. The public accounts committee which has authority to call witnesses and question them under oath, was to begin sitting this week at the request of the Liberals.

MARKETING BOARDS

In other matters during the week, the government introduced legislation, still to be finally approved, to allow marketing boards for a variety of agricultural products, excluding cattle and sheep.

COMMISSION ASKED ON LIQUOR

Social Credit members also rejected a request by teetotalling J. Percy Page, Edmonton Conservative supported by the other nine members of the opposition, for a royal commission on liquor. Premier Manning said the time wasn't right because the commission should be able to study the results of the preventive, educational and rehabilitation programs of such newly-formed bodies as the Alcoholism Foundation of Alberta and the government-operated alcoholics' rehabilitation centre. Opposition members contended any time was right for a study of a problem like the liquor one.

The house is going to have to hustle to wind up its business before Good Friday, the unofficial objective, and several night sittings are indicated.

No other gas pedal gets action like this!

Illustrated—Century 2-door, 6-passenger Riviera

This pedal does more than just feed gas to an eager and high-powered V8 engine.
When you give it the extra nudge that moves it beyond the full throttle position, something happens that never happened before in an automobile.
You hear a businesslike purr, which tells you that twenty power vanes, deep inside the 1955 Dynaflow Drive,* have changed their pitch—just like the variable pitch propellers on a modern airliner.
And with the same result in the way you get-up-and-go, with a safety-surge of power for pulling out of a tight spot on the highway.
Words can't describe it. It's a new sensation—something you simply must try for yourself.
There's nothing like it on the 1955 new-car horizon.
Fact is, there's a lot to see at your Buick dealer's.
There's fresh new styling. There's higher horsepower in every Buick V8 engine. There's a new Airpower carburetor. And the good old-fashioned integrity in every nut, bolt and rivet. But, this year, don't simply make a visit to the showroom where these trim and thrilling new beauties are on display.
The smart thing to do—if you want to know what's what in new automobiles—is to get behind the wheel of a 1955 Buick and drive it. How about doing that soon?

Of Many Things . . .

By ARBORNE HILLS

GLAD TO BE HOME

I never go to New York unless I must. It's too big and brassy for me. I'm fond of the U.S.A., but I hate Broadway and the bold, tough manner adopted there. I've just had four days of it and I'm glad to be home. I'll tell you why.

I had a bad cold in New York, do I'll buy in my own home town and I'm darned sure nobody cared and I'll buy. Canadian-made pro-two hoots. I know my home-town mer-two hoots. I know my home-town mer-chants don't gyyping me because I know how far from and how hard I must work to earn my cash. So I'll be sure that it reaches you somewhere.

It reaches you to value home, and friendly and neighborly ways. When you get back, and dump the shoddy bargains from your suitcase (the kids have been broken within half an hour) you begin to wonder what sort of thing you came to when you bought them.

You start to ask what's gone on while you were away, and you find things about the same but John your neighbor is out of work and the storekeepers say accounts re-ceivable are a bit slow. It doesn't take much of this kind of talk to make you realize that "bargain" hunting isn't too good a bargain after all. You look at the kinds of gadgets and realize how you'd raise the devil if a local merchant sold you such junk at any price.

While in this mood I heard about the campaign launched by Ontario women to lick unemployment. If I were a woman, I'd get into the battle and help them. They're going to do their best to persuade Can-adians to "Buy Canadian".

One thing I can do — and will do — is buy in my own home town and I'll buy Canadian-made pro-ducts. I know my home-town mer-chants don't gyyping me because I know how far from and how hard I must work to earn my cash. So I'll be sure that it reaches you somewhere.

I'll start by buying my next suit in New York, and I didn't see any there that looked any better in style or material, so I'll stick to Canadian clothing made by my neighbors who can use the work. I may pay a few dollars more on the odd item, but I'll be getting good merchandise and keeping the money in my own country, my own town. From now on, I'll watch for the tag that says, "Made in Can-ada." I hope some of my readers will do the same.

Pleasant Valley

It is not very pleasant at time of writing as there is a very cold wind blowing and certainly doesn't feel like the first day of spring.

It does look like spring indoors though as the setter is enjoying a few new bones in about a cash like lovely big flowery lily both I blooms on the stem, a yellow hyacinth, a large pot of tulips and two of these are white. All the care they need is warmth and a little watering. Mrs Gedby has an oleander out in bloom. These are lovely just like apple blossoms. The blooms are certainly cheerful and much enjoyed during the cold weather.

The news is scarce these days. Mrs Gillies spent last week with the writer and some good games of cribbage were enjoyed.

Thanks for the nice letter Mrs. Moore hope the family are feeling better now.

Betty and Lloyd were supper guests at the Reid home on 43rd. Sunday. Mr and Mrs Bert Gould and Mrs. Gidley were supper guests at Betty's home on Thursday.

The writer was pleasantly sur-prised on Sunday when Jean, Keith and the boys arrived for dinner. They went on to Dawson's for sup-per so that a nice day was spent. Mrs Gillies returned to Mrs. Cheek the Reid's Sunday night when a delicious supper was enjoyed. An excellent carroway and cake was the centre item.

The writer hopes that Mrs. Cal-vert is more feeling better. There is a lot of influenza and it is to be hoped that the arrival of warm spring weather will soon be here and everyone will get better.

Did you say about the snow-berry trees yet Mrs. Jones?

Safety Sam Says...

Taming Lions is no trick...

compared to speeding when it's slick!

We'll bet even a lion-tamer wouldn't consider speeding over slippery roads. Because if he did, his chances of living long enough to do any more lion-taming wouldn't be so good. Just like your chances of doing any more of whatever you like to do wouldn't be so good. It's a thought to con-sider, what with Winter all around us.

The World of Wheat

By W. G. MALANSH,
Director, Research Department, Searle Grain Co. Ltd.

Not all farmers are located with-in easy reach of an Experimental Station of are able to visit one of the demonstration plots planted and cared for at various points by elevator agents. For this reason some will not have the opportun-ity very often of seeing and com-pairing as they grow side by side, the various varieties of grain that are raised in Western Canada.

As a service to farmers the "Crop Testing Plan" will be glad to send, free of charge, a set of true to variety seeds of some 20 different varieties, enclosed in an envelope and ready for seeding, to any farm-er who is willing to sow and care for a small plot on his farm. Such a plot will provide an opportunity for him to compare the perform-ance of different varieties under local conditions.

These lots of seed include not only the standard varieties of wheat, oats, barley and flax, but also some of the newer varieties which have been licensed during the past year. Full instructions for planting will be sent with the seeds, and stalks showing the name of each variety will be distributed at a later date.

Those interested should apply to the Crop Testing Plan, 301 Grain Exchange Building, Winnipeg, as soon as possible since the supply of seeds is limited and requests will have to be handled in strict rotation.

Union F.U.A. Notes

With our new larger membership many of the members are asking "Where to now?" There are certainly a number of things that we need but how to get them? There are at least three possible methods:

1. Delegations (which we try ev-ery year); 2. Birthe (which we tried once); or 2. Politics (which has not been tried). If we can find a poli-tical party which will support our F.U.A program and then send a good part of our membership to vote that way I am sure the impact will be felt. This of course is only a suggestion and is not F.U.A. policy at present. Another power-ful weapon if we would use it is for members of the F.U.A. to write to their M.L.A.'s and M.P.'s often and urge our policies on them. I hope to see some action along these lines now that we have a major-ity of the farmers in. Leadership should come from local office per-sons with a little prodding along from the locals.

Next week we have two events coming up: Monday 28th. Wheat Board picture show. Ladies bring lunch; Friday April 1. Bingo! Everybody welcome. Dance to fol-low. Partet ladies bring cake.

FIFTY MEMBERS
28th: Flor. Wes Funnell. Coffee. Hugh Pirtmo.

April 1st: Fire, A. Ginton; Cld pe. Robt. Galloway; Sandwiches, Mrs. J Ahlgren. 4 loaves, Mrs. K Nelson. 3 loaves; Cushions E. Wil son. H. Teasdale. Grant Roberts

If the party who desires their name left out of this column will write me again and "sign" their name I will comply with their re-quest. We neither want nor need help from anyone with that kind of community spirit.

Don't forget the F.U.A. meeting on April 5th with a Community Association meeting to follow

WILDMERE WINKS

Everyone is pleased to hear Billie Kenny Dibben is now home from hospital and much improved as he was a very sick boy for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin who have lived in our district most of their lives, moved to Vermilion where Bob will work with Bill Pettigrew for the summer. They will be back quite often to visit us as they still have their farm out here and Mrs. Martin is head of the Wildmere Beavers Girls club. Their daughter Doreen is staying at Mrs. Gibson's and will continue her school studies out here for the term ending in June.

Wildmere curling ladies held a bonspiel on our local rink Saturday when two rinks from Buffalo Flat-tee, one rink from town and two Wildmere rinks took part. Mrs. Staden's rink of Buffalo Flatter won first, Mrs. Rowe of Vermilion, 2nd. Thirs. Rowe also received a prize for the biggest end scored. Three prize went to Mrs. J. Wilson's rink and 4th to Mrs. R. Martin. 5th to Mrs. G. Larson of Buffalo Coulee. They all enjoyed a pleasant day of curling.

Wildmere men's curling club held a bonspiel at the Vermilion rink Friday and Saturday of last week. We are not certain of the winners but the following were in the prizes: Grand Challenge . Glen Gibbons of town; 2. Haverview; 3. Hubbard and 4. Buster Newman. In the second event Bob Rowe 1st. Swain of Marseville; 3. Marshall Jackson; 4. Art Lyons. Third event was won by Ken Rowe; 2. Parks; 3. George Harrison; 4. Gordon Larson. There were some good games during the 24-rink spiel. This about winds up the curling for Wildmere for this year. It's been a very enjoyable season.

Rev. MacKay of Vermilion has been holding classes at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hoite of Wildmere for a group who want to join the United church. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Brooks and Lester Weer who will be transferred to Asburn-dale church an.. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson of Basswood. Mrs. J. Wilson. Mrs. J. Wallington and Kenny Graham who will join the Vermilion United church as there is no registered church in Wildmere at present. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson. Mrs. Wilson, Lester Weer and Kenny Graham were baptised at the last lesson on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hoite and Baillie took the lessons along with the group but they are members of the Vermilion church already. On Sunday April 3rd this class will take communion of faith at the United church in Vermilion.

In the municipal election which took place last Saturday in Div. 3, J. C. Wallington was returned as councillor by a big majority. In the hospital representative vote it was a very close race between Mrs. Garnett and J. Wallington. The result will not be known until the official count is taken some time next week.

Miss Lily Maggs who has been ill in hospital is now feeling better and spent a few days last week at the Cruthers home in Wildmere. She has returned again to her school at Earlo this week.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin of Vermilion on the birth of a son; also congrats to Mr. and Mrs. Glen Beckman (nee Donalda Daley) for a long and happily married life

Are you a "Do-It-Yourself" Driver?
Or would you rather be waited on hand and foot?

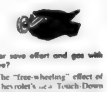
Rather shift for yourself . . . or let Powerglide do it?

Shifting's smooth and easy with Chevrolet's new and finer Synchro-Mesh transmission. Gearshift and steering control shafts are concealed in a single, attractive housing.

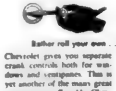
Powerglide, too, is better than ever this year. Smoother, stur-dier and reliable quick on the getaway. It's the most popular automatic transmis-sion* in Chevrolet's field!

Do off your own clutching . . . or save effort and gas with Overdrive?



Clutching is easier than ever with Chevrolet's new, High Capacity Tri-Flex Clutch. The new pendulum-type pedal and single disc design spring re-duce the amount of foot pres-sure required. These other new advances assure positive

The "free-wheeling" effect of Chevrolet's or a Touch-Down Overdrive* eliminates much of the clutching necessary at city driving speeds. And on the highway it reduces engine speed be-cause greatly in-creasing fuel economy and re-ducing engine wear



Rather roll your own . . . or just push a button?

Chevrolet gives you separate crank controls both for win-dows and ventipanes. This is yet another of the many great con-veniences offered by Chev-rolet — power at new cars.

Like to adjust any one window or all four of 'em with the mere push of a button? Auto-matic window and vent con-trols* are available on Bel Air and "Two-Ten" models.

*Optional at extra cost.

Automatically — Chevrolet's stealing the thunder from the high-priced cars!

Position the seat yourself . . . or let electricity do it?

Chevrolet's big, beautifully upholstered front seat moves up and forward or down and back into your most com-fortable position. There's more interior room this year for hips, hats and shoulders!

No need to worry about elec-trical equipment running your battery down in a new Chev-rolet. It gives the reserve power of a 12-volt electrical system — easily capable of meeting your car's demands.

Apply the brakes like this . . . or have power make it easier?

An improved braking system and new swing-type pedals make it a cinch to stop your Chevrolet on the proverbial dime. And Chevrolet's amaz-ing new Anti-Dive control gives you "brush up" stops!

What's new and improved about Chevrolet Everything! Chevrolet Power Brakes* are better than ever—let you stop swiftly and safely by a simple pivot of your foot from accel-erator to brake pedal Rather have standard steering . . . or the extra ease of Power Steering?

How easy and sure can steer-ing be? Try the new Chevro-let and see. Chevrolet uses a ball bearing system to cut fric-tion to a minimum—and to get really fast steering response.

For parking and slow-speed turning, there's nothing quite so easy as Power Steering, or course. Good news, then, is that let's new linkage-type Power Steering* is ordered in prices!

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane — Women's Travel Authority

One of the smartest packing ideas I know is the one I call the "5 and 10" trick.

It's an absolute guarantee that you'll never forget a tooth brush or be without an extra pair of hosiery, no matter how quickly you throw things together for a week end. Here's the secret.

Go to your favorite 5 and 10 cent store and buy the miniature or trial packages of the items you use at home: hand lotion, nail polish, bobby pins, facial tissues, eyebrow pencil, toothbrush, washcloth, lipstick, face powder, wave set, tweezers, etc.

When your list is complete, add a pair of hosiery, a change of underthings and the other articles you've found by experience you want on a trip.

Keep these basic items always in your bag, then you have to remember only the specific outer wear things you'll want.

The "5 and 10" trick keeps you ready to travel at a moment's notice without forgetting a thing.

Employees of Canadian National Railways shops at Winnipeg have made 5,355 blood donations to the Canadian Red Cross during the past five years.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

March 23, 1939

Tom H. Brown, pioneer farmer who came to the Vermilion district and homesteaded here in 1903, is holding a clearing off auction sale and plans to move to Vancouver Island.

A real thaw has set in and has lasted all week with snow disappearing rapidly.

Vermilion won the first game for the Craig cup from the seasoned Lloydminster Prolites by a score of 4-2.

H. H. Hodgins was re-elected as reeve of Grizzly Bear M.D. with the other members of the council being E. J. Coleman, D. Gardiner, J. Winter, R. Tessman and P. J. D. Carmichael.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

March 21, 1923

A. E. Kaiser was re-elected as president of the Vermilion Board of Trade with J. W. G. Morrison secretary.

H. W. Harper, formerly of Big Valley, has been appointed manager of the Royal Bank of Canada branch at Vermilion.

Heavy spring showers fell on Monday.

The announcement made by the Hon. Mr. Hoadley with regard to the possibility of closing the V.S.A. is to be greatly regretted. It may be justifiable however in the face of the provincial deficit of 2 million dollars.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

By June E. Kirk —

During the past few weeks I have met several women who were curious about the services offered by the Department of Agriculture through the District Home Economist. Perhaps some have forgotten why I'm here, or never did know, and others may be new to this province and its ways. So here goes for a brief ing on the reasons for my existence in this office.

Generally speaking, the Home Economist is to provide up-to-date information to farm women on any and every aspect of homemaking and (incidentally) to encourage the women to use the service and the information! More specifically the Home Economist deals with home designing and remodelling, foods and nutrition, clothing and home sewing, home management and family relationships.

I'll bet you're wondering right now how one person could know all about everything to do with homemaking. We don't make that claim! However if we don't have it in our heads, we at least know someone who does or some place to look it up.

Now, for the ways of reaching the women. The District Home Economist contacts rural women through newspaper columns, monthly news letters, group meetings and home visits. I also have a phone and an office, so you can always call me or drop in and see me. If you wish to receive a monthly newsletter, send me your name and address.

And about group and home visits please don't hesitate to ask me to come even if you are 60 or more miles from Wainwright. Remember, it's my job to cover my district, so don't feel badly about my having to drive for an hour or two to reach you.

One more point that seems almost unbelievable — this service is Free! And most of the bulletins and printed information that's distributed is also free.

If you're interested in starting a 4-H Girls' Club, the District Home Economist is here to help with that too.

So, here I am — please use me! Here's a recipe for a foot powder deodorant from our "Toiletries and Beauty Preparations" leaflet: 1 oz. Tannin; 1 oz. Rice Starch; 2 oz. French Chalk.

A hint from our bulletin "Entertainment Refreshments for Home and Club" — for cutting fancy-shaped sandwiches, it is more economical to cut the slice lengthwise of the loaf. Remember, both these bulletins are free, so drop me a line if you are interested in having them.

Vermilion Stockmen Sweep Edmonton Show

Robinson Stock Wins Shorthorn Classes

Livestock from the farm of W. L. Robinson of Vermilion practically swept the Shorthorn Futurity classes at the Edmonton Livestock show. Six head of stock shown won twelve ribbons. The prizes won were:

1st for May calves, also Reserve Champion;

1st and 2nd in yearling heifers;

7th and 9th in summer yearling heifers;

Champion Shorthorn female;

1st prize — Get-of-sire;

1st prize — Pair heifers.

Billy Robinson won second with a Shorthorn steer calf in the baby beef competition.

Vermilion Boys 1st and 2nd in Junior Showmanship Class

With over fifty competing in the Junior showmanship class at the Edmonton Livestock show, Keith Barr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manson Barr placed first, with Billy Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Robinson, winning second place honors.

That these two young Vermilion boys should win both first and second places in a class of 50 is quite a remarkable achievement, and speaks volumes for their ability with stock and for the training they have received.

Canadian Cancer Society statistics show that more than 50 Canadians die of cancer each day.

Stewart Barr Wins With Reserve Champion Steer

A fine Shorthorn steer exhibited by Stewart Barr was the Reserve Grand Champion of the fat stock show; champion of the Junior show, and stood first in his class of [illegible] Shorthorn entries at the [illegible] Spring Stock show last week.

He was awarded the Prince of Wales championship trophy for the champion calf of the Junior department as well as the Edmonton Exhibition trophy for the steer standing highest in the Beef cattle contest.

Special prizes won were the Northern Alberta Shorthorn club silver tray; C. J. Kallal & Sons of Tofield show halter for the first prize of the Junior department.

These were presented to Stewart at the Parade of Champions held in the stock pavilion on the night of March 24. This show also went on record as the first to be on television in Edmonton.

This champion steer weighed 830 pounds and sold for the fine price of 60 cents per pound. It was purchased by the T. Eaton Co. Ltd., of [illegible].

Stewart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barr.

Mannville Boar Tops Yorkshires

The Yorkshire boar championship went to Ernest E. Prill of Mannville for his entry, Prill's Lad 58J, at the Edmonton Spring Livestock Show and Sale Monday.

New Anglican Rector Arrives

Rev. [illegible] A. Minchin, newly appointed rector of St. Saviour's Anglican church, will arrive this Thursday to take charge of his new parish. He will preach at the regular services on Sunday.

The new rector is a graduate of the University of Toronto and of Wycliffe College, Toronto. Until last fall he was the incumbent at Westlock, Alberta. He was at that time called into Edmonton and has been assistant-curate at Holy Trinity church in the city since.

On Saturday, April 2nd at 8:30 p.m. an informal reception for the Rev. and Mrs. Minchin will be held in the parish hall. All parishioners are invited to attend.

Pre-EASTER SERVICES ARE PLANNED

The Vermilion Ministerial Association holds its annual Pre-Easter services in the respective churches this coming week, Monday through Thursday, at 8 o'clock each evening.

This co-operative effort is worthy of public support having proved in preceding years a means for inter-church fellowship and united worship.

The services are scheduled as follows:

Monday, April 4th—The Salvation Army; Rev. MacKay.

Tuesday, April 5th—Alliance Chapel; Rev. Minchin.

Wednesday, April 6th—The United Church; Sr. Capt. Hill.

Thursday, April 7th — Anglican Church, Rev. McNair.

For complete details see the advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

Little Royal Story Next Week

Favored by beautiful spring-like weather, the Little Royal and Achievement Day was held at the Vermilion School of Agriculture on Wednesday this week and attracted an amazing amount of interest. It is estimated that 1200 visited the school during the afternoon — it could be a conservative figure judging from the number of cars lined up on the parking space provided in the fair grounds. It looked just like fair time.

A complete report of the event will appear in The Standard next week.

GRADUATION APRIL 6

The regular courses at the V.S.A. will close on Wednesday next, April 6th, with the celebration of the Graduation exercises.

Form Historical Society Here

A meeting was held in the Vermilion Junior high school on Monday, March 21 at 8.30 p.m. to discuss the formation of an historical association. There were twelve persons present, including three from the Hazeldine area, Mesdames G. Gardiner, A. Kent and W. R. Kent.

Mr. C. N. Brennan was appointed chairman of the meeting with J. R. Robson acting as secretary.

Mr. Brennan outlined a proposal to make an attempt to perpetuate historical records of this part of the province while there is still time — 1955, as Jubilee year, was suggested as an ideal time.

He had written Mr. J. McGregor, president of the Alberta Historical Society, re organizations in smaller centres. Mr. McGregor had advised that several organizations had been formed but that very few were still in existence. The aim of a society would be to compile an historical review, establish historical sections in museums, erect road signs for historical sites and erect markers on old trails.

It was decided on motion of T. Watts and C. Long that a Historical Society be formed, and the following were appointed to office:

Hon. Pres. — Oldest Old Timer

President — C. N. Brennan

Vice-President — Hugh Evans

Sec.-Treas. — J. R. Robson (pro tem) to act pro tem.

Committee of five members with possible formation of district advisory boards was approved as follows: E. M. Stewart, W. R. Kent, E. Stockwell, H. Wear, Roy Walker.

Mr. E. M. Stewart addressed the meeting and suggested that a questionnaire be forwarded to all the known old timers. He mentioned such historical figures as Henday, Wm. Pink, Angus Shaw and outlined their activities with respect to this area at Fort Vermilion, Moose Lake, Fort George, Buckingham House and Frog Lake House.

A meeting of the executive will be held on Thursday, April 7.

E. H. Weeres Accepts Stettler Position

Thos. Wilson Appointed New Secretary

Thomas Wilson, presently the secretary-treasurer of the Municipal District of Vermilion River, has been appointed to the same position for the Town of Vermilion. He will take over his new duties at the town office here on May 1. Mr. Wilson's experience in municipal secretarial work dates back quite a number of years. He was secretary of the former M.D. of Grizzly Bear before the formation of the large municipalities, and has been with Vermilion River M.D. as assistant and for several years now as secretary. His selection as secretary for the Town of Vermilion is a popular one.

E. H. WEERES TOWN MANAGER AT STETTLER

The appointment of a new town secretary was necessitated by the resignation of Mr. E. H. Weeres who has capably filled that position for the past two years. Mr. Weeres tendered his resignation to accept the office of town manager for Stettler. He is due to commence his duties in that fast-growing oil town on May 1st.

El has made many friends while here, has been an active worker in several organizations and community enterprises and will be genuinely missed by a wide circle of friends.

Vegreville Rangers Win League Championship and Craig Cup

by [redacted]

After many years of famine, the Vegreville Rangers have finally won the Craig Cup with a 7-4 free scoring victory over our Tigers in the sixth game of a supposedly best of five series.

The Rangers jumped into a lead early in the game and never looked back at the weary Tigers. The latter made it close for a while in the second, but after that the smooth-skating Rangers had an edge on the territorial play until the final horn sounded.

The Tigers, Cinderella club of 1954-55, will long be remembered for their sensational comeback from the brink of elimination from the play-offs altogether.

After gaining the fourth and last play-off spot by virtue of their for and against average, the Tigers pulled a terrific upset by bouncing the first place Gas Kings out of the Cup battle. Going into the finals against the favored Rangers, the Tigers extended the series to an extra game before bowing out.

The Tigers club was great in their defeat as they shook hands all around with the Rangers and congratulated them on their fine play. But best of all the Tigers, with defeat staring them in the face, did not at any time accuse referees or [illegible] poor sportsmanship in a manner prominent in present day hockey. Congratulations, Tigers, on a job well done! Hockey fans of the town and district can well be proud of you!

Kreller and Williams Announce Retirement

It seems funny now to think that Elmer Kreller won't be back on the line-up next year, but the "Old Master" has taken his equipment off for the last time, so he says.

Les Williams, another stalwart performer, has announced his retirement also. Les has played so long with the Tigers that he has become a part of them.

The loss of these two will be a great blow to the Vermilion Tigers of the 1955-56 season.

Rangers Win To Force Sixth Game In League Finals

The largest number ever to attend a hockey game in Vermilion, and possibly any game of the Eastern Alberta Hockey league, bulged the walls of the Vermilion arena, built in 1926, last Saturday evening for the 5th and what could have been the last game of the best of five series for the league championship and Craig cup. However it was not to be and Vegreville Rangers by virtue of their 6-2 victory, forced the series into a sixth game which was played at Vegreville Monday night. Thus the Vermilion Tigers who came from fourth spot in the league into the final for the league title engaged in two best of five series which went six games each.

The crowd of cash customers numbered 1425. A close check is taken as numbered tickets are handed out, a different color to adults, students and children, so that at the close of the game an exact count of each is possible. Only on one other occasion did a crowd in excess of 1400 attend a hockey game here, that was also a final game between the Tigers and Rangers back in 1946, making it quite evident that these two teams are the real crowd pleasers of the league from away back.

Both Tigers and Rangers have played more sparkling hockey than they did Saturday night but for 53 minutes the teams battled on even terms and the score read 2-2. With but seven minutes and 43 seconds to go, Vegreville scored the tie breaker and then ran in three more for good measure.

Playing only two lines against 3 and 10 men against 15 the Tigers wilted in that last half of the third and the fast Ranger club benefitted by two breaks. The first was on their fourth goal when Harrison failed to call an iced puck touched by Les Williams, then picked up by Buzz Charuk who scored while the Tigers waited for the expected whistle, then again on their fifth goal which Vegara played in off his chest. Even without these two the Rangers had a two goal margin and so were worthy victors.

Tigers opened the scoring at 15:42 of the first with Bill Schmidt picking up a rebound from Stew Cooper's shot to beat Lesnik. After 8 minutes of the second Kreller and Novak sifted through for Vermilion's second counter with Elmer the marksman. Things looked bright for Tigers but Hrechuk and Elluk com[illegible] for the Rangers' first goal and then Vegreville took advantage of a penalty to defenceman Bill Williams and Demchuk scored from Hrechuk.

The third period started out all tied up, two all and it was not until 12:17 minutes had been played that the Rangers scored the goal that started them on the road to tieing up the series. Makowichuk from Malinski followed closely by the icing episode wherein Les Williams claimed he touched the iced puck and Harrison claimed he did not. Charuk and Malinski were credited with the points. At this stage the Tigers had a golden opportunity to make a comeback as the Rangers played two men short for more than a minute. Horton and Uhryn drawing sentences for slashing, but the remaining Rangers gave a smart display of keeping possession of the puck by some precision passing and they killed off the penalties very successfully. Before the end of the period they had added two more, Vegara and Malinski from Makowichuk.

Bob Hasby and Gordon Harrison, Edmonton, refereed.

VEGREVILLE: Lesnik, Buehrer, Bandura, Horton, Van Deelan, B. Charuk, Vegara, Demchuk, Hrechuk, Elluk, Makowichuk, Malinski, Z. Charuk, Uhryn, Moar.

VERMILION: Laporte, Kreller, L. Williams, B. Williams, Little, Schmidt, Cooper, Novak, Scherban, Ewing, Chryanowski.

1st period — Schmidt (Cooper). Pen: Cooper, Buehrer.

Second — Kreller (Novak); Hrechuk (Elluk); Demchuk (Hrechuk). Pen: Bill Williams.

Third — Makowichuk (Malinski); B. Charuk (Malinski); Vegara (Malinski); (Makowichuk). Pen: Van Deelan, Horton, Uhryn.

Regardless of the final result, the semi-final and final play-off series of six games each, have lifted the hockey season to a sensational and profitable climax, making it from a spectators' viewpoint, club angle and financial scope a most interesting and successful hockey season.

Brownie Notes

Mrs. Fred Stewart, Mrs. Dick Cosh and Mrs. Fred Zurch attended the Canadian Girl Guide Association convention in Edmonton last week.

Mrs. W. H. Schlosser, Provincial Commissioner, gave a very interesting talk on the theme "Believe, Belong, Build".

Dr. Vlander, a professor of Geography at the University of Alberta, spoke on the north lands.

Awards were presented at the banquet. Highest award was received by Dixie Osgathorpe a second class guide of the Innisfail company, the Gilt Cross, third highest award in Guiding. She won the Cross for rescuing her two young brothers and a sister when their home caught fire.

HI-SCHOOL HI-LITES

Friday, March 18, the House of Laurier held its annual party in the form of a "Bounty Fair". The dance got off to a roaring start with the yells of the three Houses, and of the guests, V.S.A., and the Junior high. Inman's orchestra provided the music from behind a paper "Merry go Around". Duncan Locke acted as M.C.

During lunch a most entertaining floor show took place. After the 'Barber' had very fittingly announced them, the Toss [illegible] Sisters emerged, clad in well-draped curtains, and did one of their more difficult chorus numbers, "Sisters". The glamorous sisters who danced so rhythmically in this well-rehearsed chorus number were Chi-Chi Brower, Fi-Fi Locke, Mi-Mi Raun, Ki-Ki Wilson and Rosemary Winters.

The winners of the various County Fair contests were then announced: Champion Pie Eater — Hazel Barr; Reserve Champ — Marilyn Maxwell.

Biggest Fish Stories — All the teachers.

Best Home Baker — Bill Tough.

Champ Hog Caller — Harold Roebuck.

The winners of these were all presented with the well known blue ribbon with the exception of Hazel Barr. She was given another pie. A porridge pie! At 11:30 everyone trooped home after another successful high school party.

On Friday, March 25 the Vermilion 'A' girls' team journeyed to the city for a return basketball game with St. Joseph's. After a hard fought encounter the St. Jo girls came out on top 28-14. The Vermilion girls, although defeated, thoroughly enjoyed the hospitality of the city girls. Special thanks go to Mr. Metcalf, Mr. David, Mrs. Kibblewhite and Mrs. Ireland for taking the girls to the city.

The V.H.S. boys' hockey team went to Lloyd last Saturday to defend the trophy they won there two years ago. The boys lost in the final game to Lloydminster by a score of 12 to 2.

Michael and Tony Simonet Complimented

Provincial Livestock Commissioner Addresses The Board of Trade

W. H. Mead, Provincial Livestock Commissioner, was the guest speaker at the Vermilion Board of Trade on Wednesday at a meeting devoted mainly to acknowledging the outstanding accomplishments of two stockmen of the district, Michael and Tony Simonet.

Simonet Brothers had invaded the land of the Hereford breeders two weeks ago, competed at the Calgary show, and carried off the major award, that of Grand Champion Hereford bull with their entry Pelican Lake Del Zento 8th.

It was eminently fitting that the Simonet Bros. should be introduced on this occasion by Mr. Wm. Mead, as they grew up in the same neighborhood and have known each other since very early boyhood. Mr. Mead was present at the Calgary show and explained to the large gathering just what it meant to win the major award at the biggest showing of Herefords in Canada, a show which ranked well with the largest on the continent.

In replying Mr. Tony Simonet voiced great satisfaction in having one of their own bred and raised bulls win the championship. He thanked Mr. Mead for his very kind introductions, and the Board of Trade for the interest displayed and invitations to the luncheon.

Other guests included Dr. McIlroy of the Faculty of Agriculture, University of Alberta who accompanied Mr. Mead, while a large number of farmers were also in attendance.

The president Dr. Ben King was in the chair and the meeting was very well attended and interesting throughout.

Pleasant Valley Ball Players To Meet

Ball fans and players — please take note that a meeting in the form of a social evening will be held April 6th in the Bowtell community hall.

Legion Members Plan Three Events

On Saturday, April 9, Vermilion Branch of the Canadian Legion will put on the usual Vimy Smoker. For the first time ladies are invited to attend. All returned men and women are welcome. Also the ladies Auxiliary are expected to bring their husbands. It will be a big crowd. We are sure of that.

Then a Vimy banquet is planned for April 11 in the Legion hall. The Brunswick hotel cafe is doing the catering and special speakers will be down from Edmonton. Tickets are available from Vic Tillett, Thos. Wilson, E. H. Buckingham, or any member of the executive.

On the same evening, April 11th, the annual Vimy dance will be held in the Armories. The Legion puts on only two dances each year, one on Armistice day and one on the anniversary of the Battle of Vimy Ridge. Tickets are on sale from all members of the executive. We nearly overlooked announcing the orchestra which will be Spornitz from Edgerton.

Every returned man or woman in Vermilion and district is welcome to come to all of these events. The committee in charge asks that Legion members come out and that they bring some other returned men with them who are not members.

The next meeting of the Legion will be held on Friday, April 15th. Thereafter meeting date will be the second Friday of each month.

D. K. Yorath To Address Meeting

Mr. D. K. Yorath, president of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce and general manager of the Northwestern Utilities will be guest speaker at a dinner meeting of the Board of Trade to be held in the Legion Hall on Monday evening, April 4th, commencing at 6:45.

Old Time Fiddlers' Contest Friday Night

Just a last word of warning — don't forget the Provincial Championship Old Time Fiddlers' contest which will be held in the Elks hall this Friday night April 1 commencing at 8 p.m. Admission is 75c. Several top notch numbers will also be presented from Bob Carmichael's Variety show.

Contestants for the provincial title have been decided by previous eliminations. These will be Fred Loiselle and Don Moller both of Ponoka while unfortunately their third entry is ill and it is not likely will be here. From Vermilion we have Mary Stewart, Tim Nelson and Mike Mulgrew of Clandonald.

This entertainment and contest is sponsored jointly by the Kinsmen clubs of Ponoka and Vermilion.

Retarded Children

The Alberta Association for Retarded Children is trying to establish centres in the larger points and would like to ascertain the number of children requiring help in and around this district. Would interested parents or friends send names and particulars to Mrs. E. H. Buckingham, Vermilion, with a view to calling a meeting at which Mrs. D. M. Stewart of Edmonton Public Relations office of the Association would be the speaker.

Agricultural Society To Hold Annual Dinner April 21st

The Vermilion Agricultural Society, in keeping with its yearly custom is to hold its annual dinner on Thursday evening, April 21 at 6:30 p.m. The Rev. E. J. White of Edmonton has consented to act as special speaker for the occasion and his reputation as an entertaining and witty speaker is an excellent one.

Special guests for the evening will be outstanding district livestock breeders who have done so remarkably well at the Calgary and Edmonton Spring shows. Also to be guests are the young farmers of the district who have been engaged for the past two years in the Society's Farm and Home Improvement competition and their wives.

A cordial invitation is extended to residents of the district who would like to attend to compliment the guests and who are interested in the work of the Society which will, in 1955, celebrate 50 years of service to this community.

Dinner tickets are priced at $1.25 each and it is essential that reservations to be in the hands of the Secretary-Manager of the Society at as early a date as possible and under no circumstances after Monday, April 8.

Special events planned for the fiftieth anniversary celebrations will be outlined at the dinner meeting.

A FRIEND INDEED—

A friend in need is a friend indeed and Editor George Baynton of the Lloydminster Times proved this on Wednesday. Mr Baynton ranks in the top bracket, not only as an editor, but as a mechanical genius, and it was in the latter category that he proved of so much worth to the Standard staff on Wednesday. Something went amiss on the Standard's big new C3 Intertype line setting machine, and for the first time in 34 years' experience with these intricate machines the two Standard compositors were baffled. Despite all their ministrations it just wouldn't operate. After losing valuable time Tuesday afternoon and evening Mr. Baynton was contacted Wednesday morning and even though it was publication day at Lloydminster he spent his noon hour coming to Vermilion. Almost uncannily he sensed the trouble, made the necessary adjustments and in a very short time had the machine working perfectly. Thus, it is due to Mr Baynton's mechanical "know-how" that you, dear reader have your Standard as usual this bright Friday morning.

TRIBUTE TO PRIZE WINNERS—

Mr A M West dressed an outstanding store window this week in tribute to the brilliant achievements of our stockmen at the Calgary and Edmonton shows, namely Tony and Michael Simonet, Stewart Barr, Keith Barr, and W. L. Robinson and son Billy.

Featured prominently were the pennants and ribbons won by each, the whole combining to impress the onlooker with the unusual accomplishments of the prize winners on a provincial-wide scale.

Vermilion appreciates the achievements of the livestock men of the district, no other area comes anywhere near equalling the prizes won, and Albert very ably portrayed in his window this sense of pride

"GREEN ACRES"

FORAGE SEED PROJECTS

I am informed that I can get forage crop seed from the Department of Agriculture for growing seed crops. It is pure seed and is put out at half price to farmers who wish to raise a seed crop. Each farmer can get up to 20 pounds of seed. Listed varieties are Grimm and Ladak alfalfa, White and Yellow blossom sweet clover, Creeping red fescue, Alsike and Red clover. Only the first 20 orders can be accepted.

LIGHTNING RODS

Lots of people wish that they had put lightning rods on their houses and barns. It does not cost much and it often saves the buildings. And another thing, very few farmers carry half enough insurance. It is no use looking in the ashes for money to build another house.

FERTILIZERS FOR HAY CROPS

Fertilizers with a high content of Nitrogen have given large increases in hay and pasture. Ammonium Nitrate is better than Ammonium Phosphate for forage crops. As Dr Bentley said at the Lloydminster and Vermilion short courses "It pays better to fertilize hay fields than grain crops". Also he said, "put plenty on". He recommends 150 to 200 lbs per acre.

SUPPLEMENTS FOR CHICKS

There are still a few people who try to raise chickens without chick starter and pigs without pig starter. Keep them thrifty and growing and they will be healthy and there will be less losses. Circulars on feeding chicks, poults and pigs can be had at this office free of charge.

SAVE THE TURKEYS

A 4-H Turkey club in Michigan, U.S.A. uses rotating electric lights put up on a pole in the yard to keep out coyotes. It might keep two-legged thieves out also. A small fan motor is used to turn two lights at about 5 turns per minute.

TREATING SEED

Some farmers do not treat seed for smut because they have not seen smut in their crops for several years. It is not easy either to see the losses from seed rot, seedling blight and root rots. Mercuric dusts kill these diseases also. It pays and pays well to treat every bushel of seed you put in the ground. Treat wheat at least 24 hours before sowing, oats and barley at least a week.

NEWS from ISLAY

Spring weather came suddenly. Sunday was a lovely day.

Mrs. V Schaffer was home from the hospital for a few days and several relatives came for a wee visit. On Monday brother Douglas Olds arrived home for a day or two.

The community was very sorry to hear of the loss by fire at Alex Dupuit's when his barn and considerable stock and feed were a total loss.

The W.A. will hold their spring tea on April 16.

An apology on not commenting on the program is due Bentley Carmichael and his company who came to Islay March 11 and gave us a variety show. It was very enjoyable and the comments we have heard since have been of high praise. It was sponsored by the Islay curlers and I am sure their treasury is somewhat in better shape now than previously. I think Bentley missed his calling ... he should have been a "Major Bowes". I for one and I know of others who would enjoy having Bentley and a troup come another time. Remember the buckskin ponies, the democrat always full of pretty girls? Those were the days!

Mrs. Winnie Torrance has returned from a visit at Irma with son Victor and family.

Mrs. Fyfe spent some time in P.A. visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mooney and family.

The assessors have been calling on the Islay homes this week.

Mrs. Ruby Inman is home from the hospital.

Building and improving Alberta's roads and highways is the special field of public responsibility assigned the Alberta Highways Department.

Its authority extends along 85,000 miles of highways and roads, a system that is being extended and improved each year. This network of roads, whose total length is more than three times the earth's circumference, demands the expenditure of large sums of money for gravelling, hard surfacing, bridging, widening and general maintenance. Highways expenditure is such an important part of government spending in Alberta that almost 28 per cent. of the 1954-1955 budget was allocated for this purpose.

The Department of Highways consists of seven branches: Surveys, Maintenance, Location, Construction, Bridge, Accounting, and Motor Vehicles.

The Location Branch of the Department of Highways selects the location of new highways and roads while the Surveys Branch surveys the completed location of highways and all roads in Improvement Districts. The Surveys Branch looks after all government-owned land in the Province and administers all acts related to provincial land. The Director of Surveys approves all plans for survey work in Alberta and administers the Pipe Line Act.

Actual construction of highways is under the control of the Construction Branch. This branch stakes out highway locations, purchases gravel, and does all the cross-sectioning, levelling and other work entailed in building a highway.

The Bridge Branch of the Department of Highways builds all highway bridges. Its engineers have been busy during recent years on an expanded program of bridge building. Many bridges that have become inadequate for modern traffic conditions are being replaced with wide, strong and graceful modern bridges. Bridge design is carried out by the branch but construction is distributed between private contractors working under the branch's supervision, and the branch's own bride building crews.

[illegible] each type of highway, bride and ferry are assembled by the Accounting Branch while the Maintenance Branch maintains all main highways, awards grants to municipal districts and improvement districts for road work, and supervises all work done under these grants. Municipal governments now receive approximately $5,000,000 a year in road grants.

The Motor Vehicles Branch contains the Highway Traffic Board and the former Motor Vehicles Branch, until recently a part of the Provincial Secretary's Department. All truck and car licenses, drivers tests, passenger car safety tests, accidents and financial responsibility, and other duties associated with the use of roads and highways by the public come under its attention. The Highway Traffic Board controls truck [illegible] and imposes road bans during the spring period when roads are most prone to damage.

Bake sale, sale of sewing at Simpsons-Sears order office on Saturday April 9 from 3 to 5:30 p.m. under auspices of the W.I. 39-40

Editor,
Vermilion Standard.
Dear Sir:

After reading the Wildwood correspondent's comments on the Islay hospital question, I would like the privilege of making a few comments of my own.

As I can see it and as many others can see, the Islay hospital and site could be made much better use of as a home for the aged than as a hospital and as we have none in the municipality at the present time, it would be a wonderful start on a worthwhile project. There are a lot of older people in the hospitals at the present time and if it was converted into a home it would be fully occupied at once.

In this small area of the Islay hospital district to the south of Islay are more people who would be in a home of this kind, if available, than the average number of patients that used it as a hospital in 1954 which was 8.8 patients per day.

In the statement that it would be too far from a doctor, I will say that anyone who is 30 or 40 miles from a doctor now would certainly be in a much better position in a home in Islay as there is one good doctor in Islay, four good doctors within 15 minutes' drive at Vermilion and possibly a 20-minute drive to six or seven good doctors in Lloydminster.

I believe there is need and no doubt will be in time one of these homes in more of the towns in the municipality, there is need for two types of homes as some will be bed patients and will need nurses' care, while others need only a comfortable home where there is plenty of heat, light and water and the heavier chores of the home are done for them.

The statement that the hospitals are overcrowded now will not stand up under closer inspection, as in the last monthly statement of the Lloydminster hospital they averaged 76 patients per day and have a 95-bed hospital (and this is in the January-February period, one of the heavy periods) and many of these patients only need a home for the aged where they would be much happier. The same applies in Vermilion.

The Islay hospital cared for an average of 8.8 patients per day last year. This would certainly not crowd the three adjacent hospitals in the least, with no need of extra help in any of them. This would save the ratepayers a bill of $16,000 in wages alone.

As one of those supporting this resolution, I am sure when I reach the place where I have to be in an old peoples home (and it's coming fast) I could spend it very comfortably any place where I had the conveniences that are in Islay and would not need more entertainment than could be easily found in Islay; in fact anyone who needs more entertainment than could be found right in the hospital building and grounds does not need to be in an old peoples' home.

In saying that Islay is not centrally located within the municipality, it is correct; that is not the exact centre, but as the centre of the municipality now is about the middle of Kenilworth lake and as old people don't appreciate boating and swimming I believe Islay is still a better location. I am sure there will be more of these homes built, so the central location won't matter too much as it won't be able to take in one quarter of those people who are in need of such service and ratepayers could feel proud of the building supplied for the benefit of the pioneers of our district.

When this meeting is called come out and hear the facts and then vote to improve conditions.

WHY YOU SHOULD TREAT SEED GRAIN WITH "CERESAN" SEED DISINFECTANT

Each spring seed and soil-borne diseases, in the form of root-rots, smuts and seedling blights, reduce the yield of the crop you plant. The best and simplest way to protect the seed you plant and ensure maximum yields is to treat your seed grain before planting with "Ceresan" seed disinfectant. "Ceresan" prevents smut in wheat, oats, flax, and covered smut in barley. "Ceresan" protects seed and seedlings from root rots, seedling blights and decay.

"CERESAN" IS A SUPERIOR SEED DISINFECTANT BECAUSE IT PROTECTS SEED IN TWO WAYS:

ON SEED—VAPOUR ACTION

On application, "Ceresan" gives off a highly effective mercury vapour which destroys fungi and bacteria on the surface of the seed and penetrates into cracks and crevices in the seed to give maximum disinfection. This volatile vapour action, in addition to direct contact, enables "Ceresan" to do a superior seed disinfecting job.

IN SOIL—PROTECTIVE FILM

"Ceresan" forms a protective film which protects the seed after planting from the soil-borne fungi which cause seed decay, root-rots and seedling blight. This protection means higher germination and vigorous emergence that results in thicker, stronger stands which produce higher yields.

HOW TO TREAT SEED WITH "CERESAN" SEED DISINFECTANTS

HOME TREATMENT

You can apply "Ceresan" by a hand method or many users prefer to apply it dry in a dust-type automatic treater. If you have a slurry treater, "Ceresan" M2X is especially formulated for simple slurry treating. "Ceresan" is available at your local farm supply store.

COMMERCIAL TREATING

In many localities there is a commercial seed treater who can treat your seed grain. Simply ask him to treat your seed with "Ceresan" M2X or Du Pont Liquid 214 seed disinfectant. He can give you thorough seed protection for a very small cost per bushel.

Letters to the Editor

Dewberry, Alberta,
March 22, 1955.

Dear Editor,

Up until this year many farmers had little knowledge of the workings of the Prairie Farm Assistance Act.

The rust on wheat this year has made large numbers of farmers eligible for payments. At the same time in order to qualify for P.F.A. many farmers feel that they have been discriminated against. A fraction of a bushel yield has caused many farmers to be left out.

With this in mind a mass meeting of farmers will be held in the Dewberry hall on Friday afternoon, April 15th. In attendance will be Mr. S. Rowbotham, General Superintendent of P.F.A. for Alberta.

In order to have some constructive changes suggested for the P.F.A. we may well consider the following:

1. —Should P.F.A. be paid on an individual basis?

2. —Should P.F.A. exclude farmers who have all summerfallow?

3. Should farmers in highly assessed land areas subsidize the risky grain growing areas?

4. Would it be possible for municipalities to look after farmers within its boundaries if all P.F.A. collections were sent to the municipality?

Other suggestions may be forthcoming and could be discussed at the meeting.

I have been asked by F.U.A. locals and ratepayers of Vermilion River to arrange this meeting and would ask all farmers who can possibly attend to please do so. If you are not satisfied with the P.F.A.A. it is your duty as a farmer to attend.

JOHN C. ANDERSON,
Councillor, Div. 7,
Vermilion River M. D.

March 24, 1955.

Dear Mr. Cooper:

Due to an oversight the usual vote of thanks was omitted at the close of the Dewberry Hobby fair, Wednesday, March 23, therefore on behalf of all who appreciated the wonderful show this note is to publicly say thank you to Mr. Marshall Wynnychuk for the excellent exhibition as his tribute to Alberta's Golden Jubilee. The short skit was topical and timely "Trail to Dewberry" which outlined the formation of this go-ahead community from the time of the first settlers in 1904; the choosing of its name in the general store; the formation of the first school board in 1910; many names of the founders of Dewberry are still the names of today; tribute to the 50 years of contented settlement in the district.

So thank you Mr. Wynnychuk for your many hours of hard work, also to all those who loaned their treasures from their homes which made the grand exhibition in Dewberry hall, not forgetting the co-operation of the teachers and pupils from the schools.

The school work displayed a wonderful proof of understanding imparted by the teachers and the marvelous talent of the pupils, second to none. Though the official judges were unable to be present this talent was appreciated by many who were surprised at its high standing.

Keep up the good work, Dewberry school.

R. D.

Dewberry Curlers Win Second at Vegreville

Spring seems to have come with a big splash. A very warm day is sending water down at a great rate towards the river and on to the sea. It always is welcome but watch out for chilly days to come.

The last of March saw two families depart for other parts. First of all we were sorry to see our station agent and family leave for a larger centre at Pypot near Maple Creek. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas had made a nice place in community life with their two children Roy and Allan.

The other family, an old pioneer stock young couple, with two sons, Tommy and Ronnie, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hodgson, have left to operate their own store some 20 miles east of Olds. The social activities of this young couple will be greatly missed. Both families are wished the very best in the years to come and we know that the other towns' gains are our loss.

Oh, look ma, we did it again.
We went to curl and have some fun
And came back each with a nice shotgun
Inky dinky parlez-vous.

Our heartiest congratulations to nearly the same rink that won first honors at Vermilion, who won the second prize at the big curling fiesta at Vegreville. The prize, nice Winchester shotguns, and the team, no longer unheard of, still all local folks, were skip Ralph Lunden, 3rd Frank Bowman, 2nd Bill Dennill and lead Harold McKnight. These men won 7 straight games and lost out only in the final.

Two other Dewberry curlers Fred Braitwaite and Neil Jones along with two from out of town also had things rolling along well until near the last. Better luck next time folks.

Joe Allen is very ill and is a patient in the Islay hospital.

Like the the mice that could get no one to bell the cat Ray Finlay could get no one handy at the time to take the tall tree off the power line which was cutting the power off. Perhaps a lot of new chicks were getting cold as we notice a lot of people with new shipments of chicks as heat bulbs seem to be mostly used now.

The new station agent at Dewberry is Mr. Evans and his family has now joined him here.

The big Easter amateur night in Dewberry hall seems to be a thrilling affair to all contestants alike. Entries from outside points are invited. Send them to W. Parker.

Bowtell Bulletin

Mr. Gow, Mr. O. Repp and Robert were visitors last week to the Edmonton stock show. Mr. Repp brought home a fine Hereford bull.

Visitors at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Repp recently were Leslie Sherwood, Rena Monaghan, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lippert, Grandma and Grandad Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood and girls.

Soon the green leaves will be on the trees and the writer thinks that the trees on the two roads leading into town from the east should be removed. It is impossible to see traffic coming in the opposite direction, even in the winter when the foliage is gone.

Mr. Kay of Tulliby Lake spent a week visiting his daughter and family, Mrs. Robinson.

The Weather

Weather changed overnight from winter to spring. Sunday saw the mercury climb and water begin to run, and there has been steady progress towards summer every day this week.

At time of writing it certainly is spring-like weather with water running, snow melting, and very muddy roads.

Greenlawn Good-Will Club

The Greenlawn Goodwill club spent a very enjoyable afternoon last Thursday March 17 at the home of Mrs. Harold Curtis.

The meeting began with a report from the secretary that the proceeds from the fowl supper held recently were over $50 and the club was able to give Mr. G. Roach this amount as a contribution towards the cost of the parsonage furniture.

This month the ladies have embarked upon a pleasant little scheme [illegible] should prove to be fun. There will be numerous mysterious birthday present and greeting cards received around the district during the next year. Each member has had her name drawn by another [illegible] who will be her 'secret pal' until next March when all identities will be discovered at a potluck supper.

Instead of the regular meeting in April the members are planning to have a demonstration of Home Appliances and a film at the Greenlawn hall on April 19th at 3 p.m. Hot pancakes and coffee will be served for lunch.

The club members all want to offer sincere sympathy to Mrs. Alvin Lumley and the Lumley family in their sad trouble. Alvin was so well liked by everyone who knew him. He will be greatly missed.

VERMILION — ALBERTA

The spring-like weather has not taken long in luring the crows and at least one hawk back to their summer habitat. Norman Armstrong sighted these harbingers of spring on Tuesday and several other reports of crows have been received. The crow is a wily bird, much to our chagrin, and is hard to fool so this must be the genuine spring.

ST. SAVIOUR'S W.A.

Farewell Rev. Buchner At St. Saviour's

Following the service at St. Saviour's Anglican church Sunday evening parishioners all gathered in the parish hall to bid farewell to the Rev. Mr Buchner who has been ministering to the parish for the past six weeks

Following some interesting slides, a social hour was spent during which Mr Wm Fooks on behalf of the choir presented Mr Buchner with a Morocco bound hymn book. He has proved of considerable help to the choir while here.

Mr L H Pockett, the People's Warden, also spoke briefly, expressing the appreciation of the parishioners to Mr Buchner for his ministrations, also his kindness in coming to St. Saviour's for the interim pending the arrival of the new rector.

Rev Buchner, who has taken a deep interest in the welfare of the people of the Parish even though his stay here was to be only six weeks, remarked that before coming to Vermilion he had glowing reports of Vermilion people and their kindly disposition from Mrs. Davidson, now at Edson but one time at Vermilion. He had found during his brief stay that everything was just as she had said but more so. He was glad to be able to help in the way he had, and was very happy in his work here.

Mr Buchner returns to his home parish at Edson on Thursday.

Nurses Hold Regular Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Graduate Nurses of Vermilion was held in the Junior high school on Monday March 28 Through the kindness of Mr George Braithwaite and Mr Fred Stewart three very interesting films were shown. As these took up considerable time only a short business session was held before lunch was served. It was very pleasing to see the Mannville nurses attend, but . . . you left too early girls, you missed the eats!

The roll call was answered by naming a muscle and locating it - Wow! That was a good one Lorna It was lucky for some of us that you had a book of [illegible] Doris. Hey, no cheating. Next time a bone is to be named so get out your skeletons from the closet and look them over The Chapter decided to send a delegate to the A.A.R.N. convention to be held in Calgary April 26 to 28.

The Red Cross blood clinic will be here again soon so watch for it, you will be called on to help.

The nurses are sorry that one of their new members has left town. You are missed Winnie, but we send best wishes to you and Dick in your new position.

Eva Corley Vera Barr, Mrs. Eyben, Miss Keith and several others are planning to attend the Alumni banquet to be held in the Macdonald hotel on Wednesday of this week.

We'll see you next month girls—at the hospital. All nurses are invited so lets turn out in full force.

Signs of Spring J. Horne is building a boat in anticipation of summer holidays and fishing

Here is a verse by Edna Jaques:

Snow's goin' what a lovely phrase
After the chill of winter days
To feel upon your heart the glow.
Of joy when cold begins to go.
And little ridges warm and bare
Are showing promise here and there
There is a softness in the air
Houses around the village square
Are getting all slicked up for spring
The streets and stores and everything
Are putting on their spring attire
Like lovely ladies in a choir
Snow's goin' what a lovely thing
To see the miracle of spring

Square Notes From Circle Eight

There didn't seem to be any doubt last Thursday evening about how all you square dancers liked Henry Lien's style of calling Despite the blocked roads and nasty weather there was a nice crowd and everyone seemed to be having a wonderful time

The roads must have been really bad Walter Parker from Dewberry and Arnold Fulton of Minburn missed for the first time since C8 started.

The secretary would like to hear your comments about Henry because if you liked him he'll be back later in the spring.

A car load of dancers went to Wainwright last Friday to hear Billy Coulter He is a very good caller We learned some new dances and had a grand [illegible] with all those nice people at Wainwright. A group went to Harold's dance at Minburn last Friday and report a very fine dance

There aren't any tickets left or room in the armouries either It's too bad to have to disappoint so many but the place just cannot hold any more

Regarding spectators at the Jamboree we feel that it is only fair to say that space is very restricted and warn that if it gets too crowded spectators may be asked to go to the lobby

Don't forget that Harold will be calling in Mannville Friday, April 1st and ARNIE IS COMING.

DEER LAKE

The weatherman has been showing us his rough side, but spring may be just around the corner

Mr and Mrs. John Habstritt, long-time residents of this district, have sold their farm and plan to leave in the spring We are sorry to see them go. Mr. Habstritt's father was one of the first settlers in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Garnier of Dewberry have bought the Habstritt place and will be our new neighbors so we hear. We all welcome this young couple to our midst.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Romanchuk and Mr. and Mrs. Durward Bowman returned recently from a trip to Vancouver and Victoria . While there a great many friends from Dewberry and Islay were visited.

Hello to the William Porter family at Vancouver. I know you get the Standard.

We saw such scenic spots as Vancouver's Stanley Park, Victoria's Beacon Hill Park, the famous Butchart Gardens. We went to the docks and watched the boats, very intriguing sight, they look so majestic and seem to move without effort. We also had our first plane ride from Victoria to Vancouver.

It is strange to go into the neighboring province and see the grass so green in February, but it is just the coastal regions that are so nice. The interior of B.C. is more rugged and there is a lot more snow there than Alberta has at present. Leslie Bowman did the work while his parents were away. Mrs. Prowd kept the Bowman home and sent the children to school.

We in the district wish to extend our deepest sympathy to the Lumley family. Mr. and Mrs. Lumley used to come to our little dances at the school when his sister-in-law Miss Prowse taught here.

POLIO VACCINATION

Most people will remember that last year certain groups of school children took part in the Field Trials of the Salk Vaccine These trials in Alberta were part of a much more extensive program carried out in the U.S. and the final results and conclusions are expected to be published shortly.

In the meantime the Department of Public Health have every reason to believe that the vaccine is effective in preventing poliomyelitis and are again offering it on an experimental basis.

It will first be offered to those whose children took part in the trials last year but were given sterile water as the controls in the experiment. The next group will be all the Grade One beginners throughout the Health Unit area The vaccine may be offered to others later if there is a surplus.

Consent forms are being sent out through the post or through the schools and you are asked to read them carefully and follow the directions given. If your child took part in the trials last year and you do not receive a letter you can rest assured that the child had the vaccine last year.

It will be necessary to give three injections again but the interval between will be 3 to 4 weeks and as far as possible will be completed before the end of the school term.

The injections are not painful nor followed by any unpleasant effects, nor does it leave a scar. There will be no charge made

With the scattered population of this Health Unit it is not possible to get around to all the rural schools to give the injections and parents of these children will be asked to bring them to the nearest Well Baby Clinic.

The co-operation of parents is solicited to ensure that in reading and filling out the forms and carrying out these directions the arrangements run smoothly.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Keeley Celebrate 55 Years Of Married Life

A couple, who grew up in Ontario and came to Alberta in 1908 marked their 55th wedding anniversary recently.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J Keeley 11215 104 St. marked their anniversary with a family gathering joined by a number of friends

Elizabeth Ellen Ganton and Henderson James Keeley pledged their marriage vows on March 17 1900 at Huntsville, Ont., and for eight years resided in the district In 1908 they left their native province and journeyed west to Alberta and settled on the land in the Vermilion district.

Mr. Keeley joined the staff of the Canadian National Railways retiring on superannuation in 1940. The family moved to Edmonton in 1926 and resided here until 1940 when the call to the soil beckoned them back to the good farmlands of Alberta. This time they chose the Elk Point district and farmed the land until 1949 when they moved to Edmonton

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Collapse of Gas Pipeline Negotiations Worries Govt.

EDMONTON. — The seriousness with which the Alberta government views the collapse of negotiations between the federal government and Trans-Canada Pipe Line Ltd., on the financing of a natural gas pipeline from Alberta to the east was evident in the legislature last week.

It was expressed by Premier Manning during a three-hour debate which saw spokesmen for Liberal, CCF and Prog.-Conservative parties stating their views and though no conclusion resulted, the upshot was an announcement that the cabinet is considering adjourning the house when its current business is ended.

This would be instead of prorogation and would allow the government to call a quick sitting after talks with the federal government the pipeline company and gas producers.

Mr. Manning's statement was: "The collapse of the negotiations is extremely serious to Alberta, and to a lesser extent, the whole of Canada. The responsibility on Alberta is to see to it, in the light of these happenings., that we do whatever is the best and most constructive to resolve the problem which confronts us, at the earliest possible date, and in the best interests of Alberta and Canada."

CCF Leader Elmer E. Roper contended an American oil company, which would be the largest single supplier of Alberta gas to the Trans-Canada line, caused the failure of the Ottawa negotiations.

After the federal government refused to guarantee payment of interest on the company's bonds in the early years of development, the government Bank of Canada offered to put up money, if the company would allow the bank to purchase $5 million worth of common shares and $80 million worth of debentures which could be converted into common stock.

Trans-Canada turned down the offer not because it was not prepared to accept it, Mr. Roper claimed, but because the American Co. refused to supply gas to a company over which the Canadian government might exercise some control.

That an American company could refuse to supply Canadian gas for another part of Canada was outrageous to the CCF leader, and another indication Canada is becoming an economic colony of the U.S. With control over its own natural resources, he maintained, it is up to Alberta to tell the American company 'where to get off'. If it is not prepared to deliver gas on the terms Otawa asks to protect Canadian taxpayers, it should let the government do it, he said.

Mr Manning said he and Trans-Canada officials had checked and could find no producer who was opposed to the government's requiring security for guaranteeing the bonds but he added the bank's proposal went further. In effect, he said, the federal government would be coming in the back door to control the line by virtue of the vast amount of voting stock the bank would have.

If the government wants control, let them be frank about it, said the premier. If the producers know whether the company is a private or a crown corporation they would be prepared to deliver gas to the line but they would not, if the status of the company is confused.

Foremost, according to Premier Manning, is that the producers in Alberta obtain an immediate market for the vast gas reserves. J. H. Prowse, Liberal leader of the opposition, took a less hurried view.

The far-larger gas reserves of Texas, he maintained, are tied up in long-range contracts that will see that state importing gas from beyond its boundaries in 10 years, while still exporting its own to other areas. He defended the federal government's demand that the eastern line follow an all-Canadian route, stating gas would help develop the vast undeveloped regions through which it will pass.

He opposed shipping to the U.S., which he said is running short of gas, because it would be used by industries competing with Canadian industry.

Red Deer Prog.-Con. W. Kirby said the main thing is to find immediate markets for producers who have invested hundreds of millions of dollars in the province.

Salvation Army Plans Expansion

MONTREAL. — Salvation Army leaders are facing "the biggest expansion program in the Movement's history in Canada" Air Marshall W. A. Bishop said in announcing the dates of the 1955 National Red Shield Appeal which will begin on Monday May 2, and run to Monday May 23.

Being pledged to such a vast expansion in building and services meant the Air Marshal said, that every Salvation Army appeal for future years must reach its objective. Not only must capital commitments be redeemed, but continually - increasing maintenance costs must be met.

Air Marshal Bishop who is the chairman of The Salvation Army's National Advisory Board, noted that this year The Salvation Army is 90 years old. The Movement, he said, has grown up with Canada until citizens in all walks of life look upon it as a "necessary and appreciated" part of Canadian life. He indicated his confidence in the success of the 1955 Appeal, and urged all Canadians to assist either by canvass or contribution. The theme of this year's Appeal will be "The Open Door". That, declared Air Marshal Bishop, aptly describes The Salvation Army's attitude to human need.

We extend our sympathy to the family of Frank Towndrow on the the death Wednesday morning of Mrs. Towndrow who passed away in the Lloydminster hospital after a long illness. The funeral was held in Lloydminster Saturday.

Mrs. Gordon McIntyre and Mrs. Albert McDonald were called to Chilliwack, B.C., due to the illness of their father Mr. Newman.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray McDonald of Edmonton were week end visitors at the Kragness home

Mr and Mrs. M Hoskins accompanied by Mrs. L. Knutson and Mrs A. Levitt were visitors to Edmonton during the past week. Mrs. Knutson visited with her daughter Laura and Mrs. Levitt with her daughter Helen.

The weather during the past week has been on the chilly side but we hear that warmer weather is on the way. Let's hope so. The side roads are in bad shape as the snow has piled up in some places.

The April meeting of the United Church P.V.W.A will be held at the home of Mrs. Thibodeau, Tuesday April 5 at 8:00 o'clock.

Mr. Frank French returned to his home at Haney, B.C. after visiting with his daughters Mrs. Harold Fair and Mrs. James Gordon for quite some time.

Owing to the bad road conditions the play 'Ready Made Family' to be put on by the Little Theatre of Lloydminster and sponsored by the P.V.W.A. has been postponed until April 29th.

FACE FACTS!

You would not normally throw money away, would you? It isn't always a saving of money to buy the cheapest. Poorer grades of lumber can affect the life of your building, may cause out-of-line or out-of-plumb walls, and thus eventually cost more in the long run.

Check our prices and grades before you decide to go ahead with that addition, alteration, or new building. We would be pleased to offer suggestions, discuss prices and grades — and will estimate costs on any of your intended projects at no cost to you.

WILDMERE WINKS

Our nice spring-like weather is very welcome. The little bit of snow we have will soon go. 17 years ago March 29 we had a terrific blizzard that piled up drifts 10 to 15 feet high. Summerfallow that has been bare in our part will soon dry off and will need moisture soon to keep it from blowing.

Mrs. Frank Gibson of Basswood and Mrs. Wm. Cross were delegates to the annual convention of the Alberta Cancer Society held at Medicine Hat on Saturday last week. They went by plane from Edmonton and Friday afternoon and returned Sunday. Mrs. Gibson reported it was three grand days. We are sure they have some good news to tell of that meeting.

On Friday last week Howard Coburn, Laurence Graham, Lloyd Howard and Lindy Fadden all journeyed north to Cold Lake and beyond in two trucks and returned Saturday with loads of slabs. They report a lot more snow up that way but the roads were still good.

The F.U.A. local at Thorncliffe held a dance last Friday evening. It was a good dance with a very sociable crowd attending. Mr. Alf Logan and Jack Schaumleffel furnished the music. Mr Logan also had his record player there and some fine selections on it were enjoyed. Charlie Sweeney was M.C.

We were pleased to hear that Mr. and Mrs Logan Sr live with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Campbell in Calgary. Next time we are in that city we are going to see you folks.

Sorry that Mr and Mrs. G. Beckman's wedding dance had to be postponed owing to the illness of the bride who is in the hospital. Hope you are soon back to health and home Donalda.

On Friday last Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phillips of Worsley, Alta., arrived in town to spend a few days visiting relatives and friends in Wildmere. They attended the dance at Thorncliffe and had a good time chatting with old friends and neighbors. On Monday they visited at the Wallington and Garnett homes. They plan on leaving for Holden to visit with Harry's brother before going on to visit a daughter Leona in Edmonton. Then on north to their home. Harry says the rust on grain did not reach his part of the province. Mrs. Phillips (Selena) is a very fresh looking woman for being the mother of 12 children. 11 are living, 8 still at home. They tell us they still keep up with the news by taking the Standard.

J. C. Wallington, Mr. Buckingham and Mr. Hosack are in Edmonton this week. Two days will be spent on the Agricultural Service Board and two days on Civil defense.

Kenny Graham has joined the 4-H club in Vermilion and is getting wheat to seed.

We had nice chats on Saturday with Mrs. Moore, Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. Willimason, Mrs. F. Clark, Mrs. Simmons and Mrs. Holden.

It was nice to know Mrs. Sobey of Stettler reads our column of the paper. Hope you will like your new home better when spring arrives.

We forgot to mention in our last Winks the grand time enjoyed by all at the Gay 90's March 17. There was a big crowd and all seemed to have a good time. Hanna orchestra furnished the music with T. Thompson, M.C. Mr. and Mrs. Funnell of Koknee sang a few songs at supper which everyone enjoyed very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallington visited on Saturday evening at the Holte home where a nice chat was enjoyed. On Sunday Baillie Holte went with the boys to play hockey at Woodvale where they again won out. Mr. and Mrs. Holte then came to Wallington's to get Baillie and another short visit was enjoyed over the tea cups.

LAST CALL FOR SHELTER-BELT TREES

It is not yet too late to order the trees for your shelterbelt. P D McCalla, Supervisor of Horticulture, Alberta Department of Agriculture says that application forms will be accepted for approximately another month for Manitoba Maple, Green Ash, Lodge Pole Pine and Caragana.

In addition to the trees listed above there are still fair supplies of the following varieties: Dogwood, Sandcherry, Chinese Birdcherry, Native Plum, Hansen Rose, Japanese Rose, Pussy Willow, Black Elderberry, Tartarian Honeysuckle, Chinese Lilac and Common Lilac. Orders for these shrubs will also be accepted for approximately another month.

Application forms are available from your D.A.

Control of Coyote Or Wolf

The Government has given this chore to the Department of Agriculture, who have appointed men for each district of the province to help in the control of the coyote or wolf. These men have such a large territory that it not only takes them but all farmers and local organizations interested in predator control or conservation, to rid us of the predator to where their balance will not affect the other wild life in the districts.

The government has given each M.D the following materials to use in the destruction of the predators. The strychnine pellets, put into melted tallow and formed into a small cup; the cyanide guns are also given to farmers for protection against predators, now they have a new poison called 1080 (Sodium Fluoracetate), this has proven to be very effective and will be used, if permission is granted, in this district next fall. With all these provisions made by the Department there are still some farmers not using them and crying about the loss of turkeys, chickens and sheep. It may be because they are free and if the government made the farmers pay for the use of these poisons and guns it would be more effective.

We are not trying to strain the relations between the farmer and sportsmen but trying to rectify an error. Last week the local Fish & Game approached a farmer who has a great number of coyotes on his property, he was not only happy to let us salt the property with poison, which is posted, but he also supplied the bait which was a 750 lb. bull. This kind of co-operation from all the farmers would soon rid this district of predators. The Halliday article in the Toronto Star states that since the all-out poisoning of coyotes by the use of 1080 the rodents have increased to a point where the very land is eroding and the mice are killing shrubs and eating some 8 to 10 bushels of grain per acre. The facts and figures are these: "The Wild Life Service" of Colorado, from where the article was born, reports 100 per cent increase in bob cats, 60 per cent increase in skunks, 96 per cent increase in badgers and 800 per cent increase in raccoons. While the coyote population decreased 78% as a result of using 1080 over a 10-year period. Most of these animals showing an increase during the period are noted as better mouse killers than the coyote.

Biologists report the coyote has no useful place in an agriculture district whatsoever. In carefully controlled experiments carried out in Saskatchewan, B.C. and California where the coyote was as near as possible exterminated, no increase could be detected in the mouse or rodent population. This state and the two provinces used 1080 for coyote control. Careful planning is needed by all of us to keep our predators down, let's get behind those men who have been appointed and help them.

Next week the Crow and Magpie.

High School Carnival A Grand Success At Mannville

MANNVILLE. — The Mannville high school is glad to report that the annual ice carnival held March 9th was a big success in spite of the cold evening. It started with a game of broomball, single men against the high school boys with the single men winning by one. This was followed by a very pretty ribbon drill under direction of Mr. Rostron. The costume parade was next on the progam. It was well attended by all ages with every imaginable costume. Prizes were issued to the following:

The races followed the costume parade. Then the Queen of the Carnival, Miss Elsie Golish and her attendants Misses Agnes Keuschnig, Sandra Leitch, Marlene Rathje and Lily Ann Allen, walked out to the stage where Mr. Roy Hay gave a speech and crowned the Queen. An address by Miss Golish ended this highlight of the evening.

Finally there was a tug of war between the north and south. It was won by the South. The door prize which was drawn for was won by Mrs. Jim Summers of Cherry Grove.

All the members of the high school wish to extend their thanks to everyone who attended and supported the 1955 Ice Carnival.

The members of the high school wish to extend a special "Thank you" to the Legion members for allowing the use of the Legion hall for school parties while the new gymnasium was in the making.

By AMBROSE HILLS

WHAT IS A DETAIL?

A young fellow came to my office the other day wanting help to find a new job. When I asked him what was the matter with the one he had. He said, "There's too much detail. I'm not a detail man."

"What", I asked him, "is a detail?"

I could tell by the way he looked at me that he thought I was just a foolish old man. But I had asked him a question which has been asked many times by many important people. As long ago as 1931, T. S. Knowlson was urging that somebody should write an informal essay on the subject, "What Is A Detail?"

It was his opinion that there are now no details. Everything is important. The detail of today may be an essential of tomorrow.

All the advances made in our commercial utilities and in our business services are the outcome of attention to detail.

Think of the Hertzian waves from the time they were first noticed to the present stage of their development. Marconi studied them for years and practiced in short distance transmissions from the Flat Holme island in the Bristol Channel to another island, improving his sending, adjusting his receiving, until at last he could fare considerable distance with confidence. No detail escaped him.

Our whole society is based on the fact that details are important. And most of us believe that the man on the spot is best able to pay attention to them. The local school board for example, knows the need of its own community much better than any far-off government could know them. The town council can manage town affairs much better than they could be handled by far-off experts. The individual farmer knows his land and the problem it presents, and can plan his crops and his seasonal activities better than any expert unfamiliar with such details.

I did my best to explain to the young man that wherever he went, he would be a detail man. If he failed to be a good detail man, he would fail entirely. But he had the notion that his genius lies in the setting of broad policies. I could not talk him out of it.

The setting of broad policies is a very necessary thing, no doubt. But the man who sets these policies must know an infinite number of details. Broad policies based on general theories will flop every time. And when they do fail, what a loud noise they make! Hitler found this out. Mussolini found it out. Every central government that has attempted to impose broad general policies on a nation, ignoring the human details, has failed miserably.

It seems to me that one of the most important lessons any young man could hope to learn is this: the details of life are extremely important. Never dodge them. They are life itself!

Mr. Newson, Librarian, Addresses Home & School

MANNVILLE.—The March meeting of the Home and School was held in the new gymnasium with a very good attendance. Mrs. Otto's grade 2 room was the first winner of the Attendance shield.

Mr. R. Whitson spoke on the proper footwear to be worn by the pupils in the use of the gym, as discussed by the Board. He also mentioned that a local school board will be formed with representatives from the various districts. This will be discussed more fully at the next meeting.

The Chadley ladies gave an excellent demonstration of 'Hats'. With Mrs Lugg as accompanist and Miss K. Sutton as narrator there was a display of every imaginable hat, even one sporting a pink chicken, another teddy bears, another a tulip while still another sported a string of hearts. After an introduction by Miss Sutton each lady modelled a hat with songs old and new as the accompaniment, sung by the group.

A piano duet by Misses June Van Dusen and Donna Doherty completed the program.

After the adjournment of the regular meeting, Mr Doherty introduced Mr Newson, the only professional librarian in our government's employ. The following is the text of his talk to the Home and School.

A properly organized public library is an important community centre. Its purpose is to supply general information and education secondary to the task of the school. If it can be built up to handle various pamphlets, films, records, it also becomes a cultural and recreational centre.

Canadian books and pamphlets, especially those of Alberta, should hold precedence. As well as fiction there should be good non-fiction and particularly a world almanac, a good dictionary and a good atlas. The reference book shelf should supplement that of the school.

A community library should specialize in children's books, to cultivate in young people proper library habits. Parents and teachers must encourage the use of the library. A good parent, a good teacher and a good book go hand in hand in the proper mental development of a child. Good libraries are the only answer to the comic book menace.

Suggested stages of reading for a child are: 1. Picture book; 2. Fairy Tales; 3. Nature stories; 4. Books about birds; 5. Books about machines; 6. Books about industry; 7. Music and Art; 8. Travel; 9. Poetry.

Alberta is far behind in library service. The provincial grants amount to only $33,000 per year and there are no grants to school libraries. We need supervisors of school libraries and increased grants but it seems that the day must come when there will be tax supported libraries.

Mannville has an excellent start in library service but space is very limited and in order to add record collections, films and reference books a great deal of public support plus increased provincial grants will be needed, as this requires additional space.

Serum Albumin Replaces Plasma

Dr. D. I. Buchanan, of Edmonton, senior medical director for the Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service in Alberta, has announced that limited supplies of serum albumin are now arriving in the province for distribution to hospitals by the Red Cross. The serum albumin, a blood fraction, will gradually replace the dried plasma which has been issued up to this time. As serum albumin is being stockpiled for both disaster and civil defence, one ampule is received for each five bottles of blood sent to the Connaught Laboratories in Toronto. Dr Buchanan (right) and Dr. M. J. Tuttle of Calgary (left), medical director of Calgary sub-depot, hold five bottles of blood while Miss Celia Corkeram, senior lab technician, holds an ampule of serum albumin and a bottle of gamma globulin, another important blood fraction which is processed at Connaught from blood given by volunteer donors.

"IMPROPER GAS VENTING can be DANGEROUS

Make the 5 POINT SAFETY CHECK in Your Home Today . . . and Know You're Safe!"

"There have been several recent reports of carbon monoxide fumes in homes in Edmonton and district. These fumes result from improper venting of gas appliances, and they can be dangerous. The following five point safety check will help make YOUR home safe. Check today —and be sure your venting is safe."

—Stated by Mr. Jack Booth, Fire Marshal, City of Edmonton.

Make Your Own 5 Point Safety Check Today

1 Check Your Chimney: If it's blocked in any way you're not getting proper venting. Hold a hand mirror inside the chimney at the clean-out opening or at the lowest vent pipe connection. Hold the mirror at the angle shown in the drawing at right. You should get reflected light if your chimney is clear of obstructions.

2 Check Vent Pipes: Pipes leading from appliances to your chimney should be in sound condition, all joints fitting snugly, well supported, free from obstructions and there should be no damper on these pipes.

3 Check Chimney Connections: Where vent pipes run into the chimney make sure they fit snugly—but do not run so far into the chimney that they block the chimney passage.

4 Check Appliances: City By-laws require that all gas appliances must be vented to the outside atmosphere, with the exception of refrigerators and ranges approved for use without vent pipes.

5 Check for Unpleasant Odors: Smarting of the eyes and nose irritation is an indication of fumes in your house.

Make the five point test today—do not try to repair any trouble spots yourself—call your local plumber, tinsmith or gasfitter, he is qualified to do a proper repair job.

A Word From Your Gas Company

This year accidents resulting from gas fumes involving 18 persons have been reported to our office. Two of these cases were fatal. Care and attention on the part of the home owner would have obviated some of these and might have obviated them all. It is not the natural gas that causes these accidents — it is the products of incomplete combustion. Normally the products of combustion of fuel are carbon dioxide, water vapor, oxygen and nitrogen, all harmless. But if the chimney or a vent pipe to the chimney, is blocked or partially blocked, the heating equipment may produce poisonous carbon monoxide which is spilled into the occupied space with possible harmful effects to the occupants. It is important that left-over gases get a chance to escape to the outside atmosphere, and we urge you to make the above safety check in your own home so that you can continue to enjoy Natural Gas with safety.

In the picture, Miss Betty Mitchell, director of the Calgary group, is seen receiving the trophy from Charles Pinnell, Alberta representative for Calvert Distillers Ltd.

Tips on Touring

— By Carol Lane —
Women's Travel Authority

When it comes to fixing a flat, even a skilled motorist can fall flat. Here's a handy questionnaire to check your tire-changing tactics:

1. When a flat occurs, do you try to maneuver onto a hard, level surface to change your tire?

2. Do you carefully block both wheels on the other end of the car from the flat?

3. Do you take the spare from the trunk BEFORE elevating your jack?

4. Do you place your jack under the bumper at a slight angle opposite to the direction the car tends to slip as it is being raised?

5. Do you loosen the nuts while the wheel is only partially jacked and still resting on the ground? And do you then jack the car completely to remove the nuts?

There are many little knowknacks in tire-changing that eliminate much of the aggravation and danger.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

— By June E. Kirk —

It seems old man weather has played a nasty trick on us this year. Spring just didn't arrive when we expected it! And you know what that means — winter clothes will be doing a few weeks extra duty. And that also means more work for mother in cleaning and mending.

From our pamphlet on 'Stain Removal' come these general pointers for home cleaning. The first rule is to remove a stain while it is fresh. Know what kind of fabric you're working with (if you don't, send it to the cleaners) and use the proper cleaner for it.

Before using commercial spot removers, try sponging a non-greasy stain with cold water, or a greasy stain with carbon tetrachloride. And always remove a stain before washing or pressing. The heat of the wash water or iron will often make the stain an unwelcome but permanent guest in your closet.

If you're using a commercial spot remover, be sure to follow the directions (after all, the manufacturer knows best), work rapidly and gently. Sponge, rather than rub, the fabric because rubbing may injure the material and leave a mark worse than the stain itself.

So now the clothes are clean, but there's still that elbow that needs patching, the pocket that's ripped, and the sweater with a yawning hole. Oh, dear! However, a few hours work is far less expensive than a new jacket, trousers or sweater.

Use the sewing machine, where possible, for mending especially on cottons. For hand mending, ravel out a thread of material from a wide seam or pocket edge. Then, if you can find only short threads, make the stitches on a long needle, thread it and pull it through.

Never use knots in mending. Start with one or more tiny back stitches, or use an Anchor Stitch. This is just two tiny stitches crossing over each other at right angles. A crochet hook is best for mending runs in sweaters or loosely woven fabrics.

Before replacing a button that has been torn off, patch the hole with a piece of tape or cloth, then strengthen it by machine stitching back and forth until the hole is covered with stitching.

For further directions (this almost sounds like a mystery story, doesn't it?) drop me a line mentioning "New Ways for Mending". This little book holds a gold mine of hints on patching, mending and darning. And while you're at it, don't forget to ask for the one on "Stain Removal".

NEWS from ALLANDALE

Our first lovely day for ages was Saturday 26th. Just zero this morning and forecasts are for better weather. March came in like a lion and has been roaring ever since, giving us cold wind and snow. The roads were opened on the 23rd partially, some are now impassable

Rev Mary Haggart who was our student minister in 1953 has been since that summer on a field in southern Saskatchewan at Cabri. Miss Enid Horning who was on the south field has gone to Japan as a missionary. Two very fine capable ladies.

Shower for bride-elect Miss June Johnson was held at the Hagen home March 14. It was well attended lovely gifts were received and it closed with a grand lunch. Thanks to Mr and Mrs Hagen for their hospitality

The Russell-Johnson wedding took place on March 16th. That day we had all kinds of weather, reminding one of the 'Road of Life' The bride looked charming and the wedding party was lovely. The reception was grand. The ladies are to be congratulated on such a fine supper. Wedding gifts were very numerous and very nice. Our wish to such a fine couple is that the coming years will bring you much happiness.

"Ode to Alberta" what a lovely piece of poetry for our province, our home. We know the author well. Ethel taught Allandale some years ago. Let us have more poetry for our Golden Jubilee year

We are very happy for the Simonet families Tony Annie, Mike and Mary for winning a grand award with their purebred stock. The trip overseas will be wonderful

Don Wilson was a delegate to the Dairy Pool convention held in the city the middle of the month. Dougie Maggs returned with him on Friday to spend the week end in town with his folks.

Mr and Mrs. Jimmy Ronaghan and family from Wainwright were visitors at the Orville Armstrong home last Sunday 20th

A speedy recovery is wished Mrs. Mabel Lee who is confined to her home with the mumps.

Billy Strang returned home to Lloydminster on the bus on the 23rd. He and his dad are going to the Jack Grant farm shortly at Ethelwyn for the spring work

We are pleased to hear that Vernon Nelson had the cast removed from his arm on the 21st and is getting on very well. His arm and hand won't lack exercise with the vim and energy Vernon has.

Leonard McPhee accompanied his aunt and uncle, the Dowlds, to the city on March 23, returning Saturday evening

So sorry to hear of the Albert Dupuit fire on the 23rd. Such a loss by fire is surely a great setback.

Mr and Mrs. Tommy Greaves and family from the city spent the last week end at the latter's parents' home, the Baldock's. Louis returned from the city with them where he had been attending the bull sale

Wilmer Hogaboam from Derwent has made two attempts to get to the Baldock home. Aunt Mary has been there since the Calgary Bull sale. Both times he has had to turn back on account of blocked roads south of Clandonald

In a recent letter from daughter Della at Ft. McMurray-Waterways she states there is a flu epidemic and jaundice at these two towns. The school is closed and the hospital is full

It was good to be able to attend church service in Clandonald last Sunday. Rev MacKay always has a real message for his congregation. Mr. Stan Calder from the city spent the week end at the Laird home and he very ably supplied the music for the service. The next service will be Easter Sunday at 2 p.m.

Your donations. Mr McBride, were greatly appreciated for our church and the Whitney Camp fund. Hope you can attend some of our church services this summer and see the benefit of your donation. And at Camp Whitney too perhaps you will be able to see the work being done there for the boys and girls and leaders.

A letter recently from Mr and Mrs Ramsley states they have a very comfortable home at Whalley, B.C. They are keeping very well. Mrs. Ramsley is a member of the W A there. Their son Allen is employed in the bank at Grand Centre near Cold Lake. More Russylvia folk Mr and Mrs. Jack Lindville of Sicamous B.C., left the middle of February for their trip to the States. Mr and Mrs George Crosby Joan and Russell have left Edmonton and are now living in Calgary

There will be a card party whist at the school on April 6th, 8:30 p.m in aid of the Red Cross. Orley Omness is canvassing again and your donation that evening would be appreciated.

The sympathy of the district goes to the Pierce family on the loss of a dear husband and father

Closing Thought: In the making of a good life what we want most more than amusements is an inner feeling of warmth and lively interest in whatever we may be doing, whether work or play; the pleasure of life."

Civil Servants Donate $1,000.00

The Alberta Tuberculosis Association announced receipt this week of a contribution of $1000 from the Alberta Civil Servants Welfare fund. This fund is created as a result of donations made by all provincial government employees and will be utilized by the T. B. Association on behalf of their work on a provincial basis to aid in the financing the cost of additional X-ray units in hospitals for the X-ray of all admissions organizing mass surveys through the mobile units owned by the Association and operated by the provincial Department of Health rehabilitation of T B patients, etc. The itinerary of the mobile unit for the 1955 season is now being arranged by the director of the tuberculosis division, and during the spring season will conduct surveys in areas of the south including Coaldale, Pincher Creek, the Crows' Nest Pass. Later surveys will be conducted on the Tofield-Chauvin line in the north. Tentative plans are being laid to conduct a survey this year in the far northeast section of the province. It is in areas such as this where hospital and medical services are not so readily available that higher rates of TB incidence are found, and visits of the mobile unit are most productive in searching out undisclosed tuberculosis

CLOSING EXERCICES PROVE BRILLIANT FUNCTION

81 Students Graduate From The Vermilion School of Agriculture

The closing exercises at the Vermilion school of agriculture held Wednesday afternoon and evening proved to be a brilliant function. Favored by perfect weather the exercises attracted large numbers of parents, relatives and alumni members. This all combined with the very fine program to make the 1955 closing as memorable as any in the history of the school.

Eighty-one students received the graduating diplomas. The number is comprised of 60 boys and 21 girls. Of the graduates in Home Economics 13 were second year students and 8 members of the two-in-one class. The boys numbered 33 second year and 27 two-in-one students.

The graduating ceremonies were opened by the fashion parade wherein the young ladies in Home Economics fashioned the dresses which they had made during the year. The fashion parade was climaxed by the parade of the lady graduates in their graduating dresses, all made by themselves. The dresses in many pastel shades all blended in together to make a most delightful and colorful climax to this part of the day's exercises.

R. E. BYRON DELIVERS GRADUATION ADDRESS

Delivering the graduation address to the completely filled assembly hall was Mr. R. E. Byron, director of vocational training for Alberta. Mr. E. McCrimmon, supervisor of Radio and Publicity Branch of the Provincial Department of Agriculture, brought greetings from his department.

Following the graduation address announcement was made of the winners of the scholarships and prizes, and the diplomas were presented to the graduates.

The complete list of graduates appears in this issue with names of the scholarship and prize winners to appear in the next issue.

GRADUATION BANQUET

At 6:30 the graduation banquet was held attended by members of the graduating class and their guests. The program was comprised of toasts with that of "To the School of Agriculture" being proposed by Richard Bednar of Ponoka, with reply by staff member K. M Stone. Mr. L. Seath proposed the toast "To the Graduating Class" with reply by student George McMillan, Picardville.

A dance in the evening was the final feature of the closing exercises for the 1954-55 school year.

TIGERS ARE BANQUETED AT FINISH OF GREAT SEASON

Tribute to a never give-up hockey team, the Vermilion Tigers, was paid Saturday night when the players were guests of the Tigers' executive at a truly sumptuous banquet exquisitely served in the Brunswick hotel dining room by the caterer Mr. Rukavina.

The past year has been a very successful one. There was no doubt but that the Vermilion team provided the highlight of the season by coming from fourth place to eliminate the favored Gas Kings of Viking in a torrid six-game semi-final, and then forced the Rangers to another six games before admitting defeat in the final for the league championship and Craig cup. They attracted the two largest crowds, 1200 against Viking and over 1400 when Vegreville played the last game here, to attend games anywhere on the circuit this season, and the 1425 is thought to be the biggest crowd ever to witness an E.A.H.L. game.

As a result of this fine fan support, the club finished the season with a nice bank balance.

Neil McLean, president of the Tiger Hockey club was the toastmaster for the gala occasion, attended by some 60 people, players, executive members and guests accompanied by wives and lady friends. Mr. McLean stated that this occasion was in tribute to the hockey players, the boys who put on such a great show. They had played 32 games this season 18 in league play 12 in the play-offs and two exhibition. They had shown a great drive to the finish line and the town can justly be proud of the players, and the players have every right to be proud of the showing they made this season.

KRELLER ADVOCATES JUVENILE COACHING

Coach Elmer Kreller was the next speaker and he threw out a challenge to the service clubs of Vermilion, the Elks, the Legion, the Kinsmen and the Rotary. "In Vermilion" he said, "you train your Pee-Wees and coach your Midgets. There is good material as I have watched them play but you drop them at 16 years. Look after your juvenile players and in Vermilion you will never need imports. The town is big enough to provide its own hockey players. Right now the juvenile age group is not being treated fairly, they are not being organized or coached. This is not fair to the players nor to the hockey fans, and Vermilion is the best hockey town in the league. This year is an example of what local talent can do."

"It was a pleasure" said Coach Kreller "to address the group present because of the knowledge that the Tigers had given of their best. The only regret was in losing just one game short of bringing home the championship. However this was Vegreville's first cup since 1947 so maybe it was a good thing as a whole."

He commented further on the fan support solidly behind the team and who attended the games all season whether the Tigers were up or down. Mr Kreller also had high praise for icemaker [illegible] Williams. "It's the same just after year, Vermilion has the best ice in the league circuit, thanks to [illegible] Williams."

"A man" said Elmer "who has been and still is a driving force for hockey in Vermilion is Stan Manyluk, the team manager. When Stan steps out of the hockey picture in town he will leave a real void to fill."

KRELLER AND WILLIAMS TO RETIRE

Coach Elmer Kreller with Vermilion for four years, announced that he was finally hanging up his skates. It was also announced that Les Williams around whom the Tiger hockey team has been built for many years, is giving up participation in the great winter pastime as a player, but will be right in there no doubt helping in other capacities.

In saying a few words, Secretary Mitchell Taylor noted that this had been a good year financially. Tigers apparently gave the fans the action they wanted and excitement, and the fans responded by attending the games in goodly numbers resulting in a very successful year financially for the club.

Manager Stan Manyluk in his remarks, stated that he had been connected with the team as a player and on the executive for many years and this season had been one of the best ever, due to the co-operation of everyone connected with the hockey organization. He mentioned the players and the stick boys and prop men, Joe Winters, George Martin and Don Raun. All these combine to make a good club and a smoothly operating unit.

A. E. Locke, league representative and official scorekeeper, reported no trouble from his department and he thought that club affairs had been particularly well managed throughout the past season.

JOHN LAPORTE MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

A. M. West, whose firm of Craig Bros. donated the hockey trophy which denotes the league championship, then presented the individual trophy, also donated by Craigs, to the player adjudged the most valuable to his team during the 1954-55 season. The winner was goalie Johnny Laporte and the choice was a popular one with players and fans alike.

In accepting the presentation John said that in his opinion any one of the Tigers would have been a worthy winner of this trophy.

INDIVIDUAL TROPHIES

Mr West then continued the individual presentations on behalf of the Tigers Booster club wherein every one of the 1954-55 Tigers was presented with a replica of the Craig cup suitably engraved as a memento of the 1954-55 season. Mr West stated that presentation of these cups was made possible by donations from several of the business men of the town and was organized and carried out by Bob Carmichael. Receiving the trophies were John Laporte, Elmer Kreller, Les Williams, Stewart Cooper, Bill Schmidt, Wm Novak, Frank Ewing, Bob Chryzanowski, Ted Scherban, Bill Williams, Wally Footz, Leo Leahy, Marvin Little, Stewart Barr.

THANKS BOARD OF TRADE

President Neil McLean acknowledged with many thanks the work of the Board of Trade for arranging all the transportation for the team to visit out-of-town games. This lifted a great responsibility and a lot of work from the shoulders of the local hockey executive as well as proving a boon financially.

NEW JACKETS

Each member of the Tigers is being presented with a new jacket and these will be forthcoming very shortly. The team will also enjoy [illegible] 7 when they will be guests of the [illegible] game [illegible] Edmonton between the Flyers and the Stampeders.

This report would have been incomplete without reference to the delicious banquet [illegible] served by the caterer Mr. Rukavina and staff of the Brunswick Hotel cafe and dining room.

Thus the curtain rings down on a most unusual and successful hockey season. A season that saw new attendance records set, a walls that witnessed two six-game series in what was supposed to be the best of five that saw the Tigers supply the spark that set the season apart, and to descend to very material matters a season that saw the Tigers end the winter's activities with a nice bank balance to launch the club next fall

Mike Mulgrew Is Champion Fiddler

Mike Mulgrew of Clandonald was acclaimed the Champion of Old Time Fiddlers when he won the finals at the contest held in the Elks hall on Friday night. The contest was sponsored by the Kinsmen Clubs of Vermilion and Ponoka. Next year the championship fiddle play-off will take place at Ponoka. An elimination contest is held earlier with the three top fiddlers advancing to the finals.

The winners of the prizes were:

1. Mike Mulgrew, Clandonald
2. Fred Loiselle, Ponoka
3. Tim Nelson, Vermilion.

The other contestants were Mary Stewart, Vermilion and Don Moller of Ponoka. The third competitor from Ponoka could not attend due to illness.

The judges were Ivan Inman and Gordon Gould of Islay and Seaton Blakely of Mannville. Over 200 were in attendance and Don Taylor was the emcee handling the job in his usual capable and jocular manner.

COUNCIL ADOPTS RETIREMENT POLICY FOR MUNICIPAL STAFF

A regular meeting of the town council was held March 21 with Mayor M Hill and Crs. K Chalmers, A Locke, R Mitchell, H J Payne, G W Sutherland, C E Thompson present

Mr H. Wilton attended the meeting and discussed with the council the possibility of erecting a community mausoleum in each of the cemeteries. He stated that he was prepared to purchase the site at regular plot prices, would erect a suitable building that would meet all regulations and would see that the site was suitably landscaped. Mr Wilton was asked to submit a written application with the plans attached and was advised that the council would then consider the matter further.

Mr Miles Dixon attended the meeting and discussed with council the possibility of purchasing and erecting a house on lots 11 and 12 Block F Plan 635V. Mr Dixon was advised that it would be necessary to check the area for levels, possibility of servicing, and to check the building plans before a decision could be reached

Mr Robson attended the council meeting and made application to purchase or lease Lot 3, Blk A, Plan 635V. Mr Robson was advised it would be necessary to see what part of the lot was being used for a roadway before considering further.

The following motions carried:

That council adopt a policy of retiring employees at the age of 65. For resolution, 1 no vote; one, Mr Payne objected. Cd.

That all employees be notified by letter immediately that on reaching the age of 65 years that their services may be dispensed with.

Mr Thompson was appointed as council representative on library board.

Mannville Students Entertain, New Gym.

MANNVILLE: Mannville high school entertained Vegreville Irma and Vermilion students on Friday evening at a dance in the new gymnasium. There is plenty of room and the young people enjoyed novelty dances as well as old time and modern dancing. Larsons orchestra supplied the music.

A lunch of doughnuts a la mode and coffee brought the evening to a close.

Guests From Nearby Towns Present At Dinner

Development Of Natural Gas In Area Is Traced By D. K. Yorath

The first of a series of four evening dinner meetings planned for this year by the Board of Trade proved a most enjoyable function on Monday evening. The address given by Mr. D. K. Yorath, in his conversational manner proved most absorbing, there were many guests present from several neighboring towns, and the turkey dinner served by the ladies of the Legion was most tasty and bountiful

Dr A. Ben King president of the Vermilion Board of Trade presided and introduced the guests present: Mr D K Yorath, general manager of Northwestern Utilities, Edmonton and president of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce; Mr Murray Stewart, assistant general manager; Mr Don Marlett, executive secretary of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce; Mr Fred Pardee, superintendent of agents for Northwestern Utilities, and the following representatives of Boards of Trade or corresponding organizations:

Mr. Ralph Anderson and Mr. Wm. McLean, Islay, Mr. Jas. Smith and Mr. Bert Stokes, Kitscoty, Mr. L.W. Smith and Mr Geo. McConnell, Derwent, Mr. Alf Redman, Dewberry

Others who occupy positions of note, namely Melvin Hill, Mayor of Vermilion; D R. Mitchell, vice-president of the Alberta Associated Chambers of Commerce, Jas. Kirk, local manager of Northwestern Utilities.

SPEAKS ON "GAS"

Mr. Yorath was especially asked to speak on gas rather than on Chamber of Commerce matters, and it was easy to discern that he really enjoyed discoursing on this subject, so interesting did he make his address. Mr. Yorath touched briefly on the early history of natural gas development in this northern half of Alberta. The first well was drilled on the Athabasca River near Pelican Rapids in 1897. This well caught fire and burned for 15 years before being controlled and capped. The attempt to develop this field was abandoned early in 1900 when indications of gas were found much closer in the Viking field. Wells were drilled in this field in 1914 and 1915 but progress in this direction was stopped by the First World war. In 1923 natural gas lines were completed to Edmonton. The company of Northwestern Utilities was formed and took over the natural gas franchise for Edmonton in 1924. Development of use of gas and of new fields has continued steadily since that time until now natural gas is the most valuable resource on the continent

The speaker then gave some facts and figures on the Viking-Kinsella field, and illustrated the gas lines of Northwestern on a map. The wells in the area average 2200 feet in depth and $25,000 in cost. Gas line construction averages $43,000 per mile

GROWTH IN USE OF GAS

The tremendous growth in the use of natural gas from 1925 to the present is shown by the following figures. These pertain to Northwestern Utilities

| | 1925 | 1955 | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Customers | 6,347 | 64,304 | |
| Communities | 6 | 32 | |
| Pop. Served | 67,000 | 208,000 | |
| Daily D'mand | 10,840 | 210,000 | mcf |
| Perm. Staff | 90 | 435 | |
| Miles of Line | 190 | 1,600 | |

Mr. Yorath touched on still further development already planned, paid tribute to the employees of the Northwestern Utilities, and told of the care and work necessary and precautions taken to ensure uninterrupted service to the customer. He closed his address with the words, "With the staff we have, and with the reserves of natural gas we believe available, we are prepared to play our part in making Alberta the greatest province in this Dominion."

Appreciation for his interesting and enlightening address was suitably expressed by Mr. J. R. Boake, vice-president of the Vermilion Board, on behalf of all present.

The very enjoyable meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Also to be guests are some 25 young farmers and their wives who have for the past two years been engaged in the Farm and Home Improvement competition and who have made marked progress; Mr F. H. Newcombe, Director of Extension Services for the Provincial Department of Agriculture will attend and the chief speaker of the evening will be the Rev. E. J. White, of Edmonton, well known as a witty and entertaining after dinner speaker

Room will be available for a limited number of interested district residents and tickets for the dinner may be obtained from the office of the Manager of the Society, S. C. Heckbert. Tickets will not under any circumstances be available after Monday April 18th

Softball League Meeting Called

A meeting will be held in the town hall on Wednesday, April 13 at 8 p.m. to organize the Vermilion District Softball league for the coming season. Representatives will be present from the four teams of last year, Kinsmen, All Stars, Pleasant Valley and Island Hill and are invited from any other interested groups. Rumors are that this might develop into a seven or even an eight team league this summer.

Ort Strome is president and Keith McIntyre secretary of the league at present.

LAST GOAL SUMMARY OF THE SEASON

The goal summary of the playoff game in Vegreville last Monday night as far as the Tigers were concerned was: Cooper from Les Williams; Ewing from Kreller; Ewing from Chryzanowski; Schmidt from Cooper

Local Groups To Combine Efforts

Progress Made Re: Plans For Golden Jubilee Celebration

A meeting under the chairmanship of Mr. A. Locke made progress on Tuesday evening when representatives of various local organizations gathered to discuss the best means of celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Town of Vermilion and the Province of Alberta

It was pointed out that the Vermilion Agricultural Society is also celebrating 50 years of service in [illegible] and inasmuch as many plans have already fairly well advanced it was the general consensus of opinion that local groups would co-operate in making the 1955 [illegible] of the celebration. Other special days will also be arranged during the summer season, according to tentative plans, and may include a number of features ending with a Service of Thanksgiving scheduled for early September

Plans of the Provincial government to provide illuminated scrolls for senior citizens persons who came to Alberta any time up to the end of 1905 and who are still resident in the province will be fostered by the local group and the scrolls will be presented at the exhibition grandstand probably by His Honour the Lieutenant Governor the Hon J J Bowlen who is himself a pioneer citizen of Alberta. All residents of the area who qualify for the scrolls are urged to complete their application at the earliest possible date at the office of S C Heckbert, Secretary Manager of the Fair or at the Bank of Commerce, the Treasury Branch, the office of the Vermilion Standard and the Town office.

District residents will be pleased to know that aggressive steps are being taken to mark the anniversary and any who have suggestions of value are invited to advance them as early as possible.

Are You Worried?

We read much today about the fear of disease. On the one hand we are assailed by admonitions to heed minor [illegible], transient pains, fleeting aches, feelings of numbness and the like, and to take proper steps to avoid serious consequences.

On the other hand, psychologists tell us that many of our ills are in a way, figments of our imagination. Sometimes, it is true, a constant pre-occupation with one's physical condition results in what we know as hypochondria — unwarranted fear of disease.

No doubt the public occasionally is confused by these apparently opposite viewpoints of the medical authorities. A reader of a medical columnist one day may find himself persuaded to have a physical examination. Next day another [illegible] tells him that 95% of all ills cure themselves and that most sickness is not of the flesh but of the fancy.

What then should a thoughtful person conclude?

Take, for instance, the program of the Canadian Cancer Society, which is aimed at early diagnosis of a disease that usually can be cured only in the early stages. The Society's doctors are aware of the possibility that an [illegible] about cancer's early [illegible] might result in the exaggerated fear of that disease which psychologists call "cancerophobia". They know, however, that persons who develop an unnatural fear of cancer have other fears as well. If the source of their anxiety had not been this disease it most likely would have been some other ailment or condition, or object. It might even be dogs or cats or high places or the dark.

The Canadian Cancer Society's early warning program is a calculated risk. Balanced on one side is the chance that some deeply sensitive and introspective persons will be worried unduly. On the other [illegible] of the scales in 1955 are the [illegible] of some 8,000 Canadians. This [illegible] represents persons whom authorities believe die of cancer needlessly each year. They are the ones whose lives could have been spared had they heeded the early warning message of the Cancer Society and sought proper treatment in time.

With this great weight of human lives in the balance, can anyone wonder why the scales have been tipped in the direction of a dynamic nation-wide program to alert people about cancer?

We can't all be calm and dispassionate but most of us have enough self-discipline to give very thoughtful regard to this question. When the occasion arises and you are worried about your physical condition, isn't the sensible solution simply to see your doctor?

And see him once a year anyhow, no matter how good you feel. Worry a bit about yourself once in a while. In small doses it's good for you.

[illegible]

If the present rate of house building is maintained in Canada, says The Financial Post, Calgary would double its size in six years, Edmonton in eight years and Toronto in 12 years.

Lakehead stocks of all grains on March 23 totalled 74.2 million bus., down about 5 million from the same date last year.

IT MAY MEAN THEIR LIVES

When children play in water during the spring the result may be tragedy, warns the Don't Drown committee of the Alberta Safety Council.

Even shallow mud puddles can be dangerous to small children. Records show [illegible] have become mired in a mud puddle and fallen forward, drowning in a few inches of mud and water.

In the country, the thawing pond is a worse hazard than open water. Children who have played on its ice [illegible] winter [illegible] not realize that the ice is becoming too weak in spring to support their weight.

Fencing an open water-hole is the only safe way of keeping small children out, but in spring-time, there seem to be more puddles than children, so fencing in the children becomes the more practical policy.

At this time of year, all small children should be watched while they are outside, unless they are safe from harm in a fenced play area. Children of school age should be warned of the dangers of playing in and around ponds, [illegible] and excavations and asked to look after small children who possibly have wandered away from home. Municipal authorities also should be informed of open excavations that have filled with water and become dangerous.

Letting children play in mud puddles during the spring may mean more than wet clothing, lost rubber boots, and colds. It may mean their lives.

BOOMING MARKET

Today's record rate of consumption, plus the 20% increase in our population [illegible] pre-war, is using up nearly all the meat our farmers are producing, says The Financial Post. We still need some export to keep the domestic situation healthy, but not nearly as much as we did 20 years ago. Then we had to find an outside market for an enormous amount of beef and bacon or the equivalent in livestock. If we didn't there was trouble. Soon, with more people and high rate of consumption we will be eating every pound we can raise.

Province-Wide 4-H Leaders' Course

A two-day course on Wednesday and Thursday, April 13 and 14, is being held at the Olds School of Agriculture. Garden, Grain, Poultry and Forage Club Leaders are invited to be the guests of the sponsoring organizations and the Junior Activities Branch of the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

The program has been carefully planned to include interest and help for both "new" and "old" leaders. Projects for this season will be studied. There will be [illegible] of leaders' problems — the "new" leader will find the "old" leaders a great help here. New 4-H club material and ideas will be shown. Talks, demonstrations and films related to club projects are planned. Wednesday evening a banquet will be held at the School of Agriculture.

The course is arranged and conducted by the Junior Activities Branch of the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

A Close Point

Mayor's Proclamation

Since our city was born the citizens of Vermilion have worked together to solve their problems. During the month of April we see further evidence of this as we join with volunteers of the Canadian Cancer Society to make the Cancer Crusade a success.

In our hospitals and universities men and women work tirelessly to tear aside the veil that enshrouds the mystery of cancer. Their success depends upon our efforts.

The Society also devotes its energies to provide a host of humanitarian services to those who suffer from Cancer.

Therefore, because the all-out attack being waged by the Canadian Cancer Society depends upon the support given the Society during the Cancer Crusade —

I, Melvin Hill, Mayor of the Town of Vermilion, do hereby proclaim that residents in Vermilion and District shall dedicate April as the Cancer Control Month.

Furthermore, I earnestly urge generous financial support for the fund raising Crusade to the end that we may achieve the eventual goal of adding Cancer to the imposing list of formerly deadly diseases conquered by Medical Science.

MELVIN HILL.

WOODVALE NOTES

The short spells of spring weather we have had so far brought muddy roads to the ungravelled parts with the results that quite a few farmers only ventured forth in cars in the very early or very late [illegible] of the day. Ask Art Lyssons who had customers arriving at the store at 5 a.m. Sunday, the first real frosty day and brought quite a number to get their [illegible]'s mail!

Mrs. W. Machell came [illegible] three months in the Islay hospital and is feeling a lot better. [illegible] Portsmith also returned home after [illegible] stay there.

Tommy Lysons is back from the logging camp near Marlborough where he spent the winter.

We received an invitation to the Easter party to be held in the Woodvale school this Thursday, printed on a card in the shape of a tulip. We hope everyone will have a good time as the last big school party was cancelled through too much sickness.

When we were in Edmonton a few days last month we met Naomi Freeman Foster formerly of the Triangle district and heard that her father is in the Veteran's hospital in Saskatoon with a bad heart condition. Naomi and her husband hope to spend part of their summer holidaying in the district to see old friends and neighbors.

We also spent a very enjoyable evening with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Webber in the city, but we have not been able to gather much news since our return. Hope to do better next time.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

By [illegible]

Earrings had their beginnings in pre-historic times. The custom is known to be at least as old as Biblical history, for there is an Eastern legend that Sarah and Abraham originated the idea of wearing earrings.

An English physician recently described a disease of our present-day era, cleft ear lobes. The current fashion of wearing heavy earrings with powerful spring clips is causing the tissues of the ear lobe to deaden slowly and finally split. Doctors are seeing an increasing number of patients with this bizarre condition.

But modern medicine has a successful method of treatment for split ear lobes. [illegible]

1200 Attend Achievement Day At Vermilion School Of Agriculture

Interest in agricultural education as taught at the Vermilion School of Agriculture, appears to be more widespread than ever before if the 1200 visitors, including many departmental officials, district agriculturists and 4-H club members can be taken as a criterion.

The occasion was the "Little Royal" and achievement day at the school on Wednesday, March 30th. The bright spring day attracted visitors to the school as never before, and the parking area for cars on the nearby Vermilion fair grounds resembled the rows of cars at exhibition time.

IMPORTANT OCCASION

Achievement day is an important occasion at the V.S.A. It represents not only the drawing to a close of the school term, but the climax of the year's activities. It gives the students opportunities to show their parents and the public generally what they have accomplished in the five months they have been at the school.

The boys display projects in woodworking, carpentering, welding and electrical wiring, while the girls have displays of cooking, home nursing and handicrafts.

Held in conjunction with the achievement day is the "Little Royal". Each member of the graduating class in agriculture prepares grooms and trains an animal for the showring. It may be a cow, from the school herd, a beef animal from the school farm, or a pig, sheep or horse.

The animals are judged not for quality as in the ordinary showring, but rather for the way they handle in the ring. In other words the boy who has done the best job of showring training receives the red ribbon.

Judges were W. H. Mead, provincial livestock commissioner, and Dr. McElroy of the Animal Husbandry branch, University of Alberta.

A finale to the day was the serving of tea in the decorated gym.

Mannville Board Fetes Municipal Officials

MANNVILLE. — The reeve and councillors of the M. D. of Minburn, Mr. Pedruchney, D.A. from Vegreville, and Mr. R. Whitson, representative of Vegreville School Division were honored at a banquet Monday evening in the Mannville hotel by the Mannville board of trade.

Mayor Williams introduced Reeve Kaminsky, who in turn introduced the members of the council. Each spoke briefly. Mr. Pedruchney and Mr. Whitson also addressed the gathering.

THE STAGETTES

Anxious to hear a little more about that big Spring Celebration? I'm sure you are, so I'll let you in on a few secrets. Preparations are well under way to give you the most exciting evening you've had for a long time. But remember: It's going to be a COTTON Ball, which make the prob'em of dressing much simpler. Don't forget to purchase your tickets in advance; it will help you to remember the date on which the Stagettes are going to help you celebrate Spring. Just think! You can dance from 10:00 to 2:00 to the rhythm of Ronnie Barwick's "Keynotes."

Here are the facts: (1) Stagette Cotton Ball; (2) April 29th at 10 p.m.; (3) In the Elks hall.

The Stagettes heartily invite their honorary members to attend the annual Stagette Banquet at 6:30 p.m. on April 26th in the Brunswick Hotel dining room. It will be a great pleasure to see all of you once again. If you plan to attend this annual affair (and I hope you will) would you kindly phone Berna Seuffert at 39, or drop her a note, before Wednesday, April 13. Thank you.

Plans are being made for the District Convention of the National Association of Stagettes, which will be held in Banff on the 21, 22, 23rd of May. It is not yet decided how many of our girls will be going, but I am sure Vermilion will be largely represented. Marie Miller will be going as delegate.

Who is going to win the Siwash Sweater, which will be raffled at the Cotton Ball on April 29th? Everyone seems to be waiting patiently to see who has the lucky number. Have you bought your ticket yet? If not, I suggest that you do it soon - there isn't much time left. Wouldn't it be nice to win a lovely hand knit Siwash sweater for only 25c!

Now a word about the checking list. On Saturday April 9th, the check room will be occupied by Esta Curtis and Marina Capatos. On the following Saturday, April 16th, Ethel Dickson and Marie Ferbey will offer their services in the check [illegible].

'Bye now! See you on April 29 all decked out in COTTON!

Pleasant Valley

Spring is here with lots of mud. Crows are back and our thoughts are turning to gardening and to spring chicks. Mrs. Giles has 500, tell us when they are ready to fry will you Lily?

On Sunday Christie and Linda walked over the hills to visit Betty and Lloyd. On their return they stayed and had supper with Mrs. Gillies. All the family were down from Vermilion.

Violet and Bob Hobbis were supper guests at Christie and Annie Clarke's. How did you like the muddy roads coming in Bob?

The present winds should dry things up very quickly. The water has certainly been running down these hills and for about a week the dams were nearly overflowing and the men had to make spillways to let the surplus water run away. It was indeed surprising to see so much water running as there seemed so little snow.

Gordon and Doreen attended the Fiddlers' contest in Vermilion on Friday night.

Hello Mrs. Wallington thanks for your kind message. It has been a long time since we have had a chat, over two months without seeing you. The writer has stayed very close to home keeping the fires burning.

The recent fire was a terrible loss to the Dupuit family. The men had to work very hard to keep flames from spreading to the combine and granaries. It was a bitterly cold night too. Mrs. Dupuit served the firefighters with hot coffee and a lunch during the night.

Mrs. Reid has had her father from Riley visiting them for a while.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Lee had the mumps and glad to hear that she is fully recovered.

Wish that everyone could see the lovely Easter lily at the home of the writer. Nothing like flowers to brighten up a home and cheer one up.

High Priced Coyotes

Bounty costs on coyotes in Manitoba are soaring and government authorities are becoming suspicious, reports The Financial Post.

In Oakland municipality in the well-settled south-west corner and near the Saskatchewan boundary, bounty was paid in 1953 on 15 adult coyotes and 34 coyote pups, total $245. Last year in the same municipality, bounties were claimed on 37 adult coyotes and 1,801 pups, total $9,140.

Maybe coyotes from neighboring Saskatchewan or North Dakota are migrating to Oakland municipality in Manitoba. Maybe persons are killing them outside the province and claiming the Manitoba bounty. The Manitoba Department of Agriculture hasn't been able to find an explanation even after fairly thorough inquiry.

Bounty on coyotes was started in Manitoba in 1943. It was expected that, except in remote areas, the coyote population would dwindle. Records show the reverse.

Allen Wells Married In Toronto

Married recently in Woodbine United church, Toronto, were Mona Louise Mayers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Rupert Mayers of Barbados, British West Indies, and Allen Rollins Wells, youngest son of Mr and Mrs Egbert Wells of Vermilion. Rev. W. Mark Reeves officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle Mr Hugh Mayers of New York, N.Y., looked beautiful in a three-quarter length gown of white net over taffeta, while a short embroidered illusion net veil with pearled coronet and white gloves completed her costume. Her bouquet was of white gardenias and dainty white lilies.

Mrs. H. L. Toppin, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her costume was of blue with white accessories.

Mr. William Daly, of Penticton, B.C., was best man at the ceremony.

Following the ceremony a small reception was held at the home of the bride's sister in Toronto.

After a short honeymoon at Niagara Falls the couple took up residence in Ottawa where Allen is employed on the public school staff.

Polar Bear On Long Train Trip

VANCOUVER — A 1,000-pound polar bear contributed by the parks department of Seattle, Washington, was loaded into a Canadian National express car here bound for the nine-year-old zoo at Granby, Que.

The polar bear received special attention from expressmen during the 3,000-mile train trip. Feeding instructions called for three pounds of slightly moistened bread, daily, and all the water the animal would drink. From time to time the floor of the big cage was washed and the bear hosed down with cold water.

During its short history Granby zoo has become one of the best in Canada. It now holds about 600 animals and birds from many parts of the North American continent and other countries, including an elephant contributed by Prime Minister Nehru of India. During 1954 the zoo attracted a record of [illegible] visitors.

Farm Committee Holds Meeting

In a statement issued from the F.U.A. central office it is revealed that the liaison committee of the Farmers' Union and the Alberta Federation of Agriculture held a meeting in Edmonton March 30.

Those present at the meeting were I. Hughes of Flatbush, Robert Muir of Leduc, F. Wilford of Stavely, Archie Hogg of High River and U. Powell of Sexsmith. Roy Marler and Henry Young were called in for discussion.

The purpose of this committee is to study ways and means of improving the relationship between the two organizations.

It was agreed that there should be a joint meeting of the boards or executives of the F.U.A. and A.F.A. to discuss further recommendations of the committee. A special committee, consisting of Roy Marler, Mrs. C. T. Armstrong and Henry Young was set up to study and report on the problem of the relationship between the Provincial Farm Unions and the Canadian Federation of Agriculture.

First Atomic Plant

Canada's first pilot atomic power plant will be built in Ontario and will probably cost about $30 millions, The Financial Post understands.

An official announcement from Ottawa is expected in the near future.

The 20,000kw prototype reactor, to be designed, constructed and partly financed by one of Canada's leading electrical firms, will likely cost about $15 millions. The Federal government will pay most of this.

The actual generating plant will be built and operated by Ontario Hydro, the Post learned.

WHAT IS A CREDIT UNION?

Q. What happens if member leaves company.

A. If he is a borrower he should endeavor to repay his loan at once. If this is not possible, arrangements will have to be made with the Credit Union. Co-signers would not be required to pay until every possible effort had been made to collect from the borrower. If not a borrower, he could make loan to tide him over until his next job, but if he moves from town then he has the option of leaving his shares, or withdrawing his savings or transfer them to the place he now lives.

Q. Would members lose their money?

A. No. The money cannot be taken away from them. However, they would be requested to wait until funds were available.

Q. May a member withdraw at will?

A. Yes. A member may withdraw on any day the Credit Union is open for business.

Q. Can a member transfer his shares?

A. Yes. Shares may be assigned or transferred.

Q. What happens in case of death?

A. Settlement for shares and loans would be made with the executor or administrator of the estate. Now there is the new insurance, that if a member dies, and this member has a loan, the insurance company will pay off the loan making no hardship on the benefactor of his will.

Q. Do Credit Unions sustain losses from non-payment of loans?

A. During the first 13 years of operation the loss was one-fourteenth of 1%.

During her long illness she was taken care of by her husband who devoted himself to her care. Mrs. Towndrow before her marriage was Miss Annie Boisover of Masbro, Eng., marrying Mr Towndrow in 1920. She was 64 years of age.

She leaves to mourn her passing her loving husband, three daughters Max Hughson all of Edmonton; five Mrs Lloyd Benner; Kathleen, Mrs Amy, Mrs. Melvin Ash; Margaret, sons, Maurice, William, Roy Clarence and Edward all of Paradise Valley.

The funeral was held in Lloydminster on Saturday March 19 from Moore's Funeral home, Rev. Mr. Morrison conducting the service. Burial was in the Lloydminster cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. George Dodd, Frank S. Flint, Fred Brassington and Wilfred Winson.

Mr. Towndrow and family wish to extend their sincere thanks to all who helped and sent cards and donations.

Results of surveys made for the Canadian Cancer Society show that about two of every five Canadian adults still do not know cancer is curable.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

EASTER BUNNIES

Here's an Easter treat that is sure to be a hit with the youngsters in the family! If you're making Hot Cross buns save some of the dough for these Peter Cottontails — and this is how to make them:

Roll dough in a rectangle ⅓ an inch thick, then cut the required number of strips. For each bunny you'll need a 10-inch strip for the body and a 3-inch strip for the head. On a lightly greased cookie sheet make a loose swirl for the body. Swirl the strip for the head and place it close to the body (they'll 'grow' together).

For ears, pinch off 1½ inch strips and roll between your hands until smooth and cigar-shaped. Let one point be the tip of the ear, then slip off the other end and place the ears near the head. Pinch off a bit of dough, and roll in a ball for the tail. Let the bunnies almost double before baking.

HARD WATER

Solve your hard water problems with Calgon. Most water softeners produce a precipitate or scum which will, in time, impart a greyness to the clothes. Calgon is a non-precipitating water conditioner that leaves the wash water crystal clear and allows the soap to form lots of billowy suds.

It is the only water softener of its kind in Alberta, and perhaps your dealer doesn't have it yet. But ask for it anyway, and he'll probably get it for you.

You put Calgon in the wash water and first rinse water, and you can use any soap or synthetic detergent.

To remove accumulated greyness and yellowing use twice the usual amount of Calgon and no soap.

Fill the machine with hot water and pour in ⅓ cup of mild alkali such as borax, household ammonia or washing soda. Agitate and rinse the clothes in the usual way. This may need to be repeated to remove all the discoloration.

ALBERTA HOTEL ASSOCIATION

Clandonald, Alta., March 28, 1955.

Editor, Vermilion Standard.
Dear Sir:

As president of the Clandonald Branch Red Cross Society, I wish to thank most sincerely the citizens of Clandonald and district who have once more given generously to the Society's annual campaign.

The funds they have contributed will allow the Society to carry on its many peace time programs including the care of crippled children and the blood transfusion service.

These funds will also carry on the many other services of Red Cross including swimming and water safety, Junior Red Cross, Disaster services and the women's work committee which makes thousands of sewn and knitted garments for the needy.

During the past year hundreds of articles of clothing have been shipped to flood and disaster refugees, political refugees, hospitals and sanitaria.

In addition, the Canadian Red Cross has women workers on duty in Korea and Japan working with the Canadian army.

The provincial Red Cross quota this year is $475,000 although the Canadian Red Cross Society is budgeting to spend $619,206 in the province.

And so the work of mercy and sympathy goes on and on.

Again thanking my friends and neighbors,

R. E. Stanley

Can't Blame Bomb

Just when a lot of people with weather memories had convinced themselves that the atom bomb was responsible for all our bad weather, along comes the head of the British weather service and suggests that they had better think again. Sir Graham Sutton says there isn't a shred of proof to back their theory.

"Peculiar" weather, he points out, is not a new development since the explosion of the atom bomb.

If we come to look back, comments The Financial Post, we will certainly find that there have been ups and downs in Canadian weather, too, long before we heard of or dreamed of atom bombs. There was the all-time record cold wave which hit Central Canada 20 years ago, and killed so many of our apple trees and roses. There was the record heat of a summer or two later and the big snow of 1944-45. We probably blamed a lot of things on these freaks but we couldn't blame the bomb.

Letters to the Editor

Islay, Alberta,
April 5, 1955.

The Editor
Vermilion Standard
Vermilion, Alberta
Dear Sir:

After reading a letter addressed to the Editor, published in the March 31st issue of the Vermilion Standard, signed "Born in Islay", I promptly checked the publication date on my paper, as I thought I must surely be reading an April 1 issue, but no the copy was dated March 31st, so I could only conclude that this letter was no April fool after all, and that the writer was serious!

If you would be kind enough, Mr. Editor, to publish this letter in the next issue of your paper, it might relieve to some extent, much of the statistical anxiety of your unnamed correspondent.

I might begin by quoting a much wiser and more experienced person than I, who said, "If all the statisticians in this country were laid end to end — it would be a good thing". If this opinion is worthy of any consideration at all, might I suggest that the correspondent quit trying to be such a rugged individualist, and get into the line-up with the rest of the boys.

In casual consideration of some of "Born in Islay's" more direct statements, I would like to report, first, that I have made an investigation into the statement that 8.8 patients per day were cared for in the Islay hospital in 1954. I am most happy to report, Mr. Editor, that the missing two-tenths of a patient (which had never really been lost at all), has been located safely tucked away in the deep freeze and has been successfully and happily reunited with his counterpart, Mr. 8 specifically mentioned by the letter so now we have 9 relatively complete patients in the Islay hospital all doing very nicely, thank you.

I note that "Born in Islay" also considers 20 minutes ample time to drive the 32 miles from Islay to Lloydminster. This would figure out to a mean overall average of 96 miles per hour (this figure arrived at by a mathematical process used in aviation, aptly named dead reckoning.) If the writer is in need of professional medical service, and is considering a 20-minute trip to Lloydminster, might I respectfully suggest that he also consult his psychiatrist and get a complete diagnosis of his trouble while he is at it.

In all fairness, it should be admitted, that he did redeem himself somewhat, by suggesting an alternative trip of 17 miles from Islay to Vermilion in 15 minutes, at the much more conservative rate of 68 miles per hour. (I regard this rate as being rather thoughtfully chosen as it no doubt is designed to prevent the person ON legitimate business in Vermilion, from being run over by some of the younger natives of that fair city who patrol the streets and surrounding territory at a speed fairly close to that figure.)

In the closing paragraphs of the letter the "Born in Islay" statistician turns economist, and proposes to supply hospitalization for the people of the Islay hospital district in adjacent hospitals (should we consult them first, or just surprise them) fill the Islay hospital at once with old people from south of Islay, provide them with plenty of first-class entertainment (right in the hospital building), and save the lucky taxpayers 16,000 bucks "on salaries alone".

The only thing overlooked here, seems to be the paying of the help in the old persons' home, the amusement tax on the entertainment, $5.20 per day plus $1.30 per day, extra services plan, plus a capital cost charge pro-rated on the accumulated hospital days in each of the hospitals used by patients from the Islay Municipal Hospital District, at the end of each year. (Gee compared with economists, statisticians sure have it easy don't they?)

The only excuse that I can make for "Born in Islay's" brand of administrative magic, is, that he probably got his first introduction to economics in the epidemic of 1934 and 35 when the fountain pen, (self-filling of course) was hailed as the source of wealth and the formula for happiness and prosperity was calculated by the following formula: Unearned Increment plus Just Price equals $25 per month.

Thanking you for your space Mr. Editor and hoping for more well considered and constructive comments on the so-called resolution.

Yours very truly,
I. D. Inman.

Irma, Alberta,
April 4, 1955.

The Editor,
Vermilion Standard.
Dear Sir:

Jubilee year in Alberta ... and can I believe my senses?

While the rest of the province is commemorating the achievements of the past and looks forward to the promise of the future, there are people in Vermilion River M.D. who would rather talk of closing Islay hospital!

Once upon a time there was a courageous woman who saw that there was need of a hospital.

Once upon a time there were pioneer men and women who came to Alberta because it was a good place to live. They did what they could to make it better. When a woman had the courage to start something they had the sense to give their support. Where there had been prairie grass there grew a hospital, for in those days when a building was needed there were people who were young at heart who would build one.

Hundreds of us were born there, owe that woman and those pioneers a debt we can never fully repay.

I'm sure that wherever she is, she asks no repayment, hoping only that the institution she founded will get the continuing support that it needs.

Our fathers built for the future. We have no right to govern ourselves as though life in this corner of Alberta were coming to an end. Babies will be born, and people will be sick. They have a right to care and attention just as good as we received.

Now the cry is, "Let's close Islay hospital"

To those who started this I say, "Shame on you! Would you rob a child of a place to be born to make room for those about to die?"

But the years have gone by and pioneers have grown old. An old people's home is needed. Well, let's build one on the same hill where a doctor and trained nurses are handy. A thought for Jubilee year, "The Jubilee Memorial Home"!

If more facilities are needed at the hospital, let's provide them. If a hospital is needed in another part of the municipality, let's build one there too.

Where will the money come from? From where it has always come, of course, from us taxpayers. I pay taxes on my land and am glad to do it, for we get more from our municipal tax dollar than any other dollar we pay.

This is a year for honoring those who made Alberta and for planning for the future. It is not a year for betraying the trust placed in us.

Sincerely yours,
Allen Ronaghan

WHY YOU SHOULD TREAT SEED GRAIN WITH "CERESAN" SEED DISINFECTANT

Each spring seed and soil-borne diseases, in the form of root-rots, smuts and seedling blights, reduce the yield of the crop you plant. The best and simplest way to protect the seed you plant and ensure maximum yields is to treat your seed grain before planting with "Ceresan" seed disinfectant. "Ceresan" prevents smut in wheat, oats, flax, and covered smut in barley. "Ceresan" protects seed and seedlings from root rots, seedling blights and decay.

"CERESAN" IS A SUPERIOR SEED DISINFECTANT BECAUSE IT PROTECTS SEED IN TWO WAYS:

ON SEED—VAPOUR ACTION
On application, "Ceresan" gives off a highly effective mercury vapour which destroys fungi and bacteria on the surface of the seed and penetrates into cracks and crevices in the seed to give maximum disinfection. This volatile vapour action, in addition to direct contact, enables "Ceresan" to do a superior seed disinfecting job.

IN SOIL—PROTECTIVE FILM
"Ceresan" forms a protective film which protects the seed after planting from the soil-borne fungi which cause seed decay, root-rots and seedling blight. This protection means higher germination and vigorous emergence that results in thicker, stronger stands which produce higher yields.

HOW TO TREAT SEED WITH "CERESAN" SEED DISINFECTANTS

HOME TREATMENT
You can apply "Ceresan" by a hand method or many users prefer to apply it dry in a dust-type automatic treater. If you have a slurry treater, "Ceresan" M2X is especially formulated for simple slurry treating. "Ceresan" is available at your local farm supply store.

COMMERCIAL TREATING
In many localities there is a commercial seed treater who can treat your seed grain. Simply ask him to treat your seed with "Ceresan" M2X or Du Pont Liquid 244 seed disinfectant. He can give you thorough seed protection for a very small cost per bushel.

Kitscoty News

The Kitscoty Branch of Canadian Legion Post 158 recently collected and forwarded to Edmonton $250 for the Polio fund.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of the late Mrs. Wm. Babbage who passed away April 1 in the Lloydminster hospital after a short illness.

The Kitscoty United Church choir will present Maunders "Olivet to Calvary" on Good Friday April 8 at 3 p.m. in the church. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the choir. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Speelman and Mr. and Mrs. C. Connarue were Edmonton visitors during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Seward and Miss Margaret Seward motored to Bonnyville on Sunday April 3rd to attend the christening of Michael Charles, infant son of Rev. and Mrs. O. C. Seward. The Rev. Dr. Parsons president of Alberta Conference of the United church officiated.

The members of the Kitscoty branch of the Canadian Legion and the Ladies Auxiliary and several guests held a very enjoyable pot luck supper and social evening on Wednesday March 30. The men proved to be very good at washing dishes and by all reports the Fun Parade is tame compared to the antics of several men.

The United Church Sunday school will hold its Easter service in the Kitscoty town hall April 10 commencing at 11 o'clock in the morning. The film "Which will you Have?" will be shown and members are busy preparing the anthems "The Easter Story", "Hail Easter Day" and "Open the Gates of the Temple". All parents and friends are invited to worship with the Sunday school on this joyous day.

A Chance for Fame

If some public-spirited citizen wants to leave a real monument behind him, he has a wonderful opportunity in his own town, says The Financial Post. Let him lead a drive to clean up and beautify. There is plenty of scope.

Most of the downtown areas of our cities and towns are badly congested just because the builders did not look ahead. There are few parks and often these are neglected. And to the casual motorist at least, the great majority of them look exactly alike. Towns and cities that are really different and attractive in Canada stand out like a peacock in a barnyard filled with drab Plymouth Rocks.

Eight Sub-District Workshops Held In F.U.A. District No. 7

We have just finished holding F.U.A. Workshop conventions in eight sub-districts in District No. 7 at Dewberry with Mrs. Mathison assisting. Myrnam, Mannville, Kitscoty, Provost, Royath with Mr. Logan assisting. Wainwright and Edgerton with Mrs. Taylor assisting.

We heard that some of the ladies thought they were not mechanically inclined, nor were they interested in carpenter work, so felt the workshop should be left to the men; however, we did have a good many women in attendance.

In spite of some belated bonspiels, Agriculture courses and the coldest ten days of the winter we averaged over 40 at these meetings and Myrnam had the banner attendance with 90 participants.

Resolutions were passed requesting complete coverage crop insurance, Provincial car insurance at cost, that the assessment act be amended so that Industrial tax on agricultural land be assessable to user and not to title holder; that the rate for the first taxable $1000 for income tax be reduced from 17 per cent to 10%; that F.U.A. news be given to radio, daily and weekly newspapers, Western Producer, the Weekly Free Press; that we continue to press the provincial government to enact the enabling legislation so that Producer Marketing boards can be set up, if and when the producers of any particular commodity vote so to do; that certain money be allocated from membership fees for radio publicity; that tariffs be reduced, so that we may be able to do business with some countries more easily; that a reserve fund be set up, exempt from income tax as security in case of crop failure; that approved savings schemes be set up which would be deductible from income tax; that certain tariffs be lowered so that we may have freer trade with countries; that all drugs, dentist and doctor bills be deductible before assessing for income tax; that Crows Nest Pass agreement be not reviewed; that we strive for parity prices as there is too much spread between what the farmer has to sell and what he has to buy.

Out of 40 years of agriculture, only about 10 years of which has agriculture enjoyed prosperity. Canada is now getting the lowest price on wheat of any country in the world and why should this be when we have the best quality of wheat in the world? Agriculture represents 20% of the population, yet only gets some 8.8 per cent of National income.

New sub-district directors were elected as follows:

Sub-District 2 — Tom Foy, Clandonald; 5, L. J. Killeran, Wainwright; 6, Cecil Gordon, Chauvin; 7, W. C. Drever, Hardisty; 8, Alex Steele, Provost.

Very keen interest was shown in these workshop conventions and all sub-districts requested that they be held again next year.

Mrs. Redman also reports that she has organized new local F.U.A.'s at Thorncliffe, Thomasville, Leewood, south of Mannville, and at Claysmore, near Vermilion recently.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Woman's Travel Authority

A "Panoramic Headache", best described as a combination of a sick and a pain headache, are sometimes suffered by every-day drivers on vacations not accustomed to long periods behind the wheel.

Professional truckers and traveling salesmen, however, are very seldom bothered by such headaches because they know they come from under concentration on objects flashing by at close range — and they take steps to prevent it.

The professional driver makes a studied practice of shifting his eye focus from a spot in front of the car to one on the horizon, every so often. And he knows a war-time eye exercise practiced by pilots—that of occasionally watching passing scenery out of the corner of the eye while keeping the pupil centred straight ahead.

Faulty sun glasses with bubbles or other distortions are another cause of eye irritation leading to headaches; if you need or prefer glasses, buy the best you can afford. And avoid extra dark lenses. They may minimize contrast too much and blind you in sudden dark or shaded spots.

But the best headache preventer of all: pull off to the side of the road for a five-minute eye rest every 100 miles or so.

Remember, when your eyes tire, it's time to turn in.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Two M.L.A.'s Resign

EDMONTON. — The effects and ramifications of the events which occurred with machine-gun rapidity in the Alberta legislature last week probably will not be known for some months.

As a result of evidence submitted to the house public accounts committee, two by-elections will be called within six months, unless a general provincial election is in the offing.

The committee sat at the request of Liberal members, who charged waste and extravagance in connection with government land and building transactions in Edmonton and Calgary. Evidence submitted to the committee showed that two members, John Charles Landeryou of Lethbridge, and Roy S. Lee, Taber constituency, are part-owners of a building being rented by the government.

Under the Legislative Assembly Act, persons holding such contracts with the government are ineligible to hold membership in the legislature.

The two members, who said they did not realize this and had not been informed of any irregularities by their solicitors when the building was assigned to a holding company in trust for Mr. Landeryou and Mr. Lee, and Wm. McNab, of Lethbridge, submitted their resignations to Mr. Speaker on Thursday afternoon and vacated their seats.

The committee was to meet this week to prepare the report it will submit to the legislature on the evidence received in the 12 hours it sat on three different days hearing witnesses. On one day, the committee, which actually is composed of all members of the legislature, sat nearly seven hours.

Mr. Landeryou, a former Social Credit member of parliament for Calgary East, has been a legislative member since 1944, while Mr. Lee has been in the legislature since 1940.

They said they had never talked of their interest in the building to members of the government prior to acquiring it or after.

Immediately after the resignation Premier Manning read to the house a written statement in which he said the government did not know, until the committee heard the evidence, that the two members held an interest in the building as private citizens and not as members of a company.

The committee was told the building, which is in Edmonton and was purchased by the government in 1948 for $75,000, was sold to Charles Hobeck, president of Canada West Insurance Co. for $84,000 last year. It also was stated that Mr. Hobeck, finding himself in financial difficulties, assigned the building over to the holding company which held it in trust for the two members and the third party. Mr Landeryou and Mr. Lee are managing director and director, respectively of Canada West.

Both members say they will contest the by-elections which will be called. The government has been renting the building pending the completion of a new highways building in Edmonton.

In connection with the other transactions, Arthur Arnold, deputy minister of public works defended the government's actions. One involved the purchase of a large building on Edmonton's main street for $225,000, only a short while after it had been bought for $175,000. The committee was told renovations and improvements to the building have cost about $500,000.

The deputy minister said it is now a "million-dollar building". It was also brought out that a site for a government liquor store was purchased in Calgary for $46,000, while in the same block a chain store company bought the same amount of land for $36,750, including three houses, one of which was sold for $3000 to be moved.

Witnesses called by the opposition stated that the amounts spent by the government for jail sites in the Calgary area were too high, while witnesses called by the government defended the action. One of the witnesses, a salty real-estate man 44 years in the business, in answering questions on farm land values, contended: "The only guy trying to bring them down is the politician trying to get into power."

PIN WORMS

Pin worms are small, about ½ inch in length, white in color, and usually described as appearing like little pieces of white cotton. The main symptom caused by pin worms is a peri-anal irritation; this is usually more marked at night when the child is warm in bed, but in severe cases may also be troublesome during the day. This irritation may be responsible for some cases of bed-wetting. There may also be headaches, pallor, loss of appetite, nervousness and attacks of appendicular colic due partly to the worm and partly to the accompanying bowel catarrh. The only method of diagnosis is the discovery of the worms in the child's motion. It must also be remembered that adults may be infected as well as children.

SPREAD OF INFECTION

The peri-anal irritation causes the child to scratch itself and the eggs of the worms lodge on the fingers and under the finger nails. The eggs are then transferred to the child's mouth, to eating utensils or to food and in this way the child can infect others and reinfect itself [illegible] from clothing and travel [illegible]. The eggs may also become [illegible] through the air with dust. From this it can be appreciated that pin worm infection can spread very easily through a family or a closed community such as a school.

The treatment of pin worms is by drugs which can only be obtained on a prescription from the family doctor. The treatment given by your doctor will not always be effective unless the following precautions are taken by the child's parents.

1 Finger nails should be cut short so that eggs can not lodge under them.

2. Hands should be washed thoroughly before preparing or eating a meal.

3. The child should sleep in pyjamas and wear cotton gloves, which are securely fastened onto the hands. This prevents the fingers getting infected during the night and the glove can be boiled each morning.

4. Underclothes should be changed frequently and boiled.

5. Each child should have a separate towel and eating utensils.

ALBERTA COAL FACING HARD TIMES

Times are getting tougher still for Alberta's ailing coal mining industry — even after its 1954 production declined to the smallest volume in 20 years, reports Western Business and Industry.

Harassed by the mounting use of substitute fuels and by three relatively mild winters in a row across Western Canada, the industry has continued to lose ground in recent months on such a scale that its position now is regarded as critical by many officials.

The industry suffered a serious shrinking during each of the past five years and then shortly after 1955 dawned one of the largest coal mines in Alberta was closed down and the once bustling community of Nordegg was doomed to become another ghost town. A similar fate threatens more mines and coal mining centres as this year moves along.

Unable to arrest a continuation of its decline during the past year, Alberta's coal mining industry in 1954 produced only about [illegible] tons of coal. That was lowest production for any year since 1931, an ebb year in the depression era when the output amounted to 4,753,810 tons of coal.

The World of Wheat

By W. G. MALAHER
Director, Research Department, Searle Grain Co. Ltd.

A LOOK AT DURUM VARIETIES

Durum wheat, popular because of the premium it commands and also because it is not subject to delivery restrictions, is coming in for a good deal of attention these days.

Many are anxious to grow it but hesitate to do so, recalling the severe rust damage to the Durum crop during the past two years especially in Manitoba and parts of Saskatchewan. Two new Durum varieties resistant to races of rust in Western Canada are now assured but commercial production is several years away. In the meantime the standard varieties [illegible] which shows resistance to race 15B stem rust and two of which, Pelissier and Golden Ball, will not grade higher than 3 C.W. Amber Durum because of quality, will continue to be grown this summer throughout the West.

The Durum acreage in Manitoba [illegible] Stewart [illegible] Stewart and Pelissier will be grown [illegible] Golden Ball [illegible] Those who favor Golden Ball both in Alberta and southern Saskatchewan claim for it yield under dry conditions [illegible] resistance to 15B stem rust. [illegible] the variety may even increase in acreage during 1955 despite the fact that it is considered to be more susceptible to spring frost and that it is not desired by the macaroni trade because of poor quality.

Vermilion Member Asks More Farm Aid

Farmers on marginal and sub-marginal land in Alberta are being neglected while the province spends money to develop irrigation land in the south, W. R. Cornish (S.C. — Vermilion) charged in the legislature recently.

The Social Credit member made the statement while the committee of the legislature studied 1955-56 estimates of the department of agriculture, totalling $4,108,300.

Mr. Cornish rose just after the committee had approved spending of $28,800 toward colonization of the St. Mary-Milk River development; expenses of $250,500 on the same project; $2,280,000 for construction on the same development; $23,200 for colonization of the Bow River development, and $4,108,200 on construction of the Bow River development.

"There are other sub-marginal areas where the settlers don't receive much benefit", Mr. Cornish said.

He suggested that the province work out a program designed to develop all sub-marginal areas of the province so that benefits are not restricted to the irrigation districts of the south.

The Social Credit back-bencher said the province spends about $4,000,000 every year on the irrigation lands, and added he understands that they will require considerable attention because of alkali conditions developing in the soil.

In other parts of the province, he said, settlers have been living for years on land that is difficult to farm, and have been plodding along. He mentioned a number of areas of northern Alberta, including the homestead leases in areas of grey wooded soil.

YOUR FISH and GAME COLUMN

I was to write about the Crow and Magpie this week but there are two things that have come up which right now have priority. The ticket sale on the ice contest did not go as we expected but we did cover the expenses involved in advertising and the prizes. It was our hope that we would start a fund to try and help one or two Scouts go to the Jamboree this summer. Let's get busy and start something else so that we may have three boys enjoy the world jamboree at Niagara-on-the-Lake. An executive meeting will be held on the afternoon of the 13th at 3 p.m. We hope to see all the executive out for this meeting.

The Lloydminster Fish and Game Association are holding a Wild Life film on Monday April 11 starting at 8 p.m. and we would like to know how many are interested in going down. They usually put on a great show. In their letter to the Secretary they have some interesting facts under the heading "Did You Know?" — As a rule mallard ducklings are capable of flight at about ten weeks; our land belongs to a group of people, some of whom are dead, others alive, but most of them are still unborn.

Officially open now through to July 31 is the Crow and Magpie competition. We are paying 5 cents a pair for feet from these predators. This competition is open for young and old and may be turned in at any time to Alex Sport Shop and the Stationery Store. Get out and destroy as many as possible and remember that our objective this year is 10,000 pairs of feet. The first prize for the Juniors is a .22 repeater 2nd, single shot .22, 3rd prize not yet named. For the Seniors we have a trophy put up by the Vermilion Food Lockers Ltd. Let's get these feet rolling in right away.

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

Islay Community Assoc. Re-organized

The Islay Community Association held its annual meeting Thursday night, March 31 resulting in the following officers: President — Ralph Anderson; Vice-Pres. — Dave Clark, Secretary — Bill McLean; Treasurer Alf Hollington, besides a hall manager, Recreation committee and Entertainment committee. B. Teskey is treasurer of the recreation department which entails responsibility for the skating rink, hockey etc. There were some good reports. The president and the secretary attended the Vermilion Board of Trade dinner on Monday night and were quite thrilled with it all. The address by Mr. D. K. Yorath on gas pipe lines provided considerable information and they enjoyed the dinner and are very grateful to the Vermilion Board of Trade.

Hi Grandpa and Grandma James in England, can your hen flocks do as well as the following? Jim Shaw one day gathered 33 eggs from 32 hens! Now Mr Purvis, how are yours doing? All out of routine since you have been away? Mr Purvis has been in Ontario for some time as his aged mother passed away. Accept our sympathy Mr Purvis.

Now all you actors and non-actors, get ready for the annual Amateur night in Islay, Friday, Apr 22 at 8 p.m. And if you contestants are all on time the program can be started sharp at 8. It will be managed as usual, contestants given a number, here will be outside judges, cash prizes.

Finally shipped a big box of very lovely used clothing for Korea and with some blankets from Fairfields. We have the beginning of another box on hand too.

Thanks Mrs. Duff McGrath, your kind offer not needed here.

The April meeting of the W. A. of the United church was held at Mrs. Bill McLean's with a good attendance. Plans were laid for the spring tea and apron sale. We will serve tea same as last year. No bake table this time but make one apron if you can manage it before then.

There was Anglican church service here March 27 and Mr and Mrs Fred Glover had their baby baptised. Mrs Mary Lambert of Edmonton was home for the occasion. Sorry that Grandma McNeeley had flu and could not be present at the service.

Hello Mrs. Bothwell and Mrs. Muir. wonder if you'll be back to the farm for our spring tea April 16, if not maybe for the May meeting to be held at Mrs. Finnie Auley's home.

John Rostaman who grew up in the Molyneux S.D. and for some years lately employed at Oliver and Ponoka hospitals, was a visitor here over the week end. John is driving a De luxe Volkswagen. He says it's the car for the below zero weather as he has never had any difficulty starting it. Riding ease is comparable to any big car. John made quite a number of calls and we were pleased to see him.

On Monday Omer Easton and Eddie Steiner were noticed sitting at the counter of the drug store enjoying a frozen dessert. Both look very well indeed.

A curling game was played here Monday night April 4th, Farmers vs. the Town. I'm told the Farmers won. There was to be another game Tuesday night, but today has been warm so we wonder.

Tuesday afternoon a group of Hobo's dropped in at Mrs. Hollington's for tea. There was a real jolly time, must have been because they didn't leave till about 5.30 and not much work was done after getting home as was planned.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Teskey, Marion and Jack were dinner guests of Mr and Mrs. Jimmie Barnett Sunday evening.

Union F.U.A. Notes

Well, in spite of the mud the bingo last Friday went over with a big bang. There were cars stuck all over the yard, one neighbor walked a mile and a half, another brought a tractor and trailer, but we had a good time anyway. Some of the prize winners were Isobel Horpestad, Elmer and Mrs. Walters, Eileen Funnell, Harry Teasdale, Raymond McLean and Mary Roberts. Howard Lumley won the ham and Clarence Crocker won the cash bingo of $4.50. We hear that Howard is looking for a wife to help him eat the ham!

I would like to apologize to the Standard staff for putting in the "notes" last week something that comes under the category of advertising. I assure you it was quite unintentional. I hope I will be permitted to say that all F.U.A. members should patronize their Co-ops, especially the Alberta Livestock Co-op. Don't forget members that they were the first to give us western shipping of hogs and first to give us the 40 cent differential between here and Edmonton.

DATES TO REMEMBER

The big news for next week is the F.U.A. meeting on Tuesday, April 5. This will be followed by a Community Association meeting. F.U.A. members from other districts are invited to attend as guests.

April 13th - Card party. This is likely the last one of the season.

Duties for the 13th — Score cards, Bob Hobbis; Fire, Wes Funnell; Coffee, Pringle Galloway.

Would like to thank Robert Galloway for donating coffee for the bingo. Also McLean Bros. for once again packaging the prizes.

Eileen and Wes Funnell would like their friends to listen to CFRN on Saturday April 9 between 1 and 3 o'clock p.m. as they hope to sing a song that day on the program "Town and Country".

Happy Easter everyone!

Your Union F.U.A. Correspondent.

SEEDTIME and HARVEST

By Dr. F. J. Greaney, Director, Line Elevators Farm Service, Winnipeg, Manitoba

Sponsored by the following companies: Federal, Alberta Pacific, Pioneer, Canadian Consolidated, Paterson, McCabe, Parrish & Heimbecker, Inter - Ocean, Ellison Milling and Quaker Oats

STOP SMUT LOSSES TREAT SEED OF OATS AND BARLEY

Seed examination has revealed that over 85% of the seed stocks of oats and barley western farmers intend to use in 1955 is contaminated with smut. Every farmer in Western Canada should treat his seed for smut control this Spring.

Smut Control. All the smut diseases that attack oats and barley, excepting Loose Smut of barley, can be easily, cheaply and effectively controlled by disinfecting the surface of the seed with an approved seed-treatment mercury compound. Besides, proper seed treatment serves to protect the seed, particularly if it is light-weight, shrunken or weathered seed, from soil borne organisms that cause seed rot and seedling blight. Seed that is protected against these diseases will produce more uniform stands and higher yields.

Best Treatments. The organic mercury compounds are the best all-round seed disinfectants for oats and barley. The approved seed-treatment chemicals include such commercial compounds as Agrox C, Ceresan M, Leytosan, Liquisan and Panogen. Certain simple but important rules must be observed if the best results are to be obtained from any seed treatment. These may be listed as follows: (1) Clean the seed thoroughly before treatment. (2) Make sure the chemical is thoroughly mixed with the seed to ensure complete, uniform coverage of each kernel. (3) Treat seed of barley and oats at least one week before sowing. Avoid over-treatment—don't overdose the seed. (4) Strictly observe the directions and precautions given by the manufacturer. (5) Don't feed seed that has been treated with an organic mercury compound to livestock, or mix it with grain that is to be sold for commercial purposes. (6) Remember, chemicals containing Mercury are poisonous and must be handled with caution.

Stop smut losses in oats and barley. Play safe, plant only disease-free seed in 1955.

WILDMERE WINKS

Mr and Mrs. H. Freisen and family have moved to their new home in Wildmere from near Prince Albert, Sask. We are very pleased to welcome them to our midst and hope they like our district.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Cruthers took Mr. and Mrs. H. Phillips to Holden Friday to visit with Harry's sister, father and brother who live there. Then Mr and Mrs. Cruthers went on to Edmonton and Bon Accord to visit with Mrs. Cruthers brothers Alex and Norman Smith and families. Norman is planning on moving to Edmonton soon as he has work with the Imperial Oil.

Alex Smith and family will be leaving in August for California where Alex will study for a year.

The mumps have again broken out in our district. Janet and Gary Cruthers and Bobby Graham bring the new victims, getting them on April Fool's day. It's Bobby's second time to have them. Gary spent a few days at the Wallington home until we were sure it was mumps. Janet was at home. All are improving nicely again.

Sunday morning at the First United church in Vermilion the following from out our way pledged their faith and joined the church: Mrs. J. Wilson, Mrs. J. Wallington, Kenny Graham of Wildmere; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson and daughter Mary of Basswood; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Brooks and Mr. L. Wear of Auburndale; also a big class of young people in Vermilion making over twenty in all. Several transfers were also made. The church was well filled and Rev. MacKay gave a very interesting sermon. It was nice being in a big church and every minute was truly enjoyed.

Well it really looks as if spring is here with crows, gophers, ducks and blackbirds having been seen. There is hardly a trace of snow in our part, but lots of other places had much more snow than we did here.

The writer understands that the official opening of our new Preston central school will be held this month. All you folks in Battleview Triangle, Basswood and Preston hunt up the histories of your districts so that a good report will be given at the opening.

Mrs. W. J. Garnett of Basswood will be our hospital representative for the next two years. She won over Jimmie Wallington by two votes. We all wish her every success in her new task.

Robert Martin, formerly of Wildmere but now living in Vermilion has purchased a Pontiac car from Rowe & Sons, agents in Vermilion. Come out Bob and Doris and see us sometime.

The writer was pleased to meet Mrs. Mathison of Dewberry Saturday through the kindness of Mrs George Harrison. She used to teach at Triangle. Maisie Gilbert she was then and boarded at Mrs. ... She has nearly a grown-up family now. Time really slips by!

New Hope For Arthritis Patients

Rheumatoid or arthritic disease has plagued man since pre-historic times. Evidence of arthritic damage to bones and joints has been found in ancient Egyptian mummies and even in the skeletons of giant mammals that roamed the earth before the advent of man.

Today these diseases are the prime causes of chronic illness and a leading cause of physical disability. In the United States alone they victimize more than ten million people each year. According to recent estimates, their annual toll amounts to 100 million working days lost, with a resulting loss in income exceeding one billion dollars annually.

The most commonly known forms of rheumatoid diseases are arthritis, rheumatism, gout and bursitis. Characteristic symptoms are stiffness and pain of joints and muscles. In severe cases the joints appear swollen and inflamed and the patient may be unable to leave his bed.

Because the causes for most of these conditions are still unknown a wide variety of treatments have been tried. Dramatic results have been obtained in the treatment of severe cases with hormone drugs. But possible undesirable side effects and other considerations have been found to limit the value of hormones for long-term treatment of arthritis.

The classical treatment for arthritic diseases, the salicylates (aspirin), in combination with vitamins are proving helpful. Physicians have reported that aspirin in combination with vitamin C given to rheumatism patients relieves pain, increases the feeling of well being and affords greater use of the affected joints.

One drug manufacturer is now producing a tablet called Acetynol which contains the classical ingredients of aspirin and vitamins from the B complex group and vitamin C. A drug called colchicine, a specific for gout has been added. The vitamins are of therapeutic value because nutritional deficiencies are commonly found in arthritic diseases, especially in elderly patients, and colchicine because gout, not a rich man's disease as once thought, is more frequently present than had been suspected.

This combination of agents relieves pain in a high proportion of patients and permits a more normal and active life. Furthermore, the inclusion of still another compound, para-aminobenzoic acid or PABA, makes it possible to achieve effective relief with lower dosages of aspirin.

Until the causes and mechanisms of the rheumatoid diseases are fully understood, and drugs found which can effect cures, the medical profession continues to depend largely on this classical form of treatment to provide for the patient relief from his crippling pain.

PARADISE VALLEY NEWS

Congratulations to Mr and Mrs Charles Bleakley on the birth of a son and to Mr and Mrs. Cyril Flint on the birth of a daughter, both born in the Lloydminster hospital.

The Clare and Paradise Valley F.U.A. sponsored a dance in the hall on Friday evening last. A very good crowd turned out despite the muddy roads. Our square dancers have been stepping out recently they visited at Blackfoot and Marwayne during the past week. Curling is now over for the season and we understand that the President won out in the Pres. vs Vice-Pres. competition.

Mr Look Lum was a business visitor to Calgary recently. We understand that Mr Forslund, the owner of the building in which the Royal cafe is located died recently in Edmonton.

Glad to see our old friend Dick Smith walking around town after his stay in the Lloydminster hospital. Mr. C. Bennett is still a patient there.

Fire Brigade Holds Annual Banquet

Quite a number of years ago the men of the Vermilion Fire Brigade commenced the custom of having one get-together each year at which they were not fighting fires. That is one event when they could meet each other socially.

This has become an established custom now and a very enjoyable one. On Wednesday evening the members of the brigade convened for their annual banquet and had as their guests their wives and lady friends, all the members of the town council, the press and the members of the R.C.M.P. detachment. The event was held in the Elks hall and catering was done by the Royal Purple who served a very delicious turkey dinner.

Fire Chief Tom Conboy was emcee for the evening and the guest speaker was Austin Bridges, Fire Commissioner for the Province of Alberta. Mayor Melvin Hill was also called upon to address the gathering. Others who addressed brief remarks were Councillor Keith Chalmers, Deputy Fire Chief K. G. Urquhart and the departing secretary E. L. Weeres.

An idea advanced during the evening was that each business should be asked to have one man on the volunteer fire brigade.

The highly enjoyable affair did not break up until after 10 p.m., some movies of local events being shown by Gordon Park rounding out the program.

Legion Honors Veterans Of Vimy at Banquet

Sixteen veterans of the Battle of Vimy Ridge marched proudly into the Legion hall on Monday night where an assemblage of 130 members of the Vermilion Post of the Canadian Legion, their wives, the Auxiliary, and guests were gathered to pay them tribute. The men of Vimy were ushered to their places to the skirling tunes of the pipes played by Neil McLean.

The Vimy banquet was one of three events in commemoration of the immortal battle which took place on April 9, 1917. On the Saturday night previous a smoker had been held to which all veterans of all wars had been invited. Following the banquet the annual Vimy ball was held in the armories.

After opening remarks by the chairman Mr Victor Tillett, president of Post 11, Mr Robert Allan gave the toast to the Queen and this was followed by "The Veterans of Vimy" proposed by E. H. Buckingham.

It was on April 9th, said the speaker in describing the great Battle of Vimy Ridge, that Canada took its place as a full-fledged nation among the countries of the world. The people all over the universe knew what Canada could and would do to maintain right and freedom.

The toast was acknowledged by one of the Vimy veterans, Clarence Neis, who replied that the anniversary recalled to mind vivid memories, and that the men of Vimy appreciated deeply the honor being paid them by their comrades of the Legion this evening.

The toast to the Legion by President Tillett brought forth a stirring reply from George Martin. He reviewed the purposes of the Legion and told briefly of the welfare work carried out annually among veterans and their families. With needs in some former fields of endeavor no longer required the Legion had looked for fresh avenues of activity and as everyone knew, now conducted the annual campaign for funds to battle polio and to help the victims of that dread disease.

Tribute to the work of the ladies of the auxiliary of the Canadian Legion was paid by Mr Lawrence Webb, vice-president of Post No. 11. Everywhere one looked in the commodious and well-appointed Legion hall were evidences of their support and ability. The reply to the toast was given by Mrs. Tom Thompson, president of the Auxiliary.

Acceptable vocal numbers were rendered by John Webb who was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. B. Hogan and a duet by Mr and Mrs Wes Furnell. Wes played the accompaniment on the guitar. The musical numbers were enjoyed and heartily encored.

The guest speaker was Mr M. Matheson of Edmonton, District Administrator, Department of Veterans Affairs. In his remarks Mr Matheson echoed the sentiments in the toast to the men of Vimy. He then told how valuable his department found the help of the Legion branches and how much their opinion was sought.

In a short talk Mayor Melvin Hill congratulated the Legion on their welfare work and asked the Legion to consider their organization as a partnership, working together for the betterment and progress of the community and its people.

The final speaker of the very enjoyable evening's program was Mr. Fred U. Brown, District Superintendent of Veterans' Welfare Services. Without the help of the Legion and such men as welfare officer George Martin of Vermilion, his department could not do nearly the job they wish to do, stated Mr Brown. With the co-operation of Legion branches a better job is done and that is what his department so greatly desires.

VETERANS OF VIMY

Seated side by side at one long table were sixteen "Veterans of Vimy" from Vermilion and district. They were A. Tuey, A. Frizzell, J. J. Duncan, Albert Beck, Tom Wilson, Harry Scott, Clarence Neis, Curtis Martin, Wm. Simmonds, John Darrah, W. S. Dougan, R. Fielding, and Mr. Elliott from Mannville.

Parent-Teacher Relationships Discussed

AT HOME & SCHOOL MEETING

The regular meeting of the Vermilion Home and School Association was held on March 29 in the Junior high school with 45 members and visitors present.

The guest speaker of the evening, Mr. S. D. Simonson, superintendent of schools for the Vermilion division, outlined parent-teacher relationships. The need for full co-operation between these two groups was stressed and many examples were given where misunderstandings often occur.

The Parent Attendance Shield, as usual, remains in the primary school.

The president, Mr. F. Clendenning, reminded those present that the next meeting will be in the same place on Tuesday, April 26th.

C.C.F. Plan Meeting Here April 18th

An open informal meeting of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation members held in Vermilion Monday afternoon voted to hold a Provincial constituency convention in the Elks hall, Vermilion, on Monday, April 18th at 8:00 p.m.

The meeting on Monday heard Mr. Sigurd Lelsrsen, LL.B. of Viking, campaign manager for the Battle River-Camrose Division, report on the progress in the western section of the riding. Ed. Last was chairman of the meeting.

The party will bring Premier Tommy Douglas of Saskatchewan to Vermilion and Wainwright during the campaign, as well as Federal C.C.F. members.

Keith Maxwell Injured In Car Accident

Keith Maxwell, son of Mr and Mrs. Douglas A. Maxwell of Vermilion, suffered injuries to his spine in an accident which took place on highway 16 near Ranfurly. The car which Keith was driving went off the road into a 16 foot ditch and overturned. Keith was accompanied by Ted Molzan of Edmonton and the young men were on their way to Vermilion. The accident occurred at night.

Both were knocked unconscious when the car went into the ditch but Molzan recovered and went out on the road to summon help. Car after car went by without heeding his waving arms until desperate in an attempt to get aid for Keith, Molzan stepped practically in front of the next car and was struck. The driver of the car, Dave Henderson of Viking, had little chance to avoid the second accident. Molzan as a result, suffered a broken leg. Help was then summoned and both the injured were taken to hospital in Vegreville by ambulance.

Keith suffered the breaking of 6 small transverse processes in his back. He has now been placed in a cast and while his stay in hospital will be for several months, doctors claim that he will be completely recovered and will suffer no lasting ill effects.

Stephen Carpenter, Of Dewberry, Dies

Stephen Carpenter who has lived north of Dewberry since 1938 died suddenly on April 9th at the age of 67 years. Funeral services are being held this Thursday, April 14th at the Riverton hall and interment will follow in the Dewberry cemetery. The Rev. Mr. Roche of Frog Lake will officiate.

Mr Carpenter was born in Ontario and came to Alberta in 1912. In 1938 he moved into the district north of Dewberry and has farmed there since that time.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Harold at home and Gene at Fort Radium.

Moyers are in charge of the last rites.

Outbreak Grass Fires

Dry spring weather always brings along an outbreak of grass fires and this past week has heard several fire alarms from this cause. No serious trouble resulted from the grass blaze although damage could have resulted.

More serious was a fire which started from a garbage can, apparently spread along a board fence to an outhouse and from there to a shed housing a tractor. The shed was on the rear of property occupied by Clark Wilson and the fire apparently spread from a neighboring garbage can.

The outhouse and shed were ruined and approximately $1000.00 damage was done to the tractor which was owned by Cliff J. McCormick and housed in the shed during the winter and early spring months. Tires and wiring were ruined and about everything burnable on the tractor was damaged.

Most Canadians believe in protecting their families with insurance. The home is protected by fire and burglary policies. Protection against premature loss of family income generally is provided by life insurance with disability benefits. Family health is safeguarded by hospitalization and surgical policy plans.

But there is a type of personal insurance based on the principle of saving life instead of financially compensating for sickness, disability, or death.

Cancer — the nation's No. 2 killer — took an estimated death toll of nearly 20,000 Canadians last year. It threatens to invade most of our homes by attacking approximately one out of every four of the nation's people at some time in life.

How can we guard against the ravages of this pitiless family enemy?

Cancer Society statistics show that the average cancer victim has a 50% chance of recovery — but that can be 'insured' only if the patient is treated in an early stage of the disease.

Early treatment of course depends on early diagnosis. Some types of cancer are revealed by easily recognizable early symptoms. Others, known as 'silent cancers' can be detected in an initial form only by a doctor.

To insure against these enemies that lie in ambush for humans, every adult should have a yearly physical check-up. Men over 45 also should have a twice-yearly chest x-ray and women over 35 a semi-annual pelvic examination.

The Canadian Cancer Society is underwriting a three-point, nation-wide program to present cancer facts to physicians and public; to give needed service to patients; and to give financial support to cancer research — the long-range solution for this menace.

To make certain that that life-saving program will continue without interruption, you owe it to yourself to contribute generously to the cancer-control fund-raising campaign which runs throughout April. It will pay dividends in lives saved, and — one of them may be your own.

When Did The Ice Stop The Clock?

AT 11:10.00 A.M. MONDAY, APRIL 11th.

Winners of the Fish and Game contest "When will the ice break in the Vermilion Lake?" were George Cruthers of Vermilion and Art W. Lysons of Tolland. Both of these men guessed April 11 at 12:00 noon.

After being contacted the two men decided to take the 3 h.p. outboard motor and to do their fishing together. The Fish and Game wish them good luck with the hope they may be able to land the biggest fish and so win the fishing contest that is being put on this summer.

The Fish and Game would like to publicly thank the following firms who donated supplies to help out the contest just completed:

Maren Electric, Nelson-Hill, Northern Hardware, Macleod's Hardware, with one roll of Lowmax each.

Crown Lumber for the use of a roll of snow fence.

Bruce Robinson (Edmonton) for the Electric Clock.

Canadian Utilities and Larry Pare who went all out with their public relations and put up the poles, strung the wire and did everything possible to help L. Hareuther and J. Chalmers who were in charge of the project.

Mr Dargatz of the Dargatz Tire Service, Vermilion, has changed the picture of the prize and is giving a 3.6 h.p. outboard for cost price. With so much help and good fellowship, the Fish & Game plan to hold this event annually.

Widmere Winks

It's just 47 years yesterday (Apr. 17) that the writer's family landed in Vermilion. Vermilion was a lot different then to what it is now as far as size goes. There was lots of snow yet and rivers of water running everywhere. Mr. Bob Beckett brought the family out and when crossing the coulee the democrat drifted along with the stream and the horses almost had to swim to get across. To we youngsters it was great fun but the older ones didn't see much enjoyment to it. We reached the farm that John Wilson lives on today, to find the log shack on the farm then owned by Peter Johnston (father of Mrs. Wm. McGinnis of Vermilion) and it was full of prairie wool hay so the range horses couldn't eat it. All in all they were good and happy days.

Mr and Mrs. Frank Gibson and family of Basswood accompanied by Mrs Gibson's parents Mr and Mrs. W Ford of town motored up to Edmonton and spent Easter with Mr and Mrs. Dan Ford and family a brother of Mrs. Gibson. A nice holiday was enjoyed.

A lovely birthday dinner was enjoyed at the J. Wilson home on Sunday, it being John's birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson of town, Mr and Mrs. Alex Morrison of Bowtell, Mr and Mrs. Holte and Baillie of Widmere were present. We all wish you many more such happy birthdays John — just got out of your teens Eh!

Mr and Mrs. Cliff Cruthers and family were supper guests at the Wallington home where a belated birthday supper for Kenny Graham and Kathleen Cruthers who has one next week, was enjoyed. A huge cake decorated the supper table, wiht candles for both on it. To you both we wish happy birthdays for years to come.

Anyone wanting to ship old woollens get in contact with Mrs. David Hughes. Please bring along your money to pay for same with your order.

Special Easter Program At Islay

A special Easter program was given in the Sunday school on Sunday morning in which many of the children took special parts. Jim Shaw gave a welcome address in which he said he was happy to see so many out, some he saw every Sunday, some only twice a year, and he was sorry if they were a bit crowded, but he assured them if they came every Sunday they would build to make room. Little Shirley Van den Dolder gave the 'Goodbye' — "God bless you everyone, glad you came to Sunday school".

Mrs. Dalkin and Junior are visiting her sister Mrs. Violet Schaffer and family.

Mrs. Gray and daughter from Calgary visited her sister Mrs. Wm. Purves and family over the holiday week end.

Mrs. Bill McRae of Drumheller, formerly of Islay, is visiting old friends, old haunts and chatting [illegible].

There was a gathering of the Shaw Clan on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Trakey. Mr and Mrs. Shaw Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shaw and Jim, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Shaw and two boys from Edmonton, Fred Shaw, Mrs Hilda Bell, Janet and Sandra, Mr. and Mrs Gordon Gould and two boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Clark and three boys motored to Edmonton for some of the holiday.

Dr. and Mrs. Sweet and family motored to Edmonton and Erva remained in the city to attend the Leadership Training course at Alberta college along with other girls from Vermilion.

Bill Belton moved his father's house and his father, Joe Belton, to his farm just east of Islay.

Mr and Mrs. Bill McLean and children went to Ardrossan to visit Bill's parents over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Axley, Mrs. Axley Sr and Mrs. Monroe spent a few days in Calgary.

Miss Sheilah Purves was home for the holidays.

There were many very favorable comments heard re the letters last week by Alan Ronaghan and Mr. I. D. Inman on the hospital — If a home for senior citizens is needed and homes are needed, why of course build new ones with no stairs to climb and what better place than beside the present hospital with a nurses' home and nurses and a good resident doctor. Who will be the first to make a gift towards it? Isn't that the way our present hospital was founded? All honor to "The Lady with the green veil".

Square Notes From Circle Eight

By the time this appears in print it will be all over and if the enthusiasm stays as high till Thursday evening as it has these past weeks I can safely predict that the Jamboree will be a huge success. Requests for tickets are coming in from all over right up to the last minute. Makes one wonder if we shouldn't have rented the paved main street instead of the armories. If the new Vermilion Armories has never bulged at the seams before I am sure that it will before Thursday night is over.

I still have those tickets for the Ross Haynes Jamboree at Bonnyville and for Ed Gilmore's dance at Sedgwick. They will have to go back this week and so I would appreciate it if you would let me know just as soon as possible.

Harold is calling for a dance at Lloydminster this Friday and Doug McColl will be going from here to call at St Paul on Friday so if you like to travel.

Don't forget the Circle 8 club dance next Thursday April 21 in the Legion hall. Harold calling.

That's all for this week — gotta go get ready for the Jamboree.

How Would You Like To Have A

QUALIFIED DANCING TEACHER

Right In Your Own Town?

This is your Opportunity to have just that!

HORACE McHEFFEY

This inquiry comes to you in order that I may get an estimate of the number of persons (children and adults) in Vermilion and district who would be interested in taking dancing lessons from me, a qualified professional teacher of dancing.

As to my qualifications and recommendations, I have had over twenty years experience in teaching dancing, having taught in Great Britain, Europe, Canada, and United States. I am a member of the New York Society of Teachers of Dancing and received my theatrical education at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, America's foremost school of acting, Carnegie Hall, New York City.

If there is sufficient interest I will be glad to arrange to teach weekly lessons in Vermilion. Two different courses are offered.

TAP DANCING

This includes basic and advanced tap routines, and special exercises for good posture, co-ordination and rhythm.

BALLROOM Dancing

This comprises Waltz, Fox Trot, Jive, Rumba, Rumba, Mambo, Tango. A special course designed to teach both beginners and advanced pupils the very latest and most practical steps used on the dance floor today.

Class lessons in TAP DANCING of one hour (once weekly) cost only $1.00 a week, and are payable $5.00 in advance for each set of five weekly lessons.

The complete BALLROOM DANCING course comprises five class lessons of one hour each week. Total cost for the entire course is only $5.00, payable in advance.

The importance of self confidence, good poise, posture and deportment is keenly stressed today. It has long been recognized that these qualities are best attained through careful instruction and training with competent dance instructors. Do not neglect this important training. Be prepared when opportunity comes your way.

Cancer Society Appeals for Support

To the Editor:

Throughout the month of April, you will be reminded by press and radio that this is "Cancer Crusade Month."

Cancer — the nation's number two killer — took an estimated death toll of nearly 20,000 Canadians in 1954. It threatens to invade most of our homes by attacking approximately one out of every four persons at some time in life.

Cancer statistics show that the average victim has a 50% chance of recovery, some cured entirely, but that can only be insured if the patient is treated in an early stage of the disease.

One of the Cancer Society's three main objectives is to enlighten the public about the whole subject. Literature is circulated throughout the country, and through your local newspaper, but how many bother to even read them? To the layman, education is a very major factor, so that they will recognize the seven common danger signals.

In the past the Vermilion Chapter of the National Organization has had barely enough citizens attend at meetings to form an executive, let alone a working committee for this worth while organization. Circular letters will be going out to Women's Clubs and Service and Fraternal organizations, in the hope that we will have a full house in attendance to the Annual Meeting which will be held in the Legion Hall at 8 p.m. on Monday, the 25th day of April. Mr. Talbot, Executive Director in Alberta, also Dr. Victor Wright, Advisory Director for Alberta, will be present along with other members active in this Society. Dr. Wright should need no introduction to many in this area, and his message will be of particular interest to the men attending, being mainly on Cancer Education, and work done by the Society in research.

A special meeting is also being arranged at another time, for women only.

One of the main features of the campaign at present, is to stress Public Education, as well as financial aid for research. Cancer strikes 1 in 4 in Canada. Strike back by giving when the canvasser calls, and hoping to see a well attended Annual Meeting.

Sincerely,
Hilda Cross, President,
Vermilion Chapter,
Alberta Cancer Society.

Happier and Healthier

If everyone over 65 in Canada were turned out to pasture today, comments The Financial Post, a lot of us would soon find ourselves in a bad way for the simple reason that there would not be enough people left working to provide food, shelter and other necessities. And as the percentage of older people continues to rise the problem of supply would get worse.

Many people are happier and healthier to keep on working for a long time after 65. And the rest of us will be happier and healthier too if they continue to do so.

STAMPS PROMOTE ALBERTA

A series of meter stamps used in 1954 on outgoing mail from Alberta Government offices in Edmonton has played its part in promoting Alberta. Throughout the year, 7 different designs have been used in conjunction with the postage stamp to draw attention to some aspects of Alberta life.

The tourist stamps were: Vacations Unlimited, Alberta Canada; Enjoy Alberta in June; Remember September for Alberta Vacations.

Other stamps included Edmonton's Golden Jubilee, the Red Cross, forest fire prevention, and industrial development. At the peak period as many as 260,000 pieces of mail were stamped a month.

University students noticed home during the Easter vacation were Peter Kupin, Stuart Gow and Gerry Harle, while Henry Simonson of the Alberta Technical school at Calgary spent Easter week end visiting his parents here.

CAR INDUSTRY SWITCHES TO HIGH GEAR

The Canadian motor car industry, which got a slow start this year because of the Ford strike — has passed some important milestones, reports The Financial Post.

It had its first 10,000 car week this year as production hit 10,122 for the week ending April 2.

Fast-moving Ford car production reached 3,873 for the week, 42 more than produced by General Motors.

The industry produced just over 100,000 cars in the first quarter, slightly more than in the first quarter of 1954. This despite the Ford strike, settled in the last few days of January.

Some 35% of mouth cancers are cured today. About 65% can be cured if the cancer is detected soon enough, the Canadian Cancer Society states.

Health Unit Notes

SPRING CLEAN-UP

Now that spring weather is here homes in towns, villages and hamlets, even farms, are all in need of a special effort to clear up all the waste materials accumulated in the winter months.

Flies, and our latest public enemy the rat, will soon take advantage of open garbage piles which provide them with food and shelter.

WATER SUPPLIES

Any farmers or residents of villages and hamlets who rely on private wells for their water supply can have the water checked, this is part of the Health Unit service. Advice is also given on protection and siting of water supplies. Please leave your name and address at the local municipal offices in Wainwright, Mannville and Kitscoty or village secretaries or by writing or phoning the Health Unit offices in Wainwright or Vermilion. Wainwright phone number is 455 and Vermilion [illegible].

FLIES

As soon as the wearm weather arrives so does the housefly. Screens and insecticides are useful but, by far the most effective and economical method of reducing the fly population is by depriving them of food, shelter and breeding grounds.

KEEP GARBAGE COVERED

Burning it in a barrel does not make garbage any less attractive. On farms it is good practice to throw your garbage into a pit and immediately cover it with soil.

BABY & PRE-SCHOOL CLINICS

Monday, April 18 — Legion hall, Vermilion 2 to 4 p.m.

Tuesday, April 19 — Ranfurly hotel 10 to 12 noon; Innisfree Clinic 2 to 3:30 p.m.

COSTS PLENTY TO KEEP CLEAN

About $54 millions will be spent on municipal waterworks expansion this year in Canada it's estimated, reports The Financial Post. That is 6% more than the year before and an all time record.

More than a third of Canada's national income is taken in taxes each year by the three levels of government.

MORE RUST RESEARCH NEEDED

The disastrous rust epidemic of 1954, which reduced farm income in the Prairie Provinces by at least $200,000,000 has focused nation-wide attention on the urgent need for a broader and more intensive program of rust research in Canada. Needless to say, the grain farmers of Western Canada have a very heavy stake in the fight against rust. For them, the control of rust means more than financial gain; it means their very livelihood.

The Responsibility. In Canada, agricultural research is very largely the responsibility of the federal government. The prosecution of rust research particularly has always been and still is dependent almost entirely on government support, and like a large number of other major agricultural research projects in Canada, it is constantly hampered through lack of adequate financial support.

Since grain rust research is a governmental activity, the amount of support that is likely to be provided for it will depend on how loudly and vigorously the farmers of Western Canada urge that such research be carried out. It is one of the important responsibilities of western farmers, and their organizations, therefore, to insist that Canadian plant scientists be given enough manpower and facilities to enable them to grapple effectively with the difficult rust control problem that confronts them.

Research is not a luxury, and does not deal with non-essentials. In fact, there is no investment in the whole field of agriculture that pays bigger dividends than research. More research, both fundamental and practical, is needed now if devastating attacks of wheat rust, such as Western Canada experienced in 1954, are to be prevented in the years ahead. Yes, the loss from rust in 1954 exceeded $200,000,000. Even one-half of one per cent of this enormous sum would support a great deal of added rust research.

JUNIOR GRADES PRESENT PROGRAM AT MANNVILLE

MANNVILLE — The school concert held in the gym on Wednesday evening featured a varied program by the children of grades 1 to 6 inclusive. The program showed just what can be accomplished by training. It was a great deal of work for the teachers but the appreciative audience proved that it was worth the effort. The little folk were very enthusiastic and enjoyed every minute of their plays and dances.

After the singing of O Canada Mrs. Brown's grade 1 class presented "Ten Little Indians" in costume. This was an unique number ending with a pow-wow. This was followed by an operetta "Little Red Riding Hood" by the grade 1 class of Mrs Hamilton. Red Riding Hood skipped around a stage that was adorned with beautiful flowers which were the little girls in paper dresses. The Wolf was very realistic but proved quite dead after the sturdy woodsmen chopped at him with their hatchets. Mrs. Brown's grade 1 class all joined in a chorus "Open Up Your Hearts" and it is amazing what good voices these kiddies have and what practice and training will accomplish.

The combined grade 2 classes of Mrs Otte and Miss Makowecki presented "Come, Let Us Make a Garden". And what a garden! Potatoes, [illegible] lettuce, cabbage, carrots, celery, onions, beans as well as pansies, daisies, all marched, danced and sang and then grew tall for the little girl and boy, played by Jo-Ann Leitch and Bobby [illegible] who wanted to plant a garden. This certainly taxed the imagination of the mothers in dressing the boys and girls to represent all these vegetables and flowers. They were many and varied but all good. Deana Rudd as the Lady with the mike, and Karen Stephenson and Wayne Mackenzie as the parents completed the cast.

Mrs. Baldwin's grade 3's Maypole Dance was next and the winding and unwinding of the ribbons was done artistically. It was colorful and pretty with the children [illegible] as they went around the Maypole. The Hard Time drill by Miss Rodwell's grade 3 was a bit different. In patches and sacks, with the theme how to keep the wolf away, the boys and girls thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The drill was lively and well done. The two wolves danced about enjoying themselves immensely.

The play "The Green Elves' Ball" was in four acts by Mrs. Lugg's room and demonstrated what reward a little kindness shown can reap. The St. Patrick's Ball sponsored by the King of the Elves was the event of the season and the four girls were on their way to visit the magician, hoping he would turn their dresses into green ones so they could attend the ball. The first three were too busy to help the little bird or little crocus in distress and went right on, but the fourth girl gave help to any who needed it. The magician who was in reality the king of the elves, heard of this and having no use for beauty brains or wealth turned the poor little girl's dress into a green one so she could attend the ball. Here she met the prince and became his bride. The play ended with everyone taking part in a lively square dance.

Individual pupils in Mrs. Trynchuk's room entertained. Piano solos by Lorraine Young and Judy Gerhart, acrostic five senses by a small group, a humorous monologue by George Zaharia entitled "Weddings are Funny Things" and a chorus by the whole room "Smile, Smile, Smile" was varied and enjoyable.

"Alberta Pageant" and "Ode to Alberta" was most appropriate in Jubilee Year. Mrs. Gamble's pupils dressed as Irish, Scotch, English, Ukrainian, Hollanders, Indians, Belgians, Norwegians, etc. showed the peoples that made up this province. The Irish lilt, Highland fling, Ukranian dance and Churchill and the Eton boys added a bit of spice to the pageant.

Choral speech selections, Sir Brian Botany and Forest Fire and two choruses, Minuet and O Lovely Meadows were presented by grade 5 and 6 pupils of Mr. Bohaichuk. These were very well presented.

The last two items on the program a violin solo by Barry Weaver ably accompanied by his sister June, was followed by a play "The Crown of Glory". The court was to judge who was most worthy to wear the crown of glory. Among those requesting it were Sir Wm. Harvey, Amundsen, Churchill, Dr. Alexander Fleming, Florence Nightingale, Marconi. But the judge decided the 'Mother' was the worthiest and the group serenaded her with "What a Friend We Have in Mother".

Misses Betty Proudfoot and Denna McCauley were the accompanists for the evening. Much credit is due them as it is hard to keep time with small voices. Mr. Doherty was at his usual best as M.C. He thanked Mr. Walter Donnenworth for the use of his public address system.

All in all it was an evening of excellent entertainment and the gym was well filled.

WHY YOU SHOULD TREAT SEED GRAIN WITH "CERESAN" SEED DISINFECTANT

Each spring seed and soil-borne diseases, in the form of root-rots, smuts and seedling blights, reduce the yield of the crop you plant. The best and simplest way to protect the seed you plant and ensure maximum yields is to treat your seed grain before planting with "Ceresan" seed disinfectant. "Ceresan" prevents smut in wheat, oats, flax, and covered smut in barley. "Ceresan" protects seed and seedlings from root rots, seedling blights and decay.

"CERESAN" IS A SUPERIOR SEED DISINFECTANT BECAUSE IT PROTECTS SEED IN TWO WAYS:

ON SEED—VAPOUR ACTION

On application, "Ceresan" gives off a highly effective mercury vapour which destroys fungi and bacteria on the surface of the seed and penetrates into cracks and crevices in the seed to give maximum disinfection. This valuable vapour action, in addition to direct contact, enables "Ceresan" to do a superior seed disinfecting job.

IN SOIL—PROTECTIVE FILM

"Ceresan" forms a protective film which protects the seed after planting from the soil-borne fungi which cause seed decay, root-rots and seedling blights. This protection means higher germination and vigorous emergence that results in thicker, stronger stands which produce higher yields.

HOW TO TREAT SEED WITH "CERESAN" SEED DISINFECTANTS

HOME TREATMENT

You can apply "Ceresan" by a hand method or many users prefer to apply it dry in a dust-type automatic treater. If you have a slurry treater, "Ceresan" M2X is especially formulated for simple slurry treating. "Ceresan" is available at your local farm supply store.

COMMERCIAL TREATING

In many localities there is a commercial seed treater who can treat your seed grain. Simply ask him to treat your seed with "Ceresan" M2X or Du Pont Liquid 244 seed disinfectant. He can give you thorough seed protection for a very small cost per bushel.

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

DO THE OBVIOUS

Some 37 years ago a writer by the name of Robert R. Updegraph, published a little story called "Obvious Adams".

This little story packed such a wallop that the idea of doing the obvious soon became a business maxim. For example Mr. Kettering, of General Motors had a sign put up in General Motors research building in Dayton that read: 'This problem when solved will be simple.'

Today, 37 years later, the story "Obvious Adams" has been republished for the umpteenth time. Mr. Updegraph, the author of the original story, has added some notes on how to check the obvious. One of his tests for obviousness is a question. The question reads — "Does the answer check with human nature?" In other words, if your plan or idea cannot be understood and accepted by your mother, wife, brothers, sisters, cousins, or your next door neighbor — you'd better suspect it. It's probably not obvious.

It is amazing how often we neglect to see that the solution to most of our problems is really quite obvious. For example, the solution to the housing shortage is — more houses! Yet think of all the other fancy schemes that have been cooked up to solve the problem! We have had rental control, government mortgages, zoning, and heaven knows how many wild ideas suggested to solve the housing problem. Yet the answer is simple — build more houses!

Right now Canada has a problem in connection with unemployment. But when you ask what the solution is, you get the darndest answers. You'll hear a whole lecture on the subject of unemployment insurance, labor union leaders will talk endlessly about government spending; politicians will treat the matter at great length. But is not the answer obvious? The solution to unemployment is — more employment. In Renfrew a whole group of workers refused to go back to work because they couldn't get the pay that the International Union in the United States said they should have. Yet they classed themselves as "unemployed". Their problem would be solved quickly enough if they would take the existing jobs at the wages the employers could afford to pay them, and dig in and make the industry profitable enough so that it could pay them more as it would willingly do if it could afford it.

The above are merely examples that come readily to mind but the whole idea of doing the obvious is worth some thought. Great business enterprises have been built upon it. It is much more reliable than fancy schemes and cunning systems. Cultivate an ability to see the obvious and do it, and you won't go far wrong!

BANK SAVINGS INCREASE

Volume of savings in Canadian chartered banks showed a marked increase during February reports The Financial Post. Personal savings were $74.4 millions higher on Feb. 28 than a month earlier, notice deposits $50.6 millions greater, and demand deposits up $24.8 millions.

The level of personal savings, $5,372.9 millions, was an all time high, and indicated that savings accounts had more than recovered the heavy withdrawals made in November for the purchase of Canada Savings Bonds.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Disagreement and Oratory Feature Legislature Closing

EDMONTON. —The current sittings of the Alberta legislature wound up last week in a blaze of disagreement and oratory over the meetings of the house public accounts committee investigating the charges of waste and extravagance in government land and building transactions.

Opposition members stuck to their contentions that the evidence given the committee by witnesses and found in various documents showed that the government had paid higher prices than necessary for a building in Edmonton and lands in Calgary and district.

Government party members said the evidence showed the opposite and that the government obtained the best prices possible. The opposition said the government was "whitewashing" the whole thing, while the government charged the opposition was using smear tactics in an attempt to discredit the Social Credit administration.

The last attempt at action by the opposition was to have the house approve a motion to have a small public accounts committee meet at the beginning of each legislative session to check over the spending of any chosen department or branches. The government said the motion served no purpose because legislative members already had the right to call a meeting of the public accounts committee at any time during a session.

Premier Manning and other cabinet members said all a member had to do was present a resolution to the legislature setting out the reason he wanted the committee to sit.

Opposition members contended they had trouble getting such resolutions approved by the house and the government countered by saying no resolutions were defeated unless they were worded in such a way as to be a motion of non-confidence in the government.

From comments made by the members after it was all over, it was evident that neither side of the house was taking much stock in the arguments of the other side.

Legislative work is not finished for the year, as it normally is after the house has been sitting for six or seven weeks, and members will return May 10 to discuss the natural gas situation and some other matters which have been held over from the current sittings. It appears the members will be really earning their $3600 indemnity this year.

One of the major items to hold the attention of the members in May will be the proposed marketing legislation. Evidence that the proposed legislation, which would allow farmers to set up boards for most produce on the approval of 51% of producers, was not supported unanimously by even the members of the Social Credit party, was given last week by Wilson E. Cain of Bow Valley-Empress constituency.

He roundly criticized the government for bringing in legislation which he said would work an 'injustice' on farmers and he charged it was introduced as a matter of political expediency.

The upshot was that Premier Manning suggested the bill be delayed and later he announced the house agriculture committee will sit to hear representations on the matter when the legislature reconvenes in May. The committee will begin hearings May 11.

Exclusion of sheep and cattle from the farm produce which would be allowed to be marketed by producer boards is the result of strong opposition by major cattle and sheep raisers in the province.

The feature which came in for the most criticism by Mr. Cain and others was the fact the boards could be set up after 51% of the producers favored them. The voting would take place among producers of a certain product on a regional basis or for the whole province. Once a board for a certain product was set up, all producers of that product would be compelled to market through the board. The compulsion is what many of the members fear.

Strong words of condemnation for the proposal came also from Leduc's Independent SC, R. Earl Ansley, who said that if his constituents wanted such legislation, they should vote for the CCF candidate in the next election. The individual he believes, has the right to market his products any way he wishes.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

My column this week and next is strictly for the teen-age daughter in your family, so please call her over and let her read this:

Are you not planning to return to high school next year? Then what are you going to do? Work and earn some money you say?

Here is, perhaps, a new thought for you — don't you want to prepare yourself for your inevitable career as a homemaker? You know, the total of school fees and lack of earnings for one year (7 months really) will be more than repaid in the future. When you've had some concentrated training you'll be a better-than-average homemaker and will know how to save more money in one year than you could earn next year.

A good place to take this training is in the Alberta Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics at Vermilion, Fairview or Olds. Now if you want more information about these schools, here is some in question and answer form.

1. What are schools of agriculture and home economics?

Ans. These are institutions that were established in 1913 by the Alberta Department of Agriculture to provide practical training in Agriculture and Home Economics for the young people of Alberta. The schools are operated at Vermilion, Olds and Fairview.

2. What is the purpose and function of the schools?

Ans. The schools were established to train young men for farming and young women as homemakers. The training offered to girls is designed to fit them for homemaking but it prepares them for employment as well.

3. What courses are offered?

Ans. Courses in practical agriculture and homemaking are offered. The regular course in each requires two winter's attendance. The two in one course in both Agriculture and Home Economics is completed in 1 winter.

4. Who may attend?

Ans. Any young man or woman who has reached the age of 16 years may attend. Preference is given to older students. It is desirable that prospective students have completed at least Gr. 8. Students desiring to enrol in the 2 in-1 course must have 'B' standing in 70 high school credits.

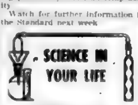
5. When do the schools operate?

Ans. The schools operate from about the 20th of October to about April 8 in the following year. There are two weeks holidays at Xmas.

6. Where and how do students live?

Ans. Students live in modern, well-equipped dormitories under the supervision of a Dean of men and a Dean of women. Classes are held from Monday to Saturday noon. Students are expected to remain at the school for the week end. Dormitory life and extra-curricular activities carried on under staff supervision are very valuable in developing personality and leadership ability.

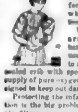
Watch for further information in the Standard next week.



Premature Babies

One of medicine's most difficult problems is premature birth. Infants who arrive early are not actually ready to begin life in our world. They are too small, and their nervous systems are still undeveloped. Infectious diseases find them easy prey. Their feeding is difficult.

In spite of all this, doctors now have new tools with which to fight for a baby's life when standard measures fail.



When a child arrives prematurely, the doctor usually puts it into an incubator, a sealed crib with special heaters, a supply of pure oxygen and filters designed to keep out dangerous germs.

Protecting the infant from infection is the big problem. In spite of air filters, germs can still attack the child. And recent investigations show that the best way to combat the infectious invaders is with the antibiotic drugs that are effective against many different germs.

Malnutrition of the mother is being studied as a possible cause of premature birth. Preliminary studies indicate that there is danger of premature birth unless the expectant mother is getting enough vitamin E, the so-called fertility vitamin in wheat germ oil, and vitamin K, which promotes healthy blood formation.

The laboratories have developed nutritional supplements like Obron to provide in capsule form the vitamins and minerals needed by a pregnant woman.

Much more will have to be learned by science before premature births actually can be prevented. However their number is gradually decreasing. And when a baby does arrive before its time, today's chances of survival are much greater than they were even five years ago.

WILDLIFE CONSERVATION . . . EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

Recently the 20th North American agement Institute to the effect that Wildlife conference came to a close in Montreal. Over 60 papers were given on subjects ranging from the social behavior and management of grey squirrels to what should be done about the 3½ million wild ducks which feast on the farmers' crops in the Prairie provinces each year.

The conference attracted almost 1000 wildlife enthusiasts from Canada and the U.S. who generally agreed that there is a great need for continuous sound management of the extremely important and abundant wildlife resources of this country.

Delegates at the conference there-fore, received with enthusiasm an announcement by Dr. Ira Gabrielson, president of his Wildlife Man-

Canadian Industries (1954) Ltd. has launched a new conservation program which provides fellowships and grants to Canadian students for field research projects in wildlife management.

Dr. Gabrielson pointed out that with Canada's increasing population demands on wildlife resources are also increasing which in turn increases the problems of the wildlife management authorities.

While the C-I-L program undoubtedly will be of great value in providing additional trained men to meet growing conservation problems its success in large measure is dependant upon the understanding of the public Canadians should have a sympathetic appreciation of the aims and aspirations of the professional wildlife managers and be ready to assist them in every way possible

All of us should know, for example that wildlife conservation is a long range program dealing not only with bag limits, but with soil, water and forest resources, with the study and control of wildlife diseases, over and under population of wildlife, carrying capacities of forest field and stream, migration of birds and animals, insects affecting wildlife and many other topics

Natural Gas Sales Increase

Sales of natural gas by Northwestern Utilities, Limited showed an increase of 29% during 1954 according to F. A. Brownie President, in his annual report to the shareholders

Gas sales last year exceeded 38 billion cubic feet, placing Northwestern Utilities Ltd. in the position that they distributed more gas than any similar company in Canada. Revenue from the sale of gas was $6 621 377 an increase of nearly 29%

The largest increase in gas consumption was shown in industrial sales which were up 53% at over 1 billion cubic feet. Domestic sales stood at 12 billion cubic feet and commercial sales at 14 billion cu ft

Mr. Brownie noted that customers of Northwestern Utilities Ltd. had doubled in the past seven years and at the end of 1954 totalled 69. The population served is 253 000

Northwestern Utilities completed a $5 687 000 capital construction program during 1954 which included pipe-lines to the Bonnie Glen Wizard Lake and Acheson Fields for additional gas supplies. Mr Brownie said that while the Viking Kinsella field remains the company's main source of supply 67% of the 1954 requirements, the percentage of this field gas continues to increase. The company is playing a major role in marketing this gas, which is a by-product of oil production, thus making a contribution to the conservation of provincial resources.

Adele Walsh is finishing her grade 12 at Allandale school. This is the second time a third generation has attended Allandale Armstrong's being the first. The school was opened in January, 1908 Miss Allen being the first teacher, the Ommess family, Erna, Stella, Rufus, Orley and Nora were some of the first scholars

We are very pleased to have Mr and Mrs Wm Mayers home again and looking very well after spending three months in the States. They came to Walrwright Sunday morning April 3rd and got a ride to Vermilion Stella Lee brought them to Johnny Nelson's.

Orley Ommess accompanied his son-in-law Don Wilson to the city April 11 to attend the Ex Charles Johnny Arthur leading march In which Vern Esso substituted for Arthur who became ill. Through the kindness of Dougie Maggs they were able to get good seats.

The Red Cross whist at the school on April 6th was enjoyable with six tables being played. Ladies' prizes were won by Mrs. M. Baldock, Helen Dolman Mrs V Mead; Gents, Mr. Wm. Mayers Mr Reeves and L. McPhee.

Mr and Mrs. Tommy Greaves and family Brenda and Brian from Edmonton stopped at the Baldock's last Thursday evening On Friday morning Mr and Mrs Baldock accompanied them to Saskatoon to spend Easter with the latter's sister Geraldine and family the Broad-feets.

Mr and Mrs. Jack Hobbis and family Karen, Beth and Randall from town visited at the Ommess home on the afternoon of April 9th visiting too with Cousin Della and family.

The sympathy of the community goes to the Deford family on the passing of their father Mr. Sanford Deford recently at Athabasca. The family lived for years in the district. Their place is now owned by Mr Arnold. Another old timer gone "May he rest in peace".

Mr and Mrs. Walters Peters, Mr. Gibbs Deford and Mr and Mrs. Wm McNab from Athabasca were visiting friends and relatives in the district over the Easter week end.

It was a good to see a large attendance at the Clandonald United church Easter Sunday. Rev. MacKay had a very inspiring Easter message for his congregation.

Plans are for Clandonald and Allandale to put on a day April 13 towards the beginning of the building of Whitney camp—the starting of a grand project.

It was a happy Easter for the Armstrong family as they were all able to be home. From out of the district were the Edwards family from town. Anderson family from Lloydminster, Mrs. Ruth Adamson and the Dwyer family from the city Mrs. Rennie and daughter Adele from Royal Park.

Closing thought: "The little lamp of friendship we light along our way goes shining on far down the years and brightens every day 'Tis love that keeps it burning and sympathy and trust. God help us that no lamp goes out because we let it rust"

A substantial growth in company services in the past year and a continued expansion of facilities planned for future years was reported by F. A. Brownie, president of the Canadian Utilities Ltd., in the 28th annual report to shareholders.

Mr. Brownie reported electrical energy sold totaled 89,625,000 KWH, an increase of 9% over the previous year. Gross revenue was $3,435,-

3400 new consumers were added to Canadian Utilities power lines during 1954, bringing the total number connected to 21,800 now connected to the Fort St. John, Grande Prairie, Vermilion and Drumheller power-ing plants

During the 1954 the company's capital construction program amounted to $2,649,000 including a gas fueled generating unit at Fairview and the gas turbine generator at Vermilion. The gas turbine is the first unit of this type to see service in Canada

Mr Brownie said he anticipated the company would spend $4,500 000 on capital construction in 1955 The largest capital expansion program at the moment is the Battle River power plant at Forestburg which over the next two years will cost $6,000,000 including the necessary transmission lines. ## Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Woman's Travel Authority

Join the whisk and rinse group of experienced travellers and you'll stay as cool as a cucumber and as fresh as a daisy. Even the hottest of travelling weather this summer This business of looking fresh and peri despite long drives and crowded plane and train schedules is a relatively simple one If you think about it before you start

When you plan your summer wardrobe concentrate on such items as nylon lingerie slips nightgowns, and blouses (they whisk-an-rinse beautifully and need no ironing) simple two or three piece separates in wrinkle-resistant cottons dresses in cotton-rayon blends, a basic blouse with interchangeable sleeve series, string gloves pique hats; detachable collar cuff sets etc

And carry the idea over to the men in the family, too Cotton jersey shirts nylon shorts and socks, and seersucker slacks will do much to eliminate the laundry problems and keep male spirits high.

With a "whisk-and-rinse" wardrobe a ben of cheap flakes and a light weight travel iron you'll enjoy your vacation and come home as fresh as the day you left

In 1954 Canadian consumer spending reached a record total of $15,-381 millions, an increase of $646 million over 1953.

It is estimated that $160,000,000 spending on public works will create about 11,000 temporary jobs.

FUA Head Sees Farm Progress

In a statement from F.U.A. headquarters President Henry Young expressed satisfaction over several items of legislation enacted at the recent session of the legislature. His statement is as follows:

We are pleased to see that the Provincial Government is taking action on the following matters at the recent session.

The special school grants will make it possible to reduce the school mill rate to 25 mills for operation of schools.

The new system of advances to homesteaders for clearing and breaking land.

Amendments to the Assessment Act which will prevent farmers being assessed at an extra rate on land leased to oil companies.

New regulations to permit the carrying of passengers in the cab of farm trucks.

New regulations under which hunters will in future have to get the farmers' permission before hunting on his land.

All these matters are F.U.A. policy and we are gratified to have them implemented by the Government. We are expecting final action on the Marketing Act before long and shall continue to work for other items of policy Mr Young said.

Letters to the Editor

The Editor,
Vermilion Standard.
Dear Sir:

After reading the letters in the April 7th issue written by Mr. Inman and Mr. Ronaghan, I would like, Mr Editor more space in your valuable paper.

He states that some wise man said that if all statisticians were laid end to end, it would be a good thing. It would be especially for those who are running public affairs, for statistics don't lie and when any hospital in a district the size of Islay hospital district cannot get patronage from more than an average of 8.8 patients per day, it is not serving the public as it should. I have travelled over the whole Islay hospital district and if all those people (who are paying taxes into Islay and who are paying $6.30 per day in the three adjacent hospitals) were to come into Islay it would amount to more than double 8.8 and I may also state that it is no surprise when we go to the adjacent hospitals, for the people have been going for so long, they are expecting us as long as we have $6.30 a day to pay with.

No wonder things have gone as they are for Mr Inman is the retired hospital representative this year and if any man cannot see where a saving of $16,000 in wages can be made and cannot figure averages in decimals maybe we should take some of the money saved and start a night school for the middle-aged. I realize that it will take wages for an old persons' home (I hope not $16,000 for 8.8 people) but it's going to take wages anyhow plus the price of a new building for you can bet your last dollar there will be one home at least mighty quick and it looks like you don't want it in Islay.

Mr Inman does a little ranting about speed. I'll let him in on a secret if he won't tell the cops. I was coming out of Vermilion heading for Lloydminster and was making about 60 when a boy drove up behind, toots and passes me by like a sitting duck. I couldn't see the driver but I knew the car and tried to clock him but when I had gone one mile he was almost one ahead of me. I made Lloydminster in 45 minutes and someone in Lloyd told me the car ahead was 15 minutes ahead of me. That was one of the prominent Islay business men. Nuff sed.

Now a few words on Mr. Ronaghan's letter, which is more worthy of mention.

True, that the Islay hospital was a wonderful building 40 years ago when a patient travelled by horse and buggy and it took 5 or 6 hours travel time to reach a doctor. But times have changed and shame on us, there has been little change in the hospital system in 40 years; in this day and age people must change with the times.

The little white school was a great thing 40 years ago, and we paid for many of them, now how would the teachers like that system, how would the parents like it, after seeing the new modern, up-to-date schools we now have and busses transporting children to the larger centres everywhere. We certainly don't need more hospitals, what we need is better and bigger hospitals and clinics. You very seldom hear anyone complain about hospital tax as long as they can get the best services that can be had in the district. The Islay hospital has served it purpose well and faithfully but the small hospital is on the way out and it's too bad if it can't be utilized for a worthy purpose and certainly carries no shame.

Thank you Mr Editor for your space. I was a good fellow 40 years ago too but I know I have to step down for better men. I may be down but I'm not laid end to end with the other statisticians and I'm not out yet awhile.

Yours sincerely,
"Born in Islay"
(Don't want to die there now)

The World of Wheat

By W. G. MALAHER,
Director, Research Department,
Searle Grain Co. Ltd.

PREPAREDNESS FOR RUST

In a recent "World of Wheat" we suggested that Western Canada should be in a far better position to meet a possible rust infestation this year than in 1954, implying, of course, that the distribution of Selkirk wheat throughout the main rust areas in 1955 would act as a bulwark against the advance of any rust epidemic from the south.

To a large extent this is true, but of some concern is the fact that a greater rust awareness has been noticed this spring, in districts which lie outside of the main rust areas of Manitoba and southeastern Saskatchewan. In other words the farmers who for the first time in the history of their district were caught by the rust epidemic last year and under most unusual conditions at that, seem, in many cases, to be more concerned about possible rust damage and more anxious to purchase stocks of Selkirk wheat than those who will be much more vulnerable if an epidemic does develop in 1955.

The time is getting short but there is still a fairly good supply of Selkirk wheat available and rust authorities are hopeful that none who live within the main rust areas, most likely to be affected, will fail to secure a sufficient quantity of rust resistant seed. The spring has tended to be late throughout much of the west and this might well be a factor in favoring rust development later in the season. Early seeding and the use of phosphate fertilizer, to hasten maturity, may, therefore, be more than usually important this year.

SCHOOL COSTS

To provide for the increased school population of Canada 10 years hence, 38,000 new classrooms will be required and an equal number of additional teachers.

At present costs, points out The Financial Post, this will involve a capital expenditure of $750 millions for new buildings and an annual expenditure of $100 millions in teachers salaries.

There may be a difference of opinion as to how we will raise the money for those bills says The Post but at least on one point every sensible person must be agreed. Something drastic and very basic has to be done. This vital problem just won't evaporate nor will it be solved by inaction.

Canada's last public hanging took place in Ottawa in 1869.

Heavy Wet Snow Blankets Country

Heaviest snowfall for the past winter and according to the Edmonton weather bureau the biggest April snowfall ever, fell here this week.

The storm started as rain on Sunday with 1.6 inches falling. This turned to snow during the night and on Monday 2.34 inches of wet snow fell, continued Tuesday and Wednesday until a total of 9.90 inches had piled up.

This snow was very wet and very heavy, causing traffic difficulties and curtailing much planned activity involving motor travel.

Weather has remained mild however and the snow this Thursday is rapidly sinking under a warm sun.

Garden Club Plans Active Season

The Vermilion Horticultural Society proposes to hold a flower show about August 20th. There will be over 100 classes for flowers and vegetables. Also seven trophies will be offered for competition.

This year the society will provide flower and vegetable seeds for the pupils of grades 7, 8 and 9. The seeds are free to school children. They are expected to grow them in the home garden and exhibit their flowers and vegetables at the annual show.

GROW FLOWERS

The society urges property owners to make special efforts on this, the Alberta Jubilee Year, to grow flowers. The use of window boxes are recommended as a good means of adding colour to homes and possibly business places as well.

The president E. B. Evans, advises that window boxes can be easily and cheaply built from rough or planed lumber. They should be about one foot wide and one foot deep and painted.

Mr Evans recommends petunias as one of the most useful flowers for window boxes. Geraniums, lobelia, phlox and six weeks stocks are also suitable.

It was agreed that the society should give generous support to the agricultural society. It is planned to put on a display of flowers at their summer fair.

Help Send A Scout To World Jamboree

The monthly meeting of the Vermilion Fish & Game took place at the Legion hall on Monday April 18th. Three points of interest took place. (a) The F & G have plans of holding a Bingo in the very near future, the proceeds of which will be spent to send a scout or even two scouts to the world jamboree being held this summer at Niagara on the Lake, Ontario. (b) The presentation of the 3.6 outboard motor was made to the winners of the ice breaking contest. (c) On Tuesday, April 26 we are having a special meeting inviting all farmers and townspeople to hear Mr Archie L. Hogg Director of the F.U.A. This gentleman gave a very stirring speech at the Calgary convention of the Fish & Game Association, and we are sure it will be well worth your while to hear his talk. Along with Mr. Hogg we plan to have films on wild life. So let's see the Legion hall filled to the rafters that night — that is, April 26th, next Tuesday evening at 8:00 sharp.

Her tour of the U.S. was with the Wings over Jordan Choir, and is at present studying operatic music and plans to go to Italy to complete her studies.

DEWBERRY. F.U.A. locals of Greenlawn and Riverton have invited the candidates for the three political parties taking part in the Battle River-Camrose federal bye-election to take part in a political meeting. It is the feeling of these locals that residents of the district would in this way be able to form an unbiased opinion of the candidates and the parties they are representing. The meeting is scheduled to take place in Dewberry hall April 25th at 8 p.m. and it is hoped that Dr. Smith, Liberal candidate, Mr Jas A Smith, Social Credit candidate and Mr Wm Irvine, the C.C.F. candidate will be present to take part.

JOINS NAVY

Essay Contest Closes April 30th

Agricultural Society Offers Special Prize Awards For Thematic Displays

Members of the 4-H Clubs throughout the district will doubtless be glad to know that some encouragement is being offered for the production of thematic displays for showing at the summer fair in July. The Agricultural Society at a meeting on Saturday evening last decided to offer prizes which will reach a grand total of some $250 for such displays and suitable space will be provided for them during the exhibition.

Judging from all indications every available foot of display space will be crammed to the doors with exhibits. Numerous applications have been received from ladies in the district for advance prize lists for ladies work and the school fair, started three years ago is growing apace with schools from as distant as Marwayne, Irma, St. Paul, Wainwright, Mannville and Kitscoty showing keen interest.

ESSAY CONTEST CLOSES APRIL 30th

School pupils are reminded that the essay contest for which the Society is offering a first prize of $10 and a second of $5 closes on Saturday April 30. The title of the essay of not more than 500 words is — "What I think Vermilion Fair could do to fittingly mark its 50 Years of Service". It is sincerely hoped that a large number of essays will be received. Judging will take place immediately after the close of the contest and it is expected that some new ideas regarding the anniversary of Vermilion Fair will be forthcoming.

Blood Donor Clinic Here May 2nd

A mobile Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic is to visit Vermilion on Monday, May 2nd, from 3 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. The clinic is at the Legion hall and no appointment is needed.

Residents of this district are being asked to give a donation of blood. This blood is very urgently needed — maybe a friend or a relative of yours may benefit greatly — even have a life saved — by your donation. Perhaps many people feel depressed thinking of their own troubles. Remember, that the best way to at least partially forget our own troubles is to do a service for others. You do this when you donate blood. 43-3

ATTENTION F.U.A. LOCALS

The president and secretary or any two members of F.U.A. locals within the Vermilion area are asked to attend a meeting at the office of the district agriculturist Vermilion on Saturday April 23 at 8:30 p.m. to discuss plans for a F.U.A. picnic on Farmers' Day June 10 in the Vermilion park.

ISLAY AMATEUR PROGRAM POSTPONED

The Islay Amateur program has been postponed from April 22nd to May 6th.

HOME & SCHOOL TO MEET

The regular meeting of the Home and School will be held in the Jr high school on Tuesday evening April 26 at 8 p.m.

Bob Maggs' Arabian Best In Alberta

For the second successive year, Bob Maggs' Arabian stallion, Iln Raddan, was named best in Alberta at the Calgary Spring Horse show last week.

Iln Raddan was judged the best in a class of 12, three years old and over, then came back to win the Grand Champion award for the best Arabian in the show with 25 in this class. He also won the Dench award for the purebred Arab winning the most points in the show. Judging of the Arabians was done by Wes Dounda Hall-Holland of London, Ontario.

Incidentally the Standard notices in the prize list that Robert Maggs, Vermilion, donates a trophy for the best Arabian filly, 2 years and under. Iln Raddan is that beautiful Arabian horse seen on Vermilion streets, being exercised by his owner, Bob Maggs.

Two-Headed Calf On Armstrong Farm

A calf with two perfect and equal heads was calved on the farm of Norman Armstrong in the Island Hill district Wednesday night. The calf appears normal in every other respect.

The heads are complete and equal with the exception of having only two ears. The ears are, however, located on the sides of the heads. There are two mouths, four eyes, four nostrils and breathing is normal through them.

Pictures were taken of the oddity by Dr. Anderson and Jack Wright Thursday morning. Just what will become of the freak calf has not been decided at press time.

Let's Stick To Local Players

St Paul Junior Chamber of Commerce, which organization manages the arena rink at St Paul, reports a deficit of $1500 for the past season's operations due principally to the fact that they paid out $2322 in wages to players on the Hornet hockey team. It will be remembered that St Paul wasn't doing so well in the league in the early part of the season. The Hornets were then bolstered by some outside talent and made things a bit more interesting for other teams in the E.A.H.L. we will admit, but at a price.

Polio Vaccination Of Grade One

Any Grade 1 pupils who were unable to attend clinics because of bad road conditions can receive injection at the Vermilion Baby Clinic on April 25th or May 9th 2 to 4 p.m.

The Town's Oddest Traffic Accident

CAR STARTS SELF, RUNS AMOK IN FOUR-WAY ACCIDENT

Impossible though it may seem a car started itself in the heart of the business section here Tuesday morning and caused a four way collision and a fire alarm. The car without driver or passengers started itself, backed out from the curb, ran about 40 feet and then stopped when it crashed into the rear of a second car shoving it into a third vehicle and this one in turn came to rest against a light truck. No extensive damage was done to any one of them, the car which took the bull by the horns and caused the commotion escaping without a scratch but with a badly burned ignition system.

It all came about like this. Ken Carlyle got into his car which was parked at the curb in front of George's Cafe, started the motor and began to back out into the roadway. He had backed only a few feet when he smelled something burning and noticed smoke coming from under the dash of his own 1954 model. He reacted quickly, turned off the motor, removed the key, and leaving the car in reverse gear hurried into the nearby Northern Hardware to obtain a fire extinguisher. As he entered the hardware he glanced back and was dumbfounded to see his car back out onto the road and then swing toward the curb again, running into the back of a Dodge car owned by Albert Mix where it stopped. The Dodge in turn squeezed up against a Ford sedan belonging to Mrs. T. Fenton, and the Ford was shoved roughly up to the light truck of Harry Semenuik. Smoke was seen coming from under the hood of the runaway car and someone phoned in a fire alarm, which caused the sounding of the fire siren and brought the fire trucks screaming to the scene.

The solution to the whole peculiar episode was apparently a short circuit that burned off insulation and caused the wires from battery to starter to fuse, the current thus reached the starting motor and the car engine was started as a result. The car was already in reverse gear as the driver had been backing away from the curb when he smelled the smoke and following the set of its wheels, travelled backwards in a short 40-foot semi-circle causing Vermilion's oddest accident.

All insulation was burned off the wires of the ignition system when the rampaging car was examined.

SPRING FEVER—

Among the sure and certain signs of spring is that calculating faraway look that comes into the little woman's eyes as the first breath of warm air wafts over the meadow and the frogs begin to stir in the damp home that has been their winter retreat. Presently the frogs will begin to sing and spring will finally be here but long before that the uneasiness that betokens spring cleaning will have fixed the season in its appointed place.

Whether or not the accoutrements of home are where you, personally, like them, they won't be there long once that look comes across her face. Some night soon you will arrive home and your favorite chair will have moved from the front of the living room, under the window, to a far back corner. It may even have moved to the back porch if it happened to have a wobbly arm. Tables will have usurped the place of comfortable seats, and they will be dusted within an inch of their lives and lovely bouquets of flowers will sit upon them — just where the light was best for reading.

All those papers which you had saved, and the magazines still not finished will have gone, along with some old clothes (really not a thing wrong with them). The windows will sparkle in the sunshine, that old can of tobacco successfully hidden in a corner behind the curtain all winter, will be no more and it is just possible that more recent purchases will have followed suit.

Curtains will have that almost new look that is imparted by the cleaner; the rug will be shampooed to a state of newness and woe betide the foot that treads it still shod in a wet galosh.

All this can happen right now and what is more, it can be repeated in part when the frogs really begin their song. Nobody can describe spring fever, it can only be felt, and when the housewife feels it, the actions which we have noted, follow as the night the day.

SWORD OF HOPE—

Back a few centuries when a literate person was a rare phenomenon in the Old Country, inn-keepers and tradesmen depended on pictorial signs for identification of their establishments. For a date at a tavern, one said, "I'll meet you at the sign of the Brown Jug". Or if you wished to find a barber, or a surgeon, you simply looked for the striped pole signifying both professions.

That quaint but necessary custom in our country passed along with illiteracy, but it has its parallel now in a familiar usage — that of identifying many phases of modern life with symbols.

Today one of the most important of these symbols is the Canadian Cancer Society's sword. For years that sign, on a flag, a door, a window or an inner wall, has been a rallying point for legions of socially minded people — physicians, research scientists, and laymen — all deeply concerned about cancer control.

This weapon, with serpent entwined around its hilt, symbolizes the most determined attack in our history on 'mankind's cruelest enemy'. And it has become the Sword of Hope for thousands of former cancer patients whose lives were saved because of early detection and prompt and adequate treatment. Many more thousands can be saved annually if we use to the fullest the information and skills now available in the medical field.

Under the sign of the conquest-of-cancer sword, hundreds of thousands of volunteers work in Spring educational and fund-raising crusade of the Canadian Cancer Society. Its goal for the whole nation for 1955 is almost $2,000,000 to be used for research toward finding new cures, service to patients, and education, not only of doctors and scientists, but of all lay people in Canada, about the realities of cancer and the possibilities of defeating it.

Again this year the public is being asked to support the Cancer Society's program, especially in April Cancer Control Month. It is our sincere hope that an aroused nation will take up the Sword of Hope and strike valiantly at cancer.

MORE CANADIANS VISIT SCOTLAND

More overseas visitors than ever before, including Canadians, visited Scotland during 1954. The total figure for last year topped the 250,000 mark in comparison with some 200,000 in 1953. There were more than 20,000 Canadian visitors to Scotland last year — a considerable

WOODVALE NOTES

With the early spring, work on the land has started on quite a few farms and with weather co-operating should be general this week. We have not heard of any first in observing the return of birds and flowers, but it sure is good to be awakened in the morning by the cheery song of the robins again.

UNITY OF THOUGHT REQUIRED TO ESTABLISH HOME

We are sorry to report that Mr. W. Machell had to go back to the Islay hospital after a week at home and Bert Portsmith is there still, too. Despite the discussions pro and con in keeping the hospital open in Islay, it seems still to be a pretty nice place where quite a few people of our district are glad to find good and competent care. As to an old people's home, the council is as yet not in favor of establishing one and to get any progress in that matter more organizations and people interested should get together and press the project. There certainly seems to be a need for one in the district.

Trigve Seitz returned earlier this spring from his trip to Norway. The death of his 85 year old father took place while he was home.

Bob Middlemas has come back to the farm too after his long stay in hospitals at Edmonton and Vermilion.

RED CROSS W.A. ACTIVE

The monthly Red Cross meeting took place at the home of Mrs. H. Portsmith on April 6 with 13 members present and with this number it did not take long to tie and hem the Red Cross quilt. Donations to the Cancer fund and Red Cross drive were voted; quilt blocks were collected, a few banner pieces sold and it was decided to bring old clothes to the next meeting for the W.M. of the Edmonton Presbyterian church and to make the next quilt for that organization. There will be no meeting in May but June 1 is set for the quilting bee at the home of Mrs. W. Watson. We hope that the summer meetings will be as well attended as the ones during the winter. So far these gatherings are being enjoyed by all members young and old and no desire is felt to change for or join another organization.

Mrs. S. Oldenburg of Vermilion spent the Easter week end with her son Clifford and family.

LARGE FAMILY GATHERING AT MRS. LYSONS

Mr. and Mrs. B. Warring of Edmonton visited the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. T. Preston and numerous families gathered together for the Easter Sunday. The biggest gathering was at the home of Mrs. Euna Lysons where all the children and grandchildren met except daughter Mable and family of Airways, who were unable to come. They celebrated at the same time Mrs. Lysons' 61st birthday for which Maxine made a lovely cake and the family present was a Mixmaster. It was put to work right away to make butter for the many sandwiches needed for that big gathering of 27. The two youngest Sweeney grandchildren stayed with Grandma for the ensuing week. This Sunday Mrs. Lysons and Leo went for a visit to Airways.

Mrs. Walter Lysons was away for a short time to help at the home of her parents in Marshall, Sask., after her mother's serious operation.

F.U.A. DISCUSS MARKETING BOARDS

The F. U. A. meeting on the 12th was well attended and discussion on the livestock marketing boards was lively but it seems that the majority, mostly the young farmers, are not in favor of it.

FILMS ENJOYED AT ISLEY HOME

Marie Goutier, who bought a movie camera and projector this winter showed her first three films at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wes Isley one evening with the Goutier family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wells and the writer present. She had to show them several times and for a first try they were really good and much enjoyed especially an indoor film of her sister Suzanne's children in action which was excellent. Robert Goutier, 9 years old, was his sister's 'technician'. This small Kodak projector, suit case style, gave even a better performance than many a bigger one we have seen in operation in local schoolhouses. Mrs. Isley served a delicious lunch with ice cream at the conclusion of the pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Seitz, Mr. and Mrs. R. Thomson, Fred Slocum, Clarence Lewis, Art Lysons, Bill and Fred McGrath took in the banquet of the Wildmere Curling club at Beaswood and report a very enjoyable evening.

Art Lysons and Cliff Cruthers tied for first prize of an outboard motor by guessing the time of the breakup of the ice in Vermilion lake. That will make for some exciting fishing parties this summer!

Esther Hudson of Edmonton has been a guest at the home of Mrs. Cecil King this week end.

PIONEER PASSES AWAY

On Sunday the sad news of the death of Mrs. R. Hind spread through the district. She had been critically ill earlier in March but seemed to be slowly recovering her strength. On Friday she was taken to Edmonton for further treatment but died there suddenly Saturday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Hind lived for many years in Hindville district and only retired to live in Kitscoty four years ago. Our sincere sympathy goes to Mr. Hind and Mrs. Hind's brother John Buckley who lived with them.

MR. JOSEPH ALLEN OBITUARY

The Standard regrets that the last page of the obituary of the late Mr. Joseph Allen was overlooked, thus the following information was omitted: Memorial donations to Crippled Children's Fund: Mrs. O. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Nettleton and girls.

The pall-bearers were Mr. Jim Strachan, Mr. Archie Wood, Mr. F. Maddox, Mr. Jim McGillewee, Mr. Gus Garnier and Mr. Alf Redmond.

Moyers were in charge of funeral arrangements.

KITSCOTY

Best wishes are extended for a speedy recovery to health to Mrs. A. Franke, Mr. C. Birkett, Mr. E. Miller, who are in hospital, and to all those who are ill at home.

Sympathy is extended to the family of the late Mr. Andrew Beatty, an Earlie district resident for many years, who passed away recently while visiting with his son in B. C.

The writer is grieved to report that Mrs. R. P. Hind passed away Saturday in an Edmonton hospital where she had been a patient for one day, following a three months' illness in the Islay hospital. Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. Hind, Mr. J. C. Buckley and other relatives.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Alan Batty on the birth of a daughter, born April 16 in the Lloydminster hospital.

Folks in the Earlie, Kinnaird, Lavoy and Kitscoty South districts are all "lit up" these days, having had the electric power turned on last week.

WINS MUSICAL AWARDS [illegible]

Congratulations to the following girls, all pupils of Mrs. Elsie Batty, who took part in the Edmonton and district musical festival and won several awards of merit: Miss Doris Jack, Merven Dietzman, Beverlie Jack, Janet Kent, Deanna Duchering, Margaret Miles, Marilyn Smith, Shirley McKay, Lorraine Sheroyko of Streamstown, Lynn Fenney of Lloydminster, and Bobbie Shaika of Vermilion.

The Kitscoty and Community curling club are holding a bingo on Wednesday, April 27th at 8 p.m. in the town hall. Attractive prizes, big jack pot prize. Everyone welcome.

Battle Against Noise

The combination of noise problems has been made easier by production, by a U.K. firm of instrument makers, of a spectrometer which converts sound into visible form on a cathode-ray tube, so that it is seen in much the same way as an aircraft's echo in a radar set. Particularly suitable because of its high frequency range for tests on jet engines, the spectrometer can also be used for measuring the vibrations in turbine blades, and in frequency analysis.

Aid For Deaf-Blind

A device enabling deaf-blind people to communicate more easily with their fellows has been successfully tried out in Britain. The device, called the Arcaid, allows a quick method of printing Braille by anyone on a keyboard similar to that of a typewriter. The Arcaid, which can be carried in a large camera bag, punches out messages onto paper and, by raising the section in which the paper is contained, the deaf person can follow the message direct by finger touch.

Last year the sale of foreign products in the Canadian market exceeded the sale of Canadian goods abroad by $[illegible].

Kitscoty High School Notes

Well folks, sorry we missed the last bit time but we were so interested in Easter exams the 'Notes' were completely forgotten. These Easter exams, for the past few weeks, have been the biggest K.H.S. headache, but now they are over and, we fear, so are the holidays. Here's hoping all had a very good time and that the students are ready for the home stretch to the final exams.

Spring is here! The roads are dotted every evening with students out walking and enjoying freedom from rubbers, coats and so on.

Graduation is the main topic of conversation around here. What to wear and what to do, what orchestra and what weather, all are sure bait for a lively conversation. The banquet and dance will be held on May 13 and, knowing Kitscoty luck in Graduation Day weather, rain, mud, sleet and snow will probably be dumped on the town that day and there isn't much we can do about it.

600 Attend "Search For Talent" Show Held At Mannville

MANNVILLE. — A large crowd attended the first 'Search for Talent' show in the school auditorium on Saturday evening. It was a three-hour show — the first half by the contestants and the second half by the A.C.T. cast.

After a snappy introduction, Jack Dennistoun introduced the cast:

George Kidd as M.C. (he is also an announcer at CFRN); Roy McDonald, tap dancer and acrobat; Bobby Englund, playing the guitar and accordion and singing; Walter Melnyk, specializing in monologues and impersonations; Carl Elgstrand, accordionist, and Jack Dennistoun, producer and manager of the show as well as pianist and vocalist.

Mr. Kidd, before introducing the contestants, explained the reason for the Search for Talent show and how the needy crippled children have benefitted from the proceeds of these shows. A crew of A.C.T members, their wives and friends accompany the regular cast to the communities each Saturday to attend to details in connection with the show. They take charge of hall arrangements, admissions, vote collecting, etc. to help put the show over. And their reward is a sense of satisfaction for a job well done in a worthy cause.

Mr. Kidd in introducing the contestants made each one feel at home on the stage and gave their name or names clearly before and after each act. Mr. and Mrs. Steimaschuk and their son were first with a guitar and accordion accompaniment to a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Steimaschuk. This was followed by a piano selection by Clara Brokop. Walter Smart accompanied himself on the guitar. Mr. Robt. Weaver Sr.'s piano solo was followed by a duet by Lily Kostiw and Ruby Klefiuk with guitar accompaniment. The first group mentioned were all from Mannville. Misses Klefiuk and Kostiw were from Ranfurly. A piano solo by James Croft and a recitation by Myrna Whitson, both of Mannville completed the first portion of the contestants' part of the program. Mr. Kidd mentioned several times throughout the evening about the calibre of the contestants and how pleased they were with the entries. The program was now on the air and the Mannville Merrymakers provided a sprightly couple of tunes to open the second half of the program. Solos, piano selections, guitar accompaniments, duets, brought variety to the program. Solos by Betty Proudfoot, Mannville; Marilyn Litens of Hardisty; Reg Vandervaate of Kinsella; Ruth Gamble of Mannville were all very well received by the audience. The Red Ribbon Boys of Ranfurly thoroughly enjoyed playing and their pieces were lively. Guitar selections by Frances Ducharme and Frank Lichak, lovely harmony in the duet by Adele Matney and Connie Gerhart of Mannville, piano solos by Donna McCauley of Mannville and Jean Kibblewhite of Vermilion and a novelty duet by Norma McLuckie and Doreen Gerhart closed the contestants' part of the show. It would be impossible to comment on each selection individually in the space at our disposal but all the numbers were excellent and we sincerely hope that these contestants and others will enter again the next time the Search for Talent show comes to Mannville. There is plenty of talent in Mannville and district and it is a pleasure to watch these young people perform.

Mr. Kidd called on Russell Whitson for a few words. Mr. Whitson spoke of the good work the A.C.T. is doing and of the pleasure in being able to help in this worthy cause by having such a building as the new gym to accommodate the show.

Mr. Ed Bell introduced the rest of the travellers and Mr. Richards, chairman of the Crippled Children's fund, spoke briefly on the work of the A.C.T., their means of raising money by the auto bonspiel in winter, barn dances in summer, Easter seals, etc. All volunteer work on the part of the travellers, a new team goes out each week to help put over the show. And they try to help all cases, especially those that the parents are financially unable to do much about. Contact A.C.T. in care of CFRN for any such cases that you know about.

To show what can be done $15 was raised in 55 seconds on votes for the contestants and later $10, in less time than that.

The last part of the program by the A.C.T. cast was exceptionally good. Approximately 600 people were on hand to see it so there is not much need for comment. From the opening number "Dial Twister" by Jack Dennistoun which was very realistic, the tap dance numbers by Roy McDonald, a novelty number to Top Hat and later as a skeleton (both in luminous suits), Walter Melnyk's impersonations, Bobby Englund as Little Snooks and later with little Poochie (the children loved the little white dog pushing a wee carriage and then dancing), accordion duet by Bobby Englund and Carl Elgstrand, and the gag and stories of Jack, Walter and George, the program was full of fun and laughter. From the applause the audience enjoyed it all. We hope to see these folks again when they take the show out next winter, and we also hope it will be between Jan. 1 and April 1 so that the business people will be able to see the whole show as the stores didn't close until 9 o'clock on Saturday.

Square Notes From Circle Eight

Did you have a good time at the jamboree? It certainly looked as if everyone was thoroughly enjoying themselves. It surely was hot and at times the boys had a bit of trouble with the sound, but it certainly appeared as if nothing too serious was bothering anyone. Haven't been able to get an accurate count as to just how many people were there, but as close as we can tell there were about 280. We were able to cover all expenses and still make a small donation to the Crippled Children and the Loyal Eddies.

The writer would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank all those who gave so generously of their time and effort to make Circle Eight's first jamboree such a good one. A special vote of thanks to Leona and Gerald Wilmer, Tom Watts, Walter Hinton, Faye Park, Lottie Urquhart, Charlie Heckbert and Al Locke; also a special thanks to Loch Martin for arranging use of the armories and to the boys of Canadian Utilities for turning on the colored lights around town.

Due to an unfortunate car accident a fourth caller was unable to be here, but the three who did made up for any lack of number. That little show at the end with the mike literally jumping from one to the other was really something to see and to hear. This boy McColl is a real student of square dancing. He has been calling five nights a week continually for over four years. He would like to come back and call for one of our club dances. Sounds like a wonderful idea!

In case you haven't heard, Arnie Kronenberger's dance—the first of a three week tour as part of Alberta's Golden Jubilee celebration—will be held in the drill hall at the V.S.A. on Monday, May 30th. This dance will be attended by several government officials as well as several members of the Golden Jubilee committee. Local arrangements for this dance are being made by joint effort of both square dance groups in co-operation with the local Jubilee committee. Plans should be completed this week as regards sale and distribution of tickets, if any, etc., so watch this column for more details.

Tickets are on hand at the secretary's office for Ed Gilmour's dance in Mannville's new school auditorium on May 10th. They are $2.00 per couple, sold in couples only. Please pick up your tickets as soon as possible as any not sold by April 29th will have to go back.

Harold Schacker is calling for a dance in the school auditorium at Minburn this Friday (tonight).

In national affairs real financial reforms should be undertaken to take care of the unemployed. Markets should be sought everywhere for our surplus products, especially in sterling areas.

The address of Mr. Irvine, who is the CCF candidate for Battle River-Camrose in the forthcoming by-election, was very well received. Mrs. Nellie Peterson spoke on the work of organization and support for Mr. Irvine.

Dewberry Hobby Fair Based On Golden Jubilee Theme

DEWBERRY. — The Dewberry Hobby fair was held in the Dewberry hall on March 23. The fair was based on the theme, Alberta's Golden Jubilee and many fine relics, antiques and pictures were displayed. The evening program consisted of a radio play called "Trail to Dewberry". About 500 people viewed the fair and saw the evening performance.

Over 600 objects were on display and the quality and workmanship was much better than last year. One of the items entered which fitted into the theme of the Hobby fair was a cake decorated by Mrs. Walter Jones. The cake was made in the shape of a book with its pages open. Written in icing was "Alberta Golden Jubilee — 1905-1955."

Mrs. Dudlyke of Marwayne entered a large display on the Jubilee. Jim Monro of Marwayne had a Frogman outfit on display. The school display section was bigger than ever and the work was of excellent quality. The Grade 10 and 11 Science class performed experiments during the afternoon and evening. There was always a group of adults and children around that display.

The Model Airplane club had a fine display of model airplanes. The wing span of the plane ranged from 12 inches to six feet. All types of models were displayed including sailplanes and 'Jetex' models.

Some beautiful art was displayed by Elaine Curtis, Goldie Lime and Mr. Bill Woods. Mr. Woods had some beautiful animal sketches. Mrs. F. Braithwaite entered a unique collection of silver spoons.

Certificates of Merit went to the following:

Quilts, Mrs. M. E. Fleming; Afghans, Miss Joyce Tulloch; Embroidery, Mrs. Brett; Cushions, Mrs. Conlon; Crocheting, Lila Curtis; Knitting, Mrs. W. Jones; Leather Lacing, Charlie Saville; Soap Carving, Betty Mathison; Fretwork, Rudy Holman; Pencil Sketches, Mr. Bill Woods; Art Book, Elaine Curtis; Art, Goldie Lime; Novelties, Mrs. Alvin Curtis, Mrs. Joy; Collections, Mrs. F. The Dewberry Grade 7 and 8 Hobby class would like to extend their thanks to all those who helped make the Hobby fair a success. The judges, the exhibitors, those who helped with the program and all the old timers who supplied us with valuable information.

Claysmore Women's Institute Have Full Agenda At Regular Meeting

The regular meeting of the Claysmore W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. R. MacMillan on April 13 with nine members and nine visitors present.

The meeting opened with O Canada and creed, followed by roll call—"A Poem of Spring." Minutes of the March meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. J. Horne and declared approved. The treasurer's report was given and adopted.

Business arising out of the minutes was then taken up. The Standing Committee conveners who had not sent in their reports to the Constituency Conveners were urged to do so at once. The W. I. convention in Edmonton from May 30 to June 3 will be coming up soon, hence the importance of getting the Branch reports in.

The "Home and Country's" were given out to the members. Mrs. H. Williamson is to go as delegate to the convention in May.

Topic for the month was Home Economics. The District Home Economist, Miss Kirk from Wainwright, was present and gave demonstrations on efficient home-making and pattern alterations. Her talk was thoroughly enjoyed.

The fun period was conducted by Mrs. F. Watling. A game of truth and consequences was played. Some of the forfeits provided hearty laughs.

Collection was taken and the meeting adjourned. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess. A.W.I. pins were presented to Mrs. R. MacMillan, Mrs. F. Watling, Mrs. G. Watling and Mrs. J. Bauer on the occasion of their birthdays in April. 'Happy Birthday' was sung before serving the cake.

Next meeting will be held at the Claysmore school on May 11th.

Many Important Subjects Discussed By The Wildmere F. U. A.

Dr. A. Ben King, President of the Vermilion Board of Trade, Mr. Ross Boake, the vice-president and Mr. Roy Walker convener of the Agricultural committee, were welcome visitors to the regular meeting of the Wildmere F.U.A. held in Basswood April 13.

Some time was taken in talking compulsory car insurance, the consensus of opinion was that this should have a liability clause of from $20,000 to $40,000 and property clause up to $3000; that this should be handled by the government at cost and sold with each car license.

In presenting briefs to Parliament or the Legislative assembly it was thought that this should be done as now by the F.U.A. executive in a clear, concise manner and backed by a strong and virile organization.

In bringing greetings from the Vermilion Board of Trade Dr. King mentioned the fact that our business was their business and hoped that more meetings like this would be held so that the boards of trade could be better informed on what it is all about and therefore be in a better position to back us up in any worthy cause.

Dr. King then brought to our attention that under the new Alberta budget a health plan has been inaugurated and that Medical Services Inc., a prepaid medical plan, has been chosen to carry it out. That the cost of one-third of such a plan will be borne by the province this brings the present family rate of $72 down to $48 which gives [illegible] medical care. Since this is the only way grants are given it was hoped that the F.U.A. could interest Vermilion River M.D. in sponsoring the organization. This could be done as now by a direct contribution or as an added mill rate for this purpose. Speakers are being asked to wait on the council Wednesday afternoon May 11 and at our own F.U.A. that same night at Basswood.

Mr. Ross Boake and Mr. Roy Walker also stressed the need for a stronger, well informed organization and closer co-operation between the two bodies.

It was then decided to approach other clubs in the Vermilion district regarding a gigantic picnic on Farmers' Day to be held in the Vermilion park. The proceeds of same will be applied on our building fund.

Adjournment was followed with the singing of the National Anthem and lunch.

Fred C. Haines, President.

Slawa Youth Killed In Tractor Mishap

A tractor mishap Thursday on a farm in the Slawa district, about 115 miles east of Edmonton, claimed the life of Reeve Michalshuk, 17, RCMP reported Friday.

Police said the youth's body was found by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Michalshuk, about 4 p.m. on Thursday. The youth apparently had been dragged into a rubbish fire after falling from a moving tractor while hauling material to the fire, police added.

Dr. D. Hosinnell of Mannville, district coroner, investigated and said no inquest will be held.

BOARD OF TRADE TO SUPERVISE TOWN JUBILEE DECORATIONS

The President was in the chair and there were 21 members present at the Board of Trade luncheon held last Wednesday at the Rio cafe.

Mr. K. Chalmers introduced Mr. Cecil Weldon, the newly appointed Town Works foreman.

Mr. Ross Boake introduced Mr. Bill Fleming, representative of Burns and Co., residing at Vermilion. Mr. Ashley Cooper introduced a former member, Mr. Frank Walker, who was visiting in Vermilion. Mr. Walker said he appreciated very much being here again at a Board meeting.

Mr. Tom Watts read a circular letter put out by the local Cancer committee and signed by the President, Mrs. Hilda Cross. This letter reminded the public that the month of April was "Cancer Crusade Month" and asked that the Board send representatives to the meeting of the local organization to be held at the Legion hall, Vermilion, Monday, April 25 at 8 p.m. The Chairman stressed the importance of the work of the National Cancer Soiceety and stated the executive would appoint two representatives to attend the meeting.

Mr. R. Mitchell, Vice-President of the Associated Chambers of Commerce and Agriculture, gave notice of motion that a Calgary resolution regarding moving the office of the Alberta Associated Chambers of Commerce and Agriculture from Red Deer to Edmonton, with the proviso that the annual meeting of the Association be continued to be held at Red Deer unless the members themselves direct otherwise, would be discussed and voted upon at our luncheon meeting of April 27th.

Mr. Mitchell as Vice-President of the Association, suggested that this Board should give thought to any possible resolution which they might wish to submit to the annual meeting of the Association to be held in Red Deer June 7 and 8.

Mr. Ross Boake gave an interesting report of the visit of Mr. Mitchell and himself to the Lloydminster Board of Trade dinner in honor of Mr. Thorvaldson, President of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, who was guest speaker. Mr. Boake stated Mr. Thorvaldson was a very good speaker and gave a splendid address.

Mr. Boake reported that while he was in Lloydminster he contacted Mr. Olson of the Foothills Aviation Co. who will visit our field if invited and canvass the possibility of establishing a service here.

It was decided that we write Mr. Olson and invite him to come here some evening convenient to him and meet some of the officials of the town and the board with a view to canvassing the possibilities of his Company establishing air service at this airport.

Mr. Ashley Cooper read the Board's calendar of coming events and the meeting adjourned.

At an executive meeting following the luncheon the President reported that he had attended the meeting called by the town regarding the Jubilee celebrations in Vermilion. He stated it was suggested that this Board take charge of two things, namely: To supervise and co-ordinate the decoration of the town and buildings; The furnishing of a float for the parade.

The President stated he signified to the meeting the Board would undertake same.

Dr. King and Mr. A. Cooper were appointed, and agreed, to attend the meeting of the local Cancer organization on April 25.

It was moved that the Board's Jubilee committee in charge of the above mentioned projects be the Ways and Means committee and the Civic committee of the Board with the chairman of Ways and Means committee, Mr. Keith Chalmers, as chairman of the Jubilee committee.

NURSES' ASSOC. TO MEET

The regular meeting of the Vermilion Nurses' Association will be held on Monday April 25 in conjunction with the Cancer Society meeting in the Legion hall at 8 p.m.

W. M. S.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. M. S. was held in the church hall on Thursday, April 14th commencing at 8 p.m. with the hymn "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" and the lines of psalm. Mrs. Hardie and Mrs. Muir conducted the devotional.

Mrs. H. N. Stephens and Mrs. C. Barr then called to the front Mrs. W. L. Robinson and Mrs. R. Good, and presented them each with a Life Membership. Mrs. Stephens pinned on the badges and handed the ladies their certificates. In congratulating Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Stephens paid tribute to the many years of earnest work she had done for the W. M. S., having served three years just passed as president. To Mrs. Good she had words of praise for her many years of faithful work. Mrs. Good's health is not as good as it was and it grieves her that she cannot do the work she once did.

Mrs. W. L. Roebuck gave a very interesting synopsis of the study book "The Church in India."

The roll call revealed 23 members present and one visitor, Mrs. Fry. All hope that she will join and become a regular member. Reports were given and business of the month completed.

Mrs. Roebuck gave her report of Presbyterial which was held in the Metropolitan church in Edmonton. In her report she touched on nearly every subject that was discussed during the four days.

The meeting closed with the repeating of the Mizpah. The committee in charge then served a tasty lunch and a social half hour was enjoyed by all.

Princess Anne W. I. Notes

The regular monthly meeting was held at the home of Mrs. A. Scarfe on Friday, April 15th. Mrs. George Mead gave a report on the Home Baking Sale held on April 2nd. The net proceeds were $34.53. Proceeds from two card parties held in the winter added to the amount brought the sum total to $60.00, this to be sent to the Arthritis and Rheumatism Society.

The branch would like to take this opportunity to thank those ladies who are non-members for their kind contributions to the Bake Sale, helping thereby to make it the success it was.

There is to be a collection and packing of warm used clothing to be made on May 15th. Articles are to be sent to the Unitarian Services, for use in Korea.

Topic for the day was on Health. Mrs. Wm. McIntyre read a most interesting biography on Dr. J. E. Salk, entitled "The Man Who Is Whipping Polio."

For Social, our three young visitors, Mildred Scarfe, Mary Ellen McIntyre and Ann Richardson entertained with a sing-song. Thanks girls.

The May meeting will be at the home of Mrs. R. Strome. Mrs. R. Mead and Mrs. R. Reeves to serve.

NEWS from DEWBERRY

The Easter Amateur night sponsored by the local F.U.A. was once again a big success. Upwards of 30 contestants took part, bad roads keeping others at home. We hope to have a complete list of winners next week. The hall was jam packed for the dance which followed and many a weary person was noticed next day.

We extend our sympathy to the families of the late Joe Allen and Steve Carpenter. Mr. Allen, an early pioneer, spent nearly half a century in the district.

A picnic committee meeting of Sub-District F.U.A. locals met in the local hall Monday night to arrange for the large Farmers Day picnic on the second Friday in June. This year it will be held in Marwayne and will feature a big parade, the Dewberry Boys' band, open senior and junior baseball, ladies' and men's open fastball, machinery displays and various races for the children.

What was without doubt the largest number of farmers ever to appear in a Dewberry hall gathered to hear whys and wherefores of the P.F.A.A. The meeting had in attendance Mr. S. S. Rowbotham, General Superintendent and Mr. Muirhead, assistant supervisor in the province. Over 300 farmers took part in what seemed to be mostly on farmers' minds of the last few months. Different resolutions were suggested for changes in the act and we hope to have a full report next week of this meeting.

Roads are very bad in the district due to spring break-up. Just in case you are interested if you feel you have no further use for the country after all the rain and snow you can sign the petition in the Farmers Store asking that we give it back to the natives who had it first!

J. Anderson and Alf Redman attended the Case tractor school at Elk Point on April 13. The new Case Diesel 400 series was thoroughly demonstrated.

Mrs. Stanley Tulloch was a recent visitor to the city at her daughter Charlotte's.

Happy birthday to Richard Parker who had a party for all his little friends on the 18th.

We note some house changes now as Mr. Chodak the Wheat Pool agent has moved into the Gerald Hodgson home now owned by the Pool. Mr. Evans, local garage mechanic, has taken over the former Wheat Pool house.

Honor Dewberry Old Timer

A very pleasant afternoon and evening were enjoyed recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mead of Dewberry when some 40 relatives and friends gathered to celebrate the 84th birthday of Mr. Rena Bowman.

A very delicious supper was served to the guests, there were three roast turkeys including all the trimmings cooked to perfection. There were cakes of all descriptions including three birthday cakes.

This was really a double celebration as it was also the birthday of Arthur Mead, grandson of Mr Bowman and Master Art did have a good time as he had many of his little playmates around his own age to help with the celebration.

Following supper games and cards were played. The guest of honor readily participated in these activities. He is especially good at cards when it comes to this form of entertainment he is very hard to beat for all his 84 years.

The pleasant evening drew to a close with hearty congratulations and best wishes for continued good health and many more happy birthdays.

Mr and Mrs Bowman came to Alberta from Minnesota back in the year 1907. His farm was then 8 miles north of Islay. They later carried on active farming until about eight years ago when he and Mrs. Bowman moved into the village of Dewberry where they now reside.

Mrs. Bowman has passed her 79th birthday and both she and her husband are hale and hearty and go about their affairs in a very efficient manner. In fact Mrs. Bowman still excels at dressmaking and knitting.

Mr and Mrs. Bowman have three daughters, Mrs. R. Braithwaite of Dewberry, Mrs. Frank Mead of Dewberry, Mrs. Hardie Ford of Vermilion and two sons Frank of Dewberry and Durward of Islay. There are 18 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

It will be noted that the members of the family all live fairly close to Mr. and Mrs. Bowman making it a very happy situation indeed.

Shower Bride-Elect At Mannville

MANNVILLE. — On Thursday last, April 14th, a miscellaneous shower was held for Miss Gladys Veitch, a bride to be. In a few well chosen words Mrs. James Goshko presented the gifts to Gladys who responded fittingly, thanking all present and inviting them to visit her in her new home.

After a vocal solo by Ruth Gamble, accompanied by Carol Mercer, and a duet by Ruth and Joyce Gamble, a delicious lunch was served by co-hostesses Rita Goshko, Lucille Hughes, Pat Goltsh, Jean Lugg and Emma Jackson.

LOCALS

George Maggs attended the Calgary Horse Show last week, and while in that city visited those well known old timers, Mr and Mrs. Fred Bull and George. They wish to be remembered to all friends in the Vermilion and Clandonald districts. Fred also wants all the old timers to hand in news items concerning themselves and other old timers to the Standard, as he eagerly scans the home town paper each week for news of his old friends and acquaintances.

Check that date label on your Standard today!

MR. AND MRS. ALAN RAMSAY RUSSELL

UNITED CHURCH IS SETTING FOR RUSSELL-JOHNSON WEDDING

The United church, Vermilion was the setting recently when Miss June Maxine Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Johnson and the late Mr. Oscar Johnson became the bride of Mr. Alan Ramsay Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Russell of Stettler.

Spring flowers banked the altar for the double ring ceremony performed by Rev. C. W. MacKay.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, looked charming in a two-piece floor-length gown of nylon net with Chantilly lace over satin with lilypoint sleeves. Her matching fingertip veil edged with Chantilly lace was draped from a nylon net crown. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Joyce Johnson, sister of the bride and Miss Lorraine Poluschuk attended the bride wearing blue and orchid ballerina-length gowns. Each wore Sweetheart headdresses and carried bouquets of pink and yellow carnations.

Accompanying the groom were his brother Mr. Ian Russell and Mr Walter Lee of Lacombe.

Guests were ushered by Mr Ed Lyons and Mr Dale Carroll to pews marked with bows of white ribbon.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue crepe dress trimmed with lace. Her accessories were pink, with pink roses en corsage.

The groom's mother chose a mauve crepe dress. Her accessories were grey with a corsage of pale pink roses.

Telegrams were read by Mr. Ian Russell from Grandma and Granddad of Vernon, B.C., Alice and Harold Ruskin of Rumsey, Lee and Andy of Edmonton.

Miss Eleanor Evans was in charge of the guest book.

During the signing of the register Mr. Ed Lyons accompanied by Mr. Jack Brown at the organ sang "I'll Walk Beside You".

The wedding reception was held in the Legion hall where a number of guests attended. Mr. Hugh Hagen proposed a toast to the bride.

For travelling the bride changed to a blue knitted suit with pink accessories and pink roses en corsage. The happy couple are making their home in Stettler.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Henry Smith of Rumsey, Alta., grandmother of the groom; Mrs. Bill Lee, Lacombe; Miss Glenda Pierson, Bentley, Alta.; Mr. Carl Holt, Knee Hill Valley; Mr Alvin Black, Bowden; Mrs. Joe Piggott, Edmonton.

"Vic" Composite Rink Wins Jalopy 'Spiel Held At Devon

The play-off for the Jalopy Bon Spiel was held in Devon, Thursday April 24. The "Vic" Composite high rink skipped by Denis St. Laurent with Jim Dennington, Ted Daynes and Gary Pollard being the winners over Cold Lake were presented the keys for the cars.

In the three-way play-off for the cars, Cold Lake met Devon and emerged victorious after being tied up four times, and playing an extra end, won with a miraculous double raise.

The four day Jalopy Bon Spiel held at Devon was attended by 48 rinks from schools throughout the province. The final day Thursday ... thrills with the highest calibre of curling and sportsmanship.

Finalists in the New Devon Motors event were the 'Vic' Composite High of Edmonton against Camrose. The Vic rink with Jim Dennington throwing fourth rocks for skip St. Laurent won over Len Boychuk, Eric Schlass, Doug Raki and Gus Roose of Camrose only after being tied up in the 8th, a blank 9th and in the 10th a spectacular last rock draw to the button, to edge out three opponent counters, will be long remembered. The Bob Hawkins University High rink rated 3rd and Steve Cikaliuk from Vegreville fourth.

In the second event the Cold Lake entry Bert Demeriez, Remi Lirette, Eldin Hill and Ernie Penner won an exceedingly close game which was tied up three times throughout, over the University High rink skipped by Gordon Welch backed by Bill Rudd, Bob Pollock and Rolly Johnson. Motody Ciz of Daysland placed third and Larry Vague of St. Albert 4th.

In the third competition a Devon entry Russ Davidson won a decisive game over Edmonton's Westglen entry headed by Betty Smith. The Millet four skipped by Ray Olesky placed 3rd and Vic Dzurko of Willingdon 4th.

A most enjoyable smorgasbord banquet with E.C.D. Dixies for dessert and free cokes all round was followed by a sing-song and the films of the 1954 Dominion Briar.

The spiel was well run, Devon school students all worked diligently for the successful first all high school invitation Bon Spiel. Len Pasychny and Russ Davidson were given special mention at the banquet.

LOCAL RINK LOSES TO VEG

The local V.H.S. rink skipped by Brent Long with Stewart Cooper, Bob Hemmingway and Duncan Locke won their first two games in the No. 1 event but lost their third to the Vegreville entry by two points.

Married Women Workers Up

Number of married women with jobs continues to increase, in spite, and perhaps partly because of, unemployment, reports The Financial Post. It's estimated 434,000 married women were working early this year, 11% more than year before and 18% more than 1953. About two-thirds more than early post-war.

Net profit for the year amounted to $14,243,319, equal to $9.38 per share, as compared with $20,039,513, equal to $12.07 per share, in 1953. Earnings in 1954 were supplemented by a transfer of $3,000,000 from reserve, making a total credit to income for the year of $17,243,319.

Don't Emulate The Ostrich

Popular but undocumented legend pictures the ostrich as burying its head in the sand when frightened.

But our message today has to do with people — Canadians who act like the ostrich by hiding from reality when for some reason they fear they have cancer. Such individuals fear it, yet delay in consulting a doctor, who might tell them that their apprehension was groundless, or, if they did show symptoms of that disease would immediately do whatever was necessary to arrest its development.

Those who temporize with cancer, tempt death. The only methods recognized as effective against it are radiation and surgery. And to have successful treatment the disease must be attacked when it is in an early, localized stage and most susceptible to cure. Although Cancer Society statisticians estimate that 50 per cent of all cancers can be cured, if treated properly, only one out of three potentially curable sufferers from this malady is being saved.

One of the Cancer Society's three main objectives is to enlighten the public about the whole subject. Its literature, now being circulated all over the country, describes seven common cancer signals that can readily be observed by anyone who knows what to look for. But certain deadly types of cancer curable in a beginning stage can be discovered only through an examination by a doctor.

Yet the Canadian Cancer Society is not content to wage a mere holding action against "mankind's cruelest enemy." Striving for complete victory, it is supporting research which seeks to find new cures conducted in medical and scientific institutions across the country and by top-flight scientists.

The Society's third major activity is service to patients. Drugs, dressings, nursing, and household care are supplied, and thus distress is alleviated, and comfort is given to countless men, women, and children across the land.

That comprehensive program is entirely dependent on public contributions. This community can participate in the crucial fight against cancer by giving generously to the 1955 fund-raising campaign which runs through April.

Meanwhile, don't let unreasoning fear of cancer make you behave like the fabled ostrich. See your doctor for a physical check-up and be on the safe side.

Health Unit Notes

CANCER WHAT IS CANCER?

The human body is made up of millions of tiny cells. Under healthy conditions these cells divide and grow only to produce normal body growth, i.e., increase in size from childhood to adult life and also to replace tissue lost in ordinary wear and tear. In cancer the growth and division of a number of cells 'runs wild' and they grow in a disorderly and uncontrolled manner in some part of the body. Sooner or later some of these cells break off from the original growth and lodge in other parts of the body and there set up secondary growths. There are many types of cancer and each presents its own problems. Cancer occurs mainly in middle-aged and elderly people but no age group is immune; it is about equally divided among males and females.

WHAT CAUSES CANCER?

The exact cause of cancer is unknown although scientists can produce certain types of cancer in animals by using various techniques i.e., the application of chemicals.

There is no evidence that cancer is caused by a germ and so it is not contagious or infectious — there is no evidence of doctors or nurses getting cancer from a patient despite the close contact with them. One type of bone cancer can result from a severe injury, but it is not believed that this applies to other types of tissue. Cancer is not caused by eating refrigerated food, any particular combination of food or using aluminum cooking utensils.

There is a little but no definite evidence that cancer is hereditary; if either one or both of an individual's parents have had cancer he or she should be more alert in looking for suspicious conditions but should certainly not adopt fatalistic attitude. There have been many cases where both mother and father have had cancer but none of their children developed it, many people develop cancer when there has been no evidence of it in their parents.

TREATMENT OF CANCER

Cancer can be cured if treatment is begun early and so diagnosis at the earliest possible stage is important. The treatment is confined to surgery, X-ray and radiation therapy. Home cures such as pills, powders, salves, etc. and advertised sure and secret cures are useless and also dangerous as they can delay proper treatment until it is too late to be of use. It cannot be emphasized too strongly that early diagnosis is essential, so if you have any suspicion that you may have cancer consult your doctor immediately; it must also be remembered that there is absolutely no disgrace in having cancer.

WARNING SIGNALS

The main warning signals of cancer are:

1. Any sore that does not heal.
2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere.
3. Unusual bleeding or discharge.
4. Any change in a wart or mole.
5. Persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing.
6. Persistent cough or hoarseness.
7. Any change in normal bowel habits.

If you become aware of any of these — CONSULT your doctor immediately

WHY YOU SHOULD TREAT SEED GRAIN WITH "CERESAN" SEED DISINFECTANT

Each spring seed and soil-borne diseases, in the form of root-rots, smuts and seedling blights, reduce the yield of the crop you plant. The best and simplest way to protect the seed you plant and ensure maximum yields is to treat your seed grain before planting with "Ceresan" seed disinfectant. "Ceresan" prevents smut in wheat, oats, flax, and covered smut in barley. "Ceresan" protects seed and seedlings from root rots, seedling blights and decay.

"CERESAN" IS A SUPERIOR SEED DISINFECTANT BECAUSE IT PROTECTS SEED IN TWO WAYS:

ON SEED—VAPOUR ACTION

On application, "Ceresan" gives off a highly effective mercury vapour which destroys fungi and bacteria on the surface of the seed and penetrates into cracks and crevices in the seed to give maximum disinfection. This volatile vapour action, in addition to direct contact, enables "Ceresan" to do a superior seed disinfecting job.

IN SOIL—PROTECTIVE FILM

"Ceresan" forms a protective film which protects the seed after planting from the soil-borne fungi which cause seed decay, root-rots and seedling blight. This protection means higher germination and vigorous emergence that results in thicker, stronger stands which produce higher yields.

HOW TO TREAT SEED WITH "CERESAN" SEED DISINFECTANTS

HOME TREATMENT

You can apply "Ceresan" by a hand method or many users prefer to apply it dry in a dust-type automatic treater. If you have a slurry treater, "Ceresan" M2X is especially formulated for simple slurry treating. "Ceresan" is available at your local farm supply store.

COMMERCIAL TREATING

In many localities there is a commercial seed treater who can treat your seed grain. Simply ask him to treat your seed with "Ceresan" M2X or Du Pont Liquid 244 seed disinfectant. He can give you thorough seed protection for a very small cost per bushel.

Islay People Recall Some Early History of District

These days a great deal of early history of Islay is being dug up. Many interesting facts. One was that Islay was called "Island Lake" at first but due to the fact that there was another point by the same name, Duncan Campbell, the superintendent of construction, suggested to some of the residents they change the name. So a Mr. Gilchrist (we think it was Alex) suggested Islay, their old home place in Ontario and which had been named after Islay, Scotland. And so one could go on.

We also learn that Mrs. Lively, a one time resident over in what is now Bridstow district, still remembers the Islay hospital which her sister assisted in founding, as she wrote and sent a gift to the staff at Christmas. We believe she is in the United States.

Mrs. Fyfe returned home after spending a few weeks visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Mooney and family at Prince Albert, and Mrs. Jock McDonald at North Battleford. Mrs. Fyfe reports a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. Geo. Connon is visiting Mrs. Fyfe and the two are really having a visit, both being ardent flower growers.

Today, Tuesday, we learn that Mr. Bowner is ill. We sincerely hope he is fit again soon.

Last week, for one day, Mrs. Dalton Torrance, Mrs. Helen McCaughan, along with Linda Torrance and Grace Schaffer, had a grand holiday in Vermilion. They really did the shops and the children report "a great day."

We are pleased to report Mrs. John Marie home from hospital and fine again.

Noticed Pete Wilkinson delivering good sized loads of wood at different homes in the village.

Mrs. Carey and Norman returned home by car from Ontario where they have been for the last few months due to the death of Mrs. Carey's brother last November.

Mrs. Al Beecroft spent Saturday here, coming down on Friday with Jim Carey and May Carey. May had been in to the city to make application at one of the hospitals to enter as nurse in training.

On Saturday we noticed at the tea in the church, Mrs. McEachern, Mrs. Carey, Catherine and Marie, and Mrs. Beecroft having a real visit at the tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. Muir and Mrs. Bothwell were in Islay Saturday.

The W. A. tea and apron sale was a real success. We are pleased so many patronized it, and to all who helped with materials or time, we say you are most generous. The W. A. are very grateful.

Noticed recently in town, Percy Golby, Russell Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Wilkinson, Lydon Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kutney, of Lloydminster, Ulve and Bill McFadyen. Sid Grout getting water at the town pump; Ralph Anderson trimming down the old maple tree at the end of the street but over the road on his farm. It finally was so badly split by the winds so it is gone now. Archie Chambers buying reading material at the drug store. Bill Hannon hale and hearty. Bob Hannon driving in his little car. And last a big "hello" to all you folk who like to read Islay news and who have lived at Islay some time in the past.

A surprisingly large number of cats received citations of merit and the freedom of such ports as New York, Boston and Baltimore, during the war, for their work in cleaning up rats and mice.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

By JUNE E. KIRK —

Continuing from last week, here are more questions and answers about the Alberta Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics.

What is the cost?

Ans.: The approximate cost is $275 per winter. Money for laundry, transportation and spending is additional to this figure.

What assistance is available?

Ans.: The Department of Agriculture reimburses each student living beyond a 50-mile radius of the school for a return railway fare. There are a number of bursaries and scholarships available to assist students during the first year. A few scholarships and bursaries are also available to aid students during the second year.

Are the courses accepted for high school credits?

Ans.: By taking the basic academic course in high school, students can complete requirements for a high school diploma or for matriculation at one of these schools. 43 high school credits may be earned in the regular two-year course and 22 credits in the two-in-one course.

What about entrance to University?

Ans.: Graduates in agriculture and Home Economics from schools of agriculture may enrol in the course in agriculture or home economics provided they have not less than "B" standing in 70 high school credits including certain constant subjects. The courses offered at the schools of agriculture also help students to decide whether or not they wish to go on for University training. Students who intend to go to University should discuss their plans thoroughly with the principal, as certain changes in the University's requirements will become effective in 1955 and in 1956.

What about older students?

Ans.: Older men and women are most welcome. Throughout the years a number of mature men and women have graduated. Maturity is an advantage and in all cases these older students have made good use of their training. Older youth should also be encouraged to attend these schools.

What do the graduates do?

Ans.: Most of the boys return to their home farms. Some secure employment in various businesses, e.g., buyers or field service men for grain organizations, salesmen, Service Board supervisors, implement agents, creamerymen and hatcherymen. Many girls seek employment for a few years before being married. The addition of typing and employment training to course in home economics will assist girls to get better jobs. Girls obtain such work as clerks, receptionists, dining room clerks, telephone operators, housekeepers etc.

I do hope these two columns have helped you decide what to do next year (And don't forget to tell your brother about the schools of agriculture, too!)

For more detailed information, write to the Vermilion School of Agriculture or to me. I have some pamphlets on the courses offered.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Here are three rules for choosing a good tourist court for the night—and they have not failed me yet.

No. 1: Start looking for a tourist court at least an hour before you are ready to stop driving; if you wait too long you may find yourself with no choice but a bad one.

No. 2: A good tourist court is neat and clean, inside and out. Look for trimmed hedges, clean driveways, freshly painted cabins, a bright office. Inspect the room offered and don't be timid about pulling down bedcovers, checking the linen, mattress and towels. Ask about toilet and shower facilities and actually try the hot water tap.

No. 3: Stand still a moment in the room and listen for traffic noise. If the room is well located and insulated, the roar of speeding cars and grinding truck gears will be but a slight hum. You are paying for a night's rest, so make certain you get it.

And last but not least, by-pass the dingy, run-down motel where most of the cars bear local license plates.

More Graduates

Enrollment in Canadian colleges and universities is 5% higher than it was last year, the second successive annual increase, reports The Financial Post.

This is still about 13% below the postwar peak of 1947-48, but it's enough to demonstrate that the push is on for the universities. For the baby boom of the forties is sure to be the university boom of the 50's.

In engineering and applied science, enrollment is up more than 11%; in arts and pure science 6.5%. Other faculties with increases are agriculture, business administration, dentistry, education, law, music, nursing, physio and occupational therapy, and theology. Fewer students applied for forestry, household science, journalism, library science, medicine, pharmacy, physical education, social services and veterinary science.

One of the most famous cat-and-bird friendships was that between "Caruso", a canary belonging to President Coolidge, and Timmie a cat owned by a Washington newspaperman. Coolidge eventually sent the canary to live with the cat. According to the newsman, the canary died (presumably happy) while singing to the cat.

Clandonald Mourns The Passing Of Four Pioneers Of District

During the past few weeks four long time residents whose faces were familiar around Clandonald, have passed on. Mr. Ed Pierce, Mr. Joe Allan and Mr. Santford De Ford had all resided in the districts adjacent to Clandonald for many years. Friends of the family of Mrs. Fred Douglas Sr. were shocked to hear of her sudden passing on Monday of last week. Mrs. Douglas had appeared to be in good health and had attended the Allan funeral a few days previously. To the families of the deceased we extend deepest sympathy at this time of their great sorrow.

FAREWELL FOR MR. AND MRS. DICK GOAD

Wednesday evening March 30th following the sale, a party was held in the Orange hall for Mr. and Mrs. Dick Goad who plan to make their future home in Edmonton. Following a few hours dancing and a tasty lunch a purse was presented by Mr. Hugh Hagen to the departing couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Goad have lived practicaly all their lives in this district having spent the past 15 years or so in Clandonald.

Tom Stockwell is now operating the oil, gas and emergency repair service having purchased the garage building. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kirwin have now taken up residence in the former Goad house which Jim purchased at the sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete McCormick from Niton were in attendance at the sale and get together and accompanying them from Edmonton was Mrs. Lily Elliott. Both Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. McCormick are sisters of Mrs. Goad.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Lloyd and three small children were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hagen during the holiday week. Mrs. Lloyd, better known around here as Donalda Hagen was making her first visit to her former home since the family left almost ten years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Cunningham and son Glen are back after a fairly successful winter spent in a lumber camp in the Edson district.

Quite a large crowd attended the Easter Monday dance in the Orange hall sponsored by the ladies of the Anglican church W.A. Miss Kathleen McCormick was lucky ticket holder on the combination waffle iron and toaster.

Congratulations to Mickey Mulgrew for his success at the Vermilion Old Time Fiddlers contest. A few days later winning numbers were broadcast from the Camrose radio station.

Also congrats to Homer Campbell and Jack Cross for their success with their Herefords at the Saskatoon Cattle show.

SHOWER BRIDE-ELECT

Wednesday afternoon a shower was held in Clandonald in honor of Eileen Stockwell whose wedding will take place shortly. After a program of games, vocal numbers and lunch, Eileen was presented with many beautiful and useful gifts. Acting the part of the miniature bride and groom were Beverly Coulter and Clayton Forsyth. Another shower is planned to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mick Convey Sunday evening.

P.F.A.A. PAYMENTS

P.F.A.A. payments have been received by farmers in this township but apparently seven sections are being left out. Much dissatisfaction is being expressed over the system of payments and on Friday a meeting was held at Dewberry for the purpose of discussing the workings of the scheme with officials from Edmonton.

Motor Fatalities In Alberta Number 43 In 1955

During the first three months of this year, 43 deaths have resulted from motor accidents, according to a summary compiled from reports received by the Alberta Safety council. In the same period of last year 41 deaths occurred on Alberta streets and highways.

The cumulative total for the first quarter reveals 863 persons injured in motor vehicle accidents. This was an increase of 55 over a year ago.

On the other hand, there was a reduction in motor accidents. The total for the 3-month period was 4,430 which was down 31 from the similar quarter of 1954.

For the month of March only the accident total was 1,128 which was 26 above the year ago figure. Of this aggregate the R.C.M.P. reported 600 in Alberta towns and rural districts, a gain of 9. Edmonton showed 410 accidents compared with 363 for March of last year. The 295 reported by Calgary was a drop of 31. Medicine Hat 29 an increase of 6, Lethbridge 51, decrease of 3.

Jasper Place, Alberta's largest town, reported 12 accidents, double the number for March of last year while the total of 29 for other Alberta towns was a drop of 8.

Fatalities in motor accidents during March numbered 11 which was one more than March 1954. The R.C.M.P. reported 6 in towns and rural districts while Edmonton and Calgary each had two and Lethbridge one. A year ago Edmonton had two fatalities for the month and Calgary one.

Injuries to persons as the result of motor accidents in March numbered 280, 23 in excess of March last year. Of this total there were 143 in towns and rural areas compared with 116 in the same month of last year.

Edmonton's total soared from 47 to 64 and Calgary rose from 28 to 41. Medicine Hat was even with a year ago with 5 cases while Lethbridge dropped from 7 to 3.

The World of Wheat

By W. G. MALAHER,
Director, Research Department,
Searle Grain Co. Ltd.

GRADING OF CANADA'S GRAIN

It is interesting to note that Canada's grain grading system is frequently the subject of favorable comment abroad.

Only recently, at a Farm Congress held in Kansas, one of the speakers, a milling scientist, emphasized that U.S. wheat is meeting resistance in foreign markets, largely because of variable quality, even in shipments that carry the same U. S. grade. He suggested that one of the chief troubles was the grading system itself. U.S. standard wheat grading regulations having been practically unchanged since 1916. Nor had there been any attempt to characterize wheat according to milling and baking qualities. He added that many European buyers are looking to Canada for wheat and unless the U.S.A. improves its grading system and at the same time farmers there grow a better quality wheat, it will become increasingly hard to sell wheat on a competitive basis in foreign markets.

It is no secret that Canada's grading system and the high standards of quality which have been so carefully drawn up and so rigidly maintained by the Board of Grain Commissioners for Canada are recognized and acclaimed the world over. It is these high standards which enable customers in distant lands to buy with confidence a certain grade of wheat or other grain.

Our grading system therefore is something that we should guard jealously. It has made for the efficient marketing of our grain in the past and it will continue to serve this very useful purpose in the future, both at home and abroad.

THOUGHT CONTROL

I think it is time that somebody took the newspaper boys in the press gallery at Ottawa to task. It seems to me that anyone of these reporters who is receiving fees to broadcast on the government radio system or the government television system, should make that fact clear when sending out news releases to the papers employing him. Readers have a right to know that the expressions of many of these men are the expressions of paid hands of the government. Publishers with reporters in Ottawa covering the news should know whether these reporters are receiving government money and if they are that fact should be stated under the reporter's by line. This would give the reader a chance to assess the objectivity of the report.

It seems to me that the plums passed around by the CBC in the way of rewards for broadcasts and television shows account in no small degree for the uniformly favorable news distribution made on behalf of the government by some of these men. Those who criticize the government seem to appear very rarely, but those who have praise for the government and its various departments become top men on the nation's television and radio totem poles.

Citizens anxious to know what news is reported honestly and objectively may try to find out how much the government system pays these news reporters. They have no luck. The CBC stubbornly refuses to tell how much they pay in fees to these individuals. Surely this is a disgraceful state of affairs.

Without a free press most of us agree that this country would be in a bad way. How long will the press be considered free if a majority of Ottawa reporters receive more in the way of fees from a government agency than they do from their own publisher? How long will the public retain any faith in the objectivity of the daily papers when they know that the men who write the news they read receive thousands of dollars annually from a government agency?

Wages and salaries amounted to $48,517,140, which was $10,607,266 less than in 1953.

Letters to the Editor

Islay, Alta., Apr. 18, 1955,
The Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion, Alberta.

To the Editor:

May I again, Mr Editor, humbly beg for more space in your valued paper? Since 'Born in Islay' seems to be prouder of his opinions than of his name, I have no other means of communication with him other than through the columns of your paper.

His second letter follows the same general pattern as the first, repeating former statements with little factual basis and his favorite 8.8 patient attendance at the Islay hospital as well as the $16,000 saving promised the ratepayers.

In his fourth paragraph where he compares himself with a sitting duck I do feel that he scored a bullseye. He was thinking of a Mallard, no doubt, when he made this very fitting comparison. One of the natural habits of the Mallard is to sit in the tall grass without revealing its whereabouts or identity and quack, quack, quack loud and long about nothing.

With regard to the night school idea I'll go along with that or better still let us save the ratepayers some more money and form a mutual assistance pact. He can help me line up my decimals and I will help him arrange his prepositions.

On the speed question. I had hoped that after the quick trips he made to Lloyd and Vermilion in his last letter that this much-travelled individual would have learned a little about time and distance. But no such luck in this letter a boy passes him doing about 120 m.p.h. for a mile or so, and on the complete trip clipped a full five minutes off the record established in the first letter. That trip did make a man of the boy though, as [illegible] later he had become one of Islay's leading business men. My only hope of ever topping that one is to say that, I believe every word of it. Nuff sed'

In a more serious vein Mr Editor, I think that our friend has some rather distorted views on what constitutes statistical data. Webster defines statistics as "a systematic compilation of instances for the inference of general truths". This definition certainly does not condone the writer's act of pilfering isolated figures from their areas of relativity and using them to create an air of authority for his personal opinions. And that is exactly what he has done, chosen two isolated and unrelated figures at random, held them up for public ridicule (he hopes) and concludes that they prove his pet theory ... that the Islay hospital should be closed.

In the field of comparison, it might interest our friend to know that in 1951-52 the Islay hospital operated at 90% of maximum rated capacity and in the same year 41 of the 51 Municipal hospitals in Alberta had a lower percentage. On a three year average Islay was 25th among 51 reporting.

Further for a three-year period we averaged 1154 patient days per nurse employed ... 17 of 35 Municipal hospitals reporting that year [illegible].

In the field of costs, Islay hospital in four consecutive years was 14th out of 35 in the first two and 38th out of 51 in the last two years of hospitals reporting. In cost range comparison.

These figures would appear to indicate one thing: That Islay hospital is an average Alberta hospital, operating at average cost, having the average number of hospital days per nurse, serving the average number of patients per rated capacity in comparison with all other municipal hospitals. Furthermore it is the only hospital in Alberta or anywhere else for that matter, that has consistently through the year supplied service including all extras for $1 per day.

In my time on the board it has taken the municipal requisition to pay salaries and wages. So with earnings from patient days we have paid for food, fuel, power, linens, drugs, housekeeping supplies (there are over 300 items of these lines alone on a hospital inventory) maintenance to the buildings, and equipment in excess of depreciation; supplied transfer patient services to larger hospitals since 1942, built and furnished a $10,000 nurses' home, installed a $2500 sterilizer, completely rebuilt the hot water heating system and the plumbing system at a cost of some $2400, did $800 worth of new wiring, built a 250-barrel cistern, a garage, replaced the water [illegible] and pressure system, installed a deep freeze and I notice from the minutes that we had $10,533 in the bank at the end of March 1955. To say the least those 8.8 patients surely did their stuff for us.

In closing Mr Editor, I would like to thank you for your patience and generosity in publishing my correspondence. I hope that in some small way I have succeeded in focusing the attention of the interested public on this issue. I will admit that I do feel slightly burned up when people who probably were never in the Islay hospital in their lives sit back and snipe at a public service which they know little or nothing about. I also confess that I do not understand the motives of individuals who drive many miles and spend many hours getting names on a petition in an effort to close this hospital when they own land in another hospital district and can attend there for $1.50 per day any time that they please, and always could even though they are not resident. It looks to me like carrying the missionary urge too far.

Yours very truly,
T. D. Inman.

Editor, Vermilion Standard.
Dear Sir:

Boy what an uproar to cause by just asking politely for a general meeting of the hospital district. Little did I think it was such a sin to ask for a meeting where ratepayers could find out and discuss what is ailing in our hospital set-up and maybe find a solution and make everybody happy. I have travelled over a big part of the district and almost everybody agrees that there is something the matter otherwise the hospital could not accommodate the district.

It seems odd that in a democracy any municipal council or hospital board which were asked in a general meeting of municipal ratepayers and carried by a good majority that they would refuse such a request. It does not seem the right place to discuss hospital affairs in a municipal meeting as there are several hospitals in the municipal district but it is the only place where anything can be asked, and there seems nobody obliged to answer anything at that meeting.

The hospital board have used every possible excuse for not calling such a meeting, and the municipal council don't appear to care anything about what is passed at their annual meeting although it's quite within their power to call such a meeting.

Nevertheless, their is still enough people who are not afraid to voice their opinion and give enough of their time to force such a meeting if at all possible. These people are working under difficult road conditions and under a time deadline, so you people who believe there is no harm in a meeting should co-operate in every way.

I am not wishing to see the hospital closed if there are people who want it open but I do believe that people should have a choice of hospitals and doctors within the municipality and through their own family doctors, a chance to use the specialists in bigger city hospitals.

Many of the people I have talked to have good ideas and should have a chance to voice them.

If there was co-operation with the board and people could get together we could keep all the hospitals, use them for what purpose they are best suited and if people feel they want more than one doctor's opinion let them get it and use the best equipment in the municipality. I know some of these ideas are out of the board's hands altogether, but a strong representation at a meeting could have a lot of influence higher up than the board.

Maybe Mr. Inman and "Born in Islay" could put on a mud-slinging competition, just for entertainment to draw the crowd if the hot air hasn't dried up all the mud by that time.

Well, here's hoping to see you all at a general meeting in the near future.

Thanking your Mr. Editor, for your space.

Yours truly,
Robert Galloway.

Work of Laymen In The Church

"The Church is not an end in itself, it is rather a means to an end," R. E. Bisset, civil engineer and elder in Knox church, St. Catharines, Ont., said in an address at the great Pre-Assembly Congress held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Toronto. Mr. Bisset was speaking on the subject: "The work of laymen in the Church".

"The Church", Mr. Bisset said, "is much like a hospital. It is a place for healing the spirits of men and restoring their spiritual energies. It is intended as a place to renew and build up."

As means of assisting the church, he urged laymen to give support to their local church by attending the services regularly; by giving of their substance, time and talents. He urged that they take an interest in and give support to the church as a whole so that it can play its proper part in the extension of God's kingdom on earth. He also suggested the exercise of Christian faith in daily work and in business so that example may influence others and lead them to the path of "Christian inquiry".

To do these things, he pointed out, requires a knowledge of and interest in all matters regarding the church. This can be obtained by meeting with various church groups and participating in the work being done.

He told an interesting story of a four-day conference which he attended in February 1952 in Buffalo. The meeting was called by Christian laymen to discuss methods of applying their faith in daily work and business. In attendance, he said, were over 300 delegates, all laymen, from different communions and religious groups in Canada and the United States. The gathering was made up of labor leaders, educators, business men, farmers, government workers, scientists, students, factory and office workers and a small handful of clergy.

Various phases of life were discussed in group meetings and he said that out of the gathering came the conviction that "we have been working too much for ourselves and not enough for God and our fellow man".

"In fact", he continued, "we have often worked without even trying to relate our work to God's will and plan or relying on Him for power. No job can bear its best fruit whether on the farm, at the office, in the factory, in the home, or wherever we are working, unless our work is done with the feeling that God stands at our work with us. When He is with us there is honor, dignity and spiritual value in every job no matter how small."

He then told of attending the 6th annual meeting of the National Council of Presbyterian Men in the United States, at the Palmer House in Chicago. Theme of the meeting was "Thy kingdom come ... on earth."

More than 2000 men attended and addresses were delivered by laymen and clergy. The keynote address was by Dr. R. S. Clements who pointed out that the Reformed Church is not controlled by clergy. The laymen have so large a share in ordering its affairs. The Church is not merely an organization, rather it is a family, a living, vital, throbbing, moving, stirring, growing witnessing group of persons forming a basis of resistance against the secularism of the day, and a line of advance along freedom's battlefront.

Mr. Bisset said, quoting from another address, "that it is not necessary to be an educated man or a trained man to witness for Christ. The disciples who founded the early church had no formal training at all but they had an intimate knowledge of Christ's great love through their personal association with Him."

The speaker told how Canadian laymen are arranging for speakers and helping to supply vacant charges in areas where there is a shortage of ministers. They are taking part in canvasses and visitations and assisting in church extension in various ways: giving advice in finance, insurance and many other problems in which the layman is particularly trained in private life.

He said there are innumerable ways in which laymen can assist in the work of the church and he urged those in attendance to go back to their home town and look around their own church for activities in which they can assist.

"The Church needs every one of you now," he said.

For the first time since the war farm land has declined in price, on average in Canada, reports The Financial Post. Average price is estimated at $20 an acre for 1954, compared with $21 the year before.

Lower values are reported for the Prairies and each of Maritime provinces except Nova Scotia, which gained one cent. Rest of provinces show higher values.

Cattle Spraying Displays Set For This Year

E. H. Buckingham, District Agriculturist, wishes to announce that on May 6th R. H. Painter, Livestock Insect Liaison Officer, of Lethbridge will visit certain districts of spraying cattle for warbles and lice control at Lloydminster and Mannville.

The Lloydminster meeting will be held at 3 p.m. on Wednesday at the Union stockyards. The Mannville meeting is arranged for 7:00 p.m. the same day at Gamble's Auction Market.

A new type of dust purpose sprayer will be used, results of spraying both weeks and cattle will be used in the demonstrations.

Mr. Painter is no stranger to this area as he was one of the main speakers at the Provincial Beef Clinic Course held at Vermilion and at Lloydminster last winter. He will have useful information for farmers in the control of insects affecting cattle.

Mr. Buckingham states that warbles and lice have caused big losses to cattle raisers in this area during the past few years. He advises that this is a good opportunity for farmers to see the different type of sprayers now being used for control of these pests.

Record for Longevity

Mr. Raymond Mercier, a farmer of Islay, returned home last week from visiting for several months with his mother, Mrs. F. X. Mercier at Desjardins, Lake Temiscamingue. Mrs. Mercier had reached the age of 102 and still is in full possession of all her faculties, quite unimpaired, while he was there, seven of her children were present. There are over seventy years of age. Of the seven, five reside in Quebec, Raymond of Islay, and one daughter lives in the United States.

BROWNIES TO SELL COOKIES

The Brownies will be selling Girlie cookies starting on Monday, first week. The cookies are 30 cents a package and very good value. They are extra pushers or two and so help the Brownies and their organization.

Change In School Noon Hour

The noon recess at Vermilion town schools will revert to the usual hour and a half, commencing May 2nd. School will be dismissed at 12 noon as usual but will not recommence until 1:30 p.m. instead of 1:00 p.m. as during the past winter months.

Among other considerations, the longer noon hour recess was made necessary because of the commencement of home economics and shop classes at the college, the long walk from the east end of town to the V.R.A. being impossible in the one hour. School athletes will also commence training for the school division track meet and the longer noon hour gives the young people from the country who come in on the busses, a chance to take part in games and other activities of the schools.

The local school board held their organization meeting Tuesday evening with Mr. D. Taylor being re-elected to his usual office of chairman and Ashley H. Cooper being appointed secretary. The two new members of the Board, Claude N. Brennan and Ernest Schurman signed the oaths of office. The fifth member of the board is Wm. L. Reebock. Meetings will be held the third Tuesday at 8:00 p.m.

Red Shield Appeal Opens May 9th

The Salvation Army's Red Shield Appeal committee for Vermilion and district have now completed their plans for the 1955 appeal according to information given the Standard by Major M. Bristow and Bar. Capt. F. N. Hill, in charge of operations here.

Chairman of the Vermilion committee is Mr. Albert Hareuther who announces his hopes for a ready response to the appeal which begins on Monday, May 9th. A canvass will be made of the business section of town, with a tag day to follow.

Anyone who wishes, may leave donations for the appeal with Mr. T. E. McPherson, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

Formation Of Mitchell Bombers Will Fly Over Vermilion Sunday Afternoon

A formation of Mitchell bombers from the Edmonton RCAF reserve squadron will fly over Vermilion Sunday afternoon, on a week-end navigation exercise. 418 City of Edmonton Squadron is a unit of Tactical Air Command. It's a tactical striking force, organized to work at low levels in close support of the army or navy. Radar and radio aids to navigation so helpful to long-range strategic bombers operating at high altitudes are not so effective at the low levels where tactical bombers fly. Tactical navigation still find useful old-fashioned things like rivers, canals, roads and railroads. For navigation training on Sunday, the squadron will fly down the C.N.R. main line from Edmonton to Chauvin, then cross over to Lloydminster, and back up the Vermilion line. It is expected that the bomber formation will cross over Vermilion about 2:30 p.m.

The planes are manned by civilians who fly with the reserve air force on Thursday nights and Sunday afternoons. The squadron commander, Wing Commander Johnny Flint, is a prize; by trade. The operations officer who planned Sunday's operation is Squadron Leader Owen Cornish, a dentist. Wing Commander Flint points out that while the squadron is named for the city of Edmonton and is based there, it actually belongs to all Northern Alberta.

Traveller Drops Dead In Town Tuesday

Albert Foster, aged 40 years, a traveller for a dry goods company, died suddenly of a heart attack in the Brunswick hotel on Tuesday afternoon this week about 3:30.

Mr. Foster was returning to his home in Edmonton. The previous night he had been quite ill while at Lloydminster. He was on his way home on Tuesday and stopped in Vermilion for lunch and in the hope that he could find someone to drive him into the city. He was taken with an attack however in the lobby of the hotel and succumbed almost immediately.

The body was taken to Edmonton for burial.

Mr Foster is survived by his wife and three small children.

Honored at Agricultural Society Dinner April 21

The Vermilion Agricultural Society scored another success with its annual dinner in St. Saviour's hall on Thursday evening last; ladies of St. Saviour's Women's Auxiliary lived up to their well known reputation and served a delightful turkey dinner. The evening was arranged in honor of the Vermilion district livestock enthusiasts who had repeated past performances in bringing further distinction to the Vermilion district, each of the ten so honored having won either a Championship or a Reserve Championship at one of the major Western Canada spring shows in Calgary Edmonton and Saskatoon.

Tribute was also paid during the evening to the 25 young district farmers and their wives who are taking part in the Farm and Home Improvement competition sponsored by the Agricultural Society and which has proved so successful in the past two years. This competition is unique in that those taking part are not in competition with others but are striving towards the betterment of the farm and the home by setting an objective and endeavoring to achieve the ultimate towards reaching the established target. The Vermilion Agricultural Society is pioneering this type of effort in Alberta along with a few others and is the only E Class fair in the province to have undertaken the interesting project.

The Farm and Home Improvement competition is under the direct supervision of Mr. E. H. Buckingham, District Agriculturist, ably assisted by Messrs. Loyal Amos and R. K. Chalmers of the staff of the Veterans Land Act and Miss Jane Kirk, District Home Economist at Wainwright. Much of the success of the 'competition' is attributed to the keen interest and effective promotion of the above named agricultural specialists. During the evening Mr F. H. Newcombe, Director of Extension for the Provincial Department of Agriculture, directed a few well chosen remarks to those taking part in the Farm and Home competition.

E. M. Stewart, President of the Agricultural Society, presided at the meeting and in his opening remarks outlined the extensive program already arranged or in process of arrangement for the celebration of the 50th Anniversary Exhibition to be held at Vermilion on July 28, 29 and 30. Mr. Stewart noted that this will be the 50th exhibition and that at no time in that period has Vermilion Fair ceased its efforts to promote better agriculture in this area. He called attention to the essay competition to be completed by April 30th when pupils of all schools have an opportunity of submitting essays titled "What I think is a good Fair" Fair might do to fittingly mark its 50 years of community service. Prizes are being given for the best essays and it is hoped that a large number will be received. Mr Stewart went on to outline the grand parade which will open the opening day of the fair the re-enactment of a 'Pioneers Cabin', the erection of a Memorial Grandstand in operation, it is hoped, with the Vermilion Amateur Athletic Association, the presentation of Senior C.I.P. on arrolls to more than 100 pioneer district residents by Miss Norma John J. ## On Monday, May 2 — One of Best Displays

18th and 19th Century English Watercolors to be Exhibited, Dewberry

A collection of 18th and 19th century English watercolor paintings will be exhibited in the Dewberry high school on Monday May 2. The exhibit will open at 8:00 p.m. and the admission will be a silver collection. The display is being sponsored by the Dewberry Grade 7 and 8 Hobby Class.

About fifty paintings will be on display. Most of the paintings will be portraits and landscapes. Among the outstanding painters of this period the following are included: Richard Parks Bonnington, John Sell Cotman, David Cox, Paul Sandby Munn and Greenaway (known for her delightful illustrations). Berket Foster, Thomas Girtin, William Hunt, Dr. Thomas Monro, Paul Sandby Munn and J. W. Turner.

The majority of artists whose works are seen in this collection served their apprenticeship with Masters of the drawing and paint ing crafts and from there turned to teaching or commercial art for their livelihood. Some established themselves as professional painters and some were fortunate to secure the patronage of the Duke of Aristocracy and thus were free to practice in comparative security.

The artists of the 18th century, whose paintings will be displayed, were pioneers. They had to manufacture their own paints and find suitable paper on which to paint. This was the period when artists were first getting acquainted with nature and turning to landscape for inspiration. It was also there first attempt to capture colors in the open air. Previously color was used as a tint or wash. It was not later Paul Sandby Munn and others gave the pigments 'body' without the paint losing its transparent quality and thus made it possible to draw with the brush and at the same time create an illusion of depth.

Denham Brooky in the Calgary Herald calls this exhibition "one of the finest in Canada and such works should be made available to the public so that everybody can en-

VERMILION PARK FOR USE OF EVERYONE—

That the lake in the Vermilion Park, already utilized in season by picnic parties, bathers, fishermen and boaters, will come in for even greater use this coming summer is indicated by the fact that F.U.A. locals are planning a giant picnic there to celebrate Farmers' Day. For such an event the lake and its accompanying facilities are ideal. How much more enjoyable a picnic is at a lovely spot with the conveniences of camp kitchens, picnic tables, bathing houses, clean beach and handy boat and swimming piers as provided at the Vermilion Park lake.

In the future the park now being developed can be visualized as the site for regular camps of youth organizations and it is quite possible that before long permanent camp buildings may be set up there by groups interested.

Such a spot as the Vermilion Park gives all the advantages of the great outdoors, with all the conveniences provided, and with no road or supply problems such as frequently encountered at more distant lakes.

The Vermilion lake and park belong to everyone and it is the desire of those responsible for developing this inviting recreational spot that the most use possible be made of it by everyone — individuals, groups, clubs and organizations. It is your park — enjoy it.

DENTAL HEALTH RULES

The fairy godmother who rewards a youngster for placing a tooth under his pillow at night may be doing the child grave harm. If a first tooth is removed or lost too soon, serious dental troubles can result.

The adjacent teeth may "drift" toward the opening left by the lost tooth, causing the succeeding permanent teeth to appear in the wrong place.

The unhappy result may be a severe case of highly irregular second teeth and an unsightly appearance. In order to avoid this faulty tooth alignment, dentists will sometimes recommend use of a space maintainer when certain primary teeth are lost prematurely.

The belief that a child's first teeth are not important "because they will fall out anyway" has produced much damage to both teeth and appearance.

From the standpoint of general health, a child cannot chew his food properly and thoroughly with decayed teeth or if teeth are missing or badly out of [illegible].

The child's first visit to the dentist should come when all his first teeth have appeared, usually between the ages of two and three.

This visit should not be deferred until the youngster needs [illegible] treatment. It should be [illegible] and free from discomfort and it is on this occasion that the dentist and the child can become good [illegible].

If your child can be given a happy introduction to dental care and proper dental habits, you will be helping him overcome one of the principal diseases of mankind.

These are the basic rules for good dental health for children.

1. A balanced nutritious diet low in sweets.
2. Proper use of the toothbrush immediately after eating.
3. Early detection and treatment of dental ills to prevent more serious disease later.
4. Routine consumption of fluoridated water or, in the absence of fluoridated water supplies, the application of fluoride periodically to the child's teeth.

Except in rare cases, there is little reason why children cannot be assured a substantial measure of good dental health throughout their lives.

WHEAT CLUB DANCE

The Vermilion Wheat club put on a very enjoyable old time dance on April 22 at the Legion hall. There were 175 people, young and old, out to support the club in their second effort this year to hold a social dance. President Ray Armstrong of the Wheat club and his committee wish to thank everyone and especially members of other 4-H clubs for coming out last Friday evening.

The club regrets to lose Club Leader George Braithwaite who will soon be leaving for his farm at Red Deer.

MEETING AT MANNVILLE

The Mannville Barley and Calf clubs met at the municipal room on April 22. Josie McDonald conducted the meeting in place of the president, Bill Thompson, who was late.

The Barley club arranged to get [illegible] Jim Bennett for [illegible] the members who found their barley was too low in germination to sow in their plots.

Committees were appointed to direct the building of a Thematic display and to make plans for a float for the Jubilee parade at the Vermilion Fair. Jack Bryden has offered his six-horse Clydesdale team to pull this float in the procession. After the meeting quite a number of members attended the Wheat club dance at Vermilion.

TURKEY CLUB MEETING

On Thursday there was a lot of activity around the D.A. office. The Turkey club members were in to get their turkey poults. Each member gets 10-day old turkeys which they raise and bring in to the turkey club show and auction sale in December. The members took out 225 poults which will add considerably to the festive season next Christmas.

Gordon Johnson, poultry inspector for this area was on hand to give the young turkey raisers a little instruction in getting the poults started.

ISLAY WHEAT CLUB

Club Leader McLean had almost a full attendance at the April meeting of the Islay Wheat club. Ken Gunn, the new president handled his first meeting in fine style. Mr. Buckingham, D.A., addressed the meeting on grain club work.

It was decided to prepare a thematic display for the Vermilion Fair.

Registered seed for new club members will be distributed right away.

ATTENTION, F.U.A. LOCALS

The president and the secretary or any two members of F.U.A. locals within the Vermilion area, are asked to attend a meeting at the office of the district agriculturist Vermilion, on Saturday, April 30 at 2:30 p.m. to discuss plans for a F.U.A. picnic on Farmers' Day, June 10, in the Vermilion park.

NEWS from ISLAY

Spring is here — but our great fall of snow almost drove it away. The birds were having a bad time and many flocked in to the trees here for shelter.

The coast winter dwellers have been returning along with the birds. Mr and Mrs. John McKnight of Irwinville arrived with the snow last Tuesday, April 19.

The youngsters have revived the old game of 'Jacks' and marbles seem to have disappeared. Horseback riding we note is becoming popular again. Some find the horse's back quite slippery and as a result just can't stick on — one little girl just slipped off, who?

We are sorry to report Mrs. Dave Martin and Mrs. Henry Olds as patients in the University hospital. Sincere wishes are expressed for their early return to health and home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Young were callers at the Anderson home Monday.

Property changed hands this past week. Mr. Machell, Tolland, has purchased Mrs. Robert Martin's house. We are glad to see an empty house occupied and welcome the Machell family.

On Friday night April 29 Mr. Jas. Smith, the S.C. candidate for the Battle River-Camrose riding will speak [illegible] the hall. Hon. Mr. Aalborg is expected too.

Noticed Charlie Hanna coming to town by team and wagon. Jack McNeeley came on horseback. The roads have been very bad.

We saw Mrs. Bill Hanna whom we hadn't seen for a long time, also Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wiley and Alvin in town too this week.

May 8th is Mother's Day, or now being called "Family Day". It is hoped whole families will attend the special service at 11 a.m. and the family sit-together. You are very welcome.

Toronto Man Guest Speaker At Mannville Function

MANNVILLE. — More than 200 attended the Livestock Educational evening sponsored by Swift Canadian Ltd. on Tuesday evening, April 19 in the Orange hall here. Two films were shown, the first on Democracy and the other, 'Beef on the Move'. This last showed the meat from the farms, to the packing plant, through it right on to the meat markets or the locker plants. No beef is kept more than three days in the plant.

Mr Donald Allanach, local buyer for Swifts, introduced Mr. Allan Olson of the Swine Department, Edmonton, who in turn introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Mr. Stan Medland of the Agricultural Research Depratment of Swift Canaidan Co., Toronto. Mr. Medland gave a very interesting and enlightening talk on products and byproducts of the meat industry. There is a use for everything — Believe it or not! Pigs tails which were formerly shipped to the far east have now found a market in Eastern Canada. They are delicious pickled (and you eat them as you would play a mouth organ). Mr. Medland also spoke on the refrigeration of meats.

To complete the evening a smorgasbord lunch of all kinds of Swift's meats was served with pickles and coffee. During this time a question period brought out many and varied questions and answers.

Plain Talk

from—

DR. F. MacNEILL SMITH

Liberal Candidate

This is the first of a series of short articles presenting Liberal policy and my own platform to the people of the Battle River-Camrose Federal Constituency.

This is primarily an agricultural constituency and the farmer is by far the most important man in the area. One of the most significant national changes in the past twenty years has been the drop in farm population. In the 1931 census, 37% of the total population of Canada resided on farms. In 1951, it had dropped to 20%. Young people are leaving the farm, and the chief reason is easy to find. It is the large expenditure required to establish a young man on a farm of his own.

Not long ago, the Searle Grain Co. sent a questionnaire to their agents in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, to find the average cost of purchasing a fully-equipped farm and half-section of land. It came to $34,804.

My proposal is that federal legislation be enacted to do for the young farmer what National Housing has done for the young man building a home. I am proposing long-term, low interest, federally guaranteed loans, with a reasonable down payment, for the purpose of establishing young men on equipped farms. These proposals I will discuss in more detail in platform appearances throughout the constituency. I feel that the proposal is of vital interest to farmers, indeed to national welfare, and I am confident that, advocated by a Liberal member, it will be given sympathetic consideration by the government.

Junior Choir To Render Concert At United Church Next Month

Something new in concerts as far as Vermilion is concerned is to take place sometime in May. It is a concert of secular music by the United church Junior Choir. The choir consists of twenty-three girls, ranging in age from 12 to 16 years. They are under the direction of Jack Brown and will present solos, trios and quartettes as well as numbers by the full choir.

Among the numbers to be presented is "Neapolitan Nights", an old favorite of many, and "One Fleeting Hour" also an old favorite. They will also sing "The Night Wind," a song which requires very delicate shading in order to be presented correctly.

The time and place of this event will be announced in a later issue of The Standard. So keep a lookout for it — it is bound to please.

BASEBALL PRACTISE SUNDAY

Weather permitting there will be a senior baseball practise at the ball park on Sunday morning at 10:30 a.m. All players, old and new, are asked to turn out.

WILDMERE WINKS

No Winks last week as the writer was sick in bed with the mumps. This is the third time so should be done with them. Mumps are still prevalent throughout the [illegible]. Kenny Graham, George, [illegible] Allister, Kathleen and Wendy Cruthers, Adam Smith Jr., Sylvia Steele, Jean Seal, Winston Green and Elnora Donily all have been victims of mumps lately.

The writer and husband attended the Vimy dance where a good crowd and a good time was enjoyed.

Our deepest sympathy goes to Mr. Hind of Kitscoty on the loss of a loving wife. They lived for a good number of years in the Hindville district.

We were deeply shocked to see in the paper that Mr. Santford De Ford had passed away. We knew nothing of his funeral until seeing the item in the Standard. Our sympathy goes out to his brother Charlie of Trochu and other sorrowing relatives. One by one the old timers who opened up the west are passing on to their well-earned rest.

CURLERS HOLD BANQUET

Wildmere Curling club held their annual banquet at the Basswood school on Friday, April 15th with a nice attendance. A lovely buffet style supper was enjoyed. A short program and speeches by the President Ray Osterberg on the activity of the year, and by the skips of the different rinks were given. The cup was presented to Cliff Cruthers and his rink for winning the most games. The junior girls who curled this winter, Janet Cruthers, Hazel Whitlock, Doreen Martin and Mary Gibson gave some good songs during the evening. Later the floor was cleared and a few hours of dancing enjoyed. Albert Smith, John Wilson and Baillie Holte furnished the music. It brought to a close a very pleasant and successful winter of curling at our local rink. The Tolland boys are thinking strongly of building a rink of their own. Wildmere will be very sorry to lose these happy and jolly curlers but hope if they do get their own rink they will not forget to come over and visit Wildmere once in a while. A lunch and God Save the Queen brought the evening to a close.

Wasn't that some snow storm for this time of year? On May 3, 1934 Laurence Graham and Bob Martin went to a dance at Tolland with a team and cutter and it was good sleighing! Quite a lot of seeding had been done that spring before the storm.

Congrats to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sweeney of Thorncliffe district on the birth of a son April 17.

Mr and Mrs. W. Ford of Vermilion visited with their daughter and family Mrs. Frank Gibson of Basswood for a couple of weeks.

Gary Cruthers who has worked all winter for J. Wilson, is helping him put in his crop if the land ever gets dry enough to work on it.

Laurence Graham is working for a farmer at Domremy, Sask. In a recent letter from him they had 14 inches of snow before we did. The man he is working for is a cousin of Mr. A. Holte of Wildmere.

Billie and Adam Smith arrived from the coast on Wednesday of last week, on their way here they visited with Mrs. C. Morand a sister who lives in Calgary, and with brothers Alex of Edmonton and Norman of Bon Accord. The boys enjoyed a busy winter curling at the coast. Their mother resides in Vancouver.

We are all very pleased to hear that Mr Howard Plante, our student minister of last year is to be with us again this summer. He will be boarding with Mr and Mrs Holte.

Mr Cliff Cruthers took his wife, Mrs Whitlock, Mrs. Howard and Mrs Wallington in to the annual Cancer meeting held at the Legion hall Monday evening. A nice crowd attended but there was room for many more. A very enlightening talk was given by Dr Wright about this dread disease which if caught in time can be cured. Mr Talbot gave an interesting talk and the annual report by the Vermilion Cancer Society was given and is very encouraging. Everyone should support this worthy cause. Six of our W.I. members attended.

We wonder who the bachelor was who had his laundry done while away visiting and on its return found an article in it that didn't belong in his wardrobe?

Union F.U.A. Notes

Well, our last card party of the season was a big success, no less than 9 tables, plus several children sitting out (one of them measured 6'4", some kid!). Prize winners were Doris Galloway and Tommy Nelson first and Jim Ross Jr. and Gordon Portsmith consolation.

Your correspondent was sick the night of the F.U.A. meeting so cannot report on what went on there. I've heard there were only ten or so members present, not very good out of about 25. Let's do better next time. The social events will be at a standstill for the next month or two but we hope to have some more during the summer. A bazaar has been suggested so maybe the ladies should get out their knitting needles and things and be ready for it. Even dad if he is handy can make some knic knacs that would sell readily at a bazaar.

DATES TO REMEMBER—

As far as I know the next event will be the F.U.A. and Community Association meeting the first Tuesday in June. That will be June 7. This will be an important meeting as we will have to choose our delegates for the district convention if it is held in July as usual. The Community Association will have to thresh out a plan of action for installing a kitchen at the hall and other projects. I suggest a community get-together possibly on the Farmers' holiday to do this work and then a picnic lunch afterwards.

Our thanks for the grand co-operation of all members on our social activities. A special thanks to Luther Thompson for donating coffee for one of the picture shows and Pringle Galloway for donating coffee for the last card party.

Your F.U.A. Correspondent.

10.01 Ins. More Snow Blankets Country

Before the 9.90 inches of snow which fell last week had a chance completely disappear, this week brought a further 10.01 inches of snow. Although it was actually a little more the snow wasn't nearly as evident this week as weather was warmer and much of it melted as it fell. However, in the last week official snowfall has been 19.91 inches as compared with just about six inches all winter long. Bulk of the snowfall this week was Wednesday night and Thursday morning.

Side roads are generally impassable.

From all appearances spring will be even later than in 1950.

Hubert Winters Killed In Fall From Dock At Esquimalt, B. C.

The following story tells of the accident which claimed the life of a former well known Vermilion man, Hubert Winters. Hubert spent most of his life in Vermilion, being the son of Mrs. Maud Winters and the late Isaiah Winters, pioneer settlers in Vermilion. Hubert took all of his schooling here, leaving Vermilion shortly after the outbreak of the war to enter war work, first at Calgary and then at the coast. The story below is taken from the Victoria Daily Times, kindly sent to the Standard by Mr. Tom Dick.

A 55-year-old Esquimalt man died Sunday after falling from a wharf at the British American Oil Co. Ltd., 51 Songhees, and plunging 15 feet into chilly Inner Harbor waters.

Coroner Dr. E. C. Hart said today an inquest will be held into the death of Hubert Franklin Winters, 540 Paradise Street. It will be held Wednesday at 10 a.m. at Hayward's Funeral parlor.

City police called to the scene at 4:55 p.m., found his body floating under the wharf.

FOREHEAD BRUISED

They said the man had a bad bruise on his forehead.

It is believed he slipped and fell from the wharf, striking his head on a bumper log while falling.

It is not known whether he died from the blow or from drowning.

Police removed the body from the water and an inhalator crew from the city fire department attempted revival for 15 minutes before arrival of a doctor.

He was pronounced dead by Dr. E. L. McNiven, who was summoned to the scene.

Police were called by Bruce McMaster, a nephew of the dead man and a first mate aboard the oil tanker "Unitanker", berthed at the wharf.

Mr. McMaster, who resides at 8718 Hudson Street, Vancouver, said Mr Winters had come to the wharf to take him to his home for a visit.

Two deckhands aboard the tanker Gordon Murray and Richard Hopkins, said they saw Mr. Winters standing on the wharf at about 4 p.m.

Mr McMaster left the boat to meet his uncle and saw his car near the wharf.

When he could not find Mr. Winters he phoned police. The body was found in the water.

Mr. Winters, a technician in charge of the central tool crib at HMC Dockyard, was born at Dundalk, Ont., in 1900.

After working for a time in Calgary he moved here in 1942.

He was a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles and of the Canadian Legion, Britannia branch.

Surviving are the widow, Edna, at home; one daughter, Mrs. Mona Veighton, Cobble Hill; his mother Mrs. Maud Winters ,at his home, and one sister, Mrs. Vera Waddell, Ocean Falls, B.C.

C.W.L. To Sponsor Three-Act Comedy

The roll call for the April meeting of the Vermilion C.W.L. was answered with the donation of two fruit nappies. The business discussed included the purchasing of more dishes and flatware; holding a bake sale in Noonan's coffee shop on 30th April, and sponsoring a comedy play presented by the St. Paul Altar Society to be held in the V.S.A. auditorium on May 11th. The highlight of the meeting on May 12th will be a white elephant bingo.

The meeting was brought to a close, and a very tasty lunch was served by the hostesses.

Mannville Planning Jubilee Celebrations For First of July

MANNVILLE. — The annual meeting of the Mannville Sports Association was held in the fire hall Thursday evening, April 21, with 30 members in attendance and President W. F. Ross presiding. After the reading of the minutes the financial statement was presented by Secretary A. E. Williams showing a balance in the bank of $1730. It was decided to hold a celebration again this year on July 1, this day having been celebrated in Mannville since 1905. This year's celebration will be to commemorate Alberta's Golden Jubilee and special arrangements are being made to make this the best ever, with a full line of sports, including baseball, fast ball, athletic events, and special platform attractions as well as a grand parade led by the band. A new feature will be a barbecue, two top grade cattle have been donated by Russell J. Whitson, local stock farmer, and Fred Proudfoot, local I.H.C. dealer and stockman.

Arrangements are being made to present all Alberta Senior citizens in the district with illuminated scrolls. At the present time 25 of these old timers have made application for scrolls and it is estimated another 25 will apply in time for their presentation on July 1. Complimentary tickets are being mailed to all these highly esteemed citizens. A grand fireworks display will be put on in the evening, followed by a dance as well as a square dance jamboree.

This year all money made at the celebration will be donated to the arena fund, and it is expected that the arena will be completed in time for next winter. The Sports Association has donated $1200 to this worthy cause and are going all out to finish the job this year. Last year the waiting rooms were built at a cost of $1500 under the capable leadership of Leslie Kreller and through money raised by bingos and naming the calf contest. This registered heifer calf was donated by W. J. Sergent local farmer and stockman and the lucky winner will be announced at the next bingo which will be soon.

The officers of the Sports Association are as follows:

President — Ross E. Ewing
Vice-Pres. — Merle Malin
Sec-Treas. — A. E. Williams
Executive — Fred Proudfoot, W. N. Crooks, Elmer Kreller, J. H. McLuckie and M. B. Van Dusen.

Square Notes From Circle Eight

Happy birthday Circle Eight Club. It is just a year now since square dancing got off to such a good start in Vermilion with the forming of Circle Eight. It has been a year of square dance fun and social enjoyment. A special at lunch time. Harold and Irene will be here with us, so come on all you Circle 8 members, lets turn out and make it a real party.

It is with regret that the committee decided to cancel our last dance, first time that it has ever happened since the club started, but with spade in such a mess it seemed the wise thing to do.

All those intending to travel to Mannville for the Ed Gilmour dance should pass please pick up your own tickets just as soon as possible.

Thanks for the Coaldale Jubilee Square Dance Festival on May 30.

with Arnie Kronenberger the Jubilee caller, should be out within the next week or so. They will likely be 50 cents each, proceeds going to Vermilion's Golden Jubilee committee. The dance will be open to all interested in square dancing. There will be no limit to tickets sold.

Remember Ol clubs' Birthday party next Thursday May 5, Legion hall.

"Happy Square Dancing"

THE STAGETTES

First of all, on behalf of the Stagettes, I would like to thank the management and staff of the Brunswick hotel dining room, for the lovely banquet which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The tables were decorated with white carnations, yellow daffodils and lovely garlands of purple heather and fern, all artistically arranged.

I'm sure most of the girls felt a little overwhelmed when entertained so much. But who could help but enjoy and appreciate the delicious meal that was put before us?

Ray Stewart, the president of the Vermilion Stagettes welcomed the honorary members to our banquet and dance. This was graciously responded to by Miss. Vivian Dyck on behalf of the honorary members.

Now I must say a word about the Cotton ball. I want to thank everyone concerned for making our spring celebration a big success. I'm sure everyone had a wonder ful evening and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Of course I mustn't forget the most important moment of the evening when the draw was made for the hand-knit Shrank of Sweden. The lucky little lady is Patsy Goliah of Mannville.

I wish to thank Ronnie Barwick and his orchestra for providing us with the lovely rhythm of the "Keystoners".

An apology is sent out to Mr Keith Inman and his orchestra and the general public for our error in last week's Standard. Due to a misunderstanding it was advertised that Inman's orchestra would provide music for the Cotton ball instead of Ronnie Barwick and his "Keystoner". I am very sorry that this mistake occurred.

Farmers Honored At Agricultural Society Dinner

Junior Shorthorn division at the Calgary Spring show; the Reserve Junior Champion for all breeds. He stood first in the highly competitive Showmanship class and now his fine calf sold for 51 cents per pound.

In addition to this list of exhibitors who have brought distinction to the Vermilion district in the current season, other well known livestock breeders who have achieved outstanding success at the major Western Canada shows and the Royal Winter fair were welcomed.

John Bryden and William Bryden of Meadow Lake, Sask., both one of the vice-presidents of the Vermilion Fair board and Williams a director. They have earned a reputation for the raising of fine Clydesdale horses and have brought many honors to the district.

William J. Cross is a breeder of Aberdeen Angus cattle of no mean repute He ranks among the group who have won honors at the Vermilion area in the livestock field.

W. R. Cornish, M.L.A. — For many years a director of the Agricultural Society and the present time an honorary president Mr Cornish has been prominent in showing of purebred sheep, swine and Shorthorn cattle over a lengthy period.

KEITH BARR RESPONDS

Keith Barr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mrs Manson Barr who stood first in showmanship in a large class at the Calgary Spring show replied on behalf of the "Honor Guests". fittingly acknowledging the tribute that had been paid to the outstanding livestock breeders and showmen. It was evident from Keith's remarks and his approach to his subject that the training obtained in competition was of unusual value to him and everyone present was enthused by the fine speech given by the youthful exhibitor who has won his spurs in the livestock world and now gives promise of outstanding ability on the public platform. There can be little doubt but that as the years go by, Keith Barr, Billie Robinson and Margaret Barr will follow in the footsteps of their respective fathers and be supporters of the Vermilion district and the Agricultural Society.

During the evening Mr and Mrs. Wesley Funnell of the Kokomo district pleased the gathering with one of the musical numbers for which they are so well known and Mr. D. C. Falk, with Mrs. A. E. West at the piano entertained with several numbers of community sing ing. Mr. D. C. Falk, another old timer in Vermilion, was present and spoke briefly in his usual pleasing manner, presenting Mannford time to Mr. and Mrs. Cross and Messrs. Bimnet Bros.

GUEST SPEAKER, DR. WHITE

The address of what has been described as one of the best evenings in this community for a long time was the highlight of the night. Dr. D. L. White of First Presbyterian church in Edmonton, formerly of Vermilion and known ability to entertain, as well as to instruct. Dr White early in his remarks described some of his interesting agricultural background when he described some of his experiences as superintendent of Poultry at the Charlottetown, P.E.I. exhibition of many years ago. Switching his career briefly as he had been asked to state how he had an unusual group of the problems of which raisers and shows have while his entire address was interspersed with humorous incidents related to his own experience for every second of his address and gave the dinner guests a most interesting discourse Dr White recounted the thrills which he had from successful competition and the achievement of desirable objectives. Comparing life on the farm with that of the city he painted a most impressive picture of the beauty and charm which goes with life near the soil and with the culture of living thereon.

It will be recognized that the annual Agricultural Society dinner is an event which has been firmly established in Vermilion as an enjoyable entertainment and it is through there is always the difficulty of selecting a suitably outside speaker for such an occasion when the gathering is mixed to an unusual degree. Agricultural Society is to be highly commended for the fine type of entertainment given in recent years, not the least im portance of which was the fine address of Dr White on Thursday evening last.

Mr H J Beatley Principal of the School of Agriculture in extending the thanks of the gathering to Dr White attested the high quality of the address and urged the younger members present to heed the words of the speaker in their pursuit of the higher things in life.

Graduate Nurses Plan Church Parade

The regular monthly meeting of Graduate Nurses of Vermilion was held in the Legion hall after the annual Cancer Society meeting, on April 20th.

Only a short business session followed. The minutes of previous meeting were read and approved as written.

Mrs. Alice Soldan is the Chapter's delegate attending the A.A.N. convention in Calgary this week. Come now, come all next time to hear a report from this convention.

Roll call showed 14 nurses present and we saved our "honor" until next meeting

The functions sponsored by this association during the past year were more social than remunerative as plans regarding a proposed "scholarship" were curtailed for the present time.

The annual Florence Nightingale church service for all nurses is

Mass Meeting Discusses P.F.A.A. at Dewberry Recently

DEWBERRY. — A mass meeting of over 300 farmer met at Dewberry, recently to discuss the P.F.A. Act as it applies to Northern Alberta. The meeting was called by John Anderson, Councillor for M.D. Vermilion River No. 71 and District No. 7 President of the F.U.A., and was sponsored by the Dewberry F. U. A. On hand to answer questions of the audience was Mr Rowbotham, the General Superintendent of P.F.A. in Alberta and Mr. Muirhead, District Supervisor.

Farmers in this area have paid the 1% P.F.A. levy on grain sales for many years, but have received assistance in scattered areas only, for crop failure or due to hail or similar causes. This year, with this year's disastrous crop failure following severe damage to many districts by the big wind and hail storm of '53, most farmers felt that assistance coming. But they know little of the administration of the act, and they came to the meeting ready to ask many pointed questions

John Anderson and Andrew Wood acted as chairmen of the meeting.

Mr. Rowbotham first outlined the history of the Act. Prior to its beginning and during the drouth years, municipal and provincial governments had provided relief for individuals who had suffered crop losses. These financial obligations soon became difficult for municipalities to assume, and they asked for assistance from the Dominion government P.F.A. was developed after a study had been made by the minister of agriculture It was never considered a crop insurance plan — that being the prerogative of provincial governments, nor was it relief. It had never been the purpose of the Government to assist individual cases, but to relieve municipal governments.

The Government does not therefore, assume full responsibility, nome must still rest on municipal districts to care for merely individual cases, according to the Act.

Mr. Rowbotham stated that there might well be amendments that could be made to the Act to correct certain inequalities. He reminded the gathering however, that P.F.A. was an improvement on anything that had previously existed, and that, it had been planned around crop to the farmers own wishes. It had also been that they would definitely what they did want before they demanded amendments. To apply the act to individual cases would mean a very close supervision and inspection of farm but ness.

Manitoba perhaps had suffered the most inequality through the Act. Last year for example their contributions had amounted to $12,000,000 while assistance given in the province had amounted to only $4,000,000. There had been some discussion of instituting a crop insurance plan for Manitoba, but to date no feasible plan had been devised.

Alberta in the year ending July 1954 had paid 24 million into the fund, while payments of 38 millions had been made. The other 14 million, plus the expense of administration had been paid by Dominion funds, less a bank clerk in Montreal contributed to P.F.A. through his income tax, said Mr Rowbotham. He then explained the block system by which eligibility and rate of P.F.A.A. payment is determined

Following are answers to some of the questions asked Mr. Rowbotham:

Sections are not split in marking out blocks (several rates were reported where some owners had received payment while neighbors on same section had not)

Inspectors duties are to take particulars of cultivation and yield.

Where farmers' land is situated in two townships checks are delayed as a Board of Review must check each case of this kind How. ever a report is made to municipal office as soon as decision is made and farmers can often find out what they may expect.

P.F.A.A. payments are still being made and will be for several weeks

No relief is allowed cases reported were those where estimates had been in the field where grain was high but registered low ratings in light grain Did grain go too high where others than farmers had grain particulars is required. Power of attorney is held by wife or hired man their signature is not legal

Summerfallow is paid for as grain or cultivated acreage

Breaking is not considered cultivated acreage the first year unless needed to crop such as flax, but is eligible for P.F.A. second year.

Cases where field man has not called or where farmer was away to total for P.F.A. should send in written notice to Provincial office and request be made and payment made. Farmers are instructed to call once at the most notice if farm is on main highway. Inspectors must know in regard to the farmer and farm operations which causes failures caused by drought, which causes more or less consistant average, and not for rust where crop averages have been very irregular. Some inequality in payments therefore has resulted.

Farmers may work out during winter months and still be eligible for spring payment of P.F.A.A. if they return to the farm. Those who work during summer months and farm as a sideline are not eligible

Verbal agreements between the father and son are not legal grounds for payment of P.F.A. to son. This year such payments have been made but in the future a suitable written agreement must exist before assistance will be given

No municipal districts request P.F.A. for whole of M.D. those townships reporting crop averages of 15 bushels or over will not be visited by inspectors.

Many instances farmers had received both first and second payments while neighbors had received nothing, usually it was because the latter claim had to be checked and former would receive complete payment at one time.

Some farmers felt that statements should be included with all payments designating land on which P.F.A.A. was given and what rate Mr. Rowbotham stated that such statements would substantially raise the price of administration.

In years of hail damage a complete hail township must be concerned, and as hail struck in a "spotty manner," farmers should not depend on the P.F.A.A. as a hail insurance

Two resolutions were passed by the meeting, one asked that statements be included with P.F.A.A. payments and the other asked that where coarse grains were the chief crop of an area, they should be used as a basis of computation rather than that, rather than any small acreages of wheat which might be raised in the area.

At the present time wheat is used as the main basis of computation, but where coarse grains are used for that basis, the average yield is 12 bushels as compared to the 8 bushels set for wheat

It was the feeling of the meeting that although P.F.A.A was an advance over the previous system where no compensation whatever was received during crop failure years other inadequate provisions had also made advances. They felt that there is room for many compariable to Unemployment Insurance, or subsidies, related to other agricultural industries, such as gold mining Resolutions asking for the abolishing of P.F.A.A. for carrying on of summerfallow and increased production were needed.

Also, for individual application to P.F.A.A. claims and for a Provincial Crop Insurance Plan. Many farmers felt that they had suffered losses by a very small margin Complaints were listed by Mr. Muirhead (inspector) and Mr. Rowbotham (Supervisor) and it is possible that many farmers will receive payments in the near future.

GOOD RED BLOOD

With the arrival in town next week of the Red Cross Blood Donors clinic many people will again be asking themselves whether or not they can spare a pint of their blood to help someone else who is in need of it.

If you are in normal good health and you decide to donate, your body can replace the blood you have given within a few hours and you will suffer no ill effects.

If, however, you are feeling run-down and doubtful about your health now is a good time to reconsider whether you eat the right foods and get the fresh air and exercise necessary to produce good red blood.

The blood is a suspension of tiny cells most of which are filled with red coloring matter called haemoglobin which is a combination of iron and other substances. It circulates through the body carrying food and oxygen to all parts of the body and removes waste products. It also helps fight disease. To do these jobs well the blood must be in good condition and this depends largely on the quality of food that is eaten and the amount of fresh air and exercise taken.

For good red blood we must eat a well balanced diet containing all types of food necessary for health with special attention to these foods rich in iron.

Body Building Foods — Meat, cheese, fish, eggs and milk.

Energy Foods — Cereals, bread and potatoes.

Protective Foods — Fruit, colored vegetables, butter and milk.

Foods Rich in Iron — Liver, kidney, tongue, beef, eggs, dried fruits, beans, peas, dark leafy green vegetables and whole grain cereals.

To get enough fresh air always sleep with your windows open. Air your room frequently during the day and get out for a walk at least once a day.

Please donate a pint of blood if you can, it may save someone's life.

EDMONTON. — Helge Ahlefeld-Laurvig, 33-year-old Danish Count, with his wife and two young sons, age three and one, arrived here by Canadian National Railways from Montreal. The Count will work on the farm of Carl Werner, South Edmonton.

Count Ahlefeld-Laurvig, who can trace his family back to the 14th century, has been a farmer in Denmark all his life. He hopes to have a farm of his own in Alberta soon.

The family, who have come here under the sponsorship of the C.N.R. department of agriculture and colonization, arrived in Canada on board the S. S. Stockholm.

WINSTON CHURCHILL

A neighbor of mine served on the staff of a railroad train which carried Sir Winston Churchill in Canada. This railroader still proudly displays the big cigar that Churchill gave him. With even more pride, he displays the book, personally autographed, which the great man was thoughtful enough to send him on his return to England.

When the news came that Churchill had retired, my neighbor had genuine tears of sadness in his eyes.

That is the kind of loyalty and admiration Churchill earned from other men throughout his life. Why? What is the secret of his strength?

I think it was his common sense. Churchill said what he thought — and said it bluntly and straightforwardly. Such straightforward prose always amazes the world. Consider his statement, made on May 13th, three days after he was appointed prime minister, in England's darkest hour:

"I would say to the House, as I have said to those who have joined this government: I have nothing to offer but blood, toil, tears and sweat.

"You ask what is our policy? I will say it is to wage war—by sea, and by air with all our might and with all the strength that God can give us, to wage war against a monstrous tyranny never surpassed in the dark lamentable catalogue of human crimes.

"That is our policy."

Well, that was it. That's just how the war was won. The way to win a war is to wage war in every possible way, with all the strength God can give you. But had another leader been asked that same question of policy, the chances are he would have answered with hundreds of high flown phrases with little bearing on the subject.

Many people have wondered how Winston Churchill, re-elected to high office after those grey years of austerity, was able to bring good times back again to England so quickly. Well, the answer, in his own words, was again plain and straightforward. He said, "We must beware of trying to build a society in which nobody counts for anything except a politician, a society where enterprise gains no reward and thrift no privileges."

No doubt we all admire Sir Winston Churchill. Perhaps the best way for us to show our admiration would be to learn, from day to day, to speak plainly, and to think clearly. Let us try to make this our personal tribute to one of the greatest men in the world.

Saskatchewan C. C. F. Minister Speaks At Greenlawn Meeting

DEWBERRY. Addressing an interested audience at Greenlawn, Hon. A. G. Koziak, Saskatchewan Minister of Telephones outlined the progress of his province and made a few comparisons with Alberta's record. The basis of his address was the famed "ten promises" given to Saskatchewan residents after the elections of 1944 and 1952.

They had promised that there would be no land confiscations, evictions or seizures because of inability to pay due to crop failures. There were virtually none in Saskatchewan today. Pensions to all classes of aged and disabled persons had been increased and included hospital services, dental and optical care. Saskatchewan's hospitalization policy was well known and through it care was given to cancer and mental cases completely without charge.

ROADS

Mr. Koziak compared Saskatchewan's 8000 miles of roads, maintained at a cost of $19,000,000 to 3,000 miles in Alberta for which Alberta residents paid some $55,000,000. He told of the "chocolate bar" vote wherein his province had given the right of ballot to the 18-year-olds, feeling if they were old enough to fight for their country they were old enough to vote. The Bill of Rights, outlawing discrimination because of race, religion or creed had first been placed on provincial legislation books in Saskatchewan.

He told of the cancellation of the municipal seed grain debts of $70,000,000 incurred during depression years, and compared the municipal debt in Saskatchewan of $37,400,000 with the $185,000,000 owed by Alberta municipalities. At the same time the Provincial debt had been substantially reduced.

Co-operatives were encouraged in every way in his province, said Mr. Koziak, and told of the Co-operative Refinery that had been set up. Labor laws had been modified to give workers a fair deal.

Outlining the rural electrification program being carried out in Saskatchewan, Mr. Koziak said that 40,000 farms would be electrified by 1956. Sixty per cent of the initial cost of installation was born by the provincial government, with the farmer paying the other 40%. The lines were maintained by the Power Commission, compared with the necessity in Alberta for farmers to foot all their own bills, from installation to maintenance.

Oil and Mineral Resources

Development of oil and mineral resources was proceeding very rapidly. There were numerous producing oil wells in Saskatchewan, while the provincial mineral resources were very rich. Natural gas was being supplied as a public utility to the larger centres as quickly as the pipelines could be built. Saskatoon had been on supply since 19[illegible] while a pipeline was now being constructed to Biggar, Lloydminster, and Prince Albert.

Mr. Koziak spoke of the Saskatchewan Insurance Plan with car insurance being supplied to drivers at a very reduced rate. He enumerated the other crown corporations and their progress. In closing Mr. Koziak said that the policy of his government was "Humanity First." He recalled Bill Irvine's long association with the C.C.F. [illegible] years in Ottawa when with others of the "Ginger Group," J. S. Woodsworth, Mr. Heaps and the long battle for such reforms as the old age pension and unemployment insurance. "Humanity First" had become a personal creed with Mr. Irvine said the speaker and he had indeed been a mighty fighter for the working man. It had been an honor to speak in his behalf for the coming by-election in the Camrose-Battle River constituency.

Alberta M.L.A. Speaker

Mr. N. Dushensky, Alberta M.L.A. for Willingdon was the second speaker of the evening. He spoke of the many matters of interest that had come before the legislature during the present session.

Commenting upon the Marketing Board legislation that had been introduced, Mr. Dushensky said that he felt it would be impossible to set up any such Board under the present legislation. One of the first clauses stated that 51% of the producers of the product concerned would have to vote for the Board. It was often unusual for 51% of those listed for any election or plebiscite to turn out to vote, far less in one way. The usual phrasing for such a clause is that 51% of the vote cast must be in the affirmative. There were other conditions listed in the legislation that the speaker felt would not be acceptable to either farmers or the farm bodies who have asked for the legislation.

Mr. Dushensky went on to speak of rural electrification in the Province. Alberta was the only province to his knowledge where electricity was not provided to residents as a public utility. He told of the practice of utility companies here of over-estimating the cost of each installation, thus allowing the company considerable funds interest free, but on which the farmer is paying interest. He told of the practice in Manitoba, not only of making free installation to farms, but maintaining the lines, and providing consumers with electrical appliances at cost price.

One great asset to the residents of Alberta would be to have the proceedings of the legislature broadcast directly from the legislative buildings, said Mr. Dushensky. He also felt that more people should visit the Assembly while it was in progress. It should interest them to see how their business was being conducted and their tax money spent. In any government which had been in power for a long time, particularly without a strong opposition, certain abuses and carelessness was bound to creep in. Often when any opposition member rose to speak in the Legislature government members produced papers or comic books which they read during his speech. Such conduct was insulting, not only to duly elected M.L.A.'s but to the constituents who had elected them. If the public was able to hear and see the daily proceedings it would keep them up-to-date in their own business.

Can't Forget Wheat

Failure of the western wheat crop last year was cited by Finance Minister Harris in his budget speech as a major reason for the decrease in our gross national product in 1954. The sharp drop in overseas shipments of wheat he added was the chief reason for our decline in total exports.

Mr. Harris did well to stress those important points says The Financial Post.

In recent years there has been a tendency in some quarters, even at Ottawa, to ignore wheat, to forget that wheat is still a mighty important factor in our national economy notwithstanding our great strides in industrialization.

Letters to the Editor

The Standard does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.

Islay, Alberta, Apr 26, 1955.

Editor, Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion, Alberta.
Dear Sir:

This letter is in answer to that of Mr Robert Galloway which was printed in the last issue of your paper. I hope Sir that mine may be deserving of space in the 'letters' column.

First of all I believe that the amended motion which was passed at the annual municipal meeting did not call for a meeting "where ratepayers could find out and discuss what is ailing in our hospital set-up", but rather one to discuss the closing of the Islay hospital and turning it into an old people's home.

I agree that we are living in a democratic country. I do not agree that the vote on that motion at the annual municipal meeting was democratic, as there was no effort made to have only ratepayers of the Islay Hospital District do the voting. Any motion can be passed anywhere if introduced in the dying hours of a meeting and enough disinterested people are allowed to vote on it.

The [illegible] paragraph, Mr Editor, states [illegible] the Board used every possible excuse to avoid calling a meeting. I would suggest that rather [illegible] excuses the Board had good and sufficient reasons for not calling a meeting, as set out in the minutes [illegible] April 2nd meeting and published in the Standard. If these reasons are viewed in an open minded and unbiased manner as set down in black and white for all to see, they should satisfy any reasonable minded individual.

In his 7th paragraph Mr. Galloway asks for co-operation with the Board. May I point out that on none of the several occasions, when pressure has been brought to bear to break up the Islay Hospital District, has the Islay Hospital Board been consulted by the dissenting factions involved. All the courtesy at these times has been on the part of the authorities in the Department of Health and the Public Utilities Commission, who have informed the Board of correspondence with the promoters, often after the action had been completed. If one were to take the trouble to find out definitely I believe it would be found that the Board is a most reasonable group. Possibly problems could be settled more amicably by representation to the Board, than by circulating petitions, and deliberately avoiding discussion with the Board members.

If there are people who want representation made to the Department to change the Hospitals Act so that their grievances can be rectified, why do they not come out into the open and say so, instead involving the issue with motions and movements to close the hospital and turn it into an old persons' home?

I also think it pertinent to point out that if the Islay Hospital District were disestablished, those who are now near the edge of a Hospital District, could conceivably still be near the edge of a new one, and many other people would have a great deal further to travel to any hospital than they have at present. In other words that particular problem would not be solved, but merely passed on to another area.

I would also point out, Mr. Editor, that although we may not have the best equipment in the Municipality in Islay hospital, the ratepayers are not paying for the best by a margin of several mills. If the facilities in Islay are not considered suitable, they can be made so in the same manner as it has has been done in other districts, by selling debentures and building, and buying new equipment. There would no doubt also be an increase from our present 4.8 mill rate, as there was in Viking for instance where the requisition is 11.71 mills since a new wing was added.

In closing I presume that those who want a general meeting will assume that the Board is bound to act on a resolution passed at such a meeting if it is favorable to the standing resolution, declared passed at the municipal annual meeting. I wonder Sir, if the dissenting faction will feel equally bound by an adverse decision and drop the matter at that?

I thank you Mr. Editor, and am
Yours truly,
R. G. Purves.

Blood Donor Clinic Here May 2nd

A mobile Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic is to visit Vermilion on Monday, May 2nd, from 3 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. The clinic is at the Legion hall and no appointment is needed.

Residents of this district are being asked to give a donation of blood. This blood is very urgently needed — maybe a friend or a relative of yours may benefit greatly — even have a life saved — by your donation. Perhaps many people feel depressed thinking of their own troubles. Remember, that the best way to at least partially forget our own troubles is to do a service for others. You do this when you donate blood.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere appreciation and thanks to Dr. A.H. Sweet and the matron and staff of the Islay Municipal hospital for the attention and kindness shown to my wife during her illness. I also wish to thank the many friends who sent gifts, letters and cards, and all those kind neighbors who gave generous help whenever it was needed.

Delegation from Farm Union Meets Wheat Bd., Commissioners

A delegation from the Interprovincial Farm Union Council met the Canadian Wheat Board at Winnipeg on the morning of April 18th. In the afternoon a similar meeting was held with the Board of Grain Commissioners.

The delegation comprised some 13 persons including the President of the Prairie Unions and Mr Albert Cormack President of the Alberta Farmers Union. Alberta was represented by the Alberta members of the Council Mrs W. C. Taylor of Wainwright, Andy Weed of Dewberry and the President Henry Young.

The purpose of these meetings was twofold. First, to protest the action of the Council on various legislative matters connected with grain handling and marketing methods and the second, to get information from the boards on the marketing situation and the various new grain handling methods of the boards.

From both these angles, the meetings were very helpful. The main point of the Unions was forcefully presented on on matters as grade quotas, box car allocation, grain storage, mixing policies, delivery periods, producer representation etc. On the other hand the delegation was provided by explanation of board policies on many matters and a lot of information on present day policies and procedures in connection with grain grading, handling, marketing, etc.

Altogether these meetings were very interesting and informative to the Farm Union officers taking part. Through such conferences held from time to time, the Farm Unions keep en-

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

By JUNE E. KIRK —

Do you suffer from an after "variety" meats often? For iron and other blood building materials, liver is the very best food we can eat. Kidney and heart run a very close second, while tongue, tripe, brains and sweetbreads are also rich in nutritional value.

I know someone reading this column right now is thinking "But I don't like them"; or "I just couldn't stand the though of eating them". Well, my answer is Perhaps you'd like variety better if you could find a new way of cooking them.

Here is a little different method of getting liver into those family members who profess a dislike for it. Wipe liver, remove any veins, cut it into cubes, and fry until tender in bacon drippings. Season and serve in a folded omelet For a more substantial dish make a gravy of a tomato soup and serve over the omelet.

Cooked liver, finely chopped and seasoned, may be combined with creamed soup (allow ½ cup of liver to each egg), or broiled liver may be served separately to accompany the scrambled eggs.

More such tempting recipes are available in our leaflet, "Variety Meats."

And from ody loaf, "liver" come those tips on care of meat:

New Vermilion Rotary Club Receives Charter At Brilliant Function

"Charter Night" will long be remembered by members of the new Rotary Club in Vermilion as an event of special significance, made so by the attendance of 174 people who came from Calgary, Edmonton, Vegreville, Lloydminster and North Battleford to help impress on Vermilion members that they were now included in the vast Rotary organization which includes 5,011 Rotary Clubs, located in 80 countries, and with a total membership of 608,000 business and professional executives.

The program for the evening was arranged by the Lloydminster club which sponsored and organized Vermilion Rotary, the Vermilion members being royally welcomed and treated as guests The program itself commenced with a truly sumptuous banquet served by the ladies of the Royal Purple, and included musical numbers, humorous logues addresses and presentations.

Chairman of the evening was Ray Nelson of Lloydminster and a very interesting and efficient emcee he was. In order to see that everyone was on the traditional Rotarian basis of good fellowship, the head table guests were introduced including Governor Glen Peacock and Mrs. Peacock of Calgary; Governor Elect Vernon Miner and Mrs. Miner of Lloydminster, President Jim Hammond of the Lloyd Rotary and Mrs. Hemstock, President Reg Mitchell and Mrs. Mitchell of Vermilion; Mayor Melvin Hill; emcee Ray Nelson and Mrs. Nelson.

Special guests were then asked to stand as introduced and were Mr. Claude Brennan, Mayor of the Vermilion Masonic Lodge and Mrs. Brennan; Mr. Victor Tillett, president of Canadian Legion Br. 5 and Mrs. Tillett; Mr K G Urquhart representative of Vermilion Chamber of Trade and Mrs. Urquhart; Mr. Gordon Park representing the Vermilion Elks and Mrs. Park; Mr. Angus McMillan Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus and Mrs. McMillan; Mr and Mrs. Wm. Fleming; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jones, visitors from Montreal; Dr. A. R. Anderson, President of Vermilion Kinsmen and Mrs. Anderson.

The visiting Rotarians were then introduced by clubs.

Musical numbers included enjoyable quarters by the Powder River Boys, the Female Ink Spots, and monologues by Bill Ibbett. Music for the evening was lovely and professional by the talented Richards sisters from Vermilion.

SPRINGTIME . . . FARM ACCIDENT TIME—

Farm tractors cause many deaths and hundreds of serious mishaps in Alberta each year. Spring is the time when most of these accidents occur. Among the causes of these accidents are fatigue, haste, lack of judgment and thoughtlessness.

Tipping is one of the commonest tractor accidents. Soft ground is a very usual cause and until the soil has dried out ditch banks and steep side hills should be avoided. A combination of road gear and wheel brakes also add to the number of tipping mishaps. Rearing is another form these accidents take, and this is generally caused by one of two things, [illegible] a load too high on the [illegible] or fastening a solid object such as a post or pole to the drive wheels to pull out of a hole.

Another group of accidents take [illegible] and they are caused by carelessness. These accidents include feeding of a running or hot tractor, clutching a tractor from the ground while hitching an implement, leaving a tractor parked on a slope without wheel brakes locked on, not providing safety shields for power take-off shafts, wearing loose clothing while working with a tractor, and finally, not checking carefully enough that all is clear before moving a tractor.

C. A. Cheshire, Alberta's Agricultural Engineer, [illegible] the accidents mentioned so far are of the type caused by lack of judgment and [illegible]. There is another all [illegible] type caused by plain stupidity. Children are usually the victims of these, but as a rule the parents are to blame. Junior [illegible] are not developed sufficiently either physically or mentally, to do this [illegible] job. However they are allowed, or even encouraged to flirt with death on one of these [illegible] man-sized killers. Almost as heartless but not quite so dangerous is the practice of taking Junior as a passenger on the tractor. It should be remembered that the tractor is a one-man machine.

These are some of the most common tractor accidents. Only alertness, vigilance and forethought can prevent them. The thinking must be done NOW to prevent the accident — THERE IS NO TIME TO THINK ONCE THE ACCIDENT OCCURS.

Widmere Winks

Our community and many others were deeply shocked on Saturday when word was received of the sudden passing of Johnny Bothe on Friday evening. Everyone knew he had not been very well for some time but never thought his life's book was to close so soon. [illegible] came to our district when a young man and has lived amongst us ever since. He was truly a good neighbor and a good friend and his passing leaves a gap that will be hard to fill. At the time of his death he was president of the Widmere-Tolland Mutual Telephone Co. and was one of Widmere's ardent curlers. He leaves to mourn his passing a loving wife, one son Bud and a daughter Dorothy (Mrs. W. Wiseman), four grandchildren, seven sisters and four brothers. To the sorrowing relatives the writer [illegible] with the community in [illegible] heart-felt sympathy in [illegible] of sorrow. The load was heavy and God called him home to [illegible]. He [illegible] the ones left to mourn.

George Cruthers spent three days in the hospital last week but is now home and on the mend. Better get well soon George, the big seeding rush is about to start.

The last snow certainly had lots of [illegible] in it, as lakes and sloughs are full and over-flowing. Cr. Wallington has been kept busy with bad spots in the roads, culverts [illegible] washouts etc.

The ice went out of our lake on May 2. Took it quite awhile to break up and disappear.

Mr and Mrs. J. F. Summers of Darwell, Alberta, were visitors at the Wallington home last week. Mrs. Summers is Jim's sister [illegible].

The Wallingtons and Mrs. [illegible] more attended the Gay 90s [illegible] last Thursday [illegible]. Despite the bad roads there was a splendid crowd and a grand time was enjoyed by all. Hanna orchestra furnished the music and T. Thompson was M.C.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. Holte and Baillie also Gary Cruthers were visitors at the Wallington home. Mr and Mrs. Chas. Sweeney and family also called for a few minutes at the same home.

The mumps are still going strong. Ralph Whitlock, Linda and Norman Smith are the recent victims.

Pioneer Homesteader Dies At 99 Years

H. M. Worden, a pioneer homesteader of the district just a few miles north of Vermilion, died in Edmonton last week, with funeral services Thursday. He was 99 years of age.

Mr. Worden came to western Canada in 1906 and homesteaded with his son Gordon north of Vermilion. He moved to Edmonton almost 40 years ago and has resided there ever since. He was predeceased by his wife only a few months ago at the age of 92. Surviving are two daughters, two sons, all of Edmonton, 15 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren.

Mr and Mrs. George Braithwaite and two children left this week for Red Deer where they will commence farming adjacent to the family farm on which George grew up. [illegible] George here as field service man for the Alberta Wheat Pool is Bert Kellicut who will be [illegible] as a former resident of Clandonald. Bert comes now from Tofield, to which point he moved 5 years ago.

THE STAGETTES

Farmers and housewives are not the only busy ones this spring, as any Stagette will agree. It is a season for clearing up our old items of business and launching ourselves upon many new and challenging activities.

Planning for the big Jubilee Celebration is continuing with Lena and Ivy appointed to attend the special meeting on Wednesday evening. The girls will keep us well informed as to further developments in our present plans.

Finances kept us active for a time as the girls found many uses for any excess capital. A wee portion may even be used to help the Stagettes obtain a filing cabinet for the clubroom. Why not have a marshmallow toast, girls? That old chest of drawers would make a lovely bonfire!

Excitement filled the room as the girls eagerly awaited the reading of the checking list. Who will be the lucky ones? This Saturday it's Kay and Sophie. On May 14th the lovely ladies behind the counter will be Ernie and Reta.

It seems that cupid, too, has been active this spring. The girls want to extend their sincere best wishes to Reta on her recent engagement. A happy future to you both!

Several pleasant faces were missing from our throng this week. We would be very glad to see you back, girls. Remember, May 17th as our next meeting and journey along to the Legion hall for an hour or two.

Be seeing you, then!

Letters to the Editor

Vermilion, R.R. 3,
May 2, 1955.

The Editor,
Vermilion Standard.
Dear Sir:

With your kind permission I would like to comment a little on the article "Plain Talk" from Dr. F. MacNeill Smith, Liberal candidate for the coming by-election. I will try to keep my comments brief and to the point.

In regard to the drop in farm population, why worry when the farmer can still produce surpluses that our government seems unable to dispose of? As to the cost of fully equipped farms, the Liberal government at Ottawa were partly to blame for that when they lifted price controls and allowed costs to raise sky high. When a Government inaugurates such things as farm improvement loans and national housing schemes, prices are bound to climb, and it's a good thing for businesses such as machinery, lumber and building materials, but it goes hard with the guy with a mortgage hung on his neck and no guarantee of a price for his products. On this suggested farm of Dr. F. MacNeill Smith costing $34,600 for a half section would be, I suppose, a yearly interest charge to the mortgage company of over $1700 and probably over $300 in taxes. Some charges before the farmer got anything for himself. We will read with interest the further elaboration of the scheme.

Now with regard to Dr. Smith's statement "that advocated by a Liberal member it will be given sympathetic consideration by the government", no other need apply, sounds almost like a threat to the writer. What we need at Ottawa is not another Liberal, but some more opposition members, if we had all Liberals at Ottawa, all Social Credit at Edmonton, who would have informed us of the goings on at Petawawa, and the deals in real estate in Alberta? This all one-party government at Ottawa and Edmonton is not good. For the welfare of the people, for the good of democracy we need a good strong opposition in our governments.

Yours truly,
H. Wear.

Dewberry, Alta.
April 24th, 1955.

EDITOR,
Vermilion Standard.
Dear Sir,—

Would you permit me space to commend the Islay hospital board and the M. D. councillors on their decision not to call a meeting of the Islay hospital district at this time. They were elected to run the affairs of this district to the best interests of the ratepayers, and they seem to be doing just that.

The need is for more hospitals, not fewer. Centralization to a certain point and in some things may be desirable but when you are sick or in great pain, that 16 miles added to the 15 or 20 already covered, sometimes through four or five-foot snow drifts or 3-foot deep mud holes just might make the difference between your making it alive or not —not to mention this problem of beating the stork. The Islay hospital surely looks good at such times.

Vermilion it is true has new and additional hospital facilities, but how soon will it be before they are full? Remember the schools.

How many doctors would take the time and trouble to hold consultations one afternoon each week at Dewberry and Kitscoty? That is a real service. But if we had a hospital as well, would we not have better service — and at the rate the population is increasing we will soon have to support more hospitals somewhere, so why not at home towns? One doctor at the right time is sometimes better than a dozen later on.

As regards an Old Persons Home, would the sponsor of this resolution be prepared to enter the proposed home at Islay, at say 70 years, just when they can expect to be made independent by the old age pension?

A much better plan seems to be to build your own little house, close by son or daughter on the farm or in the town; it's something to plan for at a time of life when we need something to look forward to.

I can show you several such cases where I can only point out one or two who would have been better off in a home. Most of the old people are quite able to look after themselves with little help right up to the last few months. Surely after they have spent 20 years or more looking after us when we were small, we should be able to look after them for a few months at the last.

Sincerely,
H. B. Craigs.

Vermilion, Alberta, Apr. 30.

The Editor,
Vermilion Standard.
Dear Sir:

I hope you can spare more space in your paper so as to keep the interested public informed on the Islay hospital situation. This missionary work is not high paid labor so we can't afford to pay for advertising.

As I was the guilty party that moved this resolution to hold a general meeting (and I might also state that I voted against the amendment and did not vote at all on the resolution as amended) I don't like to take all the blame for the idea that is in so many people's minds that the meeting is to be called for the purpose of closing the Islay hospital. That was never my intention and the hospital board know very well what most of the people want, and should know that they have never gone very far in co-operating.

In regards to introducing a motion in the dying hours of a meeting, I might add that we had no opportunity during the main part of the meeting and if it had not been for an open-minded chairman would not have had any chance to talk on the subject at all.

In Mr. Purvis' letter of April 28 he states that the board is a most reasonable group. Well! Time does bring changes and possibly they are getting better. I could give you one instance of a discussion between one of the ratepayers and our board member but I know that it's against the rules of your newspaper to print such language. However, I believe they will have a chance to prove their ability to co-operate as there will be a meeting in the future. The ratepayers have backed us up with their signatures and although much of the area could not be covered on account of road conditions we are well represented from every area in the district and they can't turn us down now.

In Mr. Purvis' second last paragraph regarding equipment and mill rate I would suggest that it would be much better to use the expensive equipment of bigger hospitals but we should also remember that we have been paying the same mill rate as Vermilion and only one mill less than Lloydminster. There is no need to go to Viking to get figures. As there's plenty of equipment in the municipality at present, why not share up the expense and if we need more share up the cost and let people go where they think best. All we need is co-operation of the ratepayers, hospital boards, and Department of Health and we will get somewhere.

Thank you Mr. Editor for your space.

Yours truly,
Robert Galloway.

Catches 6-lb. 30in. Jack in Park Lake

Fishing has never stopped at the Vermilion Park lake during the whole winter, probably the only place in Western Canada where the fisherman can cast the whole year through. This is due to the fact that warm water from the Canadian Utilities power plant cooling system keeps the water open both in the lake for several hundreds of feet and below the spillway.

But that's apart from the story. Last Saturday morning Herb Chailman who works at Herzog Motors was casting in the Vermilion Park lake and landed a big jackfish that measured 2½ feet long and weighed in at 6 pounds even. It was a big fish, probably the largest yet caught in the new lake.

Right now the river below the spillway is teeming with jack, coming up to spawn and blocked here by the spillway.

Salvation Army Faces Biggest Year Of Expansion

Salvation Army leaders are facing "the biggest expansion program in the Movement's history in Canada" Air Marshall W. A. Bishop, V.C., D.S.O., M.C., D.F.C., E.D., LL.D., said recently in announcing the dates of the 1955 National Red Shield Appeal which began Monday, May 2 and will run to Monday, May 23.

Being pledged to such a vast expansion in buildings and services meant, the Air Marshal said, that every Salvation Army Appeal in future years must reach its objective. Not only must capital commitments be redeemed, but continually-increasing maintenance costs must be met.

Air Marshal Bishop, who is chairman of the Salvation Army's National Advisory Board, noted that this year the Salvation Army is 90 years old. The movement, he said, has grown up with Canada and citizens in all walks look upon it as a "necessary and appreciated" part of Canadian life. He indicated his confidence in the success of the 1955 appeal, and urged all Canadians to assist either by canvass or contribution. Theme of this year's Appeal will be "The Open Door." That, declared Air Marshal Bishop, aptly describes the Salvation Army's attitude to human need.

Square Notes From Circle Eight

The following item is a reprint from the Penticton Herald with thanks also to "The Square Dancer"

"There have been many mass cultural activities in the past, but none appear to have captured the population so completely as the present active interest in square dancing. In trying to analyse the reason for the upsurge in this popular form of recreation you cannot help but feel that one of the main reasons is the active participation by a large group of people of various backgrounds, environment and age groups. Recreation that is inexpensive, does not make demands on physical stamina and is carried on in an atmosphere of easy formality. In other words square dancing is a form of common denominator when all participants are on an equal footing and the main purpose appears to be to have fun and see that the next person does the same.

The type of square dancing now being taught is standardized so that regardless of where a person may travel in this continent you can enter right into the dance. New dances are introduced from time to time so that interest is kept high.

It has also been demonstrated that square dancing can become one of the features of festivities where a large group can participate and a person can have a much more enjoyable time doing something than being a mere spectator watching experts perform."

The above item certainly explains in few words why square dancing has attained such a high point of interest in the lives of so many people. We are all looking forward to a full hall and a lot of fun for Circle Eight birthday party this week.

Harold Schacher will be calling in Lloydminster this Friday, May 6th.

The secretary still has a few tickets left for the Gilmour dance at Mannville next Tuesday, see you there.

Old Ice Boxes Still Prove Death Traps

Old abandoned ice boxes are veritable "death traps" which still are taking a toll of children whose average age is five years, according to a warning issued by the Alberta Safety Council.

From May to September is the critical time of the year. During this period, children have leisure time for outdoor play and discarded airtight cabinets with locks or the hinges intact provide enticing hiding places.

Already there have been reports elsewhere of youngsters having been suffocated in discarded ice boxes. Children also become locked in refrigerators, freezers and other airtight cabinets for many reasons

Homesteaded At Islay In 1903, Donald Gilchrist Dies

Donald Gilchrist, who homesteaded at Islay back in 1903, one of the very first to settle in that district, died in Edmonton on Wednesday, April 27 at the age of 85 years.

Born in Ontario Mr. Gilchrist came to Alberta in 1903 and homesteaded at Islay. He moved to Edmonton in 1912, served overseas in the first great war and on his return worked with the postal service. He retired in 1936.

Mr. Gilchrist is survived by his widow; two sons Donald and Charles of Edmonton; one daughter Mrs. W. J. Gibson, Edmonton; 8 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Two sisters also survive, Miss Lillian Gilchrist and Miss Elizabeth Gilchrist.

Blue Martins Arrive Early

Albert Hildreth who has made quite a study of the habits of Blue Martins, says that the first pair or advance guard arrived on April 20, two days earlier than a year ago when the first pair appeared. One pair comes and then five days later without fail, the flock arrives. This is the first time that the Blue Martins have ever made their first appearance in April. Mr Hildreth is quite confident that the Blue Martins will come in force May 5th.

Albert has bird houses at his home here where the Martins make their headquarters. He finds the small blue feathered creatures an intensely interesting study.

The most common day for the advance pair to appear is May 2nd and the main army on May 7th.

Rat Control And Detection Discussed

(From Islay News)

ISLAY. — On Tuesday a meeting was held at Wainwright when the pest control officers of different areas, the district agriculturists and sanitary engineers were invited and were given talks by the Rat Control officers on detection, and ways and means of control or eradicating the Norway rat. Some films were shown that were really eye-openers, showing what a filthy pest the rat is. It carries and gives bubonic plague, etc. Man being such a wasteful creature as regards food, the rat (unlike the gopher which carries diseases too but stays on the open prairie) stays close to human beings. Let us clean up and stay clean around our dwellings.

Mr. Bill McLean is the control officer here and hopes to have Mr. Lobay come and show these films. Today science is finding many new things and they are finding means of destroying the rat. Let us keep Alberta rat free. We have cleaned up some areas and are driving them back as was shown at the Wainwright meeting.

MANNVILLE & DISTRICT LOCALS

The doctor and hospital staff were kept very busy for a time on Monday afternoon. Two rather serious accidents occurred. In a flash fire at the home of Mrs. Townsend when she was painting, papers on the floor were ignited and in gathering them to get them out of the house, Mrs. Townsend suffered a badly burned arm, chest burns and several burns on her legs. She had the fire out with the help of neighbors by the time the fire brigade got there, which was a matter only of seconds. The doctor is keeping Mrs. Townsend in the hospital for a few days.

In the other accident Mr. Bill Markowsky carpenter of the Mannville school, had the misfortune to sever one finger and part of another while building cupboards at the H. Doherty home. He is also in the hospital at the present time.

In appreciation of the C. G. I. T. girls baby-sitting during the past year while she led Mission Band, Mrs. Sowden provided a bountiful and delicious lunch for the girls after their regular meeting on Monday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. C. McPherson arrived in Mannville on Friday last. Mr. McPherson will be taking over the duties of the Anglican parish here on May 17. Sunday May 15 will be Mr. Corness last Sunday as relieving minister.

Mr. Walter Gerhart of the Beaver (Alta.) lumber yard has been transferred to the lumber yard at Paradise Valley.

Miss Barbara Chrysler is joining the staff of the local Bank of Commerce.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. Jondel recently were his niece and husband Mr. and Mrs. Otto Brenner of Morinville.

For the Ed Gilmour Square dance jamboree on Tuesday, May 10 single tickets may be purchased and cutting in will be permissable for local club members. Don't stay away just because you haven't a set made up.

Mr. Jim Miller of the local Bank of Commerce staff has been transferred to Milk River. As the notice was so short there was not time for a farewell party but he was presented with a pen and pencil set by the L.O.L. and L.O.B.A.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Remspies on Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hubbard of Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. H. Harringa and Mr. Russell Hubbard of Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Booher of Two Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Armitage and Clarence Armitage of Cherry Grove, Mr. Jim Faye, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hubbard and son of Lavoy, Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Hauser of Viking, Mr. and Mrs. Don Syer [illegible] of Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. ## Anglican Church Is Setting For Pretty Wedding, Clandonald

GOAD—STOCKWELL

St. Mary's Anglican church, Clandonald was the scene of a very pretty wedding recently when Eileen Mary Stockwell, younger daughter of Mr. E. Stockwell and the late Mrs. Stockwell became the bride of Clifford Charles Goad, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Ballard Goad, all of Clandonald.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Clennett assisted by Rev. K. Minchin.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor length strapless gown with bouffant skirt of embroidered nylon net over satin. The lace over satin jacket featured lily point sleeves and pearl trimmed collar.

A tiara of orange blossoms and pearls held in place her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Walter Coulter attended her sister as matron of honor. The bridesmaid was Miss Marilyn Brake. Their gowns, in delicate pastels of pink and green respectively, had billowing floor-length skirts of net over satin and net boleros. They wore matching veils and carried bouquets of pink and yellow carnations.

The groom was attended by his brother William Goad and Thomas Stockwell.

Walter Stockwell and Thomas Stockwell were the ushers.

During the signing of the register a vocal solo was presented by Mrs. C. Laird. Music was supplied by Mr. S. Calder.

At the home of the bride's father a wedding breakfast was laid on a lace covered table for twenty-eight.

The three-tiered wedding cake on cerise tulle was topped with sweet tulips and tapers.

Mr. Hugh Hagen proposed the toast to the bride. The afternoon reception was enjoyed by over 100 guests.

In the evening the young couple entertained their friends at a dance in the Orange hall attended by a capacity crowd.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. R. Goad of Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. C. Climie of Wetaskiwin, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hagen of Blackfalds, Mr. C. Stockwell, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goad, Mrs. W. Sickstrom and Mr. S. Calder all of Edmonton.

For going away the bride donned a grey suit with red and black accessories.

After a honeymoon in Calgary and Kalispell Montana, Mr. and Mrs. Goad will reside on the groom's farm north of Clandonald.

"Life of Louis Riel" Subject of New Book

The stirring life of Louis Riel is the subject of a new historical book being offered for sale during Alberta's golden jubilee year.

The 214-page publication entitled "Louis Riel, 1844-1885" is a critical study of the life of the controversial leader of the Red River and North-West Rebellions. Written by the late William McCartney Davidson, it is now being offered for sale by The Alberta Publishing Co., Calgary, at $2 a copy.

A condensed version of the book was printed in serial form in the Albertan in 1951, and a pamphlet was offered for sale in the following year. However, the present book is the first complete unabridged version of Mr. Davidson's 16-year-old study of Louis Riel.

The book begins by tracing Riel's ancestors and the activity of his parents, Jean Louis and Julie Riel. It tells of his early life with the Metis, his education in Montreal, and the Red River Rebellion of 1870. The last section deals with the Riel Rebellion of 1885, its failure, and Riel's subsequent trial and execution.

The book is one of several planned during Alberta's 50th anniversary by non-government bodies as a contribution towards the province's historical heritage.

F.U.A. and A.F.A. Study Car Insurance

A joint committee was set up recently by the Farmers' Union of Alberta and the Alberta Federation of Agriculture to study car insurance in Alberta.

This committee which is making a factual study of vehicle insurance in order to prepare a car insurance plan, held its first meeting in Calgary on April 27. Roy Marler of Edmonton was appointed chairman and Mrs. W. C. Taylor of Wainwright, secretary.

The meeting dealt largely with procedure to be taken and arrangements were made to assemble statistical information for study by the members before the next meeting which will be held in June.

At United Church Last Friday Evening

Delightful Concert Given By Miss Reese and Miss Rinella

A very delightful concert was very well received by a good crowd in the United church on Friday evening April 29. It was the concert by Juanita Reese, lyric soprano of Portland, Oregon, assisted by her accompanist, Anna Rinella.

Miss Reese' opening number "Tu Lo Sai" by G. Torelli was done with great feeling, the delicate passages were sung with complete control.

"O Cessate Di Piagarmi" by Scarlatti was very sweetly sung. "Lasciatemi Morire" by C. Monteverdi, a very powerful number was strongly sung by Miss Reese, the expression of this was almost perfect. "Lasciatemi Morire" — "Let death now come and claim me, what, I implore you, could bring me comfort" was the pick of the first portion of the program.

After intermission Miss Reese sang four old favorites and several negro spirituals.

"One Who has Yearned Alone" by Tschaikowski, was very appealing and held the audience entranced in its entirety. "The Last Rose of Summer", arranged by Carl Deis, has never been sung as well before by anyone ever heard by your reporter. It was positively wonderful.

Of special appeal to the younger set was "Little Willie" by John Jacob Niles. It is a bouncy little number and brought smiles from the youngsters, and oldsters too in fact, by the delightful way it was presented.

The negro spirituals of course were very popular with the audience and Miss Reese was called upon for several encores.

Anna Rinella, Miss Reese' accompanist, presented three numbers just before intermission, "Fantaise Impromptu" by F. Chopin, "Poeme" by Z. Fibich and "Golliwog's Cakewalk", C. DeBussy. Of these three numbers Miss Rinella's presentation of "Golliwog's Cakewalk" was the best. This selection calls for very difficult fingering and the artist accomplished this quite masterfully. Miss Rinella, be it understood, is not a concert pianist, but shows great promise. She is going to study in Santa Barbara, Calif., this summer on a scholarship that she won recently in Portland. Both artists hail from Portland, Oregon, where Miss Reese was born. Miss Rinella is Italian born, coming to America when four years old and began playing the piano at eight years.

Both studied their music at the Portland School of Music. Miss Reese has remarkable voice control and to see and hear her sing should be an inspiration to the young vocalists of the district.

The United Church choir were very fortunate in their venture to sponsor such an artist and bring to the people of Vermilion an evening of high class entertainment. A bouquet of beautiful flowers was presented to Miss Reese by Miss Wendy Wright at the end of the program after which the choir entertained the young artists and visitors with a delightful lunch in the church hall.

WHERE TO FIND IT

Petroleum and mineral possibilities in the Arctic islands of Canada are to be thoroughly explored in an airborne geological survey operation which dwarfs anything of the kind ever before attempted reports The Financial Post.

At a cost of about $250,000 11 senior geologists with 10 student assistants will map 120,000 square miles of land, covering all the main geological zones in the Arctic islands, and investigating the geology of structures which have been compared both to the Alberta foothills and to the oil-bearing lands around the Gulf of Mexico.

Training Course For Part Time Recreation Leaders

The course is divided into sections for first year and second year students with all candidates receiving certification from the health and recreation branch on the successful completion of the course.

The first year course includes group games, rhythmics, community singing, round and square dancing, first aid, recreation principles and administration with the candidates choosing three of the six optional courses in gymnastics, arts and crafts, clubs and hobbies, team sports, drama, and fitness conditioning.

Enrolment in the course will be limited to 125 with early applicants being given preference in their choice of optional courses. Application forms and information are available from the Health and Recreational Branch, Alberta Block, Edmonton.

Elsie McFarland, the health and recreational director will be director of the school assisted by Ted Sawchuk of Eastglen high school, Edmonton.

In 1954 the Canadian National Railways carried almost 18 million passengers on journeys that totalled 1,471,708,531 miles. This tremendous transportation job was carried out in all kinds of weather over every type of terrain from Newfoundland to B.C. without a single passenger fatality.

"GREEN ACRES"

SEED AGENTS

Cyril Noyes has been appointed as forage seed agent at Lloydminster by the Alberta Seed Growers Co-op. Other agents are Gordon Ross, Vermilion, the Seed Plant at Marwayne and C. Swain, Mannville. The freight on seed is paid to country points. Roy Jory of Vermilion takes orders for Great West Seed Co. Everyone agrees that more of the old land should be seeded down. Why not get enough seed for 20 acres or so this year. When you see the good results you will do it every year.

TRACTOR SAFETY

There were very few tractor and machinery accidents in this area last year. Let us make it a perfect score this year. Accidents are mostly a matter of carelessness and taking chances. Everyone knows the rules for safety. You may get away with it once or twice but sooner or later bad luck will catch up on you.

POULTRY LOSSES

Losses of young chicks and poults have already been reported to this office. When a few chicks are sick or have died, steps should be taken at once to check the disease or to correct the feeding or maybe both. If you report how the chicks act when sick we will give any help we can at this office to save further losses. Get a book on Poultry Diseases from this office.

EARLY VEGETABLES

Some vegetables such as carrots, turnips, peas, lettuce, parsnips and radish are frost hardy in the seedling stages so seeds can be sown as soon as the land can be worked. It is best to start a few rows early and then seed the main crop about May 10. Frost tender vegetables such as beans, corn, potatoes and beets should not be seeded until after May 20th.

ONIONS FROM SETS

Onion sets are frost hardy and can be planted as early as the land can be worked. Only one onion grows from a set but if you want green onions for the table get multipliers or shallots as they are sometimes called. The onion maggot is so bad in this district now that onions cannot be grown without treating the seed or the soil with aldrin or chlordane.

SWEET PEAS ARE WONDERFUL

Everyone ought to grow sweet peas. Plant the seeds early. Dig down at least a foot and use manure or fertilizer. If you want the plants to grow tall with big flowers pinch back the first sprouts, prune and water regularly. Then build a fence 8 to 10 feet high and you will have sweet peas you will be proud of.

BURNING STUBBLE

It is poor business to burn stubble as well as breaking the law. The stubble should be worked into the soil to improve the fertility and the water holding capacity. It also helps to check water and wind erosion.

Mannville United Church W.A. Present Variety Program

MANNVILLE. — Close to 300 people enjoyed the excellent program presented by the United church W.A. on Tuesday evening last.

Two numbers by the High school girls' chorus under the able direction of Miss Nelson, opened the program. Great credit is due Miss Nelson and the girls for their rendition of Happy Wanderer.

A solo and dance by Beverley Proudfoot as "Bimbo" captivated the kiddies as well as the adults.

It is always a pleasure to see young people take an interest in the violin as so few do now — and the two promising young girls, Beverley Westover and Lorraine Younge with their violin duet accompanied by Mrs. Younge were exceptionally good.

"Open Up Your Hearts" sung by Brian Scoggins and Merle Smith's solo "Tell Me a Story" were well received by the audience. We all like to hear the young folks sing.

The play "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" put on by the C.G.I.T. and Explorers under the capable leadership of Mrs. Doherty was very colorful and well acted. The costumes were very good and the young people enjoyed doing the play as much as the audience enjoyed watching it.

Ruthe Gamble was at her usual best in the solo "The Heather on the Hill". She was accompanied by Carol Mercer as were Adele Matney and Connie Gerhart in their duet. Their voices blended in perfect harmony in "Cool Water". Violin selections by Mr Elliott, accompanied by Mrs. Elliott are always enjoyable and add variety to the program. Lively, sprightly music was supplied by the instrumental trio, Joyce and Ruth Gamble and Doreen Gerhart. Two very appropriate readings were given by Mrs. Joan Lugg. Trouble in Amen Corner dealt with the old man who loved to sing right along with the choir even though his voice was out of tune and time. The other entitled Ladies Aid was so true of any of the ladies' organizations of any cuhrch. Leave it to the ladies — they will see that it is done.

The climax of the evening was the play by the W.A. members — Ada Gives First Aid. It was very well cast and well acted. Mrs. Marg Smith as Mrs. Harvey Wilde was the housewife to start the first aid class and so considered that she should ask the questions and deal with all matters pertaining to first aid. Mrs. Bert Clark as Laura the maid and Jim Fitzgeral (the corner cop off duty) played by Mrs. Marion Doherty added humor to the play. Mrs. Fay Saunders, played by Mrs. May Proudfoot and her spinster sister, Mrs. Hilda Williams (it was hard to recognize Mrs. Mary Rostron in that get up) along with Mrs. Minnie Hartin, the town gossip and troublemaker (portrayed by Mrs. Elliott) and Mrs. Hager the newlywed played by Mrs. Norma Ewing, made up the group of ladies gathered to study and practise first aid. Dr. Mortimer Gerald (Mrs. Van Dusen) who had recently moved next door was on his way to use Mrs. Wilde's phone when he accidentally fell in her garden and made the perfect victim for the first aid class. This play by the W.A. ladies was very much enjoyed by the audience. Mrs. L. Colborne directed the play and Mrs Joan Lugg and Mrs. Emery Matney were in charge of make-up.

BOWTELL BULLETIN

It is May 2nd folks and we can still see snow left from the last storm. It is nice today though and we hope that this is spring. Many roads were impassable and farmers are again facing a late start on the land.

Grandma Jones was bereaved last week by the passing of her youngest brother in England.

Granny Robinson is expected home this week as she is retiring from teaching due to poor health.

Arnold Maggs left for Edmonton where he has entered a hospital to receive medical attention. Best of luck is wished Arnold with the hopes for a quick return to health and home.

Church service had to be postponed at Pleasant Valley Sunday May 1st due to bad roads. Maybe our councillor would consider fixing the road just inside the gate of the church yard. If this little piece was mended cars could be left on the road and people could walk into the church. As it is now the water just stops there.

The E Lippert family were guests for supper Sunday at the Robinson home.

The ball games have started again. A nice crowd attended the first practice Sunday afternoon last. Watch your Standard for time and place of league games.

BUSY BEES MEET

The April Busy Bee meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Scott. Due to muddy roads quite a number were unable to be present but ten members and 2 visitors turned up. Visitors were Mrs. Gagnon and Mrs. Bjork. Ladies should note specially that the May meeting is cancelled. The June gathering will be held at the home of Mrs. Bert Moses. Mr. Doan will give advice at that gathering on trimming hats. Each member is to bring a hat and trimmings. Lunch committee is Mrs. Dedelly, Mrs. B. Gould and Mrs. Johnson.

George Gow had the misfortune to cut his leg with an axe requiring medical attention.

Kenny Risdale and Allan Coutts visited a few days at the Sherwood home. Sharon Redman also spent Monday night at the same home.

Mrs. T. Rochford and Barbara visited the former's sister Mrs J O'Donnel in Calgary last week.

UNITED CHURCH MEETINGS

The W.A. groups of the United church will meet Tuesday May 10 at the following homes: Mrs. Downey's group at Mrs. Kay Stewart's home, Mrs Seuffert's group at Mrs. I Larson's home, Mrs. Winter's group at the church hall. 44

The World of Wheat

By W G MALAHER, Director, Research Department, Searle Grain Co. Ltd.

THE GREATER UTILIZATION OF WHEAT: A PROBLEM

The statement so frequently heard that there is, today, no overall wheat surplus would be essentially true if it were suddenly possible to dispose of all the wheat on the North American continent, to those in other parts of the world who are anxious and willing to consume it but who, unfortunately, do not have the means to procure it. As long as wheat production remains at a fairly high level, however, and as long as it is not possible to expand our export markets for wheat to any extent, there will be problems of surplus.

The question is often asked, is there not some way of increasing the utilization of wheat at home, particularly as human food? Those who are concerned tell us that, under present conditions, the chances are slight. They point out that a substantial reduction in price is necessary to move even a relatively small additional quantity of wheat for human food, and that at any given time the 'price effect' is of minor importance, in relation to the quantity of wheat consumed as food on the North American continent. Another interesting point brought out in various studies which have been made shows that people with very low incomes and low standards of living have a tendency to increase their consumption of wheat when incomes rise. However, at higher income levels, the reverse situation appears to be the case. In other words, beyond a certain point, further increases in income are accompanied by decreases in wheat consumption. The fact that the standard of living has reached a fairly high level on this continent, therefore, is probably a partial explanation for the steady decline in the per capita consumption of wheat in both the U. S. A. and Canada since the turn of the century.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

By JUNE E KIRK —

MOTHER'S DAY

Mother's Day is just around the corner. May 8 to be exact. And it could be daughter's day too, as far as preparing the meals is concerned. In other words, Give Mother a break! This is one day of the year when she shouldn't need to lift a finger to work of any kind.

And here's a dessert that you, daughter could prepare the day before. It's "Pineapple Delight".

Mix 2½ cups graham wafer crumbs and ½ cup melted butter or margarine, and pack them into the bottom of an 8-inch square pan, reserving one-third cup of crumbs for the top. Bake for 15 minutes in a 350 oven. Drain a 20-oz can of crushed pineapple thoroughly.

Beat ½ cup of butter 1½ cups of sifted icing sugar, and 2 eggs together until light and fluffy, and pour over the cooled crust. Whip ½ pint whipping cream, add pineapple and spread on top of the filling. Then sprinkle that one-third cup of crumbs over this, and refrigerate several hours before serving.

If she's not on a diet, mother should love it!

TO WHITEN NYLON

Du Pont has at last issued instructions for whitening grayed nylon garments. Of course it is better to prevent nylons from becoming discolored. First of all, never wash white nylon garments along with any other color. Also wash them thoroughly, preferably in a washing machine.

Du Pont's suggestions for whitening discolored nylon are:

1 Wash thoroughly with soap or synthetic detergent.

2 Dissolve one package of commercial color remover in one gallon of hot water (160 F) in enamel container. Add wet nylon garments, stir gently, maintain temperature of water, allow garments to remain 30 minutes or longer. Rinse thoroughly in hot water.

3 Two tablespoons of liquid chlorine bleach and two tablespoons of synthetic detergent are added to one gallon of warm water. Soak garments for 30 minutes with occasional stirring. Rinse again.

For the final rinse, garments are immersed in about one gallon of warm water containing one tablespoon of a commercial whitener.

Hang up to drip and vow never to let your white nylons get into such a state again.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

Can't say too much about the weather. Around 18 inches of snow fell on the 18 and 19, most of it has now disappeared. The high roads are fairly dry but the side ones are terrible, just impassable for cars, seems unsettled as yet too, as forecasts are for more rain and snow.

Alvin Throndson has come home and will be doing the spring work. He had been working west of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Omness, daughters Janice and Irene from New Serepta, their granddaughter Beth Hobbis and Auntie Mabel Lee from town were visitors in the district on the afternoon of April 13. An evening of music was enjoyed. Janice, Irene and Mom too are doing very well with their piano lessons taking them in the city. Janice is in Grade VII and Irene grade V [illegible] music. They both have sweet voices, a talent to be very proud of and will be enjoyed by so many.

A very enjoyable evening was had in the United church hall on the evening of April 15 when the Couple Club met for the second time. The show "The Hidden Heart" had such a good moral. The devotional, singing and games and visits with each other were really enjoyed. Lunch closed a very fine evening.

On the morning of April 16 Mrs. Della Walsh left on the bus from Vermilion on her way back to Waterways where she and her husband will pack their belongings and move to their new home in Edmonton. Their family, Adele, Doreen, Wayne and Laura were home with their grandparents.

Mrs. Ideiore Nelson and daughter Anna went by bus to the city on the morning of April 14. Anna was in the General hospital for a few days undergoing a throat operation. They returned home on Saturday evening. Going in they had an unpleasant wait out of Mundare when the bus got stuck and two hours elapsed before they got pulled out and were on their way.

On Monday April 18 Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Strome motored to the city for a day. They were accompanied by Mrs McIntyre and Mrs. McCambridge.

Such a wintry day on Tuesday Herb McPhee, Woody Wilson, Gus Throndson and Orley Omness spent most of the day working inside at the church.

Farmers' Picnic at Marwayne on June 10. More details later.

It was good to hear from you Mr and Mrs. Gerald Omness of Kindersley. We liked the snaps of your daughters and yourselves. We are pleased you enjoy the Standard and our news column.

April 25th Mr and Mrs Don Wilson motored to the city and took Adele, Doreen, Wayne and Laura Walsh to their new home. Della and Jimmy were awaiting their family.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ronaghan of Irma on the birth of a daughter, Stella Mary, on April 25th in the Viking hospital. Mrs. Ronaghan's parents' home is at Viking.

The Clandonald United church mission field have a student this summer from Sackville N.B., Mr. D Rector. He will have his first church on Sunday May 15 11:30 a.m. at Allandale.

The Stockwell-Goad wedding was on the 26th. The bride was charming and the bridal group lovely. The dance was well attended although it was a rainy evening. Our very best wishes to the happy couple for a long wedded life.

Closing thought: "Let us be first to give a friendly sign, to nod first, smile first, speak first, and first to forgive. Our voices can be heard and our songs of glory told, but the mirror of our actions are but the pathway of our souls.

Canadian Spend More On Cars Than On Houses

Canadian consumers are participating and getting the most for their money in the hottest sales race in recent automotive history, assistant editor David MacDonald tells Maclean's readers in the current issue of the magazine.

For the first time since pre-war days, MacDonald says, the buyer is back in the driver's seat. No longer can car salesmen substitute a pencil and an order pad for energy and ingenuity while customers clamor to buy his wares.

Maclean's gives two reasons for the intensity of the race; for the first time since the end of the 2nd World War, the supply of new cars has exceeded the demand, and the two largest manufacturers, Ford and General Motors, are locked in an all-out battle for supremacy especially in the low-price field.

And supremacy is worth fighting for. In 1953 Canadians spent more on cars than they did on shelter ($2.8 billions as against $1.9 billions). In 1941, the article says, [illegible] a car for every 10 Canadians. Now there's a car for every six. General Motors predicts that by 1964 the ratio will be one car for every four people. If they're right, that will mean 3,000,000 people driving 5,000,000 cars — about twice as many as are on the road now.

Nonetheless, Maclean's questioning of experts in the automobile selling field produced a difference of opinion on whether too many cars are being marketed in Canada today.

Howard Moore, managing director of the Federation of Automobile Dealer Associations of Canada replied: "The fact that there's a price war is all the proof you need that there are more cars around than we can sell at a firm price."

On the other hand James [illegible], an independent and president of the Toronto dealer group says: "I don't think this give-away rat race has produced one new buyer. If it hadn't started we'd be selling the same number of cars."

Dental Defects Most Widespread Ailment

TORONTO. — A World Health Organization program for combating dental defects — called the most widespread of all the ailments affecting mankind — was recommended by consultants from six countries meeting at W.H.O. headquarters in Geneva, according to a W.H.O. news despatch received by the Health League of Canada.

The program would include education, prevention, treatment, and research in the field of dental diseases. Such action was desirable, the organization believed, because dental diseases affect people the world over from early childhood to old age and without distinction of race, sex, surroundings, occupation or social status.

Dental diseases are not only very widespread, but also very expensive. In the U.S., dental disorders affect more than 90% of the population, and in 1953 $1.6 billion was spent for dental care. In Great Britain, the National Health Service spent $110.3 million for dental services in a single year (1949-50). In the same country in 1952, 88% of five year old children and 96% of ten year olds were found to have dental caries. The situation is similar in other so-called advanced countries, according to a report submitted by consultants.

The extent of the problem and the disparity between dental needs and resources even in the more advanced countries has so far resulted in [illegible] the part of the public and [illegible] health authorities, the consultants reported. It is necessary [illegible] effective methods of prevention and control. [illegible] appear to be [illegible] people to employ available [illegible] including good dietary habits and especially less [illegible] sticky fermentable soft foods, proper hygiene of the mouth and the use of [illegible] susceptible to decay.

[illegible] the consultants commented.

USE OF YOURSELF

The weather was bad this morning so I came to work by streetcar. I was amazed at the way men and women slumped in their seats, and twist into all sorts of ungraceful positions. It reminded me of a rhyme used to hear at school:

"A crossed-legged woman like a crossed-legged cat
It just ain't natter-al and that is that."

It always amazes me that this country is so ready to vote millions and millions of dollars for National Health and Welfare while so few people are willing to do the slightest thing to improve their own personal health. As I have said so often, governments cannot breathe for you, eat for you and now I add this governments cannot walk, sit or stand for you.

Thousands of people are ruining their health by confusing relaxation with collapsing. They slump in their chairs, they cross their legs, they hunch themselves up in every possible way. No wonder this is the generation of the slipped disc, the flat feet and the curved spine. Surely we have enough gumption to [illegible] our own bodies.

If you are not making proper use of your body I would strongly recommend that you get a copy of [illegible] book "Inside Yourself." It contains a foreword by A. [illegible] technique for [illegible] it costs [illegible] more [illegible] of dollars [illegible] every year for national health. Only one thing wrong with it. It will require a little bit of concentration and work by you. But after all, you do your own breathing anyway, don't you?

Health Unit Notes

It is with regret that the Medical Officer of Health and staff of the Minburn-Vermilion Health unit announce Mrs. Boulton's retirement from the Unit on April 30. We would like to take this opportunity of thanking her for her very valuable work during the past 15 months.

PREPARING THE CHILD FOR REGULAR DENTAL CARE

By the time Junior is 2½ or 3, he is ready for his first of many regular twice-a-year visits to the dentist.

Why start so young? Cavities don't wait for children to grow up. Sixty per cent of three-year-old children already have tooth decay. If these cavities are filled while they are small, they won't get big. If they are neglected, the child may lose some of his first teeth before the permanent ones are ready to come in. This often means that the second teeth are crooked, making it easy for tooth decay and gum disease to develop.

Many mothers don't realize that the primary teeth are far less sensitive to pain than permanent teeth and small fillings are practically painless.

It's a good idea to start your child on the habit of regular dental visits at an age when they can be pleasant experiences. The child who makes a friend of his dentist at an early age and who keeps having his teeth repaired while decay is in the first stage, will never fear dental work.

Tooth decay is most active during childhood, yet it is then that the growth of the teeth and jaws goes on. It will save many discomforts and even illnesses in later years to see that the child's teeth are always in first class condition.

Regular maintenance of the teeth usually makes it possible to bring a child to adulthood without the loss of a single tooth. In Canada today, the average 16-year-old has already lost two permanent teeth. This is needless, and is often the cause of teeth growing crooked, not meeting properly and not being able to chew well. Neglected mouths often suffer from gum disease too, and it is a tragic, but not uncommon sight to see people in their early 20's with complete sets of false teeth.

It is mother who makes the appointments, and it is also mother who prepares her children for dental care. It should be treated as a matter of fact, not a subject for discussion. It should be described like any other excursion, above all, mother should not give her child the idea of fear. Many adults like to exaggerate their sufferings in the dental chair, which may have been real enough in the days before local anaesthetics were widely used. Never frighten your child by tales of torture, or threats of the drill or anything else so silly. If you do, you will be storing up trouble for him and for yourself.

It is not hypocrisy, but quite true, to tell a child that if he goes to the dentist regularly and looks after his teeth at home, he will enjoy his dental visits. Children brought up this way look forward to a session with their friend the dentist.

Never try to fool a child. Don't tell him you are "just going down town", then suddenly swing him into the dental office without warning. If he is faced with corrective work, like straightening the teeth, don't pretend that it won't be a nuisance. If your child trusts you, he can take bad news.

Of course you have been telling your child to brush his teeth or rinse his mouth after after every meal ever since he first had teeth. But now the dentist will tell him, too, and Junior will begin to think that maybe there's something to it. It will be years before he will brush his teeth without urging, but it should be possible before long to have him head for his toothbrush at the first reminder.

The reason it is so important to brush your teeth immediately after eating is that tooth decay is caused by acids produced by bacteria feeding on sweet food particles in the mouth. Brush them away, and you've brushed out the possibility of decay.

Decay is increased in sweet foods such as cake, jam, pies, and candy. Encourage your child to eat the foods for health — milk, fruits, vegetables, meat, fish, eggs, cheese, and whole-grain cereals. Limit his candy-eating to after meals, just before tooth-brushing.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Make travel time toy time and your car trips with small children will be more enjoyable for them and easier for you, says Carol Lane, noted travel authority.

The secret of success is the selection of the right playthings—those suitable for various age groups and those which won't distract the driver or lead the children into hazardous activities, according to Miss Lane, women's travel director of Shell Oil Company of Canada. Emphasis should be on toys and games that can be enjoyed with little moving about.

For tots from 2 to 4, Miss Lane suggests an assortment of small dolls and soft, cuddly animals. Variety is important so that they can switch their attention from one to another frequently.

Crayons and drawing paper pads as well as coloring books are ideal for keeping children 3 to 8 occupied. Little girls in this age group also like to have dolls with travel wardrobes in small suitcases, while boys especially like small cars and other vehicles made of rubber or plastic. Boys and girls both like toy weaving looms, doctor's and nurse's kits, kaleidoscopes, children's cards and books of puzzles and pencil games.

To keep small youngsters happily diverted when they begin to get bored with their old playthings, Miss Lane says try a Mystery Surprise Box. You can get this ready before the trip by filling a box with low-priced variety-store toys. Put each item in a separate sack and at appropriate times let the children pick one out, grab bag style.

To be avoided, Miss Lane stresses, are toys with sharp points or liquid parts and things like pinwheels which encourage children to stick their arms and heads out the windows.

Children over eight are quite self-sufficient and take pride in a responsibility. They like to have maps and to follow the route and look out for turns. If the child is old enough let him keep the expense book and help pick out places to sightsee, eat and stay. Toy models to be assembled are also suitable.

Plans Under Discussion by Safety Council

"Car Driving Lessons" For Students Gains Favor

Sponsoring of a plan to train Alberta school teachers as driving instructors for high school students, as an extra-curricular, or "after school" course, will be discussed at the annual meeting of the Alberta Safety Council in Calgary this week.

TWO SAFETY CAMPAIGNS

The meeting is expected to approve plans for two major safety campaigns to be undertaken by the Alberta Safety Council this year. One will be launched in June. This will be a courtesy and safety summer driving campaign. Last year a similar campaign drew the enthusiastic support of 59 cities, towns, villages and municipal districts in the province.

The second campaign will feature winter driving hazards and pedestrian safety, which probably will open on Nov. 15, International Safe Driving Day, attracting interest and participation on both sides of the border.

Details of the teacher training plan will be threshed out at the annual meeting in Calgary. The purpose is to train teachers for driving instruction after the school hours, Saturdays and other times.

This course may open in Edmonton during the summer holidays.

From a general viewpoint, it will be designed to provide instruction for teachers at rural points, thus widening facilities for driver education in the province.

The Alberta Safety Council will discuss the possibility of engaging a well qualified teacher, who would go to some eastern centre to take a modern comprehensive course provided for driver teaching instructors.

Further, it is hoped that the plan will arouse interest in rural communities. Boards of trade or service clubs would be urged to follow up this teacher training effort by sponsoring local driver training courses.

Such oragnizations, assured of the full co-operation and support of the Safety Council could take steps to obtain a donated dual-control car for driver instruction, and promote the work.

Officials of the ASC feel confident that such a plan will create widespread interest in Alberta and will provide another strong move in the interests of traffic safety.

HOLIDAY MARMALADE

It is going to be tougher getting outside holiday accommodation for the next two weeks in Banff, and the first two in August, warns The Financial Post Weir.

Because that is when most of the hundreds of thousands of workers in Canada's cities pay their annual holidays, to take theirs. And each year more people investigating accommodation and finding there is no room to the gold holiday period.

Repeating out the pressure is not going to be easy but regardless of the complications, something will there would be quite a scramble

Dear Sir:

It seems Mr Editor that I will need more space in your valuable paper to say the public information on some of the statements made by Mr. Inman. The last paragraph of his letter of April 14 is directed personally to me and unless his knowledge of the Hospital Act is more than the Director of the Department of Municipal Hospitals, he must certainly be wrong in his assertion that I was eligible to enter another hospital prior to March 17, 1955, and if I have a letter from the Director I must to prove my statement; they always have changed their interpretation of the Act.

He also cannot understand the method of voting when put in a lot of time and expense to help our other people in asking for a separate school district, and then refused, on behalf of myself and the others who signed the petition, to vote in the same position as I am.

We were investigated through letter at the most here on this business and the gangs of beagle drove up to try and get a line on me. I told them was the only living soul on the and I was going to stay there. Indeed, I asked him where we could get a bunk, he informed us on the government. I didn't want to get a bunk at government expense, so I told him I would get it here, a political argument on my empty stomach, but no the government's fund he take like for most things, they neglect to send carry that too. However, when it grew him a chance to give me a written blast through the Standard. Never mind, Mr Editor and friends will never hurt me, for those who visited me know I am sane, and those who don't, I don't give a darn.

I was interested to find out that the hospital was never full at 50% of capacity. Maybe we should campaign to double the capacity for then more people get down to where they can't afford to pay $6.20 per day. That is what I intend to use the Islay hospital. It certainly is no reproach on other hospitals to be running under capacity, it only shows foresight; what does count is that many hospitals are showing an increase in patient days while Islay is dropping every year.

I might also state that if the Hospital board had wanted to give the public a report they could easily have rephoned the requisition and so give us all a break, rather than force the $1.50 rate which was evidently did use according to the statement of the Municipal Hospitals contrary to Mr. Inman's statement to the few who use the hospital. Anyone who complains of $1.50 per day for hospital service at present does little to complain of for it is less money than we can board for anywhere.

I don't know why the Board didn't add one cent to the tax rate and have a free hospital.

One figure I would like Mr Inman to get for me is the 1954 average of patients days per person entered, not just per person.

It's too bad it is not in the hospital any that a general meeting of the ratepayers was not called before there even was a thought of a loan to operate an auto body repair shop on Lot 9, Blk. 8 Plan 8647S. CH.

Moved that J. J. Marion be permitted to erect a lighted Texaco sign on the corner of Lot 21 Blk. 7, Plan 685V in accordance with existing regulations.

Moved and carried that Acheson Construction Ltd. be recommended for a Beverage to operate a concrete plant in the Town of Vermilion.

Moved and carried that a sign be erected on Highway 41 at the south entrance to town limiting the speed of motor vehicles to 25 miles per hour.

Moved that Miles Dawson be permitted to change the plan of the proposed house change to be in accordance with the letter dated May 2 1955. CH.

Moved that Lot 5 and east 20 feet of Lot 4 Blk. 1 Plan 8647S be sold to Mr Saul Ulitherow for $800. Title to be delivered to purchaser when basement of building is completed. CH.

Moved that Acheson Construction Ltd. be granted a building permit on Lots 9 to 11 Blk. 7 Plan 685V — to erect a service station with a value of $15,000 subject to existing building regulations. CH.

Moved that Saul Ulitherow be granted a building permit on Lots 4 and 5 block 1 — erect a Health Unit building at a cost of $17,000 subject to existing building regulations. CH.

The following motions were carried:

That $17,000 be borrowed from the Water and Sewer account for payment of the school requisition.

That the Mayor or Dep. Mayor and Sec Treasurer be authorized to sign cheques re: and that the secretary treasurer or Mrs M. Ilford be authorized to deposit monies or verify the accounts.

That the library committee be empowered to proceed with the construction of a closed in entrance to the library basement

C. G. I. T. Hold Graduation Service

A highlight in the lives of eight young ladies was the graduation service from the Canadian Girls in Training held at the United church on Sunday, May 8 at 7.30 p.m. This was a beautiful and inspiring service. The Canadian Girls in Training came in from the back of the singing a beautiful hymn. They took their places in the choir loft with the eight graduands in front. Miss Carmichael, the departmental president conducted the service. Connie Harle and Anne Stewart read the scriptures and Barbara Green led in the prayer.

Margaret Goodwin, a senior member of the C.G.I.T., spoke briefly of the contribution the graduating members had made to the C.G.I.T. group and to the church, and wished them every success in their future undertakings.

Ruth Beatty gave a brief review of the Christian Leadership course which she attended at Alberta college during Easter week.

The program included the singing of hymns by the graduands and senior group.

Rev. C. W. MacKay spoke briefly addressing his remarks to the group of graduates and taking as his theme. "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

Mrs Stewart, department leader of C.G.I.T., conducted the candle ceremonies presenting each girl with a diploma and a beautiful red rose — followed by brief words remarks.

Each member of the graduating class responded telling of the work during years spent in C.G.I.T. At first it was the fun and sociability that was attractive and while these features continued to please, they all found a deeper and more lasting attraction and meaning of the C.G.I.T. in their association with the Church

Following the graduation service in the church a reception and social hour was held in the church hall by the Youth Sponsor Organization.

The graduands who have contributed so much to the C.G.I.T. are Joan Kibblewhite, Eva Sweet, Mary Barr, Helen Adam, Connie Harle and Barbara Green.

Helen Adam came from Edmon ton to graduate with the group with whom she had spent her C.G. I.T. years.

In order to graduate with a di ploma a girl must be 17 years of age at graduating from grade 12. In high school and must have been a member of the group for a year.

Junior Choir Concert Friday, June 3rd

An interpretive composition, "The Song of the Fisher Boats" and "One Fleecy Cloud" are also being worked hard to make this a very successful event and of course would like to have a large audience to hear their first effort in the field of secular music. All parents are urged to attend.

Tickets will be available shortly from choir members and you would like to have tickets reserved, phone your order to Mrs. Gerald Owen no later. The object of this concert is to build up a library of music for the Juniors which will be given them experience in the line of musical entertainment and for them to be ready for the senior choral work when they graduate from the junior ranks. Full details including the admission prices etc will be found in a later issue of the Standard.

V. H. S. Entertain Parents At Enjoyable Function

On Friday April 29 the students of V.H.S. entertained their parents and the students of Mannville high at the V.H.S. Parent-Student dance. The assembly rooms was decorated as a spring garden with flowers vines and Japanese lanterns. As a tribute to the days when Papa was a courtin' Mama cartoons on the walls compared styles. Old time dances of yesterday with those of today.

The music which included some for merely dances, was supplied by Inman's orchestra free of charge.

It is the sincere hope of the students that our guests enjoyed themselves that we will be able to make this an annual affair.

The radio raffled to raise funds for the year book, was won by Dr. F. J. Young of Vermilion.

BLOCK CAPTAINS FOR TOWN CLEAN-UP

The Standard wishes to draw to the attention of the officers of Vermilion the importance of the annual clean-up campaign again being sponsored by the Board of Trade in co-operation with the Town Council. See the large display advertisement for particulars.

This year as in the past, every block in both business and residential districts is being organized, and each block is under the supervision of a block captain. This follows very closely the plan used so successfully last year.

The block captains are men who have offered their services to the Civic committee of the Board of Trade in the interests of a cleaner, and neater Vermilion.

The Civic committee of the Board of Trade respectfully requests that everyone co-operate in the fullest extent with their block captains. The clean-up campaign last year was good — but the Standard has been informed that there is still room for improvement, also that a great deal of trash has accumulated during the intervening 12 months. Let's move it now.

Gideons Re-organize For 1955-56

The second annual meeting of the Vermilion-Lloydminster Camp of the Gideons was held at the home of R. A. Swanson, Marwayne, on Thursday, May 5. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

Chaplain — R. A. Swanson
President — G. Gunderson
Vice-Pres. — Swanson
Secretary — E. Clendenning
Treasurer — E. Schurman
Memorial Bible Plan Representative — Roy Watkins, Vermilion; Cecil Gust, Marwayne; Wm. Stefanyk, Lloydminster; Wm. Stefanyk, Manville.

The financial year of the Gideons, International, in Canada closes May 31. A budget for the year is set and each camp is given a quota. In the local camp half of their quota was subscribed by the members personally, the remainder being realized from collections and from contributions from interested friends, many of the latter through the Memorial Bible plan.

During the year local members traveled 2001 miles to hold 61 church services. All monies realized are turned into headquarters for Bible and Testament distribution, expenses being paid by the members.

Youth testaments have been presented in the school divisions of Vermilion, Bonnyville and Vegreville. A total of about 550 copies during the past year. 1100 copies of the Holy Scriptures have been placed in the area.

On May 29 local Gideons have been asked to supply in the pulpits of seven churches while the ministers of those churches are at conference. This is a service Gideons are glad to perform and emphasizes their claim of "operating as an extended arm of the church."

Through the columns of the Standard the Gideons wish to thank all who have assisted in the success of this year's activities

Garden Club Promote Window Box Program

At a recent meeting of the Vermilion Horticultural Society it was proposed that a program of urging citizens to put up more window boxes be given publicity.

It was felt that on this, our Jubilee year, more flowers should be planted in the front yards and more window boxes be set up. Window boxes add a lot of color to the front of a house. There is nothing that gives so much satisfaction to a home owner as whose lovers or boxes of flowers on the front steps.

District Agriculturist Buckingham is head of the Society's committee which is promoting this program and he will be pleased to discuss making window boxes and the best kinds of flowers to plant in them.

Joe Matusiewich Dies While Driving Car

Well known in Vermilion for the past seven years, Joe Matusiewich, aged 41 years, died suddenly while driving his car north of Vermilion about midnight on Tuesday, May 10th. Joe worked with Doran Jackman on water and sewer construction work, and later for Mr. P. Link, north of Vermilion.

Joe was on his way north on highway 41 to the Link farm when he met Mr. Bill Popowich, driver of a bread truck which had a flat tire. Mr. Popowich did not have the proper tools to change the tire and Matusiewich offered to drive him into town to get the necessary wrenches. This they started to do when Matusiewich recalled that he had a tool box in his car that had the needed tools; swinging into a farm gateway, he proceeded to turn around when he suddenly collapsed.

Mr. Popowich stopped the car, rendered what first aid he could, and rushed him into town but doctor's evidence was that he had died instantly from a basal brain hemorrhage. No inquest was deemed necessary.

The deceased was born in Poland, lived in the last world war and spent thee years as a prisoner of war in Siberia.

Fastball League Schedule

Next games in the fastball league are:

May 15 — Can. Ut. at All Stars; Pleasant Valley at Army.
May 18 — Can. Ut. at Army.

of selected in the five tourneys staged for followers of that pastime. Men's open softball has been added this year with $100 in prizes; ladies' open $100 in prize money; high school girls $30 and $15; boys 15 and under and girls 13 and under with $10 and $5 prizes.

Besides these attractions there is a long list of track and field events for boys and girls from 16 years down.

EIGHT TOURNEYS ALL GOING AT ONE TIME

The Vermilion Athletic Associa tion will sponsor the eight ball tourneys which pack people get down to where they can't afford to pay $6.20 per day. That is what I intend to use the Islay hospital. It certainly is no reproach on other hospitals to be running under capacity, it only shows foresight; what does count is that many hospitals are showing an increase in patient days while Islay is dropping every year.

I might also state that if the Hospital board had wanted to give the public a report they could easily have rephoned the requisition and so give us all a break, rather than force the $1.50 rate which was evidently did use according to the statement of the Municipal Hospitals contrary to Mr. Inman's statement to the few who use the hospital. Anyone who complains of $1.50 per day for hospital service at present does little to complain of for it is less money than we can board for anywhere.

I don't know why the Board didn't add one cent to the tax rate and have a free hospital.

One figure I would like Mr Inman to get for me is the 1954 average of patients days per persons entered, not just per person.

CLEAN UP . . PAINT UP . . KEEP IT UP—

The realms of eloquent verse written by poets each spring can hardly be attributed to inspiration from humans. The muddy fields which, overnight, become emerald carpets are the magic handiwork of Nature. The bursting buds which make of every tree an admired debutante and multi-hued flowers pushing through the sun-warmed soil are Nature's creations.

In fact about the only unsightly things we see about us in spring, sights that would jar the creativeness of any poet, are man-made. Drab, paintless houses, grey and weather-beaten barns, broken down fences; weed infested yards and roadways and unsightly garbage piles.

Man, however, is trying to do something about eliminating them. In Canada each spring an annual beautification campaign is conducted urging citizens to clean up and paint up their properties. This year it officially starts on May 15. Plans are being formulated here and in other centres to make this the biggest campaign of this kind to date.

But we shouldn't wait for special days or events to stir us into cleaning our surroundings. Beautification should be carried out when it is needed. However if you must wait for an occasion then jump on your local "clean up, paint up" campaign wagon with vigor.

In Vermilion this is clean up week and in order to attain the objective sought every business man, every householder, must do his or her part in making Vermilion a clean town.

CANCER AND THE H-BOMB

In a hydrogen bomb attack on an unidentified Canadian city of over 1,000,000 population, 40 per cent would escape death if they received advance warning and took precaution. This estimate was made a few months ago by Civil Defence Administrators.

In an attack by cancer — the nation's No. 2 killer — Canadians have a 50 per cent chance of escaping death if they receive warning and obtain early, adequate treatment. So Canadian Cancer Society statistics indicate.

We are informed that the government is experimenting with a warning device that could be installed in a bedroom and set off by a change in electric current if enemy bombers approached and that within two years an elaborate detection system would be able to warn target cities from two to six hours ahead of an enemy bomber raid.

The Cancer Society is conducting a year-round, nation-wide program to apprise the public of the warnings of that disease, and how vital it is to have prompt medical attention, so that the present high death toll from this cause may be steadily cut down.

Cancer often gives early warning by one of seven common danger signals which can be easily observed by people generally. But to detect some of its sneak attacks in an early stage the observers must be physicians.

Millions of dollars are being spent by the government for super-range jet planes and guided missiles of tremendous power, as a defense against hydrogen or atomic bomb air raiders.

In contrast, the Cancer Society is seeking the comparatively modest total of $2,000,000.00 in its annual educational and fund-raising crusade while preparing for a knockout offensive against cancer by supporting research and stimulating discovery of new, more effective medical weapons against cancer.

We feel sure that no one in this community will want to shirk the opportunity to contribute and thus play a part in continuing the national Society's campaign to control this malady, aid patients, and carry on both professional and public education about cancer and the possibilities of cure for sufferers.

Average size of Alberta ranches are 2000 acres owned by the individual rancher with 6000 additional acres under lease from the provincial government.

YOUR FISH and GAME COLUMN

DECLARE TWO MONTHS' OPEN SEASON ON DEER

The Alberta government has declared a two-month open season on deer throughout the province. Limited hunting of moose will also be permitted under new regulations released by the provincial games branch. No hunting of moose and deer was permitted last year.

The holder of a big game licence can take his choice of one male moose, deer or elk. While deer may be shot throughout the province, elk may be taken only west of No. 2 highway and moose may be shot only north of the Bow River.

The only exception to the elk regulations is that either a male or female elk may be taken as the one antlered animal allowed in the area west of No. 2 highway and south of the height of land between the Highwood River and the waters flowing into the Oldman River.

TRAP 325 JACKFISH AND 12 PERCH

So far members of the Fish and Game Association here in town and district have trapped 325 jackfish and 12 perch in the Vermilion River and transplanted them into the lake for future fishing and it is hoped that soon we will have another 20,000 perch and pickerel from Long Lake.

PLEASE LEAVE TRAP ALONE

Last week someone tampered with the trap and caused considerable damage. This trap does not belong to the local Fish & Game but to the Fisheries branch while in operation, and anyone tampering with it may be prosecuted, so please let those and only those authorized do the lifting. If anyone else is caught or seen tampering with the trap they may find themselves in a very unpleasant and costly situation.

The Standard does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.

To the Editors,
Vermilion Standard.

I am delighted that you were able to find space in last week's Standard for the two letters signed by Robert Galloway, and I hope you will find it possible to publish this answer in your next issue, just to make the innings even, and keep the records up to date. Those two efforts, coming so close together, must have relieved the congestion on Mr. Galloway's chest considerably, and it was such an old congestion too. Being a ratepayer in two hospital districts, one would think he could have found relief, without interfering with the rights of others less fortunate, though more contented than he.

As I take my turn at bat, may I point out that Mr. Galloway's letter of April 29th is without doubt, in answer to my letter of the 15th which was directed to "Born in Islay" and not Mr. Galloway.

I must admit, Mr. Editor, that I have been very curious as to who this "Born in Islay" fellow really is. He states that he was born here and hospitalized here, and was a good fellow 40 years ago. If he was born in this Hospital he would be about 41 years of age now. He is convinced the Islay hospital is not giving service, that it would be better closed and made into a home for the aged. He supports the resolution passed at the municipal annual meeting, has travelled all over the Islay hospital district (probably at a very high rate of speed) and is quite positive that the small hospital is on the way out.

Since Mr. Galloway comes out boldly, and thanks me through the columns of your paper for a compliment extended to "Born in Islay" re his sitting duck comparison, takes exception to statements directed to "Born in Islay," I would conclude that "Born in Islay" and Mr. Galloway are one and the same person.

Now that the Islay Hospital Board is planning a general meeting, it would seem to me that this would be the proper place to bring this discussion to a definite close, and not monopolize your valuable space, Mr. Editor.

In closing, I take this opportunity of extending to Mr. Galloway a personal invitation to attend this meeting and I assure him that I will be there, and if necessary defend any statements that I have made in the press.

Thanking you again, Mr. Editor, for your patience, fairness and co-operation in printing these numerous letters.

I. D. Inman.

An adjourned meeting of the town council was held April 20th.

Plain Talk

DR. F. MacNEILL SMITH
Liberal Candidate

There are 265 members in the House of Commons, 48 of whom represent the three Prairie Provinces. Of that 48, 16 are Liberals, 6 are Conservatives, and the balance from the two so-called "splinter parties," to quote from an editorial in "The Farm and Ranch Review."

It is an elementary political fact that policies are decided in party caucus, and not on the floor of the House. After they have been agreed upon, they are presented in Parliament to inform the country of them. Speeches are made to influence the folks back home, not the members of Parliament. Government members have considerable influence in the formation of policies concerning the interests of their own constituencies. Members of an opposition party which can hope to eventually form a government, have considerable potential value to their constituents. Members of a splinter group, lacking the numerical strength to ever form a government and representing only a few of the ten provinces, have none. They are merely paid spectators; their speeches may read well to the folks at home but have not one iota of effect on policy formation. Canada will be under a Liberal government for at least the next two years. The moral is obvious.

Anglican Men's Club Complete Series Of Supper Meetings

The regular supper meeting of the St. Saviour's Anglican Men's club was held on Monday evening in the parish hall, 26 men present, with the supper committee serving up delicious Irish stew in generous quantities as the main course.

President Jack Kneale was in the chair and the guest speaker of the evening was the new Rector, Rev. Kells Minchin.

Mr. Minchin attended the first annual Alberta conference on Alcohol Studies sponsored by the Alcoholism Foundation of Alberta and the Dept. of Extension of the University of Alberta, which was held at the University last fall. His subject was "Profile of the Alcoholic" and was based on information of the conference. The speaker did not deal with the rights and wrongs but rather with the complex problem which alcoholism presents.

The other item on the program was a series of humorous monologues in Lancashire dialect, very well given by Mr. Cosh.

This meeting completed the yearly series held by the Club, as a recess is observed during the summer months.

Mr. Jack Kneale is the president of the organization while Wm. Fooks and Jack Knight have acted as secretaries during the past year.

Since September of 1954 eight supper meetings have been held with attndances varying from 22 to 40.

Speakers at the meetings since September included the Swiss engineers at that time in Vermilion installing the gas turbines at the Canadian Utilities plant; R. Cosh on the subject of "Toc H"; J. V. Kneale, subject "Gas Turbine"; Bishop Clark of Edmonton, subject "Public Relationship"; Rev D A. Ford "Fine Points of Literature"; Loch Martin "Worm's Eye View of D Day;" Rev. Buchner, Films of Canterbury; Rev. Minchin, "Profile of an Alcoholic."

The supper committee for each meeting consists of five men who are supposed to plan the menu, cook the food and serve it. On two occasions at least the meal has been cooked by the men in the parish hall kitchen. On the other occasions the food has been prepared elsewhere, smuggled in and placed in warm ovens in the hall kitchen, with the committee members trying to appear as if they had done it all.

The Men's Club, too, arranged two large delegations to attend meetings of the Deanery Laymen's Association. One of these was held at Wainwright with 14 attending from Vermilion, and the other at Viking with nine men making the trip.

Men of the church look forward to the meetings of the Club; good fellowship predominates and the short programs always prove interesting and entertaining.

The next meeting will be held the first Monday in September.

Package tours and family fares are among special train fares offered by the Canadian National Rys.

"Peaceful by thy sleep dear son,
It is sweet to breathe thy name;
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
Oft we think of you, dear son,
And our hearts are sad with pain.

Sweetest thoughts shall ever linger

They Keep Watch on Imported Disease

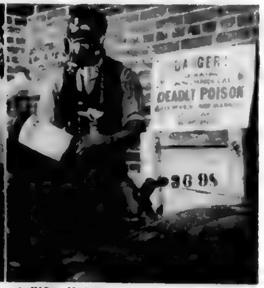
Quarantine station at William Head is one of chain stretching from Victoria to St. Johns, Nfld. Men of Q-Service also inspect immigrants arriving at major Canadian airports.

National Film Board Photo by Gar Lunney



At William Head Quarantine Station respirator-equipped technician prepares to fumigate clothing and bedding taken from suspected vessel. Sick sailor care is paid for by tonnage levy on ships.

Given clean bill of health by Q-Men in launch, British freighter NORTHLEIGH weighs anchor in quarantine grounds off William Head, B.C. and sets course for harbour.

If bubonic plague and yellow fever sound foreign to Canadians, a large share of the credit is due Canada's oldest federal health activity — National Health and Welfare's Quarantine Service, whose alert medical officers stand guard to keep Canada free from infectious diseases.

Working from reports of the World Health Organization, "Q-Men" in stations on both coasts chart every new outbreak of disease. All vessels from these areas must be inspected by a quarantine officer before docking. If necessary, passengers and crew are inoculated or removed to shore stations for treatment, and the ship fumigated. In addition, the service assures care for foreign crewmen.

Despite its remarkable record, the "Q" service is known little by inland citizens. Like the good health it ensures, it is hardly noticeable—as long as it's there.

Canadian Club Appoints Secretary

At a meeting of the Canadian Club held a few days ago the resignation of Mitchell Taylor as the secretary-treasurer was received and accepted. The resignation was due to pressure of other work. The executive appointed L. A. Dowling to fill the office until the annual meeting.

Death of Carl Younge At Mannville

MANNVILLE. — An old timer of the Mannville district and a long time member of the Alberta Wheat Pool, Mr. Carl Christian Younge passed away on Monday in the Mannville hospital after a short illness. Mr. Younge was 91 years of age.

Mr. Younge came to Mannville in 1911 from Denmark and settled in the Wealthy district. He was well known to everyone and for the past number of years he celebrated his birthday by holding open house picnic for friends and neighbors.

Funeral services were held from McQueen United church on Thursday at 2 p.m. with Rev. I. Holter officiating. Interment was in the Challey cemetery.

He is survived by four sons, Oscar and George of Mannville, Johnnie of Rochester, N.Y. and Otto of Oahu, Honolulu. His youngest son Dr. Rex Younge of Ponoka predeceased his father by two years. There are three daughter Mrs. W. Bailey of Montreal; Miss Eva Younge, Montreal and Mrs. Bliss F. Dickson, Edmonton, and fourteen grandchildren.

Moyers of Vermilion were in charge of funeral arrangements.

Square Notes From Circle Eight

The Circle Eight club's first birthday party and dance held last Thursday was a very successful affair. Everyone seemed to be having a grand time. The stunt dances went over very well — to see those four fellows doing a square with brooms for ladies was really something. Thanks to Doris Greenwood for decorating our birthday cake and to everyone else who pitched in to make it a very nice party. We were sorry that Irene couldn't be with Harold that night but it couldn't be helped.

The first year of organized square dancing in Vermilion has been very successful. We have had many good times, and feel that our dances must be popular when so many dancers from outside clubs come back to every one. The year was climaxed by the big Jamboree and now our birthday party, to wind up a successful year. We are looking forward to the next one with high enthusiasm.

For those who could not attend the dance last week you might like to know that we held an election of officers for the coming year. The new executive is:

President — Ken Greenwood

Vice Pres. — Gerald Wilmer

Sec. Treas. — Gerald Stephens

Social committee at present is Mrs. Doug Emerson, Mrs. B. Hawley, Mrs. L. Hicks and Mrs. W. Coulter.

A special committee was appointed to arrange for a float in the big Jubilee parade on July 28. It consists of Ted Edey, Walter Collet who is convener, Doug [illegible] and Ward McDonald.

Our next dance is in the Legion hall on Thursday May 19th with Henry Lien as caller.

Tickets are now on sale for the Jubilee Square Dance May 30th; pick them up from Ken Greenwood, Gerald Stephens, E. M. Stewart or Gerald Wilmer. Clubs outside of Vermilion please see your own club secretary.

That's all for now — just leaving for Mannville to hear Ed Gilmour.

The thematic display committee agreed to meet at Greenlawn picnic grounds on May 15 at 2 p.m. to organize the display and have a club meeting and ball practise.

Bonnie Maltais moved that the meeting be adjourned, seconded by Fay Poitras and carried.

Mannville Junior High School News

MANNVILLE. — A Junior high school party was held in the Mannville gym on April 24. Mr. Novak and Miss Behnke came from Vermilion with about 45 pupils. There were 24 from Minburn with their principal Mr. MacCallum. We were pleased to see the large number of parents in attendance at the party.

The first part of the evening was spent in playing games bringing a lot of fun and laughter for all. Dancing began at 9:45 with music by Willes orchestra continuing until lunch time. Dixie cups and doughnuts were served at 11:45 bringing a very enjoyable evening to a close. The Junior high wishes to thank all those who helped to make the party a success.

Official Opening At Preston Central School

On the evening of May 6th, 200 adults and children attended the official opening of the new two-roomed Preston Central school.

This event, coming in Jubilee year, was a memorable occasion in that some of the districts were nearly fifty years old. The Preston Centralization combines the districts of Basswood, Battleview, Triangle and Preston.

Mr D. McGrath acted as chairman for the very enjoyable program which was comprised of musical selections and a short play by the school pupils as well as many and various speeches by guests present. These included remarks by Mr. D. McGrath, the Divisional Board member, Mr. J. R. Bauman, principal of the school, Mr R. Dibben, chairman of the local school board, and Mr D. Clark, president of the Vermilion Local A.T.A.

Mr Simonson, our divisional superintendent, spoke of some of the advantages of our new school and invited everyone to look through the building at the end of the program.

The histories of the individual districts were given by old timers of these communities, Mrs Holte of Preston, George Harrison of Battleview and George Haines of Basswood. The history of Triangle was not given due to the absence of Mr. A. Beckman who was to have been the speaker.

These histories were very informative as well as humorous and much enjoyed by all.

FIRST TEACHER ATTENDS

In attendance, and also giving a very interesting talk was Miss G. Craig. Miss Craig was the first teacher at Preston school in 1910 and also taught at the Battleview school in 1912. Many of her former pupils were in attendance and many others were remembered. As the applause indicated, everyone enjoyed Miss Craig's talk.

PRESENTS PICTURE

Mr. J. P. Mitchell, representing the Department of Education, addressed the people, reminding them to set an example for the students to follow, and to try to take as good care of the school as possible.

He then presented the school with a beautiful picture, which was admired by all.

While lunch was being prepared by the ladies, the people were able to see how completely modern the new school is, with electricity, oil furnace with forced air heating and water and sewer system. It contains two classrooms, science room, and teachers' room upstairs, and lunch room, cloakrooms, wash rooms and a store room in the basement. The school serves 70 pupils who come in three busses and two cars.

The lunch, served buffet style, brought to a close a very enjoyable evening.

In the list of results obtained by Dewberry music students, Isabelle Jones received first class honors. In the list published she was stated to have received honors.

Combined Church Parade At St. Saviour's, May 8th

BROADCAST TO OVERFLOW CONGREGATION

Sunday May 8th, the 10th anniversary of the ending of World War 2 in Europe, was the occasion of a combined church parade at St. Saviour's.

In spite of blustery rain, 'A' Coy., Loyal Edmonton Regiment (3 Bn. PPCLI) under the command of Major L. Martin and the 97th Vermilion Squadron Royal Canadian Air Cadets, commanded by Flt.-Lt. S. Manyluk, paraded at the Armouries and march to church. Present also with the Reserve Army contingent were Capt. Doherty and Capt. Ackerman, and with the Air Cadets was FO Moore.

Altogether nearly 100 people attended the service in the church itself, and a further 70 were seated in the parish hall. An innovation was the relaying of the service into the hall by means of a public address system. Already in existence in the hall, its scope has been extended for use in the church itself.

Microphones were set up beside the Lectern and the Pulpit and the full service was broadcast to those unable to find seats in the church.

The Rector, the Rev. K. A. Minchin, who himself had seen service during the war in the R.C.A.F., conducted the service. He welcomed the troops and commented on their bearing and smart turnout. The lessons were read by Major Martin and Flt-Lt. Manyluk. The anthem "Cast thy burden upon the Lord" was sung by the choir.

The Rector preached an apt and enlightening sermon based on the Old Testament story of David and Goliath.

After the service, Major Martin remarked on the success of the parade as a whole, and expressed his intention of repeating it later in the year.

Insect Control Displays Are Popular Events

The spraying demonstrations conducted at Lloydminster and Mannville by R. H. Painter, Livestock Insect Control officer of Lethbridge were well attended by local raisers of livestock.

Mr Painter showed how high pressure sprayers can do a good job of spraying cattle for warbles and lice. The speaker mentioned the considerable losses suffered by the farmer from infestations of lice and warbles on their cattle.

At Lloydminster the facilities of the Union Stock Yards were available for the demonstrations and at Mannville the Sales Yards of Chester Gamble were used for spraying the infested cattle.

District Agriculturist E. H. Burkingham introduced the speaker at both meetings. Mr Burkingham stated that he considered that spraying cattle for insect control would soon be common practice on farms in this area. Several of these dual purpose sprayers will be purchased in the district this year.

The new experimental swine barn will be on display as will the University livestock. Results will be given for experiments recently completed on: selffeeding of lambs and vaccination against "overeating disease", creep feeds for suckling pigs, ground vs. unground grain for pigs, antibiotic feed supplements, milk replacers for calves, preparation and feeding of grass silage and finishing steers largely on hay and pasture.

Board of Trade Plans Clean-Up; Again Advocate Old Folks Home

At the Board of Trade meeting held on April 27, 27 members were in attendance and Mr. Albert Hracuther, chairman of the Retail committee, acted as chairman.

The chairman was pleased to welcome four ladies to the luncheon, an unusual number. They were Mrs. M. Dixon, Mrs. Vivian Dyck, Miss Leana Miller and Mrs. Conrad. The latter lady has become quite a regular attender.

A feature of the meeting was an address by Mr. Ross Boake, vice-president of the Board, on 'Retail Selling'. Interspersed with humor the talk brought forth many points on the proper methods to be used by retail salesmen. The talk was interesting and very much worthwhile.

A resolution adopted by the Board of Directors of the Alberta Associated Chambers of Commerce and Agriculture at its meeting in Calgary on Jan. 7 was read and endorsed by the Vermilion Board:

"That the annual meeting of the Alberta Associated Chambers of Commerce and Agriculture, to be held in Red Deer June 7 and 8, be requested to consider desirability of moving the joint office of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce and the Alberta Associated Chambers of Commerce and Agriculture from Red Deer to Edmonton, with the proviso that the annual meeting of the Alberta Assoc. Chambers of Commerce and Agriculture continue to be held in Red Deer unless the members themselves direct otherwise."

It was decided to send two delegates to the annual meeting, to be appointed by the executive.

Dr. Hanlan, for the Civic committee, reported that plans were underway for the clean up campaign. The committee was waiting for word from the town as to when trucks would be available. This would probably be about May 18.

There was considerable discussion as to support of members of the Board to the V.A.A.A.

A letter from Wainwright Board of Trade was tabled until the next meeting.

Mr. Bill Sutherland mentioned the possibility of Municipal Districts building Old People's homes. It was left to the executive to consider what support the Board could give to the best effect, in furthering this matter.

Mr Tom Watts reported a successful Cancer committee meeting.

Death and Funeral Of Steve Carpenter

The friends and neighbors of the Riverton district were much saddened to hear of the very sudden passing of Mr. Steve Carpenter on April 9.

The late Mr. Carpenter was born in Bercken, Ont., on May 16, 1887. He came out west to Alberta in 1913 where he took up farming. In 1921 he was married in Metiskow and with his family has lived in the North Home district since 1939. He will always be remembered for his quiet, dry humor and was always willing to help his neighbors at any time.

He leaves to mourn their loss his wife and two sons, Harold at home and Gene at Port Radium.

The funeral services were held at the Riverton hall on April 14 at 2 p.m. with Mr. Roche of Heinsburg officiating. Mrs. L. Van Camp sang "The Old Rugged Cross".

The pallbearers were Messrs. W. Morris, W. Holmen, R. Haskell, C. Lofthaug, L. Eskenhus, T. Johre.

Moyers of Vermilion were in charge of the arrangements.

Floral tributes were received from: Loving wife, Harold and Gene; Fred, Hattie, Sol, Margaret and Mrs. Morris; Chris, Leo, Dagmar, Bill, Doris, Art and families; Mrs. Haskell, Raymond, Elmer, Maynard and Edie; Mildred, Cecil, Elva, Gordon, Esther, Lloyd and families; Tom, Maude, Christopher, and Christy and families; Agnes, Dick, Eva, Bill, Lilly, David and families; Mrs. Pete Hansen and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hansen; Alice and Joyce McLennan; Mr. and Mrs. Neville Mollineux; Friends of Dewberry district and community; Bill, Lillian, Randolph, Annie, Eldrie, Louis; Harold, Effie, Gordie, Shirlye, Mrs. Joy.

Dental Health Habits Are Vital To Children

If your child follows the usual pattern, he may well be a dental cripple by the time he is in his 40's.

Dental disease affects practically everyone at some time. The pain, annoyance and even facial disfigurements of dental decay, for instance, affects 90 to 95% of the population.

Most effective approach to the nation's dental disease problem lies in installing the right kind of dental health habits in children early in life and in making available to them sound preventive measures.

Since sugar is the arch enemy of your child's teeth, one of the basic rules for sound dental health is elimination of excessive amounts of sugar in the diet. In this regard the between-meal snack looms as the worst offender. Foods commonly eaten by children between meals often contain large amounts of sugar inviting dental decay because each snack generates the production of new enamel-destroying acid.

Parents are urged to substitute such other foods as nuts, popcorn, potato chips, cheese or fresh fruits when children want to nibble between meals because these foods appease the appetite without leading to the harmful decay-producing acids.

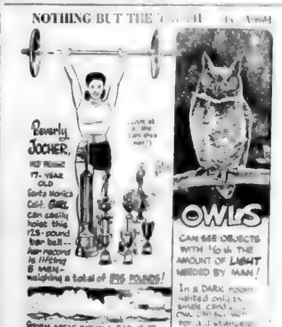
The toothbrush when used properly remains one of the most effective weapons for preventing tooth decay. It should be used immediately after eating, especially after eating sweets, because the build-up of enamel-destroying acid occurs rapidly after meals and snacks.

However, the toothbrush can dislodge the sticky food particles only if it is used in the right way. Since these food particles are most likely to adhere to areas between the teeth, the best method of toothbrushing concentrates on these areas.

In cleaning the teeth the upper teeth should be brushed downward and the lower teeth should be brushed upward. The bristles should be worked between the teeth. The chewing surfaces should also be cleaned as well as the inside surfaces facing the tongue.

A child should be taught to use a toothbrush as soon as all his first teeth have come in, usually between the ages of 2 and 3. He may not do a very good job and his mother or father will probably have to [illegible] the teeth afterward but [illegible] will have been [illegible] habit [illegible] early age.

[illegible] 1954.



Lay Corner Stone Of St. Mary's Home

Mark New Era For Homeless Boys

EDMONTON. — The laying of a cornerstone at the new St Mary's Home Technical school on Sunday, May 15, will mark the opening of a new era for the homeless boys of Western Canada. The half-million dollar structure, which was started last fall, is expected to be complete in time for the opening of school in September. The new school will provide accommodation for 125 homeless boys, and will teach them a craft or trade to enable them to take their place in society.

The Rector Major of the Salesian Order, Father Renato Ziggiotti, is currently on a tour of the Society's establishments in the U.S. and Canada and will in Edmonton to officiate at the cornerstone laying ceremonies. Father Ziggiotti was chosen Superior General of the Order in 1952. In World War 1, he served as a Captain of Artillery in the Oriental Alps. In World War 2, the Allied Command enlisted his aid in the organization of Boys' Towns in the wake of liberating armies.

The Salesian Fathers who run the home have made a specialty of training boys and have been running similar institutions in other countries for more than 100 years. They first made their appearance in Canada when they took over the operation of two schools in the Maritimes. They took over the care of the boys at St. Mary's Home in 1951. Since then they have also opened a school for boys in Vancouver.

The present St. Mary's Home was originally built as a fire station, and is not ideally suited to the necessities of an orphanage. The new home will provide lodging for more than twice as many boys as the present one and will also give the boys a more healthy atmosphere in which to grow up. The addition of regular training shops and classrooms will also enable the Salesians to import other members of the order who have special training in such crafts as printing, carpentry and mechanics.

The boys, who have always had a special party on Mother's Day, decided this year to hold the special celebration one week later so that it might coincide with the cornerstone laying ceremony. A group of women in Edmonton have made it an annual 'good deed' to provide the boys with some motherly kindness on that one day when a boy really wants a mother to remember.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Alberta Legislature Commences Second Sitting Of 1955 Session

EDMONTON — Members of the Alberta legislature returned to Edmonton this week for the second sitting of the 1955 legislative session — a sitting which may turn out to be the most important of the year.

When the session adjourned in April for the Easter recess, the legislature still had not disposed of some of the major bills presented to the house by Premier Manning's government.

NATURAL GAS EXPORT

In addition to that, there is the question of natural gas export to eastern Canada, in the light of the failure of Trans-Canada Pipe Line Ltd. to obtain financial backing for its proposed $300,000,000 project. The premier gave this as the main reason for calling members back to a special session.

MARKETING BOARDS

But one of the main items of unfinished business, and certainly the most contentious so far, is the bill which would permit establishment of producer-controlled marketing boards, to market certain agricultural products and set prices.

The marketing legislation became such a political hot potato that the government decided to give it to a meeting of the house agriculture committee, which consists of all 61 members of the legislature.

At last reports, the Alberta Federation of Agriculture and the Western Stock Growers' Association had signified their intention to submit briefs to the committee. It was believed both groups would be opposed to the bill as it was presented to the house — but for different reasons.

The AFA was expected to ask for fewer restrictions on the establishment of marketing boards, while the stockmen already have expressed strong opposition against the idea of having cattle and sheep included in the legislation covering the boards. Because of this opposition, cattle and sheep were excluded from the bill introduced by Hon. L. C. Halmrast, minister of agriculture.

The AFA was expected to oppose the provision in the bill that a marketing board for a specific product can be set up only if 51% of the registered producers vote in favor of it. The group believes this restriction will make it too difficult to set up a board and was expected to ask for an amendment making it a majority of those who actually get out and vote.

Usually solid Social Credit ranks are split on the marketing board question, and for still another reason. Several Social Credit back benchers spoke strongly against the compulsory features. They didn't like the idea of a 51% majority imposing its will on 49% who don't want marketing boards.

MLA's debating the bill used words like "dictatorship" and some phrases like "injustice to farmers", which gives some indication of the lively battle that has been going on in the Social Credit caucus over the same question for a number of years. Some Social Crediters said the bill will be abandoned after the agriculture committee hearing.

As the bill stood when introduced in April, it would permit establishment of producer boards to market poultry, poultry products, hogs, vegetables, honey, cheese, commercial grass and legume seed.

NEW AGRICULTURAL PROGRAM

Another bill concerning agriculture has yet to receive third reading, and it has been described as one of the most important of the 1955 session. It is an act to provide for conservation and more efficient use of natural resources, especially agricultural land.

Mr. Halmrast introduced the bill toward the end of the sitting in April, and announced that it will involve setting up a board of experts to survey various types of land in the province and determine the best use for them.

Earlier, the agriculture minister said many farmers are using their land for the wrong purpose — such as trying to grow wheat when the characteristics of the land are better suited to raising sheep.

The new program is designed to advise farmers on the best land use, and as Mr. Halmrast put it, "take some of the heartbreak out of farming." He said much of the board's work will be done on land opened up for homestead leasing, including the grey wooded soil areas.

Just what the outcome of gas export discussions will be is anyone's guess. Since the session adjourned in April, Premier Manning has been holding talks with pipeline company officials, gas producers and officials of the Ontario Government.

Originally, it was believed he would have a definite program to place before the legislature. Recently, however, he announced that a meeting of interested parties will be held in Ottawa after the reconvened session.

At that meeting, he said, officials will attempt to decide definitely whether export of Alberta gas to the east is economically feasible. If it isn't, he said, "we'll have to look elsewhere".

The government has been concerned over the delay in selling Alberta gas and considers it harmful to the province's economy to have the gas remaining in the ground with no available market.

The W.I. members are having a clean-up day at the school on Wednesday afternoon. All are requested to bring their own cleaning equipment. A short business meeting and lunch will be served later in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Bauer visited relatives and friends around Mannville over the week end. They are soon leaving on a holiday to the west coast.

The F.U.A. local held a dance at the school Friday evening and were pleased to see so many turn out for it. All enjoyed a very nice time.

Mr. August Van Nest was a business visitor to the city on Saturday.

There is not much field work being done here but several neighbors are noticed picking rocks.

The weather forecast given for May in a recent issue of a farm magazine is not very favorable, as rain and wet snow and freezing temperatures are predicted until the middle of the month. It is to be hoped they are wrong but fear they may be right by the feel of the wind at time of writing.

Predicts Tory Win In Britain

Perhaps you in Canada can see more clearly through a telescope than we can with our microscopes, says the London correspondent of The Financial Post. But despite all the currents and cross currents, and despite the thunder of the Gallup-ers I still adhere to my original forecast that the Tories will be returned by a majority of 47. Of course it might be 46 or 48 but I think it will be 47.

Awarded By Alberta Hotel Association

Fifty-three 1955 Scholarships Are Available For Grade 12 Students

Three major Jubilee scholarships tenable at the University of Alberta and four at the Banff School of Fine Arts will be awarded this year by the Alberta Hotel Association in adition to the annual scholarships offered by the organization.

Each of the university Jubilee scholarships will be for $1000 to cover a three-year period of study, one to be competed for by students resident in Edmonton or Calgary, one by students in the Northern Zone of the province and one by students in the Central and Southern Zones. The scholarships will be administered by the University of Alberta.

To further commemorate the 50th anniversary of the province the Scholarship Selection committee has granted an additional $1000 to the Banff School of Fine Arts, bringing the total to $3000 this year. The Jubilee awards will go to outstanding students in the fields of music, drama, painting and languages.

All of the scholarships offered by the Alberta Hotel Assoc. are competed for by students resident in Alberta only. Applications are now being received by Donald Cameron, director of the Banff school, for the 1955 session from July 4 to Aug. 13 inclusive and winners will be announced shortly.

Policy of the committee will follow the same pattern as in previous years. 53 Alberta students graduating from grade 12 will receive special awards designed to pay their way during the first year of university and a special fund of $5000 has been set up to assist students in lower grades to continue their education. The whole scheme will cost the hotelmen between $35,000 and $40,000 this year.

Five annual scholarships are awarded in Edmonton, 5 in Calgary, 3 in the Peace River area, 20 in the northern zone 10, in the central and 10 in the southern zones. Selections of the committee are based on academic qualifications and financial need of applicants who have reached matriculation standing.

Rural students attending the U. of A. in Edmonton, or the branch of the university in Calgary, will each receive awards valued at $500, while students residing in either Edmonton or Calgary and attending the university will each receive awards of $250.

Special consideration is given to applications received from lower grade students in public and separate schools where it is indicated that financial assistance is necessary if they are going to continue with their schooling. Grants in cases such as this will be made from the special fund and are reviewed by the committee each year.

Fifty-four Alberta students received scholarships tenable at the University of Alberta last year, 18 awards were made at the Banff School of Fine Arts, and assistance valued at almost $2000 was granted from the special fund.

Launched in 1952, the Alberta Hotel Association scholarship program has assisted 178 young Albertans in their scholastic careers. More than 40 applications were received and studied by the committee last year before final awards were made. Application forms and descriptive folders are now being mailed to Grade 12 students registered to write matriculation exams this year.

Record Auto Year?

Canada's automakers are unleashing their multi-million dollar productive mammoth to meet what they have decided will be continued booming demand for new cars, reports The Financial Post.

That looks certain now. There are even predictions that new car sales this year will equal or surpass the tremendous figures of '53.

In recent weeks manufacturers have been faced with a key problem: Whether to slacken their hot production pace or decide that 1955 is going to be a better auto sales year than most once thought.

There's still a chance that car makers will pull in their horns, decide that 1955 will just be another year. But new developments make that look unlikely.

Sales of radios by Canadian manufacturers dropped in 1954 to a post-war low of 457,237 sets from 620,860 sets in 1953.

As of March 1954, an estimated 67,980 full-time students were enrolled in universities and colleges across Canada.

WOODVALE NOTES

In our notes three weeks ago you may perhaps recall we wrote that weather permitting work on the land would be general in a few days. We can say exactly the same now. A few farmers did some harrowing last week but not until Monday did any venture with heavy equipment into the field.

Since the middle of April, snow and rain has made the side roads impassable several times with the result that the school was closed for a few days. Before they could be maintained a lot of drainage ditches were dug to prevent washouts, fields looked and were waterlogged. Sloughs filled rapidly and we heard of a farmer who had to swim the swollen Grizzley Bear creek to get to his marooned cattle. [illegible] us really shiver. The road east of Basswood, for a mile on both sides of the coulee still has very deep ditches on each side, making driving hazardous, at night especially.

The high wind last week blew the roof off a feeding shed at the Lysons' farm and deposited it in small pieces in the neighbor's field.

Bert Portsmith is staying with his sister Mrs. W. Fortune since leaving the Islay hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lysons have moved to the Jack Turker farm where Walter will work for the summer.

George Gow will put in the crop this year on their farms in the Woodvale and Hindville districts.

Mary Isley is spending a week with her sister Mrs. Bill Wells.

Jack Currie of Marwayne spent the week end with Ernie Isley.

George Machell hopes to be able to move to their new home in Islay some time this month. His father, still in the hospital there, is much improved.

We have not been able to gather much news lately.

We would like to extend sincere sympathy to Mrs. Bathe and family in their recent bereavement.

SEED GERMINATION TESTS

Many farmers who are in the habit of making a home germination test of seed grain each winter have expressed disappointment at the results they have obtained this year. However, even though such a test may not show up too well, that does not necessarily mean that the grain should be discarded as seed. For reasons which follow, the seed may actually give a much better performance in the field, and at worst, it may only be necessary to seed somewhat heavier than usual.

Unfortunately, much of the grain harvested last season under poor weather conditions, was below the usual standards, so far as quality was concerned, some of it having been tough when harvested and some of it having been damaged by frost. Samples of this kind do not respond readily or fully to an ordinary germination test, mainly for the reason that the seed, because of its condition, is likely to be in a prolonged dormant spell and it is necessary to break this spell before its full germinating capacity can be assessed.

That is why samples under an official laboratory test, where prechilling at approximately 40°F. is carried on to stimulate the optimum conditions for germination in the soil, usually show a somewhat higher percentage. In some cases, however, one chilling is not sufficient and an additional chilling is necessary to break the dormancy.

Laboratory tests have shown that treatment of seed with a mercurial disinfectant has increased the germination by as much as 11% ad this is one year, therefore, when treatment of this kind would seem to be advisable.

Letters to the Editor

The Standard does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.

Dewberry, Alberta.

The Editor,
Vermilion Standard.
Dear Sir:

I thought perhaps your readers might be interested in some of Social Credit's past history, and quote Mr. Aberhart as reported in Calgary Herald Dec 23, 1935:

"If I find I can't do it, I'll throw up my hands and quit".

"The next six months will decide whether Social Credit succeeds or fails in Alberta. Within that time the die will be cast one way or the other" — E. C. Manning, Edmonton Journal, May 28, 1937.

A. J. Hooke S.C. M.L.A. declared "I object to the Hitlerish and dictatorial methods of the Premier".— Edmonton Journal, May 28, 1937.

A. J. Hooke was possibly consoled by being awarded a cushy job as a member of the Social Credit board, for which he was paid at the rate of $9 per day ($2,516.75) for the year this was over and above his $2000 sessional indemnity. About this time too, a special session of the Alberta legislature was called, lasting seven days. The 62 members were paid for this service at the rate of $285.70 per day. (Not bad picking. Members of the Federal House were paid $25 per day then.

August 3, 1936, Prosperity Certificates were issued. $20,000 in certificates were to have been issued, but only a small percentage actually were circulated. Speaking at Ponoka, R. E. Ansley declared "The scrip experience failed because—

1. Government members themselves would not accept it; 2. the theory of velocity of circulation was a fallacy".

The late Bob Fair, M.P. for Battle River-Camrose, gained the respect of all who knew him for his work in connection with agricultural and War Veterans affairs.

The C.C.F. people of the constituency are to be congratulated in selecting as their candidate, William (Ginger) Irvine, than whom no man or woman in Canada is better equipped to "espouse" the cause of the common man and to "expose" the "Big Shots" of Finance and Industry in their varied manipulations.

To close, let me quote Stephen Leacock, in "Out West":

"Social Credit did not spring from the soil of the West. It blew in on the wind from the outside, like the locust and potato bug and the rust on the wheat".

Yours truly,
G. T. Skinner.

PARADISE VALLEY NEWS

Mr and Mrs. Gordon Guy of Edmonton were recent visitors at the home of Mr Guy's parents Mr and Mrs J. W. Guy. Gordon is now employed by the Park Allen hardware in South Edmonton.

The Paradise Valley A.T.A. held their annual musical festival in the P.V. school auditorium on Friday. Schools taking part included Van esti, Rivercourse, McLaughlin and Paradise Valley. Starting at 9:30 a.m. it was completed at 10 p.m. with a concert which was well attended.

Mr A. G. Lea, we regret to report is still a patient in the Lloydminster hospital. Mr. Lea has given up his business and Mr. D. B. Baxter is taking over the Treasury branch and other offices that Mr. Lea held.

Mr Lloyd Thomas who has been a patient in the Lloydminster hospital for the past six weeks returned home on Friday.

A total of $195 has been donated to the Red Cross from Paradise Valley during the drive. Quite a number have not contributed to this worthy cause as yet. Our quota was set at $265 so we are to date $70 down from last year.

Is it safe to mention the weather? At the moment it is on its good behavior but how long will it last? The fields are still very wet and seeding has not started. Some harrowing has ben done and farmers are hoping to get started seeding this week. Roads have been well maintained and are in good condition except the side roads which in some cases are impassable. The ban is still on the roads but if no snow, rain or what have you comes along we understand it is to be lifted on Monday.

Glad to hear that Mr. E. Mason is doing nicely after his recent operation in Edmonton. His many friends hope he will return much improved in health.

Of Many Things . . .

By [illegible]

AROUND HOME

Not long ago we decided to do a bit of renovating at our house. We saw an advertisement by a home decorating outfit so we telephoned them. A man came out and spent an hour and a half at our place, taking measurements, pointing out the difficulties of doing things the inexpensive way, discussing the high cost of labor, and he eventually departed. He was to have made up an estimate of the cost and let us know.

We never heard another word from him. Perhaps he's among the army of unemployed — I wouldn't know. Anyway, my wife was completely disgusted and decided to do at least the painting herself.

When she had finished painting the kitchen she was so proud of the job that she tackled the dining room and from there her momentum carried her right to the living room. The other afternoon when she was up on a ladder slapping paint on our living room, my daughter Kathie, aged four and a half, came in. She stood wide-eyed for a moment watching. Then she heaved a big sigh and said "Gee, Mom, I wish I could grow up like you, so I could paint, and live with a man, and everything!"

I got teased so much about this that I had to join in the home renovation business too. Some while before, we had an estimate made to change our basement around. The price quoted had seemed much too high to us. So, encouraged by my family, I tackled the job myself. With my son helping out, it wasn't too hard to do. The whole thing was completed in seven evenings, without too much strain. The total number of hours would be about 21. Judging by the estimate that had been given to do the job, I made myself about $4 per hour. That's pretty good pay. Anyone got a basement they want renovated? Maybe we could make a deal.

First Career Night Held at Mannville

MANNVILLE. — Mannville high school's 'Career Night', May 2nd, gave students in Grades 9 to 12 an opportunity to discuss their future careers with leaders in various occupations.

The program, arranged and financed by the Department of Education, was directed by Mr. A. A. Aldridge, Supervisor of Guidance for the Department. The first 45 minutes consisted of a general assembly in the gymnasium, during which Mr. Aldridge introduced the following speakers: Dr. Cooke, director of Student Advisory Services, U. of A., who discussed careers involving university training; Mr. J. R. Reed of the Provincial Institute of Technology and Art, Calgary, spoke on technical training; F.O. of the R.C.A.F. discussed careers in the R.C.A.F., Army and Navy; Mr. A. D. McTavish of the McTavish Business college, Edmonton, spoke of the value of business training in whatever career may be chosen; Mr. Aubrey Earl of the Department of Education discussed teaching as a career. Today's need for registered nurses, nurses' aide training and other specialized work for those interested in nursing as a career was discussed by Miss Johnston, matron of Mannville hospital; Mr. Palin of the V.S.A. spoke on the opportunities for training offered by the provincial schools of agriculture. Each speaker, upon being introduced gave a two-minute outline of the talk which he was to give later. At the conclusion of these talks, speakers and pupils went to various rooms to continue the program.

Each speaker gave his presentation twice, thus enabling all students to listen to information about two different careers. Each presentation consisted of a 30-minute talk by the speaker, followed by a ten-minute question period. At the end of the second presentation, students had an opportunity to discuss individual problems with the speakers.

All presentations were well attended and very well received which indicated keen interest of the students in career selection as well as a wide variety of interests. It is intended that career night will be repeated every second year in order that the students of Mannville and district may be aided in making the best possible choices in selecting their future careers.

Much credit is due the Department of Education and Mr. Aldridge for organizing these career nights and to the various speakers who gave generously of their time and presented their material so ably.

Australia, with about half the population of Canada, has since the 2nd World War accepted just about the same number of immigrants.

Stocks of wheat in country elevators in western Canada amounted to 96.5 million on April 20. This is 4.1 million more than on the same date last year.

Spotlight on Polio Vaccine . . . Gift To Humanity

By Nancy Cleaver

The spotlight is on the new polio vaccine and parents are besieged by questions from their children on this greatest medical discovery in recent years. Dr. J. D. M. Griffen, the Director of the Mental Health Association recently pointed out that, "The child, on entering school, is still young enough, curious enough, and hopefully eager enough to learn not only the necessary basic skills the three R's but also the facts about the world in which he lives".

Although much has been written and broadcast about Dr. Salk's discovery, perhaps the following information will be useful to fathers and mothers who are trying to answer their children's questions.

Dr. Jonas Edward Salk is the 40 year old son of a U.S. immigrant garment worker. He is married, and his boys are Peter 11, Darrell 7 and Jonathan 5½. His own children were included in the first small group of people to be inoculated with his pink clear vaccine two and a half years ago. At that time many scientists feared it might cause polio instead of preventing it. But Dr. Salk had absolute faith in his own product.

He did not always know that medical research would be his vocation. Law and later dentistry attracted him. In 1939 he graduated in medicine from New York University. Fortunately one of his professors, Dr. Thomas Frances Jr., was convinced that Dr. Salk would do a good job in research, and arranged a chemistry fellowship for him.

In 1947 this same professor recommended Dr. Salk for the position of director of virus research at the University of Pittsburg lab. At first he worked on a vaccine for flu but at the end of two years turned his attention to the search for a polio vaccine. Three U.S. doctors had been successful in isolating the polio virus in a test tube.

Canada contributed to this discovery through the work of the Connaught Research Lab Toronto. The federal government had set aside $93,000 for research for this work. Originally the fluid medium 199 was created for research to cancer under Dr. Raymond Parker's direction. The Connaught lab supplied 90 per cent of the virus for production of the vaccine in the U.S. and it has manufactured enough vaccine for 600,000 children. This has been distributed to all the Canadian provinces.

The polio virus is grown in small pieces of monkey kidney tissue which is placed in a synthesis of 61 chemicals. India is the home of the Rhesus monkeys needed for the polio-killing Salk vaccine. Recently 400 of these monkeys died at a London airport and India placed a ban on their export. This is being relaxed. The kidney from one monkey is sufficient to produce 3000 shots of vaccine. Approximately 15,000 monkeys were used in the Salk research project.

Dr. Salk disclosed that the best way to give inoculations was two injections within five weeks and the third within seven months. Major adverse reactions are almost completely lacking. Under half a per cent of children tested suffered minor reactions.

This vaccine is between 80 and 90 per cent effective in preventing paralytic polio. This fact means that the chances of children in a group of 100,000 of getting paralytic polio has dropped from 40 to 8. In the 1954 Canada Year book, the reported deaths from epidemic polio in a recent year (1951) were 2,563.

The chances of catching polio are greatest in the ages from 5 to 9 years, children under 5 come next and those from 10 to 14 years third. Over 27 per cent of the cases come in this first age group when children are attending the lower grades of public school, over 24 per cent of pre-school youngsters and 15% of boys and girls from ten to the middle teens are among the total polio cases.

Last year the mass tests of Salk's vaccine were carried out in Canada, U.S. and Finland. Immediately the Salk vaccine was announced, President Eisenhower directed that the formula be made available to all countries. The information on the vaccine was at once sent to the [illegible] nations.

Great medical discoveries [illegible] they are tested and proved, are never kept secret. They are a gift to humanity. No iron curtain or any other way keeps them from the men and women, boys and girls in other countries. As Pasteur in 1888 when his Institute was opened truly said, "Science [illegible] the law of humanity will always [illegible] to enlarge the frontiers of life."

M. D. Jarell, eminent Trichologist demonstrates causes of baldness and how it can be prevented.

How To Have Hair For A Lifetime To Be Demonstrated Here By Famous Trichologist
Offers Written Guarantee

AN EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW BY WARD ALLEN

LONDON, ONTARIO (Special) — M. D. Jarell, Director of Jarell Hair Experts of Canada exploded the "myth of baldness" today in an exclusive interview.

"Baldness is unnecessary, costly, and a plague to mankind," says Jarell. "No man need be bald. No man need suffer the stigma of premature old age that is forced upon him because he is losing his hair. The Jarell method of hair and scalp treatment can prevent baldness, can turn colorless fuzz into healthy, growing hair, can make you look youthful again."

Demonstration To Be Held In Vermilion

This revolutionary method of home treatment for the hair and scalp will be demonstrated in Vermilion, Alberta Tuesday ONLY May 24th, at the Vermilion Hotel. Trichologist B. D. Miller will conduct the private individual interviews from 12 noon until 9:00 P.M. on Tuesday ONLY. There is no cost or obligation and you need no appointment.

Reason for Baldness

"There is always a reason for baldness," continued this nationally known authority. "Hair cannot grow through a scalp that is infected with dandruff, excessive oiliness or extreme dryness. A scalp that has never been exercised cannot be expected to produce healthy hair. Men, and yes women too, walk the streets today completely devoid of nature's greatest ornament, hair, simply because they were not taught the basic rules of hair and scalp hygiene while they were growing up. The simple answer," emphasized this expert, "is that children should be taught the simple basic rules of hair and scalp hygiene that they are taught for the proper care of their teeth. If this were the case, baldness would be a rarity today."

Heredity Not Involved

Trichologist Jarell pledged no issues. He quickly took up the most widely spread theory of baldness—heredity. "Mankind's unrealistic belief that baldness is heredity stems from a misinterpretation of the theory of genetics. Theory does not state that any person must be bald because baldness exists in the family. What it does say, is that in some families a tendency exists towards an undernourished scalp. The purpose of Jarell Hair and Scalp Experts is to teach the methods of strengthening the weak scalp and nourishing it to a healthy, vigorous condition. A healthy scalp will grow hair, if it is not already completely bald," assures Jarell.

Is There Hope For The Completely Bald?

In his travels throughout the United States and Canada, Jarell has collected hundreds of testimonies of his ability to develop weak fuzz into healthy mature hair. All of his clients have started with a private examination, hair and scalp analysis, and a diagnosis of the disorder. Jarell is quick however, to tell a hopeless case that he cannot be helped. "We strongly advise," says Jarell, that no person who is completely bald hold any hope whatsoever of regrowing hair. If there is any fuzz at all, we can restore a healthy scalp condition and the hair will grow normally again as nature intended."

Offers A Guarantee

Jarell Hair Experts of Canada offer a guarantee to any client who enrolls for treatment. If he or she is not completely delighted with results at the end of 30 days, the money invested will be graciously refunded," pledged Jarell. "We must have satisfied clients. We must regrow hair. After all it is our best advertisement."

Is Your Hair Healthy?

If you have a scalp disorder, or if you are worried about your hair, call Trichologist B. D. Miller at the Vermilion Hotel in Vermilion, Alberta, Tuesday ONLY from 12 noon to 9:00 P.M. The public is invited. The examinations are private and open to men and women. You do not need an appointment and you will not be embarrassed or obligated in any way.

Billy Graham In The Cathedrals

The Rev. R. C. Gaul rector of Rand, declared in his sermon on Sunday that the Church of England should change its attitude toward Billy Graham.

"How wonderful it would be," he said, "if the Archbishop of Canterbury were to say to Graham 'Now Billy all our cathedral pulpits are open to you.'

"Instead of anthems by paid choirs, rousing hymn singing by massed congregations would bring our cathedrals to life. It would be much to overcome the stupid outdated distinctions between church and chapel and would show that the church intended to play a part in the spiritual awakening of the nation."

NEWS from ALLANDALE

The weather yet seems unsettled although the side roads and fields are drying the land is yet too wet to do any field work to amount to anything. Some have sown some [illegible]

It was very interesting to note in the May 1 Observer "The family In the New Community" and explaining in part one of the best church organizations "The Couples Club", let us support it. In the same paper "The Church in the Rural Community" written by Rev. J Parker Matheson, N.S. So many will remember Rev. Matheson our student in 1940 perhaps too he recalls his summer in a rural community.

Nora Ronaghan is at present a patient in the Islay hospital suffering from pleurisy. All our wishes go to her for a speedy recovery.

Mr George Carlton assisted by Mrs. Carlton finished painting the inside of the church on May 3rd. We are very grateful to them for their kindness in doing this work at such a reasonable price and so well done. The remainder of the work inside was done by the ladies on May 5 and 9. Everyone is extended a welcome to attend our services this summer commencing on May 15 at 11:30 a.m. and every two weeks thereafter.

Mr and Mrs. Orley Omeron [illegible] Saturday evening. Highway 41 isn't so smooth after all the moisture this spring. We visited with [illegible] her daughter Myrtle Howard and family Jimmy, Myrna and baby Janine Dyllis born April 18 from Provost home for the week end and Mother's Day. Myrtle and daughters Myrna and Janine are staying for the week.

Called on Mr and Mrs. Lloyd Darling who have been living in Elk Point. Lloyd isn't too well but improving and plans on going back to the farm shortly. They are interested in our little church as through their kindness we have that lovely location. they donated an acre of their land. Some of the road to Spring Park is impassable as yet, but the folks there are all well.

Mr Homer Easton of Islay is visiting with Mr M. Maire. They called at the Mayers' home last Saturday evening. Ronnie Bellingham from town spent last Sunday at the Mayers.

Closing Thought: Live for something, do good and leave behind a monument of virtue that the storms of time can never destroy. Write your name in kindness, love and mercy on the hearts of those you come in contact with. You will never be forgotten, your name, your deeds will be as legible on the hearts you leave behind as the stars on the brow of evening. Good deeds will shine as the stars of heaven.

10th Barley Contest For Year 1955

The National Barley contest that was started by the brewing and malting industries in 1946 will be continued in 1955.

Committees in Alberta and Manitoba decided that continuance of the competition was the best of alternative projects proposed for stimulating improvement in barley standards, the main objective of the sponsors when the project was launched.

From standpoint of entries, the 1954 competition promised to be one of the best of the series. It turned out one of the worst. Rust-damaged and weather-beaten crops were so deteriorated in yield and grade that only about 15% of contestants were able to ship. Although particularly disastrous for Alberta, growers from the Peace River area of the province took the major awards.

As was the case last year only Alberta and Manitoba will be in the 1955 competition. To meet special conditions in Alberta and the Peace River, contestants from that province may make their formal entry at the time of shipping it. Entry forms are obtainable from elevator agents or provincial agricultural representatives. Alberta contestants planning to enter, even though not required to make their entry until time of shipping could facilitate work of those in charge of the contest by giving as much advance notice as possible. This may be sent to the Barley Improvement Institute 206 Grain Exchange Bldg., Winnipeg.

With this exception rules for the 1955 contest are identical with those of 1954. The entry requirement remains a carload lot, a minimum of 1,677 bushels.

For purposes of the contest the province will be divided into two regions, with 7 cash prizes in each, on the same scale as last year. The provincial and interprovincial prizes will also be the same as in 1954.

MASSEY-HARRIS MACHINES
TRACK-TESTED for DURABILITY
FIELD-TESTED for EFFICIENCY

TESTING — TESTING — TESTING — Testing is never-ending at Massey-Harris. Track testing goes on day and night, winter and summer at the Massey-Harris-Ferguson Test Track. Tractors and implements are checked with electronic equipment for stress and strain analysis. They are endurance tested for ability to stand-up under long usage and are given severe shake-down tests over the bumps to check resistance to breakages.

Steel, paint and other materials are analyzed and tested in the factory laboratory to insure that they meet requirements and specifications—careful check is kept on foundry castings—inspection departments make constant assembly and run-off tests on production machines.

Field testing is a constant year round activity of the engineering divisions of Massey-Harris-Ferguson. Machines are sent south in the winter time and follow the harvest north until freeze-up to give new models as much work in the field as possible. Machines are tested under many varied conditions for ability to do their work well, for ease of handling, for economy of operation, and for capacity to do a good job. Well designed, well built and thoroughly tested Massey-Harris and Ferguson machines offer outstanding features in modern equipment. Your local dealer will be glad to give you full particulars.

Old Ice Boxes Still Prove Death Traps

Old abandoned ice boxes are veritable "death traps" which still are taking a toll of children whose average age is five years, according to a warning issued by the Alberta Safety Council.

From May to September is the critical time of the year. During this period, children have leisure time for outdoor play and discarded airtight cabinets with locks or the hinges intact provide enticing hiding places.

Already there have been reports elsewhere of youngsters having been suffocated in discarded ice boxes. Children also become locked in refrigerators, freezers and other airtight cabinets for many reasons.

In Alberta, there are many of these abandoned ice boxes. They are becoming more numerous each year as purchases of new refrigerators are on a steady increase.

Discarded refrigerators can be made harmless in several ways. The first and best, of course, is to remove the door. Another way is to remove the latch stop, so that the door cannot lock. Another solution is to drill holes in the cabinet and remove the gasket, or better yet, destroy the box altogether.

Schools and civic organizations might well start a community program which would result in business groups and others searching out, hauling away and destroying these abandoned ice boxes and freezers.

EDMONTON BY-LAW

In Edmonton there is a by-law which says no person shall leave a refrigerator or icebox that is uncrated and capable of being opened by hand, at any outside location accessible to children, or in an unlocked storage building which may be entered by children. This ban is effective unless measures have been taken to prevent such ice boxes from closing by removing the door handle mechanism or door hinges or wholly removing the door.

The Edmonton by-law also gives the medical officer of health the right to order that provisions of the by-law referring to old ice boxes or refrigerators be complied with, or lay a charge against the person violating the by-law. Further, no person may deliver or dispose of such receptacles at a public garbage disposal dump or shall abandon such in a public place or in any place where access by children at play appears possible unless the dangerous character of the receptacle has been removed.

Children should be taught that they must not play in old ice boxes and they should report any they see to their parents.

CEREBRAL PALSY

The human brain is like a telephone exchange. It receives a message, it studies it and sorts it out from other messages and decides what to do about it: it then sends the message out directing appropriate muscles to take action. This kind of process, translating a desire into action is so quick in the normal brain that one is not conscious of any mental action. But if the brain is damaged or that part which controls muscular action it may be physically impossible to perform even the simplest action -- this is called cerebral palsy.

A child with cerebral palsy may not be able to pick up things, he may have difficulty in walking or he may not be able to control the muscles of his throat and tongue in order to speak. A child may be able to understand what you say even though he cannot talk. There are two main types of cerebral palsy depending on which part of the brain is damaged.

1. Spastic Type — the muscles are tense and contracted and so will not work properly.

2. Athetoid Type — the muscles are in continuous purposeless movement and cannot be directed.

A child may have a combination of various types of cerebral palsy but usually one type predominates.

Damage to the brain usually occurs before the baby is born, as an unborn baby is subject to injury and defects in developement. Cleft palate and hare lip are other examples of such variation. The damage may occur during birth or afterwards due to an accident or illnesses such as whooping cough or meningitis. Cerebral palsy is not hereditary and casts no reflection on the mental or physical health of the parents.

A child with cerebral palsy has all the needs, desires, hopes and fears of any normal child. They are constantly frustrated by their inability to translate their wishes into actions and are unable to play with children of their own age. Because they are unable to dress themselves or walk or talk many people think they are mentally retarded, this however is only true in a small proportion of cases.

CAN BE HELPED

With special training by highly skilled people a palsied child can be taught much. The slightly affected child can be taught to be independent and self-supporting and the more severely affected child can be taught to walk, talk, feed and clean himself. Treatment will be carried out by a doctor, a psychologist to advice on the child's ability to learn, a social worker to help the family to get adjusted, a physiotherapist to train the muscles, an occupational therapist and a speech therapist. Training should start early and be continued without interruption. Cerebral palsy cases all differ from one another and so need individual attention. A child with cerebral palsy cannot be expected to progress as quickly as a normal child and this must be appreciated by the parents. It is important not to threaten or ridicule the child as this may produce a condition of maladjustment.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

By JUNE E. KIRK —

It finally looks as though the summer season is on its way in! And summer brings thoughts of green fields, more salads and summer dresses. And, speaking of summer clothes — more sewing too. (My, what a round-about way of reaching the subject of sewing!)

Well, as I was going to say — if you have fitting problems, either on yourself or your children, why not make a dress form or "Judy". I do admit it a lot of work but much cheaper than buying an adjustable one. All you need to buy is gummed paper and two knitted (T-shirt style). Other requirements are patience and the use of someone else's willing hands. In fact, several pairs of hands are even more useful. The instructions? Oh yes, they're here at the office free.

And for help in the actual sewing there are bulletins on: Short Cuts in Sewing, Shirt Sleeve Opening and Cuff, Tucked Bound Buttonhole, and Inserting Dress Zippers.

Maybe this year you've decided to perk up last year's outfits rather than buy or make new ones. Here's a suggestion — a new dickie or collar and matching cotton gloves — fun to make and fun to wear. We have the pattern and directions for dickies and also directions for the glovemaking.

The glove pamphlet is meant for leather gloves, but the instructions for cutting your own pattern could just as well be used for fabric gloves. And it would be a good summer sewing project for a young teen-age daughter.

While we're on the subject of summer clothes, have you been shopping for summer cottons yet? I'll bet you've been confused! Many of the cottons are no longer just cotton — they're blends of cotton with synthetic fibres. So here's a brief rundown on the extra qualities given to the summer cottons by blending with synthetics.

Generally speaking, the synthetic fibres make cottons easier to care for because they may dry quicker, iron easier, and stay fresh longer.

Nylon, as we all know, adds strength to cotton or any other fabric.

Orlon and acrilan are resistant to sunlight deterioration. Therefore, you'll find these used in awnings, curtains and drapes as well as clothing. These two fibres by the way, are one and the same but are manufactured by two different companies.

Dynel is fire, acid and alkali resistant. Even so, a hot iron or even a steam iron will injure it, so go easy when pressing it. Dynel is good for permanent pleating.

Dacron is famous for its wrinkle resistance even when wet and is used to a great extent in summer suiting because it will hold a crease or pleat almost forever.

Not So Bad

Thanks mainly to a pickup in the latter part of the year, and to a decline in corporate income taxes, Canadian companies' earnings in 1954 were just about as good as those in 1953.

This is indicated in the financial results of 250 business firms studied by The Financial Post. Their combined net profit was only 0.6% below 1953 and their earnings before depreciation, interest and income tax charges were down just under 1%.

—TULIPS IN CANADA AND HOLLAND: Every spring a 25-square-mile stretch between Lisse and Haarlem in the Netherlands bursts into brilliant color so gorgeous its beauty surpasses the fanciest imagination. From its superb and massive tulip fields like this (right) near Lisse, Holland exports more than three billion bulbs each year. To Canada last year came 52,500,000 Dutch bulbs valued at more than $1,250,000 and more are coming this year. So plentiful are Dutch tulips becoming in Canada they are almost as symbolic of this country as of Holland. Already Ottawa, with justification, claims the title of Canada's Tulip Capital and times its mid-may Tulip Festival to coincide with the tulips' peak of magnificence. Verna Rousseau is pictured beside a vast border of Dutch tulips at the foot of the Peace Tower on Ottawa's Parliament Hill.

GOOD COUNTRY

Recently I was lucky enough to travel across most of Canada. It left me with a good feeling. Perhaps the best way to describe the feeling I have about the country is to quote a tall and husky farmer who sat across from me in one of the CPR's thrilling new vistadome trains. He said, "Boy — she's some country!"

Yes, Canada is some country! In every city, homes seem to have sprung up by the thousands. I was told by a contractor that since the end of World War 2, Canadians have built over three-quarter of a million homes, worth about 8 billion dollars. They provide good living quarters for about three million people.

Almost everywhere I travelled there was an air of confidence, and an optimistic vision of the future. I suggested to one Manitoba farmer that things were not going quite so well. He came right back at me. He told me that the farm income of Canada last year was $2,408,000,000, compared with $2,741,252,000 the year before, but, that there were increases in every province except Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. He pointed out that these are the grain provinces, and the only reason for the lower cash income there was that the government was unable to sell the surpluses. He proudly told me that as far as the farmers were concerned, they could do their end of the job. He implied that with a little bit of vigorous salesmanship, surpluses could be disposed of.

I chatted with a businessman at the corner of Portage and Main in Winnipeg. He was optimistic too. He told me that the West was rapidly becoming industrialized, and that if they were not forced to compete with cheap overseas labor and an influx of distress merchandise, the Western manufacturers could create plenty of jobs to put an end to the unemployment situation.

Only one thing remained just about the same in all the countryside. The wide open spaces are still there. Farmers are still finding it hard to get help. The immigration situation may have improved — but in this big country of ours it scarcely shows up at all.

Anyhow, all things considered, it's a land to be proud of. This year, spend your holidays in Canada and look about you. You'll come back home with a new pride in the greatness of your own nation.

Production of sawn lumber and ties in B.C. totalled 4,233,106,000 feet in 1954.

There were 4,029,612 pairs of all-rubber overshoes and galoshes made in Canada in 1953.

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

Work on Land Starts In Islay District

MANY ON THE LAND

Today, Tuesday we hear of many in this area being on the land and some have seeded quite an acreage, Mr. Herb Simmons, Mr. Davidson, Don McFadyen and Will Muir. Quite a number of days ago Mr. Alvin Anson got the urge and started out to seed, but failed to get once around the field.

George Maxwell of Vermilion was in town on Tuesday, also Mrs. John Marie, Mr. and Mrs. Hearty from Wildwood, Christie Clarke and the family, the Van Patten brothers, Harry Waterfield, Bill Brown and Mr W. L. Brown.

Mrs. Mary Ternoster was a business visitor in Vermilion Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cowan, two children of Calgary, and Mrs. Cowan's sister recently from Scotland, made a surprise visit to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Allan the week end.

The monthly meeting of the Knox United church W. A. was held on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Lorne Axley. Mrs. Jean Axley led the devotional section. It was decided to send a box of clothing and a blanket to the Red Cross. Also on the last Thursday of May a quilt will be quilted at the church. The executive is to inspect the church and decide what is to be done in the way of cleaning. A very delicious lunch was served by hostesses Mrs. Lorne Axley and Mrs. J. Horricks.

Mrs. Harry Gordon called in town Thursday and then went to visit Mrs. Jim Gould.

Mrs. Wylie of High Prairie, and Mrs. Soares and wee daughter Joan of Three Hills made a short visit with their brother Henry Olds on Thursday. They had been in Edmonton to see Mrs. Olds in the University hospital and returned to Islay with the Olds family.

It is pleasing to report that Mrs. Yvonne Steinhauer at Banff Springs is much improved. Mrs. Vi Schaffer having received a letter from her. That is fine, Yvonne, keep kicking the water will be looking for you in July. Will hang out the Golden Jubilee flags for you!

You oldsters know how roughly you played when you were teeners. Well, they still do not realizing yet either how strong they are. This past week Jimmie Wilkinson came out from under someone stepped on his ankle by accident. It was discovered by Dr. Sweet there was a bone broken so Jim has a cast on.

Misses Gladys and Muriel Stone had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Caro on May 3rd being the occasion of Mrs. Caro's birthday.

Mr. Dave Buchanan has his garden spaded. By whom? By Dave himself, with his strong right hand.

Noticed Mrs. Spencer of Vanesti in town Thursday.

Mrs. Winnie Torrance was in town Wednesday, the occasion of granddaughter Sharon's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beck were in town for a few days, daughter Mrs. Ev. Inman being in the hospital.

Noticed Omer Lastor driving a fine car, yes it was Mose Marie's. Omer is at Mr. Marie's who is building a new house.

Ask Gerald Inman how he likes riding on a raft. It is great fun while it lasts but not so good when you get home. The little lake just over the tracks by the station is a fine place for rafts.

MOTHER'S DAY SERVICE

A very nice program in the Sunday school on Mother's Day, with quite a number of parents present. It was nice to see the families sitting together. Better still, nice to see two Dads — Mr. Ev. Inman and his mother and Gerald; and Mr. Alf Purser with his two daughters. Also a number of other parents with their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Bothwell arrived back to their farm after spending the winter in Vermilion. Glad to see them at church again; also Mrs. Potvin with them.

Mrs. Fyfe left Sunday to attend the wedding of Donald Huston at High Prairie, driving with the Misses Carey as far as Edmonton. Donald was born here and lived here until the family moved to Edmonton in 1943. The wedding is to take place on Saturday, May 14th.

Saw Mrs. Frank Hutchinson at the Mother's Day service. They finally can get out of their place by car, but with difficulty. So much moisture with the last snow, even the hills are soggy.

Don't Kill Them All

Proper control of predatory animals and birds does not mean their complete destruction, advises F. M. McCormick, executive director of the Canadian Civilian Association of Marksmen.

Mr. McCormick says that all animals and birds have their place in nature and it is only when their population level gets out of all proportion that control is necessary. Pointing to sparrows as an example, he says that this species of bird has become a nightmare with many urban civic authorities. Lacking a natural enemy and thriving in settled areas where shooting is forbidden, the sparrow quickly went out of control. Pigeons and starlings are a similar nuisance in many locations.

Coyotes, foxes and skunks have become so numerous in many parts of Canada they form a threat to farmers' livestock and poultry and have to be [illegible]. In [illegible] areas gophers and jackrabbits are in the predator class which offer good off season hunting to varmint rifle enthusiasts. The crow and the magpie are a couple of winged marauders which have been steadily getting out of hand in recent years and also provide good sport for nimrods. While admittedly these birds do eat harmful insects, their piracy of nests of song and game birds far outweighs their virtues.

Dewberry W.A. Hold Regular Meeting

The Dewberry Ladies Aid held the May meeting in the church. There were 11 members present and one visitor. This was Donna Young, now a full fledged teacher.

The meeting opened with a hymn followed by the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Young gave the Bible reading. Mrs. Brett read the Upper Room, leaving us with this thought: "Christian homes radiate good will to all".

Minutes were read and approved. The treasurer gave her report. The W.A. would like to thank all who contributed to the Easter tea and also found time to attend it. The building fund is slowly growing. Sunshine Lady sent a card to Mr. J. McKnight while in hospital.

With the coming of spring and work to be done nothing new was planned. Cleaning of the church will be left until August.

Several of the members attended the services held at Marwayne this week. Rev. MacKay from Vermilion was there on Sunday, Rev. Mather of Vegreville on Monday and Tuesday, with Rev. Morrison of Lloydminster on Wednesday and Thursday. The Dewberry choir sang on three of the evenings.

The meeting closed with the Benediction led by the president.

The hostess, Mrs. Hornigold, served a delicious lunch.

Next meeting is at the home of Mrs. D. Munroe.

The Standard does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.

Kokree, Alberta,
May 2, 1955.

The Editor,
Vermilion Standard.
Dear Sir:

By now Mr. Editor I suspect that you are wishing you had back again those blank pages you gave us last winter, due to the need of so much space for discussion of the Islay hospital question. If you are still accepting letters on this subject I would appreciate it if you would print these views of mine in an early issue of the Standard.

It is certainly an excellent idea to have all the pros and cons of the question down in black and white for everyone to read so that if the ratepayers are asked to vote on the matter they can do so intelligently, not blindly, and everyone is indebted to the Standard for donating so much space, time and patience in connection with this matter. A meeting is really a lot of foolishness as we can discuss the matter so much better through the columns of the Standard.

"Born in Islay" says we can save the ratepayers $16,000 by closing the Islay hospital. Why not close the Vermilion hospital first as this move would effect a considerable larger saving for the ratepayers? Apparently it does not matter any more whether or not we save human lives and alleviate suffering so long as we save the taxpayers' money.

"Born in Islay" also gives us another argument in favor of his idea — that the [illegible] hospital is larger. We could double the size of the Vermilion and Islay hospitals but I fail to see how by so doing we would make them any more [illegible]. Further he describes the Vermilion hospital as being [illegible] modern than Islay. If he would be more specific and inform us in what way the latter isn't as modern perhaps we could set about remedying the situation, if it didn't raise our taxes too much. He further argues that we should close down the hospitals in the smaller centres and make the hospitals in the larger centres larger. To prove his point he says that we are closing down all the one-room schools and taking the pupils to the larger centres. I fail to see the analogy there as I always understood that we closed the one-roomed school in most cases because we were unable to find teachers, but in a few cases where there were no pupils. [illegible] now it is claimed that we are 15,000 teachers short throughout Canada. To return to the claim that the ratepayers could be saved $16,000 by merging our district into the two bordering hospital districts, I certainly can't see how we could save a single penny by so doing. On the contrary I have a hunch that if such a move were made we would see a big jump from our present very reasonable low rate.

By the way I am sure there are others besides myself who would be very much interested in knowing just what the hospital tax rate is this year in the Vermilion and the Lloydminster hospital districts.

Sure would be nice if they could get our school taxes down to five mills also from the present 30 mills.

All across Canada every day large scale plans are being made for the hasty evacuation of the larger centres because we all know that all-out atomic war is going to break out any day now between the Capitalistic and the Communistic worlds. And when they evacuate the patients from the hospitals in Vermilion and Lloydminster where will the patients be taken? Why, they will all be heading for the Islay hospital of course! It is obvious that no Communist airplane would be stupid enough to waste a hydrogen bomb on a small place like Islay. In those days "B in I" and his friends and relatives will be begging and offering fabulous prices for a bed in the Islay hospital.

I could say much more but the Editor probably thinks my letter is too long already. So to sum up—when we consider closing the Islay hospital we should ask ourselves two questions, viz: First, is the hospital efficient and does it provide good care to the patient?; Secondly, is the hospital located in a safe and quiet place?" The answer to both questions is definitely 'Yes'.

What quieter place could you find than Islay?

Thanking you Mr. Editor,
Sincerely,
J. McGee

DAYLINER RETRACES "WHOOP-UP" TRAIL

The pages of Alberta history [illegible] with the wheels of the Canadian Pacific Railway's gleaming new self-propelled "Dayliner" on its 140-mile run between Lethbridge and Calgary, via Fort Macleod. The stainless steel streamliner actually retraces, in part, the historic "Whoop-Up Trail" over which once travelled the legendary bull trains, mule trains, the infamous whiskey traders, and later the horse-drawn stage coach and Alberta's early settlers.

The trail, which had its southern anchor at Fort Benton, [illegible] ran 210 miles northward to notorious Fort Whoop-Up, built in 1869 at the junction of the St. Mary and the Oldman Rivers. With the coming of the North-West Mounted Police in 1874, the trail was extended to Fort Macleod and later north to Fort Calgary. Between Lethbridge and Fort Macleod, the old trail touched at several points now served by the new Dayliners, while beyond Fort Macleod the trail ran a course just west of the railway line.

Picture at the upper right shows the smart new diesel-powered Dayliner which replaces steam [illegible] on the route, and below it an old photo of Fort Whoop-Up where the early Montana traders swapped whiskey with the Indians for buffalo hides. The old muzzle-loading cannon subsequently was moved to Galt Park in Lethbridge. Below is seen a typical bull train of the type that travelled the Whoop-Up trail for twenty years.

WILDMERE WINKS

We are indeed sorry to hear that George Seuffert is a patient in the Royal Alex hospital, but wish him a speedy recovery to health and home. George lived for several years in our district. We are [illegible]ed to hear Mrs. Waldenberger, also of town, is feeling much better. Good luck, folks, from your many friends here.

The many neighbors, friends and relatives filled the United church to overflowing at the funeral of Johnny Batke on Wednesday last. It showed the high esteem in which the family is held in and around Vermilion. Rev. MacKay gave a very inspiring service which we can apply to our own lives—"not as a man dies but how he lives." Johnny will be greatly missed for the many good neighborly turns he did. His seven sisters and four brothers and families all were here for the funeral; several cousins attended also. Pall bearers were all curling friends of the deceased: Billy, Adam and Albert Smith, Cliff Cruthers, Johnny Wilson and Frank Gibson. The flowers at the funeral were beautiful and several donations were made to the home.

It was sad that his daughter, Mrs. Westman, was unable to attend her father's funeral, but everyone felt for her and the rest of the family, also for the sorrowing relatives.

Mumps are still on the go. Billie Cruthers, Ruby Smith, Betty Whitlock, Joanie Hughes and Shirley Sweeney are the victims this week. May they soon be over with. Oh, yes, we forgot to [illegible] Margaret Steele had them last week.

[illegible] to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haines of Basswood on the birth of a son May 7th; a brother for Harvey, William and Edward.

[illegible] Garnett of the Royal Alex hospital is spending a few days at home in Basswood this week with [illegible] parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Garnett.

How many heard on Neighborly News Sunday where Mrs. Maud Stranahan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sexsmith of Kansas, U.S.A. were celebrating their 70th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Stranahan formerly lived in Battleview but now makes her home in Wainwright. It's a wonderful record and may they see more years yet together.

We wish to thank Mrs. Gibson and Mrs. Cruthers for the kindness shown when we were sick. It was greatly appreciated, more than words can say.

George Haines and Aubrey Rendell were visitors at the Wallington home on Sunday.

W.I. Activities For April

FIVE POINT

Mrs. D. Clark gave an interesting paper on 'New fabrics in your wardrobe and how to care for them.' They decided to contact the matron of the local hospital regarding sewing and mending. Plans were made to hold a sewing demonstration in May. A Grandmothers' tea was discussed but the date will be set later. Donations were made to the Arthritis and Rheumatism Society and the Cancer fund. Mrs. Hamilton visited the branch and gave an interesting talk on W. I. work in other countries.

VERMILION

Guest speakers were Mrs. J. I. Jones who gave a talk on W. I. work and Mrs. W. E. Cross who spoke on Cancer. A bake and novelty sale held netted $35.50. A donation was sent to the E. E. Morton Memorial fund. Two delegates were chosen to attend the provincial conference in Edmonton.

CLAYSMORE

Miss June Kirk as guest speaker gave an interesting talk on dress pattern alterations and efficient dressmaking. The delegate for the provincial conference was chosen.

WILDMERE

A Home Nursing course was discussed and tabled until after harvest. The branch is collecting old woollens to be sent to Fairfield's. Delegate for the provincial conference was chosen.

SALTEAUX

A donation was given to the local hospital for curtaining. A handicraft report was given. The delegate for the provincial conference was chosen.

PRINCESS ANNE

An interesting biography on Dr. J. E. Salk entitled "The Man Who is Whipping Polio" was read by Mrs. McIntyre. Used clothing is to be collected and shipped to the Unitarian Services for use in Korea and Greece. Proceeds from a bake sale and the card parties were sent to the Arthritis and Rheumatism Society. Plans are underway to hold a dance in conjunction with the closing of school on June 30.

CREIGHTON

The bake sale and bazaar held recently netted $38.20. An interesting paper entitled "How to get the most out of cotton bags" was read by Mrs. D. Wagner. It was suggested to send two delegates to the conference.

WILDMERE BEAVERS

"Destroying Noxious Weeds" was the topic given by Marie Smith. A discussion regarding short stories was held and last year's stories were read.

BILL IRVINE SAYS:

"Farmers who know what has happened to them, why it happened and who made it happen, will know how to vote on June 20th.

"The Liberal party, backed by [illegible] price controls, in the interest of profiteers, even before the shortages due to war, had been made [illegible].

"Here are the results which followed the abandonment of price controls.

| | |
|---|---|
| Farmers costs increased— | |
| Taxes rose by | 18% |
| Machinery rose by | 25% |
| Building material up | 31% |
| Gas and Oil rose by | 10% |
| Fertilizer rose by | 28% |
| Living costs rose by | 17% |

"Meanwhile farmers' income dropped by 50% during the last 12 years. Thus the gap between income and expenditure widened dangerously.

"The very life is being ground out of the farming industry between the mill stones of shrinking income and rising costs.

"Lower profits for manufacturers will lower farmers' costs of production. Higher taxes on profits will help reduce farmer taxation, and a fixed forward minimum price for farm products [illegible].

"That is the way the CCF will tackle the farmer's problem. We will tackle it from both ends."

"THE CANADIAN" HEADS WEST

"THE CANADIAN" heads West - W. A. Mather president of the Canadian Pacific Railway (right inset) pulls the switch that sends "The Canadian," C.P.R.'s new transcontinental scenic dome train, on her way across the nation, as Mayor of Montreal looks on. The gleaming, all stainless steel streamliner streaked through the 2,881 miles from Montreal to Vancouver in 71 hours and 10 minutes, as compared with the former transcontinental time of 87 hours, 10 minutes. Eastbound the schedule has been reduced by 12 hours and 30 minutes to 70 hours, 20 minutes. Thousands of persons lined the right of way as "The Canadian" made her inaugural run across the nation that saw her arrive at Vancouver destination right on schedule. In the above photo "The Canadian" is shown leaving Windsor Station which appears in the background. Upon arriving at Sudbury seven cars were added to the train to make it a 15 car train for the westward journey.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane

A $3 scratch on the fender can increase in importance until it hits the law courts, or it can remain as simple as, well, a $3 accident. In most cases it depends upon you.

If you have an accident, no matter how large or small, do these things:

1. Remain at the scene. Leaving for any reason, immediately puts you in the wrong.
2. Check occupants of each car for possible injuries. If anyone is injured, the law requires that even the most minor accident be reported to the police.
3. Exchange license number, your name and address with the other driver. Get the names of a witness or two, if possible.
4. Inspect both cars and jot down the exact nature of the damage. Note exactly where the accident took place, the time, the weather.
5. Report by phone or letter to the nearest office of your insurance company.

A final word: If you leap out of your car hot under the collar looking for trouble, you'll find it. But 9 out of 10 accident cases can be settled simply and easily with a cool head and a sense of fair play.

28 Teams Already Entered For Sports May 23

Six Senior Ball Clubs; Eight Men's Fastball Teams Headline Events

HIGH CLASS COMPETITION IS EXPECTED

Vermilion Sports are definitely on for Monday, May 23rd and present indications from both entries and weather are that the best day for years will be enjoyed. At press time Thursday there were 28 teams entered in the various competitions with six in the senior ball, three in junior, eight men's fastball clubs, and numerous entries in the junior competitions. More entries are on the way, especially in high school and boys and girls 15 and under events.

SIX SENIOR TEAMS

Already six senior teams are ready to do battle for the prize money. They come from Viking, Minburn, Beverly Drakes of Edmonton, Vermilion, Marsden, Sask., and Derwent. These teams promise hot competition and good games are in prospect from the word go.

THREE IN JUNIOR

So far only three junior teams have entered the ring with the visitors being Mrynam, Lloydminster high school, and the Vermilion high school. Other teams have evinced interest and further entries are likely in this tournament.

Heinsberg and Clandonald

As was expected, only two teams both from hamlets, have entered the country division. These are Heinsberg and Clandonald. This is due, of course, to the late spring season.

Great Ball Foresees in Men's Fastball Event

A new tournament this year is the men's fastball and this has attracted entries from all over this corner of the province. From Edmonton comes a team from army headquarters and another from New Way Cleaners, Edmonton, Oil Producers, Lloydminster, the Triangle Tigers from Irma, Spruce Grove F.U.A., Vermilion All Stars and the Lloydminster Co-op team.

This entertainment alone promises plenty of entertainment for your admission fee.

The ladies open fastball has only two entries to date, the Edmonton Truckerettes and Edgerton, but more are on the way including Vermilion.

Vermilion girls are the lone entry to date in the high school event; Woodvale and Vermil girls are entered in the 15 and under.

In the junior boys 15 and under, Irma and two Vermilion teams are on deck so far.

Other entries in the junior division are expected from Kitscoty and Wainwright.

TOWNSPEOPLE CAN PUT IT OVER

All that is required to put this day of sports over in a big way is the solid support of the townspeople of Vermilion. The seeding season is late and little attendance can be expected from the very busy farm population — but Vermilion has 2408 inhabitants and it is not too much to expect 1200 of these out to the sports on Monday, May 23. Instead of going away attend your sports — support a worthwhile endeavor.

Alberta Election Wednesday, June 29

Alberta's provincial general election will be held June 29, it was announced by Premier Manning shortly after 5 p.m. Tuesday. Nomination day will be June 15.

The premier made the announcement to a press conference in his office in the Legislative Building, following a special afternoon session of the provincial cabinet.

He also said the newly-elected legislature thus will have time to be called to a special sitting in Edmonton, probably in August, to finish business left over when the 12th Alberta legislature was dissolved suddenly last week.

Social Credit-ers To Nominate

The Vermilion Constituency Social Credit Association will hold the nominating convention for the forthcoming provincial election on Monday, June 6 at 8 p.m. at Mannville. Arrangements for the convention are being carried out by Clarence Ewing of Mannville, president of of the Constituency Association and Ashley H. Cooper, secretary.

Sitting member for the constituency at time of dissolution of the legislature was Wm. R. Cornish who has represented the constituency well and ably since 1944.

Nominating convention for Alexandra constituency is scheduled for Kitscoty Thursday evening May 19. Hon. A. O. Aalborg is the sitting member.

Town Pop. Is 2408

The town has just completed the annual civic census with the population totalling 2408. One year ago it was 2315 while the last Dominion census taken in 1951 gives the population at 1982.

Ernest E. Wright Dies In Sleep

Ernest E. Wright, well known former Vermilion business man, passed away in his sleep early on Tuesday morning at his home in North Vancouver. He would have been 65 years of age in September this year. Mr. Wright was the proprietor of the Vermilion Hotel here for many years, besides having extensive farming interests. He and Mrs. Wright moved to Vancouver ten years ago where other business projects were secured and operated. Prior to commencing in business the deceased had served in the R.C.M.P., being stationed at numerous centres in Alberta including Fort Macleod in the south, and Lloydminster in this area.

He leaves to mourn his passing his sorrowing widow, one daughter Doris (Mrs R. Angus) of Kitscoty, one son Jack of Vermilion, and four grandchildren.

Mrs. Angus had just arrived in Vancouver the day prior to her father's passing away. Jack, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Mr. R. Angus, flew to the coast on receipt of the news. Mr. Wright had been in his usual health and his death was entirely unexpected and a great shock to friends and relatives alike.

Will Be Held Monday, May 30th

Vermilion Host To First Golden Jubilee Square Dance Festival

Under joint sponsorship of all square dance groups in Vermilion, and by arrangement with the Alberta Golden Jubilee committee, Vermilion will be the site of the first of a three week series of Square Dance festivals, on Monday May 30 when the well known California Square Dance caller, Arnie Kronenberger will be here in Vermilion.

Through the kindness of the Hon. L. C. Halmrast, Minister of Agriculture, and Mr. N. N. Bentley, Principal of the V.S.A., the use of the large drill hall has been granted for this very special occasion.

The Alberta Golden Jubilee recognizing the almost universal province-wide interest in square dancing, have engaged Arnie Kronenberger, one of the best known of American callers, to make a three week tour of the province, calling for dances in a different centre every night.

These dances are open to all, the only suggestion being that one be able to enter into the type of dance being called in order not to cause confusion among the crowd.

PROCEEDS FOR LOCAL JUBILEE COMMITTEE

Proceeds from the dance in Vermilion will be turned over by the Square Dance clubs to the Vermilion Golden Jubilee committee to be used to aid in the celebration of the Jubilee year. Tickets are 50 cents each and are on sale at several places in town.

PARKING ARRANGEMENTS

The committee in charge asks the public's co-operation in not driving cars into the school of agriculture grounds. Parking will be provided on the Fair grounds just across the highway. None but official cars will be allowed on the V. S. A. grounds.

The Stagettes are in charge of refreshments at the dance.

It is estimated that the huge building erected during the war as a drill hall for the C.W.A.C., will accommodate 100 squares that is 800 dancers at one and the same time.

Truth Is Stranger Than Fiction!

Travels 1,000 Miles Too Far

The old adage that truth is stranger than fiction was proven in Vermilion this week when Mrs. Jela Plesa travelled all the way from the province of Hrwatia, Jugo Slavia, in Central Europe to join her husband at Vermilion Bay, Ontario. Owing to a mistake in the ticket office in Montreal after the lady left the boat, she was given a ticket to Vermilion, Alberta. Apparently the ticket clerk knew of Vermilion, Alberta but had never heard of Vermilion Bay in Northern Ontario.

Thus this explains how Mrs. Plesa was sitting alone and bewildered in the Vermilion C.N. depot on Monday morning. Noticed by the agent she was unable to speak a word of English. She had with her a letter but this was also written in her native tongue. Even though the hour was early the station agent thought of Harry Mazipa as an interpreter, aroused Harry from his sleep and he (Harry) was able to find out that the lady had come out to join her husband who had come to Canada 25 years ago. He was to meet her at the station. It was not until Mrs. Plesa produced a telegram from her husband that Mr. Mazipa discovered that it came from Vermilion Bay, Ont., a mining community on the C.P.R. Mrs. Plesa had travelled 1000 miles too far, had only $4 to her name, and had eaten very little for the entire five day train trip from Montreal. Harry saw to it that she ate a hearty breakfast and she then rested at the hotel while the Canadian National officials here arranged for her return journey to Vermilion Bay, Ontario to join her husband after a separation lasting twenty-five years.

Mrs. Plesa was supplied with transportation and funds by the Canadian National, and then was taken over to Wainwright by Cpl. Surby of the R.C.M.P. and put on board the transcontinental. Instructions went out from the railway company to pay particular attention to this quiet lady who had had such a strange experience, who could speak no English and who was far from home in a strange land.

NICE GOING, REG SPENCER!

Reading the announcement contained in last week's Standard regarding sale of shares in the curling club in order to finance the installation of artificial ice, Reg Spencer of Barrhead sent along his $100 and purchased four shares. This gives Reg the right to become a member of the club and to enjoy the artificial sheets. This was a very nice gesture on the part of our former citizen and is sincerely appreciated. It is hoped that in time Reg will move back here and resume his favorite sport of curling with the Vermilion club.

First Car Bingo Saturday, June 4
